ETC.

THE ONE HUNDRED AND TENTH GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF THE PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH IN THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA met in the Auditorium of the Winona Assembly Grounds, Winona Lake, Indiana, on Thursday, May 19, 1898, at 11 o'clock A.M., and, after devotional services, was opened with a sermon by the Moderator, Rev. Sheldon Jackson, D.D., LL.D., on Deut. ii. 31 : " Begin to possess, that thou mayest inherit his land."

After the sermon, the Assembly was constituted with prayer.

The Committee of Arrangements reported, recommending that the Assembly take recess until 3 P.M., and the recommendation was adopted.

The Assembly took recess, and was closed with prayer.

THURSDAY, May 19, 3 o'clock P.M.

The Assembly met, and was opened with prayer.

On the Report of the Permanent Committee on Commissions, the following ministers and elders were recognized as duly appointed Commissioners, and their names were entered on the

The Permanent Committee on Commissions reported, referring the case of the Rev. John A. Savage, D.D., to the decision of the Assembly.

The Committee on Commissions reports in the case of the Rev. John A. Savage, D.D., that the facts are that both the principal and the alternate elected by the Presbytery of Cape Fear at its meeting, April 18, 1898, are, as certified to the Committee, prevented by illness from attending the Assembly. In these circumstances, twenty members of the Presbytery out of twenty-two, including the Moderator, Stated and Permanent Clerks, petition the Assembly to receive and enroll the Rev. John A. Savage, D.D., as a Commissioner from the Presbytery of Cape Fear, the time being too short to call and hold a meeting of the Presbytery in time for the Commissioner to attend the Assembly. Your Committee respectfully recommends that the Rev. John A. Savage, D.D., be enrolled as a Commissioner to this General Assembly; and cites as a precedent the action of the Assembly of 1892 in the case of Mr. Robert Livingston, of the Presbytery of Portland (Digest of 1898, p. 590).

WILLIAM E. MOORE,
WILLIAM H. ROBERTS.

The Report was adopted.

The Rev. Wallace Radcliffe, D.D., of the Presbytery of Washington City, was elected Moderator. The election was made unanimous.

The Chairman of the Committee of Arrangements introduced the Hon. James A. Mount, Governor of the State of Indiana, who made the address of welcome, to which the Moderator responded.

The Rev. E. Trumbull Lee, D.D., on behalf of the Committee of Arrangements, presented to the Assembly a richly carved, English oak gavel, which the Moderator received with suitable response.

On the nomination of the Stated and Permanent Clerks; the Rev. Robert Hunter, D.D., of the Presbytery of Philadelphia;

Rev. F. W. Townsend, of the Presbytery of St. Lawrence; Rev. A. Judson Arrick, of the Presbytery of Ebenezer, and Elder Charles J. Merritt, of the Presbytery of Chicago, were appointed Temporary Clerks.

The General Rules for Judicatories contained in the Manual of the Assembly were adopted as the rules of business of this General Assembly.

The Stated Clerk was authorized to print the Roll of the Assembly.

The Docket was presented by the Stated Clerk, and adopted.

The Committee of Arrangements reported. The Report was adopted, and is as follows:

The Committee of Arrangements recommends that the hours of meeting each day be from 9 A.M. to 12 M. and from 2.30 to 5 P.M.; that the first half-hour of each morning session be assigned to devotional services; that the hour for the popular meetings be 7.30 P.M.; and that the Lord's Supper be celebrated this evening in the Auditorium under the direction of the following brethren: To preside, Rev. Sheldon Jackson, D.D., LL.D., of the Presbytery of Alaska; to administer the Bread, Rev. John Dixon, D.D., of the Presbytery of New Brunswick; to administer the Cup, Rev. Thomas D. Wallace, D.D., of the Presbytery of Chicago; Ruling Elders to distribute the Bread, Charles L. Brokaw, of the Presbytery of Topeka; Gov. James A. Mount, of the Presbytery of Indianapolis; Irvin B. Linton, of the Presbytery of Washington City; W. E. Bush, of the Presbytery of Ebenezer; George B. The Records of the Synods, the Reports of the Theological Seminaries and of the officers of the Assembly, all overtures, appeals and complaints, statistical reports and other papers designed for the Assembly, were called for and put into the hands of the Stated Clerk.

The Stated Clerk, in accordance with the Rule adopted by the last Assembly, presented in pamphlet form the Reports of Special Committees.

It was Resolved, That the Reports be heard successively, and that an Order of the Day be fixed for the consideration of each.

The Report of the Special Committee on The Church at Home and Abroad was presented by the Chairman, Rev. John S. MacIntosh, D.D., and was accepted. The fixing of the time for its consideration was deferred until the Report of the Committee on Authorized Missionary Periodicals should have been presented.

The Report of the Special Committee on Authorized Missionary Periodicals was presented by the Chairman, Rev. Richard S. Holmes, D.D. The Report was accepted, and its consideration and that of the Report of The Church at Home and Abroad, was made the second Order of the Day for Monday afternoon.

The Stated Clerk presented the Report of the Special Committee on the Memorial to Congress on the Liquor Traffic. The Report was accepted, approved, and is as follows:

The Committee appointed by the last General Assembly (Minutes, p. 128), to "memorialize the Congress of the United States, through the President, to appoint a Committee for the thorough and impartial investigation of the liquor traffic, for the purpose of obtaining the facts which will indicate the best method of dealing with the great evils connected therewith," respectfully reports to this Assembly. The Committee consists of the Rev. W. L. McEwan, D.D., Rev. Wallace Radcliffe, D.D., and Hon. John Wanamaker, and has to state that the following memorial was prepared, which was duly presented to the President of the United States, through the Rev. Dr. Radcliffe:

"To the President of the United States:

"HONORED SIR:—The General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America, in session at Warsaw, Indiana, May 28, 1897, appointed a Committee, whose instructions and composition are stated in the documents herewith appended:

"We, the undersigned, the Committee thus appointed, do, in the name of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America, respectfully memorialize the Congress of the United States, through your Excellency, the President of the United States, 'to appoint a Committee for the thorough and impartial investigation of the liquor traffic, and for the purpose of obtaining the facts which will indicate the best method of dealing with the great evils connected therewith.'

"The Committee would respectfully represent that the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America is composed of 7129 ministers of the Gospel, 7631 congregations, and 960,911 communicant members, representing in its adherents three and one-half millions of people.

"We would further state that the Presbyterian Church for more than a century has been earnest in its efforts to alleviate the evils of intemperance in the land.

"Praying that 'God, the Supreme Lord and King of all the world, who hath ordained civil magistrates to be under Him, over the people for His own glory and the public good,' may guide, sustain and bless you, we subscribe ourselves,

Your obedient servants,

W. L. McEWAN,
WALLACE RADCLIFFE,
JOHN WANAMAKER, Committee."

The Committee has no information as yet as to any action taken by Congress in connection with the Memorial.

Respectfully submitted in behalf of the Committee,

WM. L. MCEWAN, Chairman.

The Report of the Special Committee on Plans of Synodical Home Mission administration was presented by the Chairman, Rev. John L. Withrow, D.D. The Report was accepted and its consideration made the Order for 2.30 o'clock this afternoon.

The Report of the Special Committee on Digest was presented by the Stated Clerk, as Chairman. The Report was accepted, approved, and is as follows:

The Special Committee on the Digest respectfully reports to the General Assembly that the Committee was appointed under the following resolution:

"Resolved, That the Assembly order a new edition of the Digest to be prepared by the Board of Publication, under the supervision of the Stated Clerk and the Secretary of the Board of Publication, with Dr. W. E. Moore as Editor" (Minutes, 1894, p. 89).

The Committee hereby announces to the Assembly the completion of the Presbyterian Digest of 1898.

By authority of the General Assembly, the following rules were followed in the preparation of the volume:

1. That historical and general acts, decisions and deliverances be placed at the beginning of the Digest.

2. That the Confession of Faith be printed as a part of the Book, the doctrinal decisions and deliverances of the Assembly being placed under the appropriate chapters and sections.

In other editions, such deliverances were printed under Chap. xii, Sec. 5, of the Form of Government.

3. That the legislative and administrative acts, decisions and deliverances of the Assembly be placed under the appropriate chapters of the Form of Government, Book of Discipline and Directory for Worship.

4. That in accordance with Concurrent Declaration No. 4, of the Terms of Reunion of 1869, "no rule or precedent, which does not stand approved by both the bodies, should be of any authority, until reëstablished in the united body, except in so far as such rule or precedent may affect the rights of property founded thereon."

In conformity with this rule, and as a guide in the use of the Digest, the acts and deliverances of the two Assemblies of the Church, during the period of the separation, have been distinguished by the use of the letters O. S. and N. S.

5. That acts and deliverances which were trivial, purely personal, obsolete, contradictory or had been superseded by amendments of the Constitution, should be omitted.

The Committee has to state further, that frequent consultations were had with the editor, that close attention was given both to the manuscript and to the proofs; and that the coöperation of the Board of Publication and Sabbath-school Work was efficient and cordial.

The Committee respectfully recommends the passage of the following resolutions:

Resolved, 1. That the General Assembly hereby approves the Presbyterian Digest of 1898, and commends the same to the Church as the official record of the acts, decisions and deliverances of the Supreme Judicatories of the Church.

Resolved, 2. That the Committee be continued, with the addition of Rev. W. E. Moore, D.D., and directed to report to the next General Assembly a plan for the preparation of another Digest, to be issued in due time, and that in particular the question be considered whether it is possible to print some of the historical and administrative documents in a separate volume, so that future Digests may be less bulky.

Resolved, 3. That the cordial thanks of the General Assembly are hereby tendered to the Rev. William E. Moore, D.D., for his faithful and efficient services as the editor of the Digest.

Respectfully submitted,

WM. H. ROBERTS,
E. R. CRAVEN.

The following additional resolution, suggested by the editor of the Digest, was moved and adopted:

Resolved, That the cordial thanks of the Assembly are hereby tendered to the Rev. William H. Roberts, D.D., LL.D., for the voluntary services, long-continued labors, and friendly assistance rendered by him in the preparation and completion of the Digest.

The Stated Clerk, as Secretary of the Committee on the 250th Anniversary of the Adoption of the Westminster Standards, presented the programme of the Commemorative Exercises to be held on Thursday next. The Report was approved, and the programme ordered printed as part of the proceedings of May 26th.

The Moderator announced the following arrangements for the patriotic meeting to be held on Saturday, at 2 o'clock P.M., viz., the Rev. Charles L. Work, D.D., to preside, and Rev. David Brown, D.D., Rev. J. M. Barkley and Elder Charles J. Merritt to make addresses. The Report was approved.

The following resolution was presented and referred to the Committee on Bills and Overtures:

In view of the recent death, as announced in the papers yesterday, of the Hon. William Ewart Gladstone, Resolved, That a Committee be appointed to formulate appropriate resolutions concerning his death, to be forwarded to Her Majesty Queen Victoria, and also to Mrs. Gladstone.

The Assembly took recess, and was closed with prayer.

FRIDAY, May 20, 2.30 o'clock P.M.

The Assembly met, and was opened with prayer.

The Standing Committee on Bills and Overtures presented a Report, recommending the reference of papers, as follows:

The Committee on Bills and Overtures respectfully report to the General Assembly recommending the reference of papers put into their hands by the Stated Clerk, as follows:

To the Standing Committee on Foreign Missions.

Paper No. 28, being a petition from the Presbyterial Synod of Brazil, for the application of moneys to the evangelistic work of the Synod.

To the Standing Committee on Publication and Sabbath-school Work:

Overture No. 41, from the Presbytery of Ottawa, for the organization of Sabbath-schools into missionary organizations.

Overture No. 42, from the Presbytery of Monmouth, for the publication in the Hymnal of the Directory for Worship and the Shorter Catechism.

Overture No. 43, from the Presbytery of Steubenville, on literature and music for Children's Day.

To the Standing Committee on Temperance:

Overtures Nos. 44, from the Synod of South Dakota, on Princeton University; 45, from the Presbytery of Chillicothe, on the Princeton Inn; 46, from the Presbytery of Indianapolis, on the prohibition of the liquor traffic in the Territories, and 47, from the Presbytery of Wooster, on temperance and colleges.

To the Standing Committee on Theological Seminaries:

Overture No. 10, from the Presbytery of Carlisle, on teaching the Standards of the Church in theological seminaries.

The Permanent Committee on Commissions reported the following additional Commissioners, and their names were enrolled: Minister—William W. Curry, of the Presbytery of Albany; Ruling Elders—Joseph S. Osborne, of the Presbytery of Long Island; William H. Wilson, of the Presbytery of Larned; I. T. Moulton, of the Presbytery of Platte.

The Assembly proceeded to the Order of the Day, the consideration of the Report of the Special Committee on Plans of Synodical Home Mission Administration. The Report was adopted, and the Committee discharged with the thanks of the Assembly. The Report is as follows:

The Special Committee appointed by the last General Assembly on Plans of Synodical Home Mission Administration respectfully reports to this General Assembly as follows:

The action of the Assembly appointing the Committee is found on pages 84 and 85 of the Minutes for 1897, and reads:

"Paper No. 52, being an Overture from the Board of Home Missions on the appointment of a Committee to consider the various plans of Synodical Home Missions, and Paper No. 71, being the fifth resolution of the Report of the Committee of Nine referred by the Assembly to this Committee. It is recommended that the following resolution be adopted:

"Resolved, That a Committee of fifteen be appointed by the Moderator, upon which there shall be at least one representative of every Synodical Plan now in operation, and one of the Home Board, the balance of the members to be composed of representatives of the remaining Home Missionary interests of the country at large. This Committee shall examine the subject, so as to report to the next Assembly, in a manner defining general principles, and also, if possible, formulating general methods to harmonize and unify the various plans of Synodical self-support. Adopted."

Resolution No. 5, of the Report of the Committee of Conference with the Board of Home Missions referred to in the above action, dealt with "the best methods of promoting harmony and coöperation between the Board of Home Missions and Presbyteries and Synods desiring to support and control their own work."

The members of the Committee, as appointed by the Moderator of the Assembly, were as follows: Ministers—John L. Withrow, D.D., Synod of Illinois; John Dixon, D.D., Synod of New Jersey; W. P. Kane, D.D., Synod of Illinois; John S. McIntosh, D.D., Synod of Pennsylvania; Samuel J. Niccolls, D.D., Synod of Missouri; J. McCluskey Blayney, D.D., Synod of Kentucky; R. M. Hayes, Synod of Oregon; John McC. Holmes, D.D., Synod of New York; D. S. Tappan, D.D., Synod of Ohio; William H. Logan, Synod of Baltimore; George L. Spining, D.D., Board of Home Missions; Ruling Elders—Hon.

James A. Mount, Synod of Indiana; Hon. Charles E. Vanderburgh, Synod of Minnesota; Hon. Victor H. Lane, Synod of Michigan; Mr. John B. Minnis, Synod of Tennessee, with the Stated Clerk, under the rule of the Assembly, as Secretary of the Committee.

After the adjournment of the Assembly, the following changes occurred in the membership of the Committee: Dr. J. McClellan Holmes declined to serve, owing to infirm health, and the Moderator appointed in his place Rev. John R. Davies, D.D. Hon. Charles E. Vanderburgh departed this life on March 3, 1898, and the Moderator appointed as his successor the Rev. John Eaton, D.D. The Committee place on record their sorrow over Judge Vanderburgh's death, and their high appreciation of the services rendered by him to the Church.

At an early date after our appointment the Chairman of the Committee issued a circular containing a considerable series of comprehensive questions, designed to secure the views of brethren specially interested in Home Missions. Over a hundred replies were received from representative men, and the Committee was furnished with these as data.

The Committee held two meetings, one at Indianapolis, Ind., on November 11 and 12, 1897, when all the members were present, and where the subjects referred to them were carefully considered. A sub-Committee was appointed to present material for final action. A second meeting was held in the city of New York, March 10 and 11, 1898. All the members were present with the exception of Mr. John B. Minnis, of Tennessee. To this meeting the sub-Committee of five, which had been in session March 8 and 9, reported. The full Committee held an extended conference with the Board of Home Missions on March 10. The Secretary, as well as various members of the Board, were heard by the Committee, and after frank and full consideration of the general interests of the Home Mission work, and in particular of the various plans of Synodical self-support, the Committee reached conclusions which it is believed, if adopted by the Assembly, will harmonize and unify the entire Home Mission work. That such unification is necessary is self-evident, and harmony is an indispensable feature of highly successful work. While different views were held by members of the Committee, and while some features of the report may not express all the views of particular persons or certain ecclesiastical bodies, yet the Committee feel that the resolutions submitted, when approved by the General Assembly, will conserve the best interests, both of the Board of Home Missions and of the several Synods. Without compromising what either the Board or particular Synods have considered essential to successful home missionary enterprise, your Committee have, with practical unanimity, reached a basis for coöperation, which, it is believed, will receive the approval of both; and the more so, that the power of superintendence vested by the Constitution in the General Assembly is recognized and announced.

The Committee submit the following resolutions for adoption:

Whereas, The work of Home Missions, as undertaken by the General Assembly through the Home Board, is national in its character; and,

Whereas, In that work all parts of the Church should have the liveliest interest and should contribute towards its support according to the full measure of their ability; and,

Whereas, Certain Synods by the authority of the General Assembly (Minutes General Assembly, 1883, p. 20) have entered upon plans of Synodical Sustentation under which they are carrying on the work of Home Missions within their own bounds: therefore,

Resolved, 1. That the Synods now self-supporting, or which may hereafter become self-supporting, be encouraged to continue their work according to the method found most efficient by them, and that the stronger Synods be stimulated to make increasingly large contributions through the Board for the general work beyond their bounds.

Resolved, 2. That in order to preserve and manifest to the Church the unity of the whole work, each Synod having a Plan of Synodical Work shall be required on or before the 31st of March annually to present a full statistical Report to the Board of Home Missions of the Home Missionary work carried on within its bounds; that this Report shall be incorporated in the Annual Report of the Board to the General Assembly, and that forms for this purpose shall be prepared by the Board.

Resolved, 3. That each Synod having Synodical Plans of work shall be required on or before the first day of April of each year to report to the Board of Home Missions the amount of money it proposes to expend upon its field the ensuing year; and all other Synods a like report of the sums which they each desire to have appropriated for their fields; one copy of each of these estimates shall be forwarded at that date to the Home Board, and one to the Stated Clerk of the General Assembly, to be a part of the matter on Home Missions, which the General Assembly shall review and approve or disapprove.

Resolved, 4. That with regard to Synods which have not adopted a plan of Synodical control, the Home Board shall have the right to modify and equalize the amounts asked for, if necessary, so that there shall be an equitable distribution among these Synods according to their necessities and importance, and the appropriation shall be made in bulk to each Synod on the basis of the estimated contributions and expenditures furnished by the respective Presbyteries; the estimate of the amounts to be expended for Home Missions during a given year shall be carefully considered by the Board of Home Missions, and the Board shall report to the General Assembly the amounts assigned to the various Synods, and such other recommendations as may seem desirable for the Assembly's consideration and decision.

Resolved, 5. That the general policy of the Church should be in the future, as it has been all through the past, to secure an offering from each church directly to the Board of Home Missions; but we recognize the fact that there may be exceptions to this method, and that in specific cases the same aid may be loyally and fully extended to the Board by other methods.

Resolved, 6. That the Secretary and representatives of the Home Board should cordially coöperate with all our churches, and the churches with them, and that the literature of the Board should be freely circulated everywhere throughout our bounds, whatever the plans in operation by the approval of the General Assembly.

Respectfully submitted,
By order of the Committee,
JOHN L. WITHROW, Chairman.

SHELDON JACKSON, Chairman.

The Report was adopted.

The Moderator announced as additional members of the Special Committee on Sabbath Observance: Ministers—Barton W. Perry, Ph.D., William H. McCaughey, D.D., N. G. Parke, D.D.; Ruling Elders—Henry Parsons and Thomas H. Dickson.

It was Resolved, That a Committee be appointed to present suitable resolutions at the patriotic meeting this afternoon, and that said Committee consist of the Hon. G. W. Hulick, A. Noel Blakeman, Esq., and the Rev. W. C. Roberts, D.D.

The Standing Committee on Ministerial Relief presented its Report, which was accepted, and after addresses by the Rev. B. L. Agnew, D.D., Secretary; Rev. Henry C. McCook, D.D., Chairman of the Committee, and others, was adopted, and is as follows:

The Standing Committee on Ministerial Relief begs leave to present the following resolutions and recommendations:

1. The Assembly learns with pleasure that the Board of Ministerial Relief has entered its convenient and beautiful quarters in the Witherspoon Building, Philadelphia; and while congratulating this Board upon the change, acknowledges its obligation to the Board of Publication and Sabbath-school Work, and to the friends who have contributed the office furnishings, thus enabling the Board of Ministerial Relief to enter its new home without drawing upon its funds.

2. The Assembly notes with great satisfaction the increase in the number of contributing churches during the past year, there having been 594 more than any previous year; also the increase in contributions which has enabled the Board to close this fiscal year without debt, and at the same time pay to its annuitants the amount of the twenty-five per cent. reduction which it had been necessary to announce a year ago. The collections have been greater during the past year by $9073.42 from churches and Sabbath-schools, and by $1820.50 from individuals, an aggregate increase of $10,893.92 over last year. There have also been received unrestricted legacies amounting to $27,893.74. The last-named source of income is an inconstant quantity and cannot be relied upon. The only certain source, outside of the interest upon the Permanent Fund, is the healthy and regular increase in the gifts of the living Church to meet the increasing demands of the work.

3. The churches are reminded that the Permanent Fund of over one and one-half million of dollars, large as it seems, furnishes less than one-half the required income for the aid of annuitants, viz., $69,123, leaving $109,847 to be raised by the churches. While the income from invested funds is subject to decrease, following the general tendency of investments, the advancing yearly increase in the payments of the Board has been nearly $6000 ($5856). It is therefore manifest that the possession of an endowment cannot absolve the churches from the continued urgency for increased liberality.

4. The Assembly is constrained to call serious attention to the startling fact that during the decade between 1888 and 1897, the number of annuitants increased from 564 to 835, sixty-seven and seven-tenths per cent. The amount contributed by the churches, on the contrary, decreased from $98,922 per year to $74,091, or about twenty-five per cent. It is plain that unless this great disproportion between the two factors of demand and supply shall be overcome by increasing gifts, either the number of annuitants or the amount appropriated to them must be diminished. Even the increase of the current fiscal year does not break the force of this alarming statement, for the number of annuitants has grown from 835 in 1897 to 875 in 1898, involving an expenditure nearly equal to the increase in Church contributions.

5. In view of these facts the Assembly most earnestly and affectionately asks the Synods, Presbyteries, Sessions, and especially the pastors of churches, to consider the facts printed in the Annual Report of the Board, and to give a full presentation of them in the judicatories of the Church and before the people. It is believed that if the congregations were informed of the exact condition of things, and of the imperative need for increasingly large collections, the Board of Ministerial Relief would be able to care adequately for the aged and honored ministers and missionaries and their dependent households. No cause could appeal more tenderly to the hearts and consciences of the people. The Assembly urges pastors to preach upon this subject, and to enforce the claims of our Church's venerable and helpless wards; and it is believed that the facts will appeal potently to the generosity of hearers.

6. The Assembly also urges pastors to call attention to the fact that the work of the Board of Ministerial Relief is not confined exclusively to ministering to men. Among the annuitants, the ministering women, missionaries both home and foreign, and the widows of clergymen, considerably outnumber the men. Here is a field wherein "woman's work for women" may have abundant exercise. While money is the chief requirement, boxes of clothing and household supplies will go far to piece out the scanty income of many families.

7. The Assembly commends the course of the Board in securing a thorough audit of its books, by expert professional accountants, and is gratified that the report of the experts, extending over two fiscal years, ending March 31, 1898, shows that the accounts of the Treasurer have been carefully, correctly and creditably kept. This gives assurance of the security of the Permanent Fund, and that the Church's current contributions will be cared for with fidelity.

8. The Assembly notes with regret that the sad event foreshadowed by the sickness of the Emeritus Secretary, Dr. William C. Cattell, has befallen, and that this eminent father of the Church and faithful Secretary of the Board of Ministerial Relief, and devoted friend of its helpless, venerable dependents, has fallen on sleep. Attention is called to the commemorative resolutions adopted by the Board and printed in this year's Report (p. 13), and the Assembly expresses cordial sympathy with the members thereof in the great loss sustained by it and by the Church, in the removal from earth of this beloved servant of God and helper of his fellow-men. To Dr. Cattell, the Board of Ministerial Relief is indebted, in large degree, for the present healthful state of its finances and the deep and tender interest felt in its work. The movement to promote especial interest among elders in the Board's work was one of his happy thoughts, and went far to deepen sympathy throughout the Church and a sense of responsibility toward its superannuated ministers and their families. Although the Assembly of last year fully expressed its appreciation of this man greatly beloved, this Assembly is prompted to render this tribute to one who has done such worthy service to the Church, and to its most dependent wards. "Inasmuch as ye have done it unto one of the least of these, my brethren, ye have done it unto me."

9. The Committee would call the Assembly's attention to the following By-Laws, printed on p. 10 of the Report, which relate simply to the routine work of the various Committees of the Board, and would respectfully recommend approval of the same :

SEC. III. (1) The Committee on Applications shall consist of five members. It shall be the duty of this Committee to examine all new applications for aid, and to report whether they have been made in conformity with the regulations of the Board, and whether the amount of aid recommended by Presbyteries may be granted, having proper regard for the ability of the Board and the need of the applicant comparatively with other cases of need aided by the Board.

(2). The Committee shall also watch over renewal of applications for aid, and report if there be cases where the amount of aid originally granted and still applied for should be reduced, or discontinued.

SEC. IV. The Ministers' House Committee shall consist of five members, and shall have general supervision of the House and grounds and the household administration; they shall determine and report to the Board upon the applications for admission to the House and on removals therefrom; they shall confer and advise with the matron and the guests of the House on matters touching the order and comfort of the family; they shall authorize necessary expenditures for the maintenance, repairs, alterations and improvement of the House and grounds, provided the cost thereof in any given case does not exceed three hundred dollars; they shall procure and keep in order all needed furniture, and buy food and all other supplies of proper quality and quantity; and shall audit the accounts of expenditures by subordinate officers, not directly authorized by the Committee.

10. The Committee having carefully examined the Minutes of the Board finds them correct and kept with unusual care, and recommends their approval by the General Assembly.

11. It is recommended that the following members, whose terms expire at this meeting of the Assembly, be reëlected, viz., Rev. Henry E. Niles, D.D., Rev. Marcus A. Brownson, D.D., George Junkin, Esq., LL.D., A. Charles Barclay, Esq.; also, that the following new members be elected, viz., Francis Olcott

Allen, Esq., of Philadelphia, to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of Mr. Robert C. Ogden; and Robert H. Smith, Esq., of Baltimore, Md., to fill the place of Mr. Joseph M. Collingwood, resigned on account of the condition of his health.

In behalf of the Committee,

HENRY C. McCOOK, Chairman.

The following telegram was received from the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States:

MONDAY, May 23, 9 o'clock A.M.

The Assembly met, and was opened with devotional services.

The Minutes of Saturday's sessions were read and approved.

The Rev. H. F. Olmstead offered a series of resolutions relating to the subject of union with the Presbyterian Church in the United States. The resolutions were referred to the Standing Committee on Bills and Overtures.

The Standing Committee on Home Missions presented a partial Report, asking the reference of the second part of the Overture from the Presbytery of Palmyra to the Standing Committee on Church Polity. The reference was made by the Assembly.

The Standing Committee on Freedmen presented its Report, which was accepted, and after addresses by Rev. Willard K. Spencer, D.D., Chairman; Rev. E. P. Cowan, D.D., Secretary, and others, was adopted:

The Standing Committee on Freedmen, to whom was referred the Thirty-third Annual Report of the Board of Missions for Freedmen, would respectfully report, that they have examined the Records of the meetings of the Board for the past year, that the printed Report as presented to the General Assembly has been carefully studied, and that conference has been held with the Secretary, members of the Board and persons connected with the schools under the Board's care. Upon information thus gained, the following statements are based:

The Board deserves commendation for its earnest attempt to realize the hope expressed a year ago, that the debt resting upon it might be diminished. Economy has been exercised to the extreme limit in every department of the work. In administration, expense has been reduced as much as possible, the Board continuing to dispense with the services of the Treasurer and Field Secretary, while in the field itself all growth has been forbidden. No churches have been organized, fourteen schools have been closed, the school year has been shortened from eight months to six, even necessary repairs upon property have not been made, because there was no money with which to make them. Nor is this simply the story of one year. The Board has spent less the last year than in any of the nine years preceding. And still the debt has not been reduced. It has even been increased $1787, for the reason that the Board's income from all sources has also been less than in any of the nine preceding years. During the past year the Board has received from all sources $128,900, a part of which was to be invested in the Permanent Fund, or was designated for some work not expected by the Board, and yet of such a nature that no objection could be made. It had cash on hand April 1, 1897, $1413.47, making the total of money in its treasury for the year, $130,313.47. During the same time it has expended for all purposes, including the payment of annuities and investment of gifts for the Permanent Fund, $131,515.96, and had April 1, 1898, cash on hand, $585.01. It reports a present debt of $58,062.50. This situation is a great disappointment, but cannot be charged as a reproach against the Board. The Presbyterian Church is the party at fault. It has not supplied the funds and must not attempt to shift the responsibility from its shoulders. The debt with which we are confronted to-day is the accumulated consequence of many years of the Church's apathy. In 1893 the debt stood at $25,000, and since then it has been growing at the average rate of $6000. The last year's deficit of $1787 is due to the unusual decrease in legacies, some $2000 less having been received from this source than in any of the last ten years. And it is but just to say that had certain legacies, which were in process of payment when the year closed, been received by the Board, the balance would have been upon the credit side of the book. These deferred payments will be made this present year.

Other encouragement may be found in the fact that 4490 churches have directly or through their various societies contributed to the Board this year. This is a gain of 232 over last year. The directly contributing churches were 3837, a gain of 198; Woman's Societies, 2124, a gain of 319; Young People's Societies, 365, a gain of 109; and Sunday-schools, 549, a gain of 80. The increase in money received from these sources was $6138.70. The amount given on the field for self-support, which has not passed through the Board's treasury, was $65,975.01, from the following sources: from the Freedmen's churches, $34,562.57; from tuition of pupils in the Freedmen's schools, $31,412.44.

Enough has been said to show two things. First, by severe retrenchment the Board has reached a self-supporting basis. With its present income it cannot enlarge its work, but the work as now carried on can be maintained, if the debt be paid. Second, further retrenchment cannot be made without periling the very existence of the Board. Churches might indeed be closed, and congregations left without the preaching of the Gospel, and so the $10 or $15 a month that the Board gives toward the salary of the preacher might be saved. Parochial schools might be abandoned, and children robbed of their only means of gaining the rudiments of education. We might shut our higher schools and send back to ignorance, superstition and immorality the young men and women who have been gathered for training as the future leaders of their people. But this is abandonment rather than prosecution of the work. And such a course will never be thought of by the Presbyterian Church. The only question to be considered is, How shall the existing debt be paid and the work wisely carried on?

Before the Committee would attempt an answer to this question there are other matters that deserve attention.

Last year the Assembly was informed that "Barber Memorial Institute" had been burned. At once the same munificence that originally built the structure began the labor of rebuilding. Mrs. Barber, through her brother, Rev. George A. Marr, who previously superintended the work, restored the burned building without expense to the Board, and by January 1, 1898, the school was reopened in the new building, which in many respects is better than the former one. The thanks of the Church are due to these two generous givers for this fresh manifestation of their love.

Acknowledgment should also be made of the fact that Dr. Beacom, the former Treasurer of the Board, continues to give his valuable services without pay as a labor of love. The labors of Mrs. C. E. Coulter and Miss Mary E. Holmes among the women of the Church deserve mention in this Report. And the women of the entire Church should receive the thanks of the Assembly for the assistance they have given the past year, the Board having received from them $45,108, as compared with $41,491 in 1896–7.

Biddle University and the work at large has suffered severe loss by the death, December 15, 1897, of Prof. William H. Brooks, one of the most efficient members of the faculty of the university. The Board has been restrained by stern economy from filling his place, his work being carried by the remaining professors through the school year.

We summarize the work of the Board in 1897–8 as follows: Ministers under its care, 187; churches and missions, 322; members added on examination, 1680; members added by certificate, 240; whole number of members, 18,947; Sabbath-schools, 322; Sabbath-school scholars, 18,121; day and boarding-schools, 53; teachers, 200; pupils, 8045.

How shall the debt be raised? To abandon the work is disloyal both to the nation and to Christ. There are ten million Negroes in our land. Three hundred colored children are born every day to American citizenship, the grandest yet most responsible heritage that ever comes to any human being. For the nation's sake these ten millions must be educated. The Christ who died for them demands that they be given the Gospel of His love. To allow the debt to continue impeding the labors of the Board is unnecessary, unbusiness-like and a confession of indifference or impotence. The money paid for interest alone would open twenty churches at new points. The debt must be paid, but by what method? And right here some very significant facts stare us in the face. It was spoken of as a cause of thankfulness that 4490 churches—a gain over last year of 232—had directly or indirectly contributed to the Freedmen's cause. But when it is said that 3800 churches made no direct offerings, and 3200 churches did not contribute in any manner to the Board, the volume of our thanks shrinks not a little. It will, of course, be admitted that many of these non-contributing churches are small—perhaps are pastorless. But a study of the Minutes of 1897 has caused the Committee large surprise. By no means a small percentage of the churches that have contributed nothing directly or indirectly to this cause are strong and well manned. And in many other cases the contribution is pitifully small, evidently made for the sake of filling the blank.

Take for example the record of two Presbyteries chosen at random. In one the only church which reported no contribution to Freedmen had nearly 1500 members, while some other fairly strong churches in the Presbytery gave as follows:

A church of 210 members gave $4, a church of 257 members gave $4, a church of 400 members gave $5, a church of 119 members gave $2, a church of 380 members gave $3, a church of 222 members gave $9, a church of 750 members gave $5.

In the other Presbytery among the churches contributing nothing to the Board of Freedmen were the following:

A church of 249 members, a church of 103 members, a church of 1215 members, a church of 673 members, a church of 441 members, a church of 107 members, a church of 400 members, a church of 791 members, a church of 148 members.

Some of the other churches in this Presbytery making nominal contributions to the Board were of the following strength:

A church of 400 members gave $15, a church of 281 members gave $2, a church of 200 members gave $5, a church of 989 members gave $5, a church of 311 members gave $2, a church of 334 members gave $12, a church of 298 members gave $5, a church of 1218 members gave $15.

Evidently facts do not justify the assertion that all the non-supporting churches are either weak or without a pastor. Now if by any method the latent power of this part of our denomination can be developed and applied to the support of the Board, the question of the debt will have been solved, and a permanent addition made to the Board's ability to carry on its work. Look at the question from a different point of view. An average contribution of twenty cents from each of the 960,000 members of the Church will wipe out the debt, and in addition provide ample means for the year's work at the present rate of expenditure. Twenty cents a member is all the Board will ask from each congregation for the whole work among ten million colored people. And to raise this twenty cents a member each congregation can combine its Sabbath offerings, the gifts of its Sabbath-school and its Young People's Society and the contribution of its Women's Missionary Society. The task is manifestly within our power. Surely the Church needs but to be summoned to the task—to see the duty clearly set before it, and the labor fairly apportioned among the workers—to have a leader who shall be patient, persistent and enthusiastic, and the work will be accomplished. The leader we already have in the efficient Secretary of the Board, who waits for authority and orders from this Assembly. As to methods, your Committee believes that success will be found by utilizing the Presbyterial Committees—making strenuous effort to reach the non-contributing and nominally contributing churches—apportioning definite amounts to individual Presbyteries, and through them to the local congregations, and taking as a campaign cry, "An average offering of twenty cents a member from every congregation of the Church."

We would present the following plan of campaign simply by way of suggestion, and doubtless to be modified by the greater wisdom of the Board as occasion might require.

As soon as possible after the adjournment of this Assembly, let the Secretary of the Board enter into personal correspondence with the Chairmen of the Presbyterial Committees, and obtain from them promise of hearty coöperation with him in the effort to raise the needed funds to pay the debt and carry on the work for the ensuing year. Let the sum to be raised be fixed by adding the amount of the debt to the expenditures of last year. Let the Secretary apportion this amount to the individual Presbyteries on the basis of their membership, and let each Presbyterial Committee secure the authority of its Presbytery at the fall meeting, to further apportion the amount among the churches, not by way of assessment, but as the minimum contribution requested of them by the Board. Let this effort be urged as one in which the whole denomination is engaged, and let appeal be made to the pride of the local congregation to do its share in the common work, by contributing at least an average of twenty cents a member. Let the Presbyterial Committee secure from each pastor or Session a pledge to use the literature of the Board in making the offering, as well as the date when such offering is to be made. Then by correspondence with the Board let the Committee see to it that a sufficient number of leaflets and envelopes is sent to each congregation at least three weeks before the appointed time. On January 1, 1899, let the Secretary send to each Presbyterial Committee a list of all the churches in that Presbytery which have contributed to the Board during the fiscal year, together with the sums contributed, in order that a second appeal may be made to such congregations as have not already done their part.

This plan is merely tentative; but your Committee believes that if some such definite and business-like method be adopted and thoroughly worked, the Church will respond and the Board will report to the Assembly next year that the debt has been paid.

The Committee would make the following recommendations:

1. That the Minutes of the Board for 1897–8 be approved by the Assembly.

2. That Rev. Solon Cobb, D.D., Rev. David R. Breed, D.D., Mr. George Logan and Mr. S. P. Harbison, members of the Board whose terms of office expire with this Assembly, be reëlected as their own successors.

3. That the Board of Freedmen be instructed to conduct its work during the present year within the limit of last year's expenditures.

4. That the Board, acting through the Presbyterial Committees, make enthusiastic and persistent effort to secure an offering from every congregation in the Church, equaling at least an average of twenty cents from each communicant.

All of which is respectfully submitted,

WILLARD K. SPENCER, Chairman.

The Stated Clerk presented to the General Assembly a gavel made of wood taken from the pulpit of the Rehoboth Church, Presbytery of New Castle, from which the Rev. Francis Makemie preached. The gavel was received with thanks by the Moderator.

The Special Committee on Sabbath Observance presented its amended Report, which, after an address by the Rev. I. W. Hathaway, D.D., was accepted and adopted, and is as follows:

Your Special Committee on Sabbath Observance would respectfully report that the present condition of the Sabbath question in the United States of America is one of very serious import.

The current of Sabbath desecration has been swollen by many rivulets into a mighty flood that appears to be augmented year by year, especially during this last decade of the nineteenth century, and threatens to sweep away our distinctively American Sabbath.

The fourth commandment rests lightly upon the masses of the people.

The standard of Sabbath observance has been constantly lowered, year by year, until the American Sabbath of the early part of the century has largely given place to the Continental Sabbath in many parts of our land.

That which fifty years ago would have shocked and scandalized the community now receives the approbation and indorsement of, not only the non-Christian, but a large portion of the professed Christian population.

Many of the younger generation have no knowledge or conception of the sacred character of the Sabbath as it was understood and observed during the last and the first half of the present century.

By many of our people at the present time the standard of Sabbath Observance, instead of being found in the Decalogue, is found in personal convenience, the interests of worldly gain and sensuous pleasure, and is one of expediency rather than of principle.

In a considerable portion of the business world the Sabbath is observed not because it is the law of God, but only because of the necessities of labor. Not because "Thus saith the Lord," but because thus saith the tired tissues of brawn and brain.

We believe that the real cause of this growing disregard for the Lord's day is found in a latent infidelity, that is careless of obedience to any and all divine law, in a conscious and sometimes an unconscious unbelief that deadens the conscience, destroys faith in God, and saps the spiritual life of the people.

The manifestations of these conditions of faith are found not at first in the more heinous vices and abhorrent crimes, but in Sabbath desecration which is the initial sin of a ruined life.

The first break in the dyke of the Divine Law which holds back the floods of immorality and vice is usually a secularized Sabbath.

Sabbath desecration is the beginning of the end. It is first a careless regard for the Sabbath, and then follow church desertion, a closed Bible, and a forgotten God.

Sabbath observance holds the central line of the forces arrayed against all evil.

Here is where Satan often makes his first attack and where he gains his first victory.

Carefully compiled statistics gathered by many years of experience by a chaplain of a Maryland penitentiary show that ninety out of every one hundred convicts testified that the beginning of their downward course was in Sabbath desecration.

What is true of the individual is true of the community and of the nation.

Sabbath observance in obedience to the Scriptural standard kept as a sacred day for rest and divine worship, is the key of the citadel of our home, church and national life.

We therefore earnestly recommend that this General Assembly shall give to this vital question the attention which its importance demands, not only by calling attention to the real dangers that threaten this divinely ordered and graciously given day of rest and worship, but by urging upon our people the necessity of an aggressive warfare upon the allied forces making for its destruction.

The following resolutions are presented for adoption:

Resolved, 1. The General Assembly reaffirms that the law of the Sabbath is a law of perpetual binding obligation upon all men.

Resolved, 2. That we call upon all members of our churches, members of Young People's Societies and Sabbath-schools, together with all friends of God's law, to use their personal influence for the Biblical observance of the day, by abstaining from the purchase and reading of the Sunday newspaper, from all riding, or driving, for pleasure or recreation, on the Lord's day, from all forms of amusement, from unnecessary work, traveling or visiting, and from all things that are prejudicial to holiness.

Resolved, 3. That we most earnestly recommend to the Directors of the Trans-Mississippi Exposition, to be opened at Omaha, Neb., on June 1, immediately to decide that its doors shall not be opened to the public on the Lord's day, and that a certified copy of this resolution, properly authenticated by the signature of the Stated Clerk, shall be entrusted to the Sabbath Observance Committee for presentation to said Directors.

Resolved, 4. That while the ministers of the Presbyterian Church are to be commended for their faithful presentation of the truth concerning the claims and obligations of the Sabbath, they are reminded of the necessity of renewed diligence in its defense and proper observance.

Resolved, 5. That the American Sabbath Union and the Woman's National Sabbath Alliance, societies organized for the purpose of enlisting all Christian men and women in the work of conserving the American Sabbath and also to organize auxiliary societies, and for the distribution of Sabbath literature, and to use all methods for the quickening of the public conscience, and awakening interest for the promotion of the Biblical Christian Sabbath, receive our cordial indorsement and approval.

Resolved, 6. That we earnestly recommend that each pastor in our communion, on some Sabbath in the month of October next, preach a sermon on some phase of this vital question of Sabbath Observance, and either at that time or at the succeeding midweek meeting secure an offering from the people for the work of the American Sabbath Union, the proceeds of which to be sent to the Treasurer, Col. A. S. Bacon, 3 Wall street, New York.

Resolved, 7. That the Board of Publication and Sabbath-school Work be requested to prepare a lesson specifically on Sabbath Observance, and that our Sabbath-school superintendents be requested to use the same on review day, September 25 next, or, if more convenient, upon one Sabbath in the month of October.

Resolved, 8. That the Assembly's Special Committee on Sabbath Observance be continued, and that the foregoing resolutions be read by pastors from their pulpits at an early date.

All of which is respectfully submitted for the Committee,

I. W. HATHAWAY.

The Report of the Standing Committee on Church Erection was made the Order of the Day for 10 o'clock, on Friday morning.

Elder Robert H. Hinckley was appointed counsel for the Rev. Clarence W. Backus, in his appeal vs. the Synod of Kansas.

The Assembly took recess, and was closed with prayer.

MONDAY, May 23, 2.30 o'clock P.M.

The Assembly met, and was opened with prayer.

In view of the fact that the Rev. Henry C. McCook, D.D., has been called for service in his regiment as Chaplain, and must therefore leave the Assembly to-morrow,

It was Resolved, That Dr. McCook be given time to present the cause of the Presbyterian Historical Society to-morrow morning, immediately after the reading of the Minutes, and that in his absence his place on the programme of the 250th Anniversary of the Adoption of the Westminster Standards be filled by the Moderator.

The Standing Committee on Education presented its Report, which was accepted, and, after addresses by the Rev. Thomas D. Wallace, D.D., Chairman; the Rev. Edward B. Hodge, D.D., Secretary, and others, was adopted, and is as follows:

Your Committee desires, first of all, to commend, as a whole, the brief and admirable Report of the Board of Education, being its Seventy-ninth Annual Report to the General Assembly.

Fitting allusion is made in the Report to the death of the Rev. Dr. D. W. Poor, for so many years the devoted friend of ministerial education and the efficient Corresponding Secretary of the Board up to 1893. An appropriate minute also occurs in the Records of the Board, expressing its high appreciation of his character and services.

Your Committee also notes with sorrow the loss sustained by the Board in the death of one of its oldest members, Mr. Andrew Blair, of whose long and valuable services the Board in its record makes loving recognition.

In a careful review of this Annual Report, your Committee finds and marks several tokens of improved conditions, for which it desires to make grateful acknowledgment to Jesus Christ, the great Head of the Church:

1. A slight increase in the income of the Board from all sources, in spite of the continued prevailing financial depression.

2. A gain of ninety-nine over the preceding year in the number of churches contributing to this Board, showing a total aggregate increase in the past four years of 378 churches.

3. A slight increase also in the amount given to the individual students, and the prospect that for the coming year this aid will be increased to $80 for each student as against $70 last year, and $60 the year before.

4. The disposition manifested by some individuals, churches and Sabbath-schools, to provide scholarships for individual candidates, tending to a more generous provision, to increased contributions, and to a deeper personal interest in the candidates.

5. That the indebtedness of the Board has been reduced during the year by the sum of $1500, leaving the debt April 1, 1898, $7720.75.

6. That at the beginning of the year the Board entered their new and beautiful rooms at the Witherspoon Building, provided by the Board of Publication, and with no expense to the Board of Education, which is gratefully acknowledged.

There are, on the other hand, a few things which your Committee notes with regret:

1. The continual decrease in the number of new candidates that the Board is able to take under its care, so that only 153 new students were accepted during the past year, making with "renewals" a total of 814 granted aid as against 911 the year before.

2. The meagreness of the amount of aid which the Board finds it possible to give to each candidate making application.

3. That which is chiefly the cause of these two matters of regret, namely, the large number of churches which have made no offering whatever during the past year; for, while there has been a gradual gain during the past four years in the number of contributing churches, for which we are profoundly grateful, there are still 4108 churches which made no offering during the past year, or more than half of the 7631 churches reported on the roll of the General Assembly's Minutes.

This ought not to be, and for this your Committee believes that the pastors and ruling elders are largely responsible. Your Committee hopes that the annual gain above noted in the number of contributing churches will go steadily on, until every church shall make an annual offering. Then the urgent needs of the Board will be abundantly met.

We desire also to call the attention of the General Assembly to the conference had during the year between this Board and the Corresponding Secretaries of the Foreign Board, touching the degree of encouragement to be given young men offering their services as medical missionaries.

The result of this conference, as summed up on page 7 of the Annual Report, is to the mind of your Committee wholly satisfactory, as the demand for medical missionaries seems to be limited at present to an average of about two men each year, and can be easily supplied from the large number of applicants without the necessity of making provision for aiding candidates during their course of study.

Your Committee also desires to call the attention of the Assembly to the Treasurer's Report, that it may answer a criticism and offer a suggestion. The criticism has been made and urged that the expense of administration of this Board is too great in proportion to the amount of contributions received. It is said that business men in some quarters decline to contribute and oppose church contributions on this account. It should be borne in mind:

1. That the expense of administration decreases proportionately as the contributions increase; that the paid officers and clerk of this Board, as to quality and force, are absolutely necessary, but they could equally well take care of the interests of this work if the contributions were doubled, and the work thus enlarged, and we suggest that the easiest way to reduce the ratio of expense to contributions would be to double the latter.

2. It must be remembered and emphasized that the administration expense of such a work as this covers and includes much besides the mere handling of money and the keeping of accounts. It includes besides, that which is of supreme importance, the personal care and thought to be given by the Corresponding Secretary to each individual case of nearly one thousand candidates, scattered throughout the land, in thirteen academies, sixty-seven colleges and fifteen theological institutions, and representing about 170 Presbyteries. Few of us fully appreciate the wisdom, tact and patience required, carefully and efficiently to carry on this work; and your Committee gratefully recognizes the devotion and large-hearted service of our honored Corresponding Secretary, Edward B. Hodge, D.D.

Your Committee is of the opinion that this work is really economically administered, and that the absolute expense of administration is exceedingly small, and that an analysis and separation of the Treasurer's accounts would show practically a large percentage of decrease in the expense of administration, properly so-called. We suggest, therefore, that the Treasurer might properly take this matter under consideration, and might suggest to the Board such a readjustment of accounts.

Your Committee would offer, besides, the following recommendations:

1. That the Minutes of the Board and the Report of the Treasurer be approved.

2. That the following members of the Board, whose term of service expires with this Assembly, be reëlected: John S. Mac-

Intosh, D.D., Hughes O. Gibbons, D.D., George H. Stuart, Jr., Rudolph S. Walton and A. A. Shumway; that John Sparhawk Jones, D.D., be elected to fill the place of Irwin P. McCurdy, D.D., removed to Kansas City; that the election of William H. Burnett, Esq., to fill the place of Mr. Andrew Blair, deceased, in the class whose term of service expires in 1899, be confirmed, and also the election of Charles P. Turner, M.D., to fill the place of George Pierce, Esq., resigned, in the class whose term expires in 1900.

3. That the Treasurer of the Board be requested to include in his Report of next year, and each year thereafter, a table showing the total receipts from all sources for ten years preceding, and including the year in which the Report is made; that the Annual Reports may thus always furnish a comparative history of receipts for convenient reference.

4. That this Assembly renews and emphasizes the recommendations of previous Assemblies that there should be more earnest care on the part of pastors in seeking out desirable candidates, and encouraging them to undertake the necessary preparation for the Gospel ministry; more systematic and sympathetic Presbyterial care over candidates during their course of study, and more intimate and painstaking watchfulness on the part of our professors in theological institutions, as to the character, scholarship and conduct of the candidates.

On behalf of the Committee,

T. D. WALLACE, Chairman.

The Standing Committee on Education also presented the following supplementary Report:

Your Committee on Education has had referred to it by this Assembly Overtures Nos. 29 and 89, from the Presbyteries of Genesee and Geneva, respectively. These Overtures are of the same sort, and ask: 1. That the Board be directed to grant aid, in the case of new students, only to those pursuing their studies in theology, and only to such of these as shall have pledged themselves to their respective Presbyteries, and to the Board of Education, in writing, to serve in the missionary work of the Church, under the Board of Foreign Missions or the Board of Home Missions, or of the Board of Missions for Freedmen, for the term of two or three years.

In answer to the request relating to aid being confined to candidates in the theological course exclusively, it is recommended that no action be taken.

In answer to the other request, asking that aid shall be limited to those candidates in the theological course who pledge themselves in writing to two or three years of missionary service under direction of various Mission Boards, after the completion of their theological course, it is recommended that the Presbyteries be referred to Rule 10 of the Board, under the head of "Scholarships" as representing the best judgment of the Church at the present time touching this matter.

The Overture from the Presbytery of Genesee, part second, asks that the Board of Education be directed not to grant aid to any student who marries while engaged in study preparatory to the ministry, either in the literary or the theological course. It is recommended that the Presbytery be referred for information to Rule 7 of the Board, under the head of "Scholarships."

The last matter contained in these Overtures is the request that Presbyteries be particularly enjoined to exercise greater care in the reception of candidates, and especially to take care that the candidates satisfy all the requirements suggested in the Rules respecting examination of candidates. It is recommended that the request for this injunction be answered in the affirmative.

The Judicial Committee reported:

Judicial Case No. 1, being the appeal of the Rev. J. P. Schell from an action of the Synod of North Dakota.

Your Committee find the appeal in order, but inasmuch as no question of law or doctrine is involved, and inasmuch as the decision of Synods is final in such cases, they recommend that the appeal be dismissed.

Judicial Case No. 2, being the appeal of Herman Warszawiak from an action of the Presbytery of New York.

It appearing that complaint and appeal in this case have been made and taken to the Synod of New York and are now pending in that judicatory, which proceedings the appellant still maintains, and no sufficient reasons being now given why the appeal should not take the regular course, your Committee recommend that the appeal be dismissed.

Judicial Case No. 4, being an appeal of the Rev. C. W. Backus, D.D., from an action of the Synod of Kansas.

Your Committee report that they find the appeal in order, and recommend the appointment of a Judicial Commission to which the case shall be submitted.

Judicial Case No. 5, being an appeal of N. N. McCullough from an action of the Synod of Baltimore.

Your Committee report that they find the appeal in order, and recommend that it be referred to a Judicial Commission.

Judicial Case No. 6, being a Memorial and Papers in the case of J. C. Bose against action of the Synod of India.

Your Committee recommend that the request of the appellant for a continuance of the case until the Assembly of 1899, on account of his inability to be present at this Assembly, be granted.

Judicial Cases Nos. 7 and 8, being a complaint of the Rev. W. J. Lee, D.D., by his counsel, the Hon. Selden P. Spencer, against action of the Synod of Missouri, and also an appeal from the action of said Synod.

Your Committee recommend that inasmuch as no question of law or doctrine is involved, the complaint and the appeal be dismissed.

Judicial Case No. 9, being an appeal of Mr. J. Scott Woods from an action of the Synod of Nebraska.

Your Committee find the appeal in order, and recommend that it be referred to a Judicial Commission.

Judicial Case No. 10, being an appeal of Rev. Charles M. Whetzel from an action of the Synod of Iowa.

Your Committee recommend that inasmuch as this case seems to involve questions relating to Church Polity, it be referred to the Committee on Church Polity.

Respectfully submitted,

J. F. PATTERSON, Chairman.

The Stated Clerk presented his Report on the Overtures sent down to the Presbyteries by the last General Assembly as follows:

The Stated Clerk respectfully reports to this General Assembly the answers of the Presbyteries to the Overtures sent down by the last General Assembly. These Overtures were two in number, the first being an Overture for the amendment of the Form of Government, Chapter vi, which has been voted for as follows: In the affirmative, 102 Presbyteries; in the negative, 82; three took no action, the vote of two is divided, and thirty-nine appear not to have voted. The vote on the Overture for the amendment of the Form of Government, Chapter ix, by the insertion of a new section to be numbered Section 7, is: In the affirmative, 179 Presbyteries; in the negative, 11; the vote of two is divided, one took no action, and thirty-five appear not to have voted. The law of the General Assembly of 1891 requires that these returns shall be referred to a Committee of Canvass, for final report and for action by the Assembly.

Respectfully submitted,

WM. H. ROBERTS, Stated Clerk.

The Report was approved, and a Committee of Canvass of the Overtures was appointed by the Moderator, consisting of Ministers—John F. Hill, David A. McWilliams, W. S. Nelson; Ruling Elders—John M. Taggart and E. W. Gallop, M.D.

The Assembly proceeded to the Order of the Day, the consideration of the Reports of the Committees on Authorized Missionary Periodicals and The Church at Home and Abroad, pending which the hour of adjournment arrived, and the subject was made the second Order for Tuesday afternoon.

The Moderator appointed the following Judicial Commission for the trial of Judicial Cases Nos. 4, 5 and 9, viz.: Ministers—Charles A. Stoddard, D.D., Joseph L. Weaver, Nathan G Parke, D.D., Charles S. Dewing, D.D., Samuel H. Moore, D.D., Edward G. McKinley, Horatio F. Olmstead, Samuel C. Bates, Ph.D., Reuben H. VanPelt, Hezekiah Magill, Charles E. Fisk; Ruling Elders—William T. Lyon, Charles T. Jamieson, W. B. Owens, Silas B. Brownell, Henry W. Lambirth, William A. Galpin, John Willis Baer, Charles E. Saxton, Edward S. Wills and A. B. Twitchell.

The Assembly adjourned, and was closed with prayer.

MONDAY, May 23, 7.30 o'clock P.M.

A popular meeting in the interest of the Board of Missions for Freedmen was held in accordance with announcements duly made and addresses were made by the Rev. D. J. Sanders, D.D., and Rev. Wm. H. Weaver, D.D.

TUESDAY, May 24, 9 o'clock A.M.

The Assembly met, and was opened with devotional services.

The Minutes of yesterday's sessions were read and approved.

The Committee appointed to draft resolutions to be presented at the popular patriotic meeting held on Saturday afternoon, presented the resolutions which had been adopted by the meeting, and they were referred to the Standing Committee on Bills and Overtures.

The Permanent Committee on Commissions reported the following additional Commissioners, and their names were enrolled: Ruling Elders—Frederick W. Griffith, of the Presbytery of Lyons; Frank M. Tyrrell, of the Presbytery of New Albany.

The Rev. Henry C. McCook, D.D., President of the Presbyterian Historical Society addressed the Assembly in reference to the work of the Society, whereupon

It was Resolved, That the General Assembly commends the Presbyterian Historical Society to the warm sympathies and generous contributions of all the ministers and churches of our denomination.

Dr. McCook was excused from further attendance, in order to perform his duties as Chaplain in the U. S. A.

The following resolutions were presented and unanimously adopted:

Whereas, The 24th day of May is the birthday of Her Majesty, Queen Victoria, and

Whereas, The Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America recognizes the many virtues that adorn the character of this noble woman, and

Whereas, We do acknowledge with thankfulness the many acts of kindness shown to our missionaries by Her Majesty's civil and military servants;

Therefore, be it Resolved, That this Assembly do congratulate Queen Victoria, and that a cable message be sent to the Queen of England signed by the Moderator and Stated Clerk.

In accordance with the above resolutions, the following cablegram was sent to Queen Victoria:

WARSAW, IND., May 24, 1898.

Queen Victoria, London, England:

The General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in America tenders cordial congratulations to you and to our kindred peoples of the British empire.

WALLACE RADCLIFFE, Moderator.
WM. H. ROBERTS, Stated Clerk.

The Standing Committee on Home Missions presented its Report, which was accepted and, after addresses by the Chairman, the Rev. John Dixon, D.D., the Rev. Charles L. Thompson, D.D., Secretary, and others, was adopted by a rising vote, the members pledging themselves with uplifted hands to support the Board in its work.

The Standing Committee on Home Missions respectfully presents the following Report:

The last General Assembly directed the Board to reorganize its methods of administration, so that the executive work shall be placed in charge of one Secretary, with whatever assistants may be necessary.

The Board has found the discharge of this duty a most difficult one. After long and careful consideration, they decided to appoint Dr. Charles L. Thompson, the Secretary of the Board. In the retirement of Dr. W. C. Roberts and Dr. D. J. McMillan from the office of Secretary, the Board has paid them a fitting tribute, but it is the duty also of the General Assembly to place on record its high appreciation of the valuable services these brethren have rendered to the cause of Home Missions.

The new Secretary takes up the work at a critical period in the history of the Board. He deserves and should receive the unqualified support of the whole Church. The needed money to carry on the work should be promptly and unhesitatingly given. Thus providing the opportunity and the means for accomplishing a large work, he should be held to strict accountability. It is not doubted but that, the word of cheer being spoken, and the proper support being given by the Church, Dr. Thompson will vindicate the wisdom of his selection for this great work.

The statistics show that during the year 1393 missionaries have been commissioned by the Board. This includes two in the Synod of New Jersey who are paid out of the Barber fund, which is specially set apart for colored ministers. The goodly number of 7995 persons have been added to the mission churches on confession of faith, and 4198 on certificate. The membership of the Sunday-schools connected with these churches is 123,622, and 250 new Sunday-schools have been organized.

The Treasurer, Mr. Harvey C. Olin, has submitted detailed statements of receipts and expenditures, of the Permanent and Trust Funds, and also of the operating account of the mission building, which leaves nothing to be desired. They are so full, clear and satisfactory as to deserve special commendation. He reports the total receipts from all sources as $702,403.37. The expenditures were $722,965.44, which exceeded the receipts by $20,562.07. This is more than accounted for by the change from quarterly to monthly payments in the settlement of the salaries of missionaries, for in many instances the quarterages lapped over from last year into this, and as a result there has been paid this year for work done last year a sum nearly equal to $35,000. It will thus appear that the actual work of the year was more than $14,000 within the receipts.

The debt now amounts to $167,839.03, which belongs wholly to the Board, the Woman's Board having succeeded in wiping out the deficiency chargeable to its part of the work. The miscellaneous and office expenses show a gratifying decrease as compared with last year of $7515.93. The change from quarterly to monthly payments to the missionaries has been a most welcome one to those most interested, and it is pleasant to record that it has been accomplished without adding anything to the expenses of administration. The interest account is, however, a serious matter. During the past three years there has been paid out for interest on funds borrowed to carry on the work of the Board the large sum of $33,654.53. That is to say, in

1895–6	there was paid	out	$13,604 57
1896–7	"	"	13,212 72
1897–8	"	"	6,837 24
			$33,654 53

We are gratified at the marked decrease during the past year. If it be too much to expect that the churches will so contribute that there shall be no interest to pay, yet the amount would be largely reduced if Sessions would only see to it that the money contributed by the people was promptly forwarded by the Treasurer, and not held back until the closing days of March.

The Report of the Woman's Board brings us special encouragement. Besides meeting all their expenses and paying their debt, they have a surplus of over $8000. This sum they propose to spend during the coming year upon the Mexican or Indian field, and, in addition, to relieve the Board of all work in Alaska. The receipts of the Woman's Board from its auxiliaries and the Young People's Societies amount to $278,702.38, and including the funds raised for the Freedmen's Board aggregate $324,348.25. This is an increase over last year for the work among the Freedmen of $4691.42, but a decrease for the Home work of $13,243-.50. They have sent out 501 boxes for the missionaries of the Board, 489 boxes for the mission schools of the Woman's Board, and 372 boxes for the Freedmen's work. They have sustained during the year twenty-three boarding-schools and ninety day-schools. These 113 schools are located as follows: eight in Alaska, seventeen among the Indians, twenty-four among the Mexicans, twenty-nine among the Mormons, thirty-two among the mountaineers of the South, three among the foreign-speaking population. In these schools have been gathered 8339 pupils under 329 teachers. Among these scholars, 460 conversions are reported as among the year's work. The Societies have also contributed to the support of thirty-two schools and fifty-nine teachers under the care of the Freedmen's Board, and ten Bible readers have been commissioned for the mountaineers of the South.

The prolonged absence from her home and land, for needed rest, of the President of the Woman's Board, Mrs. Darwin R. James, has occasioned regret. The more lengthened absence of the Recording Secretary, Mrs. S. B. Brownell, has compelled the Board very reluctantly to accept her resignation.

When now we turn our eyes to the future, it is clear that the Church should enter upon the work forgetting the things which are behind, and press forward with such confidence and courage as by the blessing of God will bring her to the next Assembly with a record which shall have in every part abundant reason for gratitude and an increasing stimulus to go forward. Let the past years of criticism, controversy and change suffice. If these have not wrought all the good which was sought, only harm and loss will accrue by their continuance. Now is the time for confidence, increased offerings and more earnest prayer, and if these are given to the Board and its work, who can doubt but that, through the favor of God, greater things will be accomplished than the Church has ever attempted for the great cause of Home Missions.

Your Committee would recommend the adoption of the following resolutions:

1. The Minutes of the Board meetings are found to be carefully engrossed, while the Minutes of the executive sessions seem to be only partially recorded. However, as three members of the Board present in the Assembly assure your Committee that the partial records fairly and fully manifest the action taken in executive sessions, it is recommended that the Minutes be approved.

2. In view of the fact that tens of thousands of people are pushing their way into the gold fields of Alaska, large numbers of whom are Presbyterians, it is recommended that the Board of Home Missions be advised to appoint at least five additional male missionaries at an early date for work in that Territory, and make the appointments a new ground of appeal to the Church.

3. In view of the greater activity of Mormonism, since Utah was admitted to Statehood, and in view of the large number of youth trained, in institutions under its control, in sentiments adverse to Christianity and to American ideas, the reduction of our church and school work in Utah is to be specially deplored; and it is urged upon our churches that increased attention should be given to the calls of the Home Board and the Woman's Board, and abundant means be furnished for instruction from the pulpit, in the Sabbath-schools, and in all grades of Christian week-day schools from the lowest to the highest.

4. That on Sabbath, July 3, a special offering be made for the work of Home Missions.

5. That an earnest effort be made to secure from all sources at least $867,000, so then will the debt be paid and the work planned for the year be adequately provided for.

6. That the following members of the Board, whose term of office expires at this time, be reappointed, viz.: Ministers—James S. Ramsay, D.D., Samuel J. Niccolls, D.D., and Charles Wood, D.D.; Ruling Elders—Walter M. Aikman, Robert Henderson, William H. Corbin and Robert C. Ogden; and that the Hon. James A. Beaver be elected to fill the unexpired term of Mr. Charles E. Green, deceased.

All of which is respectfully submitted,

JOHN DIXON, Chairman.

The Standing Committee on Home Missions also presented the following additional resolution, which was adopted:

Resolved, That the Sabbath-schools be asked to take an offering for the Woman's Board on the Sabbath preceding Thanksgiving Day.

The Standing Committee on Home Missions reported further on Overtures which had been referred to it by the Assembly.

Pending the discussion of this Report, the hour of recess arrived, and the consideration went over as unfinished business.

A telegram was received from the church at Clinton, N. J., Presbytery of Elizabeth, announcing a contribution of $20,000 for the liquidation of the debt of the Board of Home Missions. A message was also received from an elder of the Church announcing a contribution of $5000 for the same purpose.

A minister of the Assembly under the Board of Home Missions announced that he would relieve the Board hereafter of the responsibility for any part of his support, in order to encourage the Board in its work.

It was Resolved, That the thanks of the Assembly be and hereby are returned to the elder who has given $5000 toward the liquidation of the debt of the Board of Home Missions; also to the church at Clinton, N. J., for its contribution of $20,000 for the same purpose, and to the home missionary who announced that he will never again depend on the Board for his support. Adopted.

The following telegram was received from the General Assembly of the Cumberland Presbyterian Church :

MARSHALL, MO., May 21, 1898.

To the General Assembly, Winona Lake, Ind.:

The Cumberland Presbyterian General Assembly heartily reciprocates your kind greetings. Read Ephesians vi, twenty-third and twenty-fourth verses.

H. H. NORMAN, Moderator.
J. M. HUBBERT, Stated Clerk.

The Assembly took recess, and was closed with prayer.

TUESDAY, May 24, 2.30 o'clock P.M.

The Assembly met, and was opened with prayer.

The Permanent Committee on Commissions reported the name of the Rev. D. C. McCoy, of the Presbytery of Peking, as a Commissioner, who was duly enrolled.

The Standing Committee on Bills and Overtures reported, recommending the reference of papers as follows :

The Committee on Bills and Overtures respectfully reports to the General Assembly recommending the reference of papers put in their hands by the Stated Clerk, as follows :

To the Standing Committee on Bills and Overtures:

Overtures Nos. 95, 96 and 97, from the Presbyteries of Binghamton, Iowa and Trinity, on contributions from Young People's Societies.

Overture No. 100, from the Presbytery of Trinity, on the blanks for Annual Reports of the churches.

Paper No. 88, from the Presbytery of New York, being a communication in the matter of Rev. Charles A. Briggs, D.D.

To the Standing Committee on Church Polity:

Overture No. 98, from the Board of Aid for Colleges, with regard to Standing Rule No. 15 of the General Assembly.

To the Standing Committee on Publication:

Overture No. 99, from the Presbytery of Trinity, on offerings for the missionary work of the Board of Publication and Sabbath-school Work.

To the Standing Committee on Foreign Missions:

Overture No. 27, from the Presbytery of Los Angeles, overturing against a transfer of the Chinese and Japanese missionary work in that Presbytery from the Board of Foreign Missions.

The Report was adopted.

The Standing Committee on Bills and Overtures further reported its answers to certain of the Overtures referred to it, as follows:

The Committee on Bills and Overtures would further report on the Papers referred to it by the Assembly, viz.:

Overtures Nos. 1 and 2, from the Synod of Baltimore and the Presbytery of New Castle, regarding a monument for Francis Makemie and the endowment of Rehoboth Church. The following answer is recommended:

Whereas, An effort is being made by the Session and congregation of the venerable Presbyterian Church at Rehoboth, Somerset county, Md., to erect a suitable monument to Rev. Francis Makemie, in the neighborhood in which his remains lie buried, and on the grounds which he himself gave to the church, and furthermore, to endow the old church, which was his especial charge; and

Whereas, This cause has been presented to the General Assembly by these Overtures, for indorsement as especially worthy of commendation to the interest and assistance of Presbyterians everywhere, on account of the historic position of the church and its close identification with the ministry of the immortal Makemie; therefore,

Be it Resolved, That this Assembly does hereby indorse and commend this movement as worthy of the support and contributions of all loyal Presbyterians. Adopted.

Overture No. 11, from the Presbytery of Chester, that the General Assembly prepare a pastoral letter on the subject of Sabbath Observance, specially adapted to the circumstances of the day. It is recommended that in view of the action of the Assembly on the Report of its Committee on Sabbath Observance, no further action be taken. Adopted.

Overture No. 12, from the Presbytery of Topeka, on the consolidation of the Boards of Aid for Colleges and of Education. It is recommended that no action be taken. Adopted.

Overtures Nos. 16, 17, 18, 19 and 94, from the Presbyteries of Bloomington, Dubuque, Ozark, St. Paul and Oakland, as to making the Stated Clerkship of the General Assembly a term office; Overture No. 20, relating to the offices of both Stated and Permanent Clerks; and Overture No. 21, relating to the office of Clerks of Session, Stated Clerks of Presbyteries, Synods and the General Assembly. The following answer is recommended: The offices of Stated Clerk and of Permanent Clerk of the General Assembly are, by the provisions of the Form of Government, held at the pleasure of the Assembly, and are exclusively within its jurisdiction and control, as the offices thereto corresponding in Synod or Presbytery are within their respective jurisdiction and control. The Assembly deems it inexpedient to bind itself to a term service, however short or long, in view of the obvious advantages of its present plan. Adopted.

Overture No. 35, from the Presbytery of Utica, as to the insertion of date of ecclesiastical year in the blanks for Sessional Reports. It is recommended that no action be taken. Adopted.

Overture No. 36, from the Presbytery of Minneapolis, on the status of the body called the Church of Christ, Scientist. We recommend in answer thereto the following deliverance: The General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the U. S. A. does not recognize as an evangelical denomination the body calling itself "The Church of Christ, Scientist," commonly known as the "Christian Science Church," hence, the Sessions of our churches cannot receive applicants into our Church on letters or certificates from the "Church of Christ, Scientist," or "Christian Scientists," so called, neither can Sessions of our churches grant letters of dismission to the "Church of Christ, Scientist." Adopted.

Overtures Nos. 50–83, both inclusive, and 92, 93, 95, 96 and 97, being from the Presbyteries of Alton and others, overturing the General Assembly to take such steps as are necessary to recall the direction to the Young People's Societies and Sabbath-schools to contribute their missionary offerings through the Women's Boards, and leave them free to use either channel, as they may choose. It is recommended that the following answer be made: The alleged "direction" referred to in these Overtures was merely a request of the Foreign Board and not of the Assembly, and in such request the reservation was distinctly made that every Presbytery should take such action as it might deem wise, and that every Young People's Society and Sabbath-school should, subject to the advice and consent of their respective church Sessions and Presbyteries, determine for themselves the channels through which their Foreign Missionary offerings shall be sent to the Treasurer of the Assembly's Board, and, therefore, the Assembly deems it unnecessary to take any action, or to disturb the arrangement now existing between its Board and the Women's Auxiliary Boards. Adopted.

Respectfully submitted,

SHELDON JACKSON, Chairman.

The Standing Committee on Aid for Colleges presented its Report, which was accepted and, after addresses by the Rev. George S. Burroughs, D.D., LL.D., Chairman; Rev. Edward C. Ray, D.D., Secretary, and others, was adopted. The Report is as follows:

Your Standing Committee on Aid for Colleges begs leave to submit the following Report:

The Committee has held several sessions, all but three of its number, one minister and two laymen, having been in attendance upon these. It has carefully considered all matters referred to it, including the work of the Assembly's Board of Aid for Colleges and Academies, as this is set forth in the Annual Report to this Assembly of the Secretary, the Report of the Treasurer covering the last fiscal year, the Records of the Board and its Committees since the meeting of the last Assembly, together with printed statements regarding the purposes and procedure of the Board. It has been the endeavor of your Committee to understand as thoroughly as possible, and to estimate with thoughtful and sympathetic criticism, the entire on-going of the work of this Board during the past year, considering in an especial manner the adaptation of its policy and methods to the accomplishment of the work which the Church designs doing through its agency. It has not neglected also to consider the relation of the work of this Board to other agencies of the Church and other forces that are making, in coöperation with it, for the advancement of Christian education.

Your Committee has invited the esteemed and honored Secretary of the Board to meet with it from time to time, not only to give desired information regarding its workings, but to answer all questions which have arisen in the minds of its members as they have pursued their investigations. It has felt that it was not only its privilege as the servant of the Assembly, but also its duty toward this important and valuable agency of the Church to be able to speak confidently concerning it, after painstaking thought and earnest endeavor to comprehend its work in all possible lights. Permit your Committee to lay stress upon this fact, which in their judgment is of no inconsiderable importance.

that as the Church shall searchingly examine into the operations of its several Boards, it will bring honor for faithful work to whom honor is due, it will increase the interest and confidence of the churches at large in the work which is laid upon them, it will tend to bring the practical to the forefront in our religious thought, it will demand the thoughtful consideration of its enterprises on the part of conservative and cautious business laymen, thereby increasing benevolence and calling forth invaluable coöperation.

The Board of Aid for Colleges and Academies is the youngest child of our sisterhood of coöperative service. While our Home Mission Board will soon celebrate its centennial, and our Foreign Board is passing on to its three-score and ten, this agency of the Church has only just completed a decade and a half of service. Considering its years and its opportunities, it has done much. During this period almost a million and a half dollars have passed through its hands for the upbuilding of Christian education. It has occupied nearly one-half our States and Territories, it has aided almost three-score institutions, it has controlled for the Church property of educational agencies amounting to a million dollars, and it has afforded educational advantages to an aggregate enrollment of nearly fifty thousand students.

It is extremely gratifying to be able to report that the past year, in spite of its great trial to this Board, has been one of advance, in fact, its most prosperous year. During the past twelve months it has aided twenty-eight institutions containing an increased number of students, aggregating nearly 3000. It has been aided by 190 more churches than during the previous year, and by forty-one more Church organizations. The great cloud which settled down upon the character of one who has been fittingly styled "the Board's Nursing Mother," has not settled upon the Board or its work. Your Committee knows that it is only voicing the positive conviction of all who have examined into the situation when it says that the embezzlement of Mr. Charnley, with its peculiarly distressing character, is no cause whatever for lack of confidence in the Board. Your Committee would congratulate the Board and the Church that this has been already said in the most thorough-going, effective and unquestionable manner by churches and individuals in the magnificent way in which these have rallied to the support of the Board with their hearty and large gifts. It has been demonstrated, we believe, during the past year, that the value placed by churches and individual givers upon the work of the Board is not only greater but has become greater because of its very loss and peril. The increased number of givers and the increased total of gifts, the fact that the Board has done its work, kept its pledges, without using any of its ordinary income, has practically replaced its embezzled funds, and closed the year without a deficit —these things are in themselves indorsement enough. Why should your Committee add words?

The Church has a right to expect and find economical business administration in the conduct of her affairs. Your Committee have been surprised at the showing of your Board in this regard. It goes without saying that no single year can be taken as a basis of comparison without emphasizing the fact that unexpected expenses may arise and peculiar difficulties present themselves in the administration of any Board, but when it is discovered that the salaries of your Board of Aid during the last year were but four per cent. of total income, only one other Board coming slightly below this, while its total expenses were but six per cent. of total income, only one Board standing with it on this economical level, while the year has been for it one of peculiar trial and expense, we feel confident that the Board of Aid should be marked with the words, "Close Economy." We desire to add that its methods of business statement, as disclosed in Reports of Secretary, Treasurer, and the Records of its proceedings, are clear, concise, satisfactory, economical of time, yet not lacking in information.

Your Committee desire to call especial attention to the evident reasons why the Church requires the service of its Board of Aid, as these are disclosed in what it is actually doing. It were unnecessary to dwell upon the relation of the cause of education to the progress of any Church, not to mention the peculiar history of the Presbyterian Church in this regard. This Church has always laid hold of the upbuilding forces of education in the progress of her history. To-day, as truly as in the past, she needs an educated ministry and an educated laity. She believes in thinking, in being able judiciously, fairly and truly to weigh thought as thought in all departments of life, and not least in Church activity and Church procedure. It is in connection with the fostering of this educational advance in a Christian atmosphere that the peculiar wisdom of this Board in its workings is disclosed. The Board is a check upon mere promiscuous solicitation of benevolence on the part of merely enthusiastic sentiment. It is an agent of organized educational charity. The Board gives expression to the prudence and good judgment of the Church in avoiding unwise location of educational agencies, so apt to be the outcome of local pride or provincial measurements of magnitude. The Board acts for the Church in laying down the ethics of comity within the denomination, and among the denominations. It acts for the Church in endeavoring to bring into wise relation to each other the benevolence of the State in the realm of education, and that of the private Christian individual, so that together these may preëmpt in wise and proper relations to each other, the territory which belongs in common in our land to Church and State. Your Board avoids waste and loss of gifts because these may not be properly guarded. The insurance policy and the mortgage become Christian business securities for the perpetuity of educational forces. Your Board not only teaches to avoid debt, that destroyer of religious harmony, and that enemy of all success, but it compels its avoidance. Your Board sets itself against low-grade culture and the decoration of ignorance with conceit. Your Board stimulates to local effort for the best things in the community where local effort is wise; it stimulates along lines of economical prudence and self-denying common sense the increase of educational benevolence. This is the faith of your Board, not only stated in its resolutions and requirements, but seen in its works.

It is but fitting to call attention to the loss with which this Board has met during the past year in the death of Homer N. Hibbard, LL.D., from the first of its life an active, wise and sympathetic promoter of its endeavors after good things for education and the Church.

In conclusion your Committee present the following recommendations for your action:

1. That this Assembly indorse the Board of Aid for its faithful enforcement of its judicious regulations regarding colleges and academies under its care, touching economy, financial security, comity, efficiency, and high standards of work, and enjoin upon it to continue to enforce these with impartial good judgment.

2. That the Board of Aid put into working order at the earliest feasible moment its admirable plan for classification of the institutions under its care.

3. That the Assembly urge upon the churches a continued and increased observance of Education Day, as calculated to bring about large results peculiarly suited to the genius of the Presbyterian Church.

4. That the General Assembly advise the raising of $150,000 during the current year in gifts from its churches, as separate from the contributions of private benevolence, and that to this end a largely increased number of churches make a stated offering to this cause.

5. That the Assembly approve the Records of the Board of Aid since the last Assembly as examined by this Committee.

6. That the Assembly accept the resignation of Rev. S. J. Niccolls, D.D., from the membership of the Board of Aid for Colleges, said resignation being necessary because of the rule prohibiting service upon two Boards of the Church, Dr. Niccolls' duty being plainly indicated as service on the Home Mission Board.

7. That the Assembly elect to membership on the Board of Aid for Colleges and Academies the following: Ministers—Herrick Johnson, D.D., LL.D., William O. Ruston, D.D., W. P. Kane, D.D., and John L. Withrow, D.D., LL.D., to succeed themselves for the term of three years; that in place of S. J. Niccolls, D.D., LL.D., Francis L. Ferguson, D.D., be chosen to serve for two years; Laymen—W. H. Swift, Esq., Hon. Henry V. Freeman, Levi W. Yaggy and Lafayette McWilliams, for the term of three years; Alexander McDonald for the term of two years, and James S. Hubbard for the term of one year.

Respectfully submitted,

G. S. BURROUGHS, Chairman.

The Assembly proceeded to the Order of the Day; the consideration of the Reports of the Special Committees on The Church at Home and Abroad, and Authorized Missionary Periodicals. The Rev. John S. MacIntosh, D.D., Chairman of the Committee on The Church at Home and Abroad, addressed the Assembly. Pending the consideration of these Reports, the hour of adjournment having arrived, the time was extended fifteen minutes, to hear the Rev. E. R. Craven, D.D., Secretary of the Board of Publication. The further consideration of the Reports was then made the second Order of the Day for Wednesday afternoon, the vote to be taken at a quarter to five o'clock, and the speeches to be limited to five minutes.

The following cable message was read:

BALMORAL, May 24, 1898.

Moderator General Assembly Presbyterian Church, Winona Lake, Ind.:

Am commanded by the Queen to convey Her Majesty's thanks to the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in America, for their kind congratulations.

EDWARDS, Private Secretary.

The Assembly adjourned, and was closed with prayer.

TUESDAY, May 24, 7.30 o'clock P.M.

A popular meeting in the interests of Home Missions was held. The Rev. S. J. Niccolls, D.D., LL.D., presided, and addresses were made by Rev. S. J. Niccolls, D.D., Rev. Samuel E. Wishard, D.D., Rev. George F. McAfee, and Rev. Sheldon Jackson, D.D., LL.D.

WEDNESDAY, May 25, 9 o'clock A.M.

The Assembly met, and was opened with devotional services.

The Minutes of yesterday's sessions were read and approved.

The Judicial Committee reported:

Judicial Case No. 3, being a complaint of the Rev. A. W.

Ringland and the Rev. Frank Granstaff against an action of the Synod of Ohio, and an appeal of the Rev. John C. Holliday against the same action of the Synod of Ohio.

Your Committee find the complaint and the appeal in order, and recommend the appointment of a Judicial Commission to which they shall be submitted.

Judicial Case No. 11, being a complaint of the Rev. W. H. Pumphrey against the action of the Synod of Pennsylvania. Your Committee find that this case involves a question of Church Polity, and recommend that it be referred to the Committee on Church Polity. Respectfully submitted,

JOHN F. PATTERSON, Chairman.

The Report was adopted.

It was Resolved, That the question of the legal succession of the Synod of China be referred to the Standing Committee on Church Polity.

Resolved, That the General Assembly expresses its cordial sympathy with the National Relief Commission, of which Mr. John H. Converse is President, and similar organizations having in view the moral and spiritual interests, as well as the physical welfare of our soldiers, sailors and marines engaged in the war with Spain. Adopted.

The Standing Committee on Foreign Missions presented its Report, which was accepted and, after addresses by the Rev. George F. Pentecost, D.D., Chairman; Mr. Robert E. Speer, Secretary, and others, was adopted. The Report is as follows:

The Standing Committee on Foreign Missions respectfully presents the following Report:

The debt is paid! Thanks be unto God and the inspiring liberality of our missionaries, who out of their modest salaries have contributed $10,500, or more than one-tenth of the whole, though in number they represent less than one-thousandth part of our Church. We may well exclaim, "Where are the nine?" Out of their deep poverty the riches of their liberality have abounded in many thanksgivings to God.

Your Committee have carefully gone through the records of the Board, and note with pleasure and gratitude the evident harmony existing between all the members of the Board and the Secretaries, their deep sense of responsibility to God and the Church, and their loving care for all the missionaries. As the Committee read over the 241 pages of these Records, the wonder grew that these busy men should bestow, as a free gift, so many valuable hours as they do to the meetings of the Board. To them the thanks of the whole Church are due. It is with no less pleasure that your Committee has noted the admirable way in which the accounts are presented, all being open to the instant comprehension of any and all who may be interested to examine them.

Your Committee, having reviewed the work of our missionaries on the foreign field, would most earnestly commend to the attention and consideration of our pastors and elders and to the entire membership of the Church, the able and admirable summaries of our Secretaries, covering the work on the various foreign fields, as found in the published Report of the Board. We would even recommend that, beginning at once, or in the early autumn, the Reports be read from week to week, till the whole Report shall have been laid before our congregations, either from the pulpit on the Sundays, or from the prayer-meeting platform at the mid-week service. Your Committee believes that such action by our pastors would result in a great revival of missionary interest in the churches, as well as in the quickening of spiritual life among the people.

In some of our fields the year has been marked by unusual upheaval and disturbance. Revolution in Guatemala; war, famine, plague and earthquake in India; excitement in China because of the aggressions of certain European powers, and alarm in Persia because of assertions of ecclesiastical power and weakness and oppression of the civil authority, necessarily reacted somewhat on our mission work. The unprecedented cut also, made necessary by diminished receipts, told somewhat severely, although, by throwing the native churches more on their own resources, the retrenchment has not been without some compensations.

Our twenty-four missions, however, with their 110 stations, have had a year of substantial growth. Korea has been especially rich in fruitage, the record being little less than phenomenal when the limited force and the comparatively recent planting of the mission are remembered. The adult baptisms were 347, while successful efforts at self-support and church building indicate an active spiritual life. Most of the missions in China give evidence of decided advance, especially those working extensively in the villages, such as West Shantung, which reports 265 adult baptisms; Canton, 240, and Central China, 167. The ingatherings in India from among the low-caste people continue, especially in the Punjab, while the missions in the Northwest Provinces and western India are also beginning to reap richer harvests than formerly. Among the nearly 600 baptisms reported are a number of high-caste Hindus and Mohammedans. Your Chairman begs to say that from personal inspection on the ground that he regards the college at Lahore as the most ideal Christian college in India, and begs to commend it to the warmest sympathy and interest of the Church. In Japan the drift away from Bible truth is in part arrested, and a strong reaction is setting in in favor of evangelical Christianity. Western Persia reports the unusually large addition of 415 on confession of faith, while eastern Persia has not been unblessed. Syria still proves a difficult field to cultivate, notwithstanding the fidelity of a large and efficient missionary force. The church membership is 2300, of whom ninety-five were received last year. Frequent health changes among the missionaries in Africa, necessitated mostly by climatic changes, have been unfavorable to uninterrupted work at some of the stations, but the year has been one of quiet and steady growth, and 75 adults were baptized. Most of the missions in the Roman Catholic countries on this continent find it no easy matter to make a deep and lasting impression. Substantial progress, however, is being made in Mexico, Guatemala, Colombia, Chile and Brazil, the aggregate of adult baptisms reported for the year being 285. Making allowance for the incomplete returns from some missions because of delayed mails and other possible causes, the additions on confession for the year in all our missions have been most encouraging. To this result all branches of the work have contributed. The retrenchment, however, told heavily against the schools, a number having to be closed and others greatly reduced. The medical work has held its own in its divine mission of healing and evangelizing 351, 303 patients having been treated and brought more or less into touch with the Gospel.

After long and patient consideration, the Board determined to abandon Mosul as a mission station, its remoteness, isolation, unhealthfulness, the impossibility of building suitable missionary residences, because of government opposition, and the difficulty of carrying on from that point the work among the mountain Nestorians, for which the station was originally established, rendering its further continuance incompetent.

Your Committee begs at this place to record its most grateful appreciation of the generous coöperation and gifts of the American Bible Society. Your Chairman can testify from personal observation and experience to the fact of the eagerness with which the people in foreign lands who have been taught to read, either in their own or the English tongue, both buy and accept copies of the Word of God. Without the coöperation of the Bible Society, the work of the missionary evangelist and teacher would be of little lasting good. Special thanks are rendered for printing several books of the Old Testament in Benga as revised by Dr. Nassau of West Africa. It is a privilege in this connection also to report the generosity of the B. and F. B. Society in assuming one-half the salary and part of the other expenses of the Rev. S. H. Kellogg, D.D., of our Furrukhabad mission, who, with representatives of other Boards, is engaged in revising the Hindi Old Testament. Thanks are also heartily rendered to the American Tract Society.

In order to deepen the interest in foreign missions and develop the beneficence of our people at large, your Committee would urge upon the Board, through the Secretaries, to extend the good work already begun in the way of organizing conferences in the interest of our great work. Immediate steps should be taken to promote such a conference (covering from one day to a whole week according to the locality and population) in every Presbytery of the Church, and in the great centres of population throughout the land. To this end those pastors whose knowledge is greatest, and whose interest in foreign missions is known to be deepest, should be called upon to lend their aid, not only in their own Presbyteries, but in any part of the country where their services may be most needed. Your Committee have no doubt that the various congregations so called upon to contribute the time and services of pastors will gladly respond. Your Committee believes that if such a plan is well matured and vigorously carried out, it will meet the enthusiastic support of the people, and culminate in a great revival of interest in the foreign mission cause.

From time to time, in years past, various Presbyteries have overtured the Assembly upon the importance of providing special courses of instruction in the seminaries of the Church for students proposing to devote their lives to the work of foreign missions. Encouraging beginnings have been made in this direction, yet your Committee cannot at this time refrain from emphasizing the great necessity of still further prosecuting this item in the curriculi of our theological schools.

We note with pleasure the great success of the Missionary Conference inaugurated by the Field Secretary, held on these grounds on Tuesday and Wednesday preceding the convening of the Assembly, and later on shall request the Assembly to direct a repetition of such a conference for next year.

Among the important auxiliaries to your Board are the Young People's Endeavor and kindred societies connected with thousands of our congregations. It is noticeable that the attention of these young people has, during the past year, more emphatically been called to the kindred great causes of Foreign Missions and Systematic Beneficence. Upon the proper training of these young people depends the future prosperity and advancement of our Redeemer's kingdom. We would most earnestly commend these societies to the loving encouragement and care of the pastors and elders of the Church, and urge upon them that the cause of Foreign Missions and the "Tenth Legion" be kept well to the front in their meetings. "Instead of the Father's shall be the children."

Turning from the consideration of the foregoing points affecting the work of the Board on the home field, your Committee would ask you to lift up your eyes and look abroad upon the wide fields across seas that are already white to the harvest, upon which much precious grain is not only ripening, but wasting and being lost for the want of reapers and binders. On every field there is vastly more work ready for our hands to do than we have hands with which to do it. If on any of the fields there has been a decrease in the number of converts, it is because of the want of funds your Board has been obliged to diminish the number of workers, and where there has not been great increase, it is because your Board has not been able to send forth more laborers. As the case now stands, there are many more converts awaiting baptism than there have been baptized; but your missionaries dare not baptize these longing, imperfectly prepared converts from heathenism and turn them adrift without pastors and teachers to care for and instruct them. Nevertheless the outlook on the foreign side of the work is full of hope. On most of our mission fields the door of access stands wide open. Missionaries are not only tolerated, but in many instances even welcomed by the people. The Holy Spirit is setting His seal on the work more generally than ever before in the history of our missions. Everything points to wide occupancy as the immediate duty of the Church. Delay is hazardous. The tide must be taken at the flood. We must keep step with the providence and grace of God, or lag behind in the mighty conquest. The present reduced rate of expenditure in the missions, made necessary by the utter inadequacy of the Board's receipts, can only be continued at the peril of much of the work already in hand, to say nothing of the urgent demand from most of our missions for immediate reinforcements and a steady forward step. Crippled work on the field waits to be restored; missionaries, who have been bearing almost intolerable burdens, rather than see the work sacrificed, ought to be relieved, and well-equipped men and women, who, at the Lord's call, have dedicated themselves to the foreign work, should not be kept longer waiting for means with which to send them forth. In addition to fields already occupied, we cannot be deaf or blind to the startling providence of God which is just now opening up new and unexpected fields for Foreign Mission work. The peace-speaking guns of Admiral Dewey have opened the gates which henceforth make accessible not less than 12,000,000 of people who have for 300 years been fettered by bonds almost worse than those of heathenism, and oppressed by a tyrannical priesthood only equal in cruelty to that of the nation whose government has been a blight and blistering curse upon every people over whom her flag has floated—a system of religion almost if not altogether worse than heathenism, because the false and apostate Christianity which has been forced upon them has caused them to blaspheme the name of God, and hate the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, whose false servants have so basely misrepresented them both in teaching and practice. We cannot ignore the fact that God has given into our hands—that is, into the hands of American Christians, the Philippine Islands, and thus opened a wide door and effectual to their populations, and has by the very guns of our battleships summoned us to go up and possess the land.

The contributions for the past year from all sources to the funds of the Board, including the special gifts for payment of debt, have been in round figures, $881,000. The appropriations already made for the current year amount in round figures to $850,000. To this amount we must allow to our Board a sufficiently large surplus to enable them to meet the many exigencies that are certain to arise, not included in the more formal and regular appropriations. To go through the present year without planting the seed of a new debt; to place our work back upon its normal basis, and to make any advance whatever, it will be necessary for the Church to contribute not less than $1,000,000. To reach this sum there must be an average increase in our contributions all over the Church of not less than twenty per cent. That we are more than able to make this advance without diminishing our contributions to any branch of the home work, no intelligent Presbyterian in city or country need doubt. Your Committee have the proof of this ability in their possession, and will venture to present that proof a little later on. Let no member of our great Church for one moment suppose that because the accumulated debt of the past four years has been paid, the necessity does not exist for a larger, more hearty and prompt liberality. On the contrary, the payment of the debt is but the removal of an obstacle in the channel of the Church's beneficence, and the eloquent challenge of our God to go forward. It is as the opening of the sea, or the waters of the Jordan, making way for the hosts of the Lord to march out of a land of financial bondage, and into a land of promise, which the Lord hath given us.

In this connection, your Committee would call the attention of the Assembly to the fact that more than one-third of the annual contributions of the Church are received during the last eight weeks of the fiscal year. If these gifts were more evenly distributed through the year, it would result in a saving of interest charges, of economy in the office force, and would enable the department to prepare a final statement of the year without overtaxing the officers and the clerical force. The contributions of the year vary materially; in some quarters there being a decided increase, and in others no gain. Until April 1 the aggregate increase was most encouraging, showing, in addition to gifts for the debt, a gain of $36,000 for the current work. But during the month of April, the last month of the fiscal year, this handsome gain was almost entirely wiped out. To what extent the Spanish-American war was the cause of this disappointing shrinkage cannot be stated.

Your Committee desire to make mention of the fact that more than thirty-three per cent. of the receipts of the Board for the past year have come through the Women's Boards and Young People's Societies. As a rule, the women of our churches, who are not the purseholders of our Lord's money, for the most part make their contributions out of allowances made to them by the husbands and fathers of the Church, and from small economies practiced in housekeeping. It is safe to say that if "ye that are men," who own "the flocks and the herds," and control the check-books, would band yourselves together as do our heroic women and stimulate and exhort one another by words and example, to give to the cause, the funds of the Board would be quadrupled in one year. Your Committee ventures to put the question: If the women thus combine to push the cause of Missions, why should not the men also band themselves together to increase their gifts?

The Board has now under commission, including the wives of missionaries, single women, medical missionaries, and laymen, six hundred and eighty eight. Of these, during the past year, the following named have entered into rest:

East Shantung Mission—Mrs. Charles Lewis, May 31, 1897: Mrs. Calvin W. Mateer, February 18, 1898.

Lodiana Mission—Mrs. Charles B. Newton, June 20, 1897; Mrs. W. J. P. Morrison, January 1, 1898.

Siam Mission—Rev. F. J. Lyman, July 17, 1897; James B. Thompson, M.D., March 30, 1898.

Chinese in California—Miss Margaret Culbertson, August 1, 1897.

Hainan Mission—Rev. J. C. Melrose, September 16, 1897.

West Shantung Mission—Anna M. Larson, M.D., December 25, 1897.

Western Persia—Mrs. Benjamin Labaree, April 15, 1898.

On the other hand, the force on the foreign field has been increased by the addition of twenty-eight missionaries, of whom six were ordained ministers, three medical men, five medical women, seven other single women, one industrial missionary and six wives of missionaries. About two-thirds of this number were sent to the field by funds specially provided for the purpose.

It has been the great pleasure of some of your Committee to meet with twenty or thirty of our missionaries now at home on furlough, and we wish to testify to the singular impression left upon our minds and hearts of their zeal, love of the cause, consecration and spiritual power. These are they whose spiritual lives have been deepened, not by a visit to any famous place or convention, not by a study of the books of men reputed to have found the secret of power, but by dwelling with and obeying Him into whose hands all power in heaven and earth hath been given, and who, bidding them go preach His Gospel to the uttermost parts of the earth, promised to be with them; and He is with them. If we would have our spiritual lives deepened, if we would be filled with the Holy Ghost, we must get into obedient fellowship with Christ and into sympathetic touch with the choice ones of the elect of God, who have not counted home and friends, houses and lands, or even life, dear to themselves, but have obeyed the Master's command to "go" and have gone. That commission lies upon every one of us, and if we would have spiritual life and power, we must somehow manage to obey it either by going ourselves, or letting our children go when they are called, or by helping those to go who are waiting to be our substitutes. Every Christian man or woman, by the terms of his discipleship, must go to, or be represented on, the foreign field.

If any one doubts the superior consecration and spirituality of our missionaries, your Committee begs to call your attention to the following fact in connection with the payment this year of the Board's debt; nor is there any better test of consecration than in the use of God's money. That debt in round figures amounted to $98,000. After having first given largely of their own means to keep work going on their own fields, which the Board had to cut because of the distressing and increasing deficiency of funds at its command, our foreign missionaries added to their sacrifice by giving out of their salaries $10,500 plus, being an average gift of $14.50 plus, for every missionary, missionary's wife, medical missionary, young woman missionary and all under commission of the Board, in number 699. Should every ordained minister of the Presbyterian Church at home have shown the same spirit of consecration and sacrifice, the Board would have received a contribution of more than $101,500. Had their wives made a like offering as did the missionaries' wives, the sum would have been $200,000. What have our home ministers to say to this? At the same time the 1,000,000 communicants at home contributed $63,000, or a munificent average of six and one-third cents per capita, against $14.50 by the missionaries. Should the home Church have risen to the same height of sacrifice maintained by our foreign missionaries (leaving half our communicants out of the count on account of youth and lack of personal income or allowance), there would have been sent up to the Board the amazing sum of $7,250,000. Statistics may be but dry reading, but these and a few more to follow might well bring tears to our eyes. Let us see how we who are staying at home are fulfilling our Lord's command, to go preach the Gospel to every creature, and make disciples of all nations, and with what equity, as between the home and foreign field, we are disbursing our Lord's money committed to our stewardship.

The last year's Minutes show that in the Presbyterian Church there are nearly one million communicants. Let us suppose that our Church includes within the sphere of its influence ten times that number. In that case we are responsible for giving Gospel privileges and Christian instruction to 10,000,000 souls—truly a large and liberal share of the 70,000,000 of population of the United States of America.

In the providence of God, and according to the law and custom of Christian comity, as practiced by the Christian Churches working on foreign fields, there have been allotted to us as our sphere of influence, out of an estimated unevangelized population of 1,200,000,000 human souls, 160,000,000, or nearly a like proportion of the heathen population as compared with our home population.

In the meantime, let us remember that this 160,000,000 of heathen who have the Presbyterian Church only to look to for the Gospel, are far more wretched, needy and dependent than are the 10,000,000 of people at home who look to us for spiritual help and guidance.

Now, how are we dividing our resources; how proportionately spending our Lord's money? Take, for example: In the city of New York and Brooklyn there is a population of less than 3,000,000, of which we may claim that one-seventh, or say 400,000 are within the sphere of Presbyterian influence. What are we doing for the less than half of a million of souls? The Minutes of last year show that for purely congregational expenses the churches in these two cities expended a total of $777,365, or an amount just about equal to the total amount raised and expended by our whole Church on the foreign field for the evangelization, Christian instruction and education of the 160,000,000 souls committed to our care. This comparison between the expenditure of the New York and Brooklyn fields and the foreign field would hold good, if the comparison were made with any locality in our Eastern territory. But that is not the whole story. Our Church last year raised and expended on the home field in America, including congregational expenses, Home Missions, Freedmen, Colleges, Education, and all the benevolent works we are engaged in, covering a population of 10,000,000, a total sum of $12,554,000. On the other hand, we expended upon our foreign field for the help and salvation of 160,000,000, the sum of $864,702, or, in other words, we appropriate per capita for 10,000,000 people at home, including our own precious selves, $1.20, while for the 160,000,000 heathens committed to our care —the peculiar inheritance of our Lord Jesus Christ, whom He loves as well as He loves us, and for whom He died as really as He died for us, and in whose care we ourselves and our children would have been, if some foreign missionaries had not come or been sent to our heathen forefathers—we have managed to give per capita one-half of one cent. Am I my brother's keeper? Then let me give one-half of one cent to my brother and spend one hundred and twenty cents or two hundred and forty times as much upon myself. Did Christ love the heathen as well, and did He die for them as really as for us? Then let us have the mind that was in Christ, and love and sacrifice for the heathen two hundred and forty times less than we love and sacrifice for ourselves. Thou shalt love thy neighbor as thyself. Do ye unto others as you would that they should do unto you.

For the 10,000,000 of our home field we provide one ordained minister or licentiate for every one thousand. This does not take into account the Bible women, lay workers, Sabbath-school superintendents and teachers, Y. M. C. A. and other volunteer workers. For our 160,000,000 heathen brethren, loved by the same God, redeemed by the same precious blood, destined to the same eternity, we provide one missionary (including in the number missionaries' wives and all other kinds of missionaries, lay and medical) for every 230,000.

Your Committee desire to lay the facts and figures before the Moderator, fathers and brethren of this Assembly—this Assembly in which there has been so much reasonable self-congratulation and glorification of Presbyterians and Presbyterianism, and ask you, and through you the churches, what can our Lord Jesus Christ, to whom God gave the heathen for an inheritance, and the uttermost parts of the earth for His possession, think of us, His disciples and stewards, as he looks down from heaven and contemplates this maladministration and unproportionate distribution of the money he has in trust committed to our hands. We ask ourselves and you, how shall we give an account for this manner of stewardship when we appear before the judgment seat of Christ.

Your Committee beg to submit for your consideration the following resolutions:

Resolved, 1. That the recommendation of former Assemblies be reaffirmed, that no church should make less than two offerings during the year for the cause of Foreign Missions, and that one of these should be made in the month of April, the last month of the fiscal year of the Board, and that the occasion of this offering may well be made a season of special thanksgiving and humiliation.

Resolved, 2. That the following members of the Board be reëlected to serve for three years: the Rev. William M. Paxton, D.D., LL.D., the Rev. John D. Wells, D.D., the Rev. David Gregg, D.D., Mr. Alexander Maitland, Mr. John Stewart and William E. Stiger, Esq., and that the Rev. John F. Patterson be elected to fill the vacancy in the class of 1896–1899, and Mr. Scott Foster to fill the vacancy in the class of 1897–1900.

Resolved, 3. That the Assembly earnestly recommend the development of missionary interest in the Sabbath-schools, and that to this end the work of Foreign Missions should be given a regular place in the instruction of the schools, missionary books should be introduced into the Sabbath-school libraries, systematic giving should be encouraged, and Sunday, December 25, should be observed as a Missionary Sunday, with special Foreign Missionary exercises, and with special gifts to Christ for this great work.

Resolved, 4. That in view of the great success and blessing of the Foreign Missionary Conference held by the Assembly's authority just before the meeting of this Assembly, it is recommended to the Board that a similar conference be held preceding the next Assembly.

Resolved, 5. That the Records of the Board which we have carefully examined and find clearly, accurately and neatly kept, be approved.

Resolved, 6. In order to meet the appropriations already made for the fiscal year beginning May 1, 1898, together with inevitable additions which for providential reasons will be required during the year, an advance of at least twenty per cent. on the income of last year from living sources is indispensable, and must be made if another debt is to be avoided, to say nothing of the restoration of work cut out last year because of retrenchment, or of an expansion to which God, by His providence and Spirit, is so urgently calling us.

Resolved, 7. There being no adequate provision in the present system of examining candidates for appointment as missionaries, by which the religious views of laymen and women can be fully ascertained, it is recommended that the Board of Foreign Missions be authorized to propound to such candidates the following questions:

(1) "Do you believe the Scriptures of the Old and New Testaments to be the Word of God, the only infallible rule of faith and practice?"

(2) "Do you sincerely receive and adopt the Confession of Faith in this Church as containing the system of doctrine taught in the Holy Scriptures?"

(3) "Do you approve of the Government and Discipline of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America?"

(4) "Have you any views at variance with these doctrines, or any views of Church Government which would prevent your cordial coöperation with the missionaries of the Presbyterian Church in the U. S. A.?"

Resolved, 8. The General Assembly has learned with deep interest and satisfaction that the Protestant Foreign Missionary Societies of Great Britain, the Continent of Europe and America, have resolved to hold an Ecumenical Foreign Missionary Conference in the city of New York in the month of April, 1900, similar in character and aim to the World's Missionary Conference held in London in 1888. The opening of a new century would seem to be a fitting time to trace the development of the great foreign missionary enterprise which now circles the globe; to note the finger of God in the marvelous unfoldings of His providence and grace in connection with it; to recount the splendid conquests already made among unevangelized nations, and the agencies so signally blessed of the Holy Spirit by which they have been achieved; but above all to catch the significance of the trumpet call which summons the Church to a wider occupancy of the field and to still grander conquests for Christ by means of the mighty forces already within her reach. It is eminently a time for wise counsel and concerted action. The General Assembly therefore warmly commends the contemplated Ecumenical Missionary Conference, and heartily approves the action of the Board of Foreign Missions in joining in the undertaking, looking to the Church for such coöperation and support as may be found necessary.

Respectfully submitted,

GEORGE F. PENTECOST, Chairman.

The Standing Committee on Foreign Missions also presented a supplementary Report on certain Overtures, referred to it by the Assembly. The Report was adopted, and is as follows:

The Standing Committee on Foreign Missions presents the following supplementary Report:

I. In reference to the petition of the Synod of the Presbyterian Church of Brazil regarding the policy to be pursued by the Presbyterian Church in the U. S. A., in its missionary work in Brazil, and the answer thereto of the Board of Foreign Missions, it is recommended that the Assembly reply:

(1) That it recognizes the ecclesiastical independence and authority of the Presbyterian Church in Brazil, and that it is its aim in all its missionary work in Brazil to contribute to the establishment and upbuilding of that Church (Minutes, General Assembly, 1889).

(2) That it regards the educational work which it has inaugurated and developed at the request of the Synod of the Presbyterian Church in Brazil (Minutes, General Assembly, 1889, Synod of Brazil, 1891, p. 77) as having contributed notably to the development of Christian leaders and to the spread of the Gospel, and that while viewing as most desirable in all mission fields the great enlargement of direct evangelistic work, it affirms its belief also that educational work, when rightly conceived and directed by dominant evangelistic purpose, is a missionary agency of great importance and power.

(3) That in the judgment of the Assembly the best results of mission work in Brazil and other foreign fields will be attained only when right lines of distinction are observed between the functions of the native churches and the functions of the foreign missions; the missions contributing to the establishment of the native churches and looking forward to passing on into the regions beyond when their work is done, and the native churches growing up with an independent identity from the beginning, administering their own contributions and resources unentangled with any responsibility for the administration of the missions or of the funds committed to the missions.

(4) That while assuring the Synod of Brazil of its sympathy and of the coöperation of its missionaries, the Assembly sees no reason for advising any change in the policy of its Board in its work in Brazil, or of those who are interested in the college at Sao Paulo.

II. In the matter of the complaint of Mr. C. G. Jeremiassen against the Board of Foreign Missions, your Committee would report that after a prolonged and detailed investigation, at the close of which the complainant expressed himself as satisfied with the opportunity given him of stating his grounds for complaint, it would unanimously recommend that the complaint be dismissed, and that the action of the Board of September 20, 1897, terminating the complainant's connection with the Hainan Mission and the Board be confirmed, but that in all the circumstances, and especially in view of Mr. Jeremiassen's long and self-denying services, it be suggested to the Board that in the judgment of the Committee a more generous financial provision, to be determined by the Board, including return passage to Hainan within a reasonable period, would be justifiable, on the condition that Mr. Jeremiassen transfer to the Board, as he has declared to be his purpose, the title deeds to such properties of the Board in Hainan as are in his name or possession, and with the understanding,

(1) That during the time in which he may be supported by any provision made by the Board, he shall not raise funds in the Presbyterian Church in America for an independent mission, and

(2) That in case he returns to Hainan, he shall observe a territorial division of the island with the Hainan mission of the Presbyterian Church in the U. S. A., and shall not encroach on the northern two-thirds of the island.

III. In answer to the Overture from the Presbytery of Los Angeles, praying that the work among the Chinese and Japanese in that Presbytery remain under the Board of Foreign Missions, it is recommended that, inasmuch as the Overture is based upon a misapprehension of the facts in the case, no action be taken.

Respectfully submitted,

GEORGE F. PENTECOST, Chairman.

It was Resolved, That the session of the Assembly commence at 2 o'clock this afternoon, that the time of the session be extended to 5.30 o'clock, and that the presentation of the Report on the Next Place of Meeting be made the third Order of the Day.

The Assembly took recess, and was closed with prayer.

WEDNESDAY, May 25, 2 o'clock P.M.

The Assembly met, and was opened with prayer.

A resolution empowering the Stated Clerk to employ additional clerical aid in his office between the meetings of the General Assembly, was referred to the Standing Committee on Bills and Overtures.

The Standing Committee on Publication and Sabbath-school Work presented its Report, which was accepted and, after addresses by Rev. E. R. Craven, D.D., Secretary, and Rev. John R. Davies, D.D., Chairman, was adopted. The Report is as follows:

The Standing Committee on Publication and Sabbath-school Work would respectfully report, as follows:

Your Committee have examined, with great care, the work of this Board, as presented in its Editorial, Business and Missionary departments, and desires to bear testimony to the faithfulness, wisdom and sense with which it has discharged the important trust committed to its care by our Church.

1. Editorial Department.—During the past year the Editorial department has issued thirty-one new publications, among which we find an American edition of the History and Standards of the Westminster Assembly, by the Rev. Alexander Mitchell, D.D.; a Manual for Ruling Elders, by Rev. William Henry Roberts, D.D., LL.D., and since the close of the fiscal year the Chapel Hymnal and the new Digest have been published, while among the important books to be printed this fall will be a Bible dictionary for the use of Sabbath-school teachers, by Prof. John D. Davis, Ph.D., of Princeton Theological Seminary.

The success of the new Hymnal deserves special mention. Already it is used by more than 600 of our congregations. Its future is assured, and we owe a great debt of gratitude to the men who for years gave so unselfishly their time and energies for the production of this manual of praise which is so largely a blessed bond of union in our Presbyterian worship.

Nine (9) lesson leaves and four (4) illustrated papers represent the periodicals published, and while all of these stand among the first and best of the Sabbath-school literature of our land, we would especially mention the Westminster Teacher and the Forward as representing in scholarly ability, in devotional spirit, elements worthy of the highest commendation, and when we think of the fact that 43,000,000 copies of such literature are published annually, and scattered broadcast over the land, we are reminded most forcibly of the Tree of Life whose leaves are for the healing of the nations.

2. Business Department.—It is very gratifying, and confirms confidence in the fidelity and ability of those to whom this work is entrusted, to find that as a strictly business enterprise it has realized a net profit of about ten per cent. on the amount of business done, or nearly sixteen per cent. on the very ample capital invested, thus giving a net profit for the year of $31,047.04, giving two-thirds of this amount, or $20,698.03, to the benevolent work of the Board, and the other one-third, or $10,349.01, as an addition to the working capital of the business. The efficiency of the Board in the transaction of its business is illustrated by the promptness with which the interruption caused by the loss of the Chicago depository by fire was met. The entire issue of periodicals for the month of April, and for that quarter, for distribution in the district of which Chicago is the centre, were burned in this fire, having been received only a day or two previous. The subscription list, being saved intact, was forwarded at once to Philadelphia, and this entire loss was made good by reprinting the various editions required, so as to reach, almost without exception, the entire circle of subscribers, for their use on the first Sunday of the month.

Your Committee desires to emphasize the fact which it would seem is not always clearly understood, or fully appreciated, that under no circumstances are the contributions received by the Board from the churches, Sabbath-schools and individuals for the benevolent work used for the publishing business. Not a dollar, in any case, of the funds contributed for the Sabbath-school Missionary work of the Board is put into the Business department. On the contrary, two-thirds of the profits accruing from the publishing business are each year transferred as an addition to the funds for prosecuting the missionary work of the Board.

Your Committee recognizes, with great satisfaction, the completion of the Witherspoon Building in Philadelphia as a Presbyterian home for the accommodation of the Boards of the Church and other Presbyterian agencies centred at Philadelphia. It should be noticed that in the erection of this building not one dollar of the fund donated to the Board for missionary purposes has been used. These funds remain in their former investments. There is good reason to expect that the earnings of this building from rents, after providing for the various demands for the accommodation of the denominational Boards, will ultimately enable the Trustees to meet all the bonded indebtedness accruing in the completion of the building. This result is looked forward to with great satisfaction, and when that event shall be accomplished, the income will furnish the Board a large additional revenue for the enlargement of its legitimate missionary work. Your Committee also expresses its appreciation of the efficient service rendered by those who have had in charge the new building, and who with such fidelity and sacrifice of time and labor have brought it to a successful completion, and in the name of the Church tenders sincere thanks.

3. Sabbath-school Missionary Department.—The work of this department is conducted along two distinct lines, Educational and Missionary, the first seeking to increase the efficiency of existing schools, and the other organizing schools as evangelizing agencies in new and unoccupied fields, and the development of this seed of the kingdom in the Presbyterian churches.

(1) Educational Work.—In reviewing the educational work of the Board, your Committee is indebted to the exact, systematic methods of the Board, which enables us to see at a glance the methods employed for the accomplishment of its aims.

In this connection, the Twentieth-century Movement is deserving of special mention, and we hope the General Assembly will do all in its power to commend this work, which desires to signalize the entrance of the Presbyterian Church upon the new century by bringing at least half a million of scholars into our Sabbath-schools. In the further development of its educational work, the Board stands ready to aid and encourage the various forms of Synodical and Presbyterial associations and institutes to help every Sabbath-school to make the most of its Children's Day and Rallying Day, to reach through the Home department to "the shut-in classes," and especially to stimulate the memorizing of Scripture and the study of the Shorter Catechism, and we note with pleasure that during the year there has been an increase of nearly fifty per cent. in the number of those who have been awarded Bibles for reciting the Catechism.

(2) The Missionary Work.—During the year seventy-six missionaries have labored in twenty-four States and Territories, within the bounds of twenty-three Synods and sixty-three Presbyteries.

Since the last Assembly we have been called upon to mourn the death of the Rev. G. G. Mattherson, the faithful and peculiarly successful missionary of the Board in the Red River Presbytery, Minn., who during his four and a half years of service organized eighty mission schools, with a membership of 2864.

The Board reports a total of 1028 new Sabbath-schools organized during the year, with a membership of 4896 teachers and 46,518 scholars. Thus the labors of our Sabbath-school missionaries are producing enough churches annually to form a good Presbytery, and the 472 churches which have grown out of the schools organized by the missionaries of the Board during the last seven years would constitute two Synods of the average size. These schools are cared for by placing them under the direction of churches where there are any near enough, and if this be not possible, then the missionary is required to care for them till they be strong enough to be organized into churches. The efficiency of this oversight is shown by the fact that of the 938 organized between April, 1896, and April, 1897, 709 are reported this year as active, and from these fifty-six churches have already been organized. For this important work the General Assembly asked last year $200,000, and received of this amount less than fifty per cent., so that for the upbuilding of the Church in the spiritual waste places of our land through Sabbath-school missions our Church contributed a little over nine cents a member.

Your Committee beg leave to make the following recommendations:

1. That the appointment of the Rev. Alexander Henry in the place of the Rev. Charles Wadsworth, D.D., resigned, be ratified and approved. Also, the appointment of the Rev. Mervin J. Eckels, D.D., in the room of the Rev. Robert H. Fulton, D.D., long one of the Board's most faithful and valued members, who departed this life on the 12th of July, 1897; and that the following gentlemen, whose term of office expires June, 1898, be reëlected, viz.: Ministers—Charles A. Dickey, D.D., Robert M. Patterson, D.D., LL.D., Louis F. Benson, D.D., Rev. Alexander Henry; Elders—Robert H. Hinckley, Esq., Mr. John H. Watt, Mr. William H. Scott and Mr. Charles H. Bliss.

2. That Synods and Presbyteries be urged to form and sustain organizations for the more thorough development of the Presbyterian Sabbath-school system, and, wherever feasible, to hold Synodical and Presbyterial institutes and schools of methods for the development of efficiency in this department of our work.

3. That in view of the 250th Anniversary of the Westminster Standards, we would take opportunity to urge church Sessions, Sabbath-school superintendents and parents to a more diligent teaching of the Shorter Catechism to the children of the Church, and recommend the continuance of contributions for the fund which provides a copy of the Bible as a reward for memorizing that invaluable Standard of our Church.

4. That in recognition of the inestimable value to our children of a familiarity with the Word of God, we urge the adoption of the Board's plan of memorizing the Scriptures for Sabbath-schools.

5. That we again urge the observance of Children's Day and Rallying Day in all our Sabbath-schools, and that in connection therewith a special effort be made to secure generous offerings to the missionary work of the Board.

6. That the attention of the churches be called to the financial needs of this department of missionary work. The Board will continue to be sadly handicapped if it must look to the Sabbath-school as its chief source of financial support.

7. That this Assembly, which has sought and enjoyed so large a share of the presence and power of the Holy Spirit, urges upon the Sessions and Sabbath-school workers to make it their chief aim that the schools shall be centres of spiritual power for the conversion of scholars and the enthronement of Christ in their lives.

8. That we heartily indorse the Twentieth-century Movement, which the Board has recently inaugurated. This Movement furnishes a distinct and worthy object for the efforts of our Sabbath-school hosts. The magnitude of the undertaking is recognized. The possibility of its accomplishment depends upon unity of effort in the power of the Holy Spirit only. We recommend that pastors and superintendents make both Children's Day and Rallying Day an occasion for the explanation of this Movement, and that every Sabbath-school be urged to heartily coöperate in it. In behalf of the Committee,

JOHN R. DAVIES, Chairman.

The Committee on Publication and Sabbath-school Work presented also the following supplementary Report:

The Standing Committee on Publication and Sabbath-school Work also reports its action in regard to Overtures referred to it, as follows:

1. With regard to the Overture from the Presbytery of Trinity, asking that the General Assembly direct the Board of Publication not to ask for more than one annual offering from the Sabbath-schools, it is recommended that no action be taken. Adopted.

2. In regard to the Overture from the Presbytery of Ottawa, asking that the Sabbath-schools be organized into missionary societies, it is recommended that no action be taken. Adopted.

3. In answer to the Overture from the Presbytery of Monmouth, asking the General Assembly to direct the Board of Publication and Sabbath-school Work to print at least the Directory for Worship and the Shorter Catechism in the new Hymnal, it is recommended that the Board of Publication and Sabbath-school Work be directed to make known through their various advertising channels that any congregation desiring this privilege can secure the same on request. Adopted.

4. In regard to the Overture from the Presbytery of Steubenville, asking the General Assembly to urge the Board of Publication to provide services more suitable for Children's Day, the following action is recommended: That the Assembly appreciates the great difficulty experienced by the Board of Publication and Sabbath-school Work, in providing exercises for our Children's Day services, that will be acceptable to all; therefore the following alternative course of procedure is recommended: (1) That the Board each year publish two exercises, samples of which may be sent to the churches, so that each school may choose the one which in its judgment will be most appropriate to its needs; or (2) That a programme of exercises with two sets of tunes to the hymns be published in one pamphlet.

Respectfully submitted,

JOHN R. DAVIES, Chairman.

A resolution with reference to the Bible and the Lesson Helps was referred to the Standing Committee on Publication and Sabbath-school Work.

The Assembly proceeded to the Order of the Day, the consideration of the Report of the Special Committee on Authorized

Missionary Periodicals. After addresses by Rev. William H. McCaughey, D.D., Rev. S. S. Gilson, D.D., Mr. T. B. C. Burpee, Rev. John Hemphill, D.D., Rev. Theodore F. Burnham, Rev. George F. Pentecost, D.D., Mr. John J. Tower, Dr. W. C. Gray, Mr. Herman P. Faris, Mr. Thomas Kane, Louis H. Severance, Esq., and Rev. Richard S. Holmes, D.D., the Report was adopted, and is as follows:

To the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America:

The Committee appointed by the General Assembly of 1897, "to consider all questions relating to the authorized missionary publications of the Church, The Church at Home and Abroad, and The Assembly Herald, and report the facts with their recommendations to the next General Assembly," and consisting of Ministers—Richard S. Holmes, Teunis S. Hamlin and J. Ritchie Smith; and Ruling Elders—William M. Lanning and Louis H. Severance, does now report as follows:

Your Committee has had five meetings; has conferred with the Committee on Publication of The Church at Home and Abroad, the editor of The Assembly Herald, representatives of the Boards of Publication and Sabbath-school Work, of Home Missions, and of Foreign Missions, and the Presbytery of Westchester, with which originated the Overture that led to the appointment of this Committee; and by sub-Committees has consulted and corresponded with the Secretaries of all the Boards of the Church, with representatives of the Women's Boards, and with various ministers, editors and business men, in and out of our Church, who have had experience in the matter of missionary publications: in order to obtain all the information possible as to the questions which have arisen in the progress of the inquiry ordered by the General Assembly.

The proposition and arguments which in 1886 led to the consolidation of our missionary periodicals, the reasons which led in 1894 to the establishment of The Assembly Herald, and the history of the work of missionary publication since these dates as shown by the Reports in the Minutes of the General Assembly, have also been carefully studied by your Committee.

As to the consolidation of 1886, the proposition was, and it was in the nature of a foundation principle, that the work of the Church is a unit. The arguments were, in brief, that while the apparent interests of the Boards of Home and Foreign Missions were larger than those of the other Boards, because of their more widely extended fields of operation, yet their intrinsic interests were no greater. It was also generally admitted that all the Boards should have equal rights and facilities in presenting to the Church their respective interests, since all are equally entitled to its prayers and fostering care. Out of this parity of right and interest grew the plan of a single magazine, in which each Board was to have a definite space, cared for by an editor provided out of its executive force. On that plan the magazine was started, and has since been conducted. That it might be a unit, a supervising editor-in-chief was also chosen with his office in Philadelphia.

The reasons that led to the establishment of The Assembly Herald were the asserted inability of the consolidated magazine after years of trial to reach the people of the Church; the need of educating them in the matter of systematic giving; and the possibility of issuing a very cheap paper to be sent into each family. These considerations were in substance presented to the General Assembly of 1894 in Overtures from ninety Presbyteries, and in answer to them the publication of The Assembly Herald was authorized. That paper at once achieved a wide circulation, and has continued in the field with The Church at Home and Abroad for the four years.

The facts as to the work of missionary publication which your Committee have obtained, the opinions that we have formed as the result of our study of the facts, and the policy that we advocate for the future can be best presented in the form of answers to questions which we classify as follows:

A. Questions of fact. B. Questions of opinion.

We present in class A six questions, to wit:

1. By what means has The Church at Home and Abroad been published for the past eleven years?

2. What has been its annual and average monthly circulation?

3. What has been the financial result?

4. How has the joint editorial plan worked?

5. Has the present plan of management by a large Committee, whose members are widely separated, proved satisfactory?

6. What is the status in the Church of The Assembly Herald, and how has it affected The Church at Home and Abroad, and the policy of the General Assembly in the matter of consolidation?

In answering these questions of fact your Committee presents only what it has learned from the persons to whom it has addressed its inquiries, or such inferences as partake of the nature of fact.

We answer them in order:

1. Means of Publication.—The magazine has been issued by the Board of Publication and Sabbath-school Work. That Board, however, has no printing plant. It has purchased paper for the magazine, contracted for the work of composition, printing and folding, and incurred other expenses, of all which it has carefully kept itemized accounts. Although many publications are issued in the same way, yet it is obvious that the mechanical work in the production of The Church at Home and Abroad might have been done by farming it all out at a gross sum per annum. In making this statement, your Committee does not mean to imply that this work ought to have been farmed out in one gross sum, for no facts are before us upon which to base any opinion on this subject. Your Committee simply means to show that whether the mechanical work be farmed out in parcels, or as a whole, the Board of Publication and Sabbath-school Work is not an indispensable agent in the production of the magazine. The Committee on The Church at Home and Abroad has faithfully done what it believed to be wise, without pecuniary compensation or reward. Its work has been prosecuted for eleven years under the most trying circumstances, with great fidelity, and with the sole purpose of promoting the interests of our Lord's kingdom in the world. The Board of Publication and Sabbath-school Work, too, has rendered a most valuable service to the Church in connection with the publication of the magazine. It has reaped no direct pecuniary advantage therefrom. It has collected the subscriptions and debts of the magazine, and supplied money when needed to meet current expenses, thus carrying the obligations of the magazine through large portions of every year. Cheerfully conceding these valuable and efficient services of the Board of Publication and Sabbath-school Work, which your Committee believes the General Assembly should cordially acknowledge, the point now emphasized is that the mechanical work in the production of The Church at Home and Abroad has been done by contract—a method of publication that can be adopted in any city in the land.

2. The Circulation of "The Church at Home and Abroad."—Relatively to the size of our Church it has been small. Since the first year it has not been what the friends of consolidation hoped. Under a new impulse and enthusiasm in its first year The Church at Home and Abroad secured an average monthly circulation of 23,528 copies, and in 1888, its second year, an average circulation of 27,379 copies. It never secured either of these numbers again. The average monthly circulation for the last year ending December 1, 1897, was 13,459 copies. There have been only four years in the whole period in which the average circulation has been over 20,000 copies. It reached that point last in 1892, since which the decline has been steady.

3. The Financial Result.—The experiment of consolidation has been a costly one to the General Assembly, or rather to the Boards of the Church. It has been tried long enough to make it plain that there is no hope of financial improvement under the present system. The magazine has been conducted at a loss in eleven years of $55,063.81, or an average annual loss of over $5000. That loss has been paid by the various Boards of the Church, and is in part the occasion of the heavy debt under which some of them are struggling. A transcript made from the books of account of The Church at Home and Abroad, and certified by the bookkeeper as correct, shows the expenses for eleven years ending December 1, 1897, to have been $269,580.97, while for the same period the receipts have been only $216,708.86. To this deficit of $52,872.11 must be added two items which are carried as assets, one of which, amounting to $1631.70, is considered by the business manager of the Board of Publication and Sabbath-school Work as hopelessly worthless, and one of which, amounting to $560, must be paid by the Boards of the Church, and is therefore a loss by the business management of the magazine. These two items amounting to $2191.70 when added to $52,872.11 make the whole deficiency as figured above. The transcript from which these figures are taken is appended to this Report.

4. The Editorial Plan.—The editorial plan comprised a chief editor in Philadelphia and eight sub-editors, one to represent each of the Boards of the Church. This plan has not attained the success that was expected. The reasons for its failure can be easily given.

First, it destroyed the unity of the magazine, which has been too much in the nature of a collection of pamphlets, thus emphasizing rather the idea of a division of the Church's work than its unity. The system which the General Assembly devised of setting apart a definite number of pages for each Board, with a Secretary-editor, having control of his Board's allotment of pages, with an editor-in-chief having also control of the same pages, was doomed to failure from the outset. The ablest editorial management could not have made the magazine a success on such a system.

Second, it made misunderstandings and difficulties possible which might have caused serious harm to the interests represented had it not been for the Christian forbearance of the parties occupying these positions. That there have been misunderstandings is a matter of history in the pages of the magazine.

Third, an editor in Philadelphia, and editors in Chicago, or Pittsburgh, or New York, were too widely separated to have their angle of view the same; frequent conference was impracticable, and quick agreement on questions growing out of unlooked-for emergencies was impossible, though both were essential to the successful conduct of the magazine.

5. The Committee on "The Church at Home and Abroad."—This Committee consisted of eleven members divided between the cities of Philadelpia and New York. Experience has proved that such a Committee is not satisfactory. Its meetings have been infrequent, and nothing has been accomplished by it which could not as well have been done by either the New York or Philadelphia part of it alone.

6. The Status in the Church of "The Assembly Herald," and its Effect upon "The Church at Home and Abroad," and upon the General Assembly's Policy of Consolidation.—The existence of The Assembly Herald is inconsistent with the action of the General Assembly of 1886, which ordered the consolidation of our missionary periodicals. Although in 1894, in answer to Overtures from ninety Presbyteries, the General Assembly provided for the addition of an inexpensive missionary publication, to be called The Assembly Herald, which was not to be a rival of, but a supplement to, The Church at Home and Abroad, yet the action of 1886 was never repealed. The purpose in 1894 was to disseminate missionary intelligence among the people of the Presbyterian Church at a cheaper rate; but to attempt to carry such a purpose into effect by granting the prayer of the ninety Overtures was a practical confession by the General Assembly that The Church at Home and Abroad did not reach the people as it desired to have them reached, and was at the same time a recession from the position of 1886, for it began once more the multiplication of missionary periodicals.

As to the effect of The Assembly Herald upon The Church at Home and Abroad, and upon the policy of the General Assembly in the matter of consolidation, your Committee fears it has been disastrous, although such result was not foreseen. It appears by the transcript annexed to this Report that in 1893 the average monthly circulation of The Church at Home and Abroad was 18,542, in 1894 it was 16,879, in 1895 it was 15,890, and in 1897 it was 13,459. The loss of subscribers in these three years of unintended competition was 5083. The claim that The Assembly Herald was not a competitor of The Church at Home and Abroad has been always made by its editor, and the Committee on The Church at Home and Abroad has not contended that it was. If the claim be allowed, it is because the make-up of The Assembly Herald was originally so inexpensive and inferior as to render the paper unattractive to the average Presbyterian reader. It is not because it did not appeal to the same constituency, or publish facts concerning the same departments of missionary work. The claim of non-competition, however, can no longer be made. The change in form and quality of paper of The Assembly Herald made in the past year brings it now into direct competition with the magazine.

The question of the effect of The Assembly Herald upon the policy of consolidation is capable of but one answer. It is a step backward, and away from the position of 1886. The Assembly then declared for the consolidation of its periodicals. In 1894, by authorizing the publication of another paper, it practically returned to the old order of things, for it placed in the field two periodicals issued by its authority, edited in the same interest, setting forth the same classes of facts, which emanated from the same sources, and were sent out for the same purpose. The General Assembly has gone back to 1885 under different guise, and in much inferior fashion.

We present in Class B three questions of opinion, to wit:

1. Shall the work of missionary publication be carried on by the General Assembly in the interest of the various Boards of the Church, or shall that work be done by the Boards through their own separate publications?

2. If by the General Assembly, shall the present plan of two authorized publications, one cheap and the other comparatively dear, be continued in operation?

3. Is there reasonable hope that one missionary publication can be made self-sustaining?

In answering these questions of opinion your Committee has been forced to enter to some extent the field of discussion. The work imposed on us has required us to outline a policy for the future. The statement of facts above made is useful only in showing that the policy of the past has not accomplished all that is desired, and in furnishing reasonable ground of hope that the proposed policy for the future will do better. Our conclusions must involve the consideration of questions upon which differences of opinion exist. Any change of policy must be in some degree experimental. We believe, therefore, that no more radical change should be made than the present condition seems to demand.

We answer these questions also in their order.

1. The Work of Missionary Publication.—That this work should be done under the authority of the General Assembly and in the interest of all the Boards, we believe to be the general opinion in the Church. A missionary publication should therefore necessarily become in effect the official organ of the General Assembly. Shall this policy be pursued, or shall this function be left to the Boards themselves? Can the Boards better subserve their own ends in a separate and independent way? To secure an answer to this question the correspondence of your Committee has been very wide, and the answers have been nearly unanimous. The Boards have no ends of their own to subserve; they are simply working for the Church as it expresses its desires through the General Assembly, and are its agents. It is plain that the missionary work of the Church must be kept before the mind and heart of the Church, and equally plain that no power but that of the Church itself will attempt to do it. The question of the means by which this should be accomplished would be easy of solution, if there were but a single agency in charge of our various missionary enterprises, or if they were all grouped at a single point. But we have eight agencies, each of which has an equal right to a hearing, and which are divided in location between four different points remote from each other. How to keep these eight interests properly before the Church is the question. It is clear to your Committee that this work must be done by the Church in its organic capacity. If any given Board is to assume the burden of presenting its needs to the Church, then every other Board must do the same thing, either by itself, or in connection with one or more of the other Boards. If this course be pursued and the periodical be the means employed for such presentation, the result must necessarily be several periodicals, appealing at the same time to the same constituency, and rivalries and jealousies will be almost unavoidable; parties will be created in the Church, one of which will say, "I am of the Home Board," and another, "I am of the Foreign Board," and another, "I am of the Board of Missions for Freedmen," and so on throughout the list. The natural tendency of such a course must be to call attention to the Boards as Boards in their individual character, and not as executive departments of the Church. The thought that the Boards are the servants of the Church in corelation, and each equally entitled to a fair field for the performance of the work devolved upon it, should never escape us. Your Committee firmly believes that for this purpose a single periodical should be issued by the authority of the General Assembly. The scope of such a periodical is already well understood. It is to diffuse missionary and other religious intelligence necessary to the welfare of the Church, to arouse interest in the work of the Church, and to secure the money requisite for the prosecution of that work. That this can and should be accomplished is the unanimous opinion of your Committee.

2. Shall Two Publications be Continued?—That depends entirely upon the answer that the General Assembly makes to the question, Shall the policy of consolidation adopted in 1886 be continued or abandoned? The arguments that led to the action of 1886 are as cogent now as then. Moreover, two things must be considered:

(1) It is evident that The Assembly Herald is a practical, if unintentional competitor of The Church at Home and Abroad. The loss on the publication of the magazine has been in eleven years $55,000, and if the present policy of publishing two periodicals, both under the authority of the General Assembly, be continued, there must inevitably be an increase in the deficit of the more expensive publication. The question arises, therefore, Is there probability that the profits of The Assembly Herald will be so large as to compensate the Boards for the loss by The Church at Home and Abroad? The financial statement made by the editor of The Assembly Herald as of May 18, 1897, which is appended to this Report, does not suggest to your Committee that such a result is even a remote possibility.

(2) If there are to be hereafter two publications, the Board of Foreign Missions is convinced that it should be allowed to publish its own, and that Board has officially requested your Committee to consider whether we should not recommend its withdrawal from the consolidated magazine, and its establishment of a distinctly foreign mission publication. The views of the Foreign Board in support of this request were presented with so much force that the matter was made the subject of special correspondence with a large number of representative ministers of our Church. In the light of this correspondence, and of the most careful deliberation of your Committee, it seems best not to make such a recommendation.

We, therefore, conclude that there should be a single publication, issued as the organ of the Church, representing all the Boards of the Church.

3. Self-sustainment. Is there reasonable ground to hope for it?—On this point your Committee has received diverse expressions of opinion. Some say no such publication can be made self-supporting. This, in general, is the opinion of the editors of the religious papers of the various denominations with whom we have conferred. It is said that a paper having but a single object, especially if it be a denominational paper, cannot hope to become self-supporting because of the necessarily limited constituency to which it appeals. On the other hand, some say that such a paper will succeed in paying its own way if it be well edited after the manner of successful literary journals. Some point to The Missionary Herald and publications like it, and show that they have not been more financially successful than The Church at Home and Abroad, but that they are not expected to be paying enterprises, being simply used as a wise and easy means of informing the churches as to the wants of the religious societies which they represent. Others point to The Missionary Review of the World and Woman's Work for Woman, and say they are missionary papers that are abundantly successful financially. Moreover, our own Board of Foreign Missions has said to your Committee repeatedly that it had succeeded in making its own publication self-supporting before the consolidation of 1887. We have a great constituency to which to appeal. We believe if it is appealed to in the right way it will respond. The essential thing is to make a paper on the lines that general newspaper experience has laid down as wise. Newspaper instinct and newspaper training must go into the conduct of a successful missionary publication. The first question is not one of cost to the reader. The paper must first of all keep in mind what the people want. What they want they will have, the cost being reasonable. Your Committee is, therefore, of the opinion that no insuperable obstacle is in the way of the success of a missionary paper or magazine, if it be put before the religious public in the right way.

Your Committee having thus set forth the facts of which it has become possessed in the course of its inquiries and the opinions which are logically based upon them, would restate them succinctly that they may be plainly before the eye of each member of the General Assembly, as follows:

1. The Church at Home and Abroad has been published for eleven years by a Committee of the General Assembly. Neither the Committee nor the Board of Publication and Sabbath-school Work which has acted as its agent has owned, or does own a printing plant. The method employed could have been as successfully used in any other city in the land, since the Committee has been compelled to depend entirely on outside contracting parties for the production of the magazine.

2. The largest average monthly circulation of The Church at Home and Abroad was 27,379 copies obtained in 1888, and in 1897 that circulation has fallen to 13,459 copies per month.

3. The Church at Home and Abroad has cost the Church over and above all its earnings in its eleven years of history, $55,063.81, or an average annual loss of $5005.80, which loss has been or will have to be borne by the Boards.

4. The Church at Home and Abroad has failed to be a quick means of communication between the Boards and the churches, and the plan of having several editors in different cities has proved impracticable.

5. The Assembly Herald has been published for four years by a Committee appointed by the General Assembly, with Rev. William H. Hubbard as Editor and Manager. Only three of these years have come under our review. Its method of production, to wit, by contract, has been practically identical with that of The Church at Home and Abroad.

6. The circulation of The Assembly Herald was 125,000 copies per month during 1894–5, 132,000 copies per month during 1895–6, and 120,000 during 1896–7.

7. The Assembly Herald earned above its cost in its first year the sum of $7790.04, less $438.64 received from The Christian Steward, which it succeeded. It earned $5021.70 in its second year, or $2329.70 less than in its first year. It lost $3343.29 in its third year. This loss still leaves its earned assets, $9029.81, of which $4983.36 was reported to the last General Assembly as cash on hand.

8. The parties in interest, the various Boards of the Church, are not satisfied that their wants are being met by either or both of these publications as at present conducted.

In view of what has thus been presented, your Committee respectfully recommends to the General Assembly the adoption of the following resolutions:

Resolved, 1. That the General Assembly records its appreciation of the valuable service rendered in the conduct of its missionary publications by the Committee on The Church at Home and Abroad for eleven years without compensation; by the Board of Publication and Sabbath-school Work, which has without remuneration borne the burden of the financial conduct of the magazine, and by the Rev. William H. Hubbard, who has so untiringly striven to solve the problem of a cheaper and more widely circulated missionary periodical.

Resolved, 2. That The Church at Home and Abroad and The Assembly Herald as at present conducted be discontinued on January 1, 1899.

Resolved, 3. That in their place the General Assembly do authorize and provide for the publication of a single monthly magazine representing the interests of all the Boards, under the name of The Assembly Herald, the publication to begin with January 1, 1899.

Resolved, 4. That the new magazine shall have its editorial and business offices in the Presbyterian Building in New York city.

Resolved, 5. That a Committee of five, two ministers and three laymen, no one of whom shall be a member or officer of any Board or Permanent Committee of the Church, be appointed to supervise the publication of the magazine. This Committee shall serve for one year and until their successors are chosen, and shall present a full Report annually of the work and its financial condition to the General Assembly: and for the first year the Committee shall be composed of George W. Knox, Maitland Alexander, Henry W. Jessup, James Yereance and Henry L. Smith.

Resolved, 6. That the new magazine, exclusive of advertisements, shall not exceed sixty-four pages per number, of the size of those of The Church at Home and Abroad; that the price be fifty cents per year, and that the magazine be sent free to pastors, stated supplies, foreign missionaries and executive officers of the Boards.

Resolved, 7. That the Committee on the magazine be authorized to employ and to fix the salary of a business manager and editor, who shall have independent control under the general supervision of the Committee of all matters pertaining to the production of the magazine, but always in friendly conference with the executive officers of the Boards, and especially where questions of their administrative policy are concerned, and that for the first year the editor and manager shall be the Rev. William H. Hubbard.

Resolved, 8. That the profits of the magazine, if any, over and above what the Committee shall deem advisable to retain as a working capital, shall be divided from time to time as deemed expedient by the Committee amongst the Boards of our Church, in proportion to the contributions received by the Boards from the congregations for the fiscal year next preceding the apportionment; all losses, if any, shall be sustained by the Boards in the same proportion, and shall be paid to the Committee from time to time as they may require payment.

Resolved, 9. That the expense of the magazine shall be met as far as possible by its income: that any deficiency at the end of each fiscal year shall be considered a loss to be paid by the Boards in the manner above stated; that the Committee on the magazine shall have authority to borrow, from time to time, such sums of money as may be necessary for conducting the magazine in anticipation of the payments by the Boards on account of losses, and also in anticipation of receipts from subscriptions and advertisements.

Resolved, 10. That the Stated Clerk of the General Assembly be instructed and authorized to send a circular letter to each Presbytery before January 1, 1899, requesting the Presbytery to take such action as it may deem wise for the introduction of the magazine into every church and family within its bounds.

Resolved, 11. That the Stated Clerk of the General Assembly be directed to ask of the Stated Clerk of each Presbytery annually, the following question: "Have you called officially the attention of each congregation within the bounds of your Presbytery this year to the matter of its duty in reference to the support and use of The Assembly Herald?"

All of which is respectfully submitted,

RICHARD S. HOLMES,
TEUNIS S. HAMLIN,
J. RITCHIE SMITH,
WILLIAM M. LANNING,
LOUIS H. SEVERANCE.

After a formal withdrawal by Dr. W. C. Gray of the invitation from the Winona Assembly and Summer School:

The Standing Committee on the Next Place of Meeting presented its Report, which was adopted and is as follows:

The Committee on the Next Place of Meeting respectfully reports to the General Assembly that they have received invitations for the meeting of the General Assembly of 1899 from the Westminster Church, Minneapolis, Minn.; from the Winona Assembly and Summer School; the First Presbyterian Church of Warrensburg, Mo., and from a representative of the Presbyterians of Chattanooga, Tenn. The invitation from Minneapolis is accompanied with a pledge from Westminster Church offering free entertainment of one hundred Commissioners and the payment of the expenses of the Committee of Arrangements, and additional free entertainment has been promised by the representatives of other churches in that city. The Committee recommends that the invitation from the Westminster Church of Minneapolis, Minn., be accepted. It is also recommended that the Committee of Arrangements for the Assembly of 1899 be composed of the pastor and Session of the Westminster Church of Minneapolis, with the Stated and Permanent Clerks of the Assembly; and that the cordial thanks of the Assembly be tendered to all the parties presenting invitations.

WALLACE RADCLIFFE,
WM. H. ROBERTS,
WILLIAM E. MOORE.

It was Resolved, That a Committee of three be appointed to draw up suitable resolutions of thanks to the Winona Assembly and Summer School. Adopted.

The Standing Committee on Bills and Overtures reported upon Overture No. 9, from the Presbytery of Pittsburgh, dealing with McGiffert's History of Christianity in the Apostolic Age.

Minority Reports were presented by the Rev. W. S. P. Bryan, D.D., and the Rev. Francis Brown, D.D.

The Report of the Committee and the minority Reports were accepted, and it was Moved, That the majority Report be adopted.

Further, it was Resolved, That its consideration be made the first Order of the Day for Friday afternoon, and the Stated Clerk be authorized to print all the Reports.

It was Resolved, That the presentation of the Report of the Standing Committee on Temperance be made the second Order of the Day for Friday morning.

It was Resolved, That on Thursday, May 26, no business be transacted by the Assembly other than that necessarily connected with the celebration of the 250th Anniversary of the Adoption of the Westminster Standards.

The Assembly adjourned, and was closed with prayer.

WEDNESDAY, May 25, 7.30 o'clock P.M.

A popular meeting in the interest of Foreign Missions was held, at which the Rev. J. C. R. Ewing, D.D., presided, and addresses were made by Rev. Thomas C. Winn, of Japan; Rev. Joshua C. Garritt, of China; Rev. William H. Hannum, of India; Rev. Jonathan Wilson, of the Laos, and Rev. William B. Boomer, of Chile.

THURSDAY, May 26.

The General Assembly entered upon the "Celebration of the Quarter-millennial Anniversary of the Adoption of the Confession of Faith and Catechisms of the Westminster Assembly of Divines," in accordance with the Programme reported to the Assembly by the Committee appointed for the purpose.

Sessions were held at 9 A.M., 2.15 P.M. and 7.15 P.M.

The order of exercises was as follows:

9 o'clock A.M.

The Rev. Sheldon Jackson, D.D., LL.D., presiding.

4. Prayer, ... Rev. John Dixon, D.D., Trenton, N. J.

* The Psalms and "Tones" used at the morning session of the celebration were taken from Livingstone's Psalter of 1635, and were transposed from the old-fashioned musical notation into that of the present by Mr. Henry C. Wilt, the organist and choirmaster of the Tabernacle Presbyterian Church, Philadelphia.

† The gavel used at this celebration was made of Westminster Abbey oak of the time of Henry III, about six hundred years ago. The gavel block consisted of a section of a small pillar of Purbeck marble removed from Westminster Abbey during repairs, and was set in American oak. The Westminster specimens were obtained from Dean Bradley, of Westminster Abbey, through the kindness of William Caruthers, LL.D., of London, England, and at the request of the Rev. Henry C. McCook, D.D., Sc.D., pastor of the Tabernacle Presbyterian Church, Philadelphia, Pa. Dr. McCook had the gavel made and the marble mounted. The programme had upon it engravings representing the Seal for the Approbation of Ministers of the Westminster Assembly, the Chapel of Henry VII, and the Jerusalem Chamber, Westminster Abbey; the Seal of the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the U. S. A., the likenesses of Dr. William Twisse, prolocutor of the Westminster Assembly, and Alexander Henderson, author of the Solemn League and Covenant. The Committee of Arrangements gratefully acknowledge their indebtedness for the gavel and block, and for the plates and tunes of the programme, to the Rev. Dr. McCook.

5. Address, ... Rev. Robert F. Coyle, D.D., Oakland, Cal.
"THE WESTMINSTER POLITY AND WORSHIP."

6. Address, Rev. Wallace Radcliffe, D.D., Moderator, Washington, D.C.
"THE MEN AND WORK OF THE WESTMINSTER ASSEMBLY."

7. Hymn 662 (Hymnal), Rev. W. A. Hunter, D.D., Bloomington, Ill.
"O God, beneath Thy guiding hand."

8. Address, . . Rev. Benjamin L. Agnew, D.D., Philadelphia, Pa.
"THE AMERICAN PRESBYTERIAN CHURCHES AND THE ADOPTING ACTS."

9. Address, ... Gen. James A. Beaver, Bellefonte, Pa.

FRIDAY, May 27, 9 o'clock A.M.

The Assembly met, and was opened with devotional services.

The Minutes of Wednesday's sessions were read and approved.

* In Governor Mount's absence, owing to a call for troops for the U. S. Army, his son, the Rev. Harry Mount, occupied the Chair, by request of the Committee.

The Stated Clerk reported a case of distress on the part of certain Commissioners, which was referred to the Committee on Finance.

It was Resolved, That the General Assembly meet this evening at 7.15 o'clock, and that the Order of the Day, until 8.15, be the Report of the Standing Committee on Benevolence, and that afterwards a popular meeting be held in the interest of the cause of Temperance.

The Judicial Commission, Rev. Charles A. Stoddard, D.D., Chairman, submitted its findings in Judicial Cases Nos. 4, 5 and 9. The findings were ordered to be placed upon the Record, and are as follows:

C. W. Backus vs. The Synod of Kansas.

Judicial Case No. 4.—The Judicial Commission appointed by the General Assembly, to whom was referred the appeal of Rev. C. W. Backus, D.D., from the action and decision of the Synod of Kansas, in dismissing his complaint and affirming the action of the Presbytery of Topeka, which came before the Assembly on his appeal, found the appeal in order, heard the parties, and decided that, as it appears that Dr. Backus has conducted his appeal in due form, and that the Synod whose judgment is appealed from has not sent up its Records and all the papers relating thereto and filed with the Record, it is ordered and adjudged that the case be remanded to the Synod of Kansas, and that the Synod of Kansas be directed to send to the Assembly an authenticated copy of all the evidence and documents before it, and that the Synod be censured for neglecting to send up the Records.

N. N. MacCullough vs. The Synod of Baltimore.

Judicial Case No. 5.—The Judicial Commission appointed by the General Assembly, to whom was referred the appeal of N. N. MacCullough from an action and decision of the Synod of Baltimore in affirming the decision of the Presbytery of Washington City, which came before the Presbytery on his appeal, found the appeal in order and heard the parties, and decided that as it appears that Mr. MacCullough has conducted his appeal in due form, and that the Synod whose judgment is appealed from has not sent up its Records and all the papers relating thereto and filed with the Record, it is ordered and adjudged that the case be remanded to the Synod of Baltimore, and that the Synod of Baltimore be directed to send to the Assembly an authenticated copy of all the evidence and documents before it.

THE PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH IN THE U. S. A. vs. THE SYNOD OF NEBRASKA, IN THE CASE OF J. SCOTT WOODS.

Judicial Case, No. 9.—The Judicial Commission appointed by the General Assembly, to whom was referred the Judicial Case of the Presbyterian Church in the U. S. A. against Mr. J. Scott Woods, which came before the Assembly on the appeal by the Church from the action of the Synod of Nebraska in reversing the judgment of the Presbytery in said case, affirming the judgment of the Session, found the appeal in order, heard the parties upon the question of jurisdiction, and decided as follows: That the case be remanded to the Synod without prejudice, because of insufficiency of the Record, in that the Record does not state that the specifications were voted upon separately as required by Book of Discipline, Section 99 [5], and assigns no reason for the action and orders of the Synod as required by Section 24, Book of Discipline.

CHARLES A. STODDARD, Chairman.

The Judicial Commission, Rev. John F. Patterson, Chairman, submitted its finding in Judicial Case No. 3, the finding was ordered to be placed upon the Record, and is as follows:

THE PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH IN THE U. S. A. et al. vs. THE SYNOD OF OHIO, IN THE CASE OF W. J. MASSEY.

Judicial Case No. 3.—The Judicial Commission to which was referred the complaint of the Rev. Frank Granstaff and the Rev. A. W. Ringland, and the appeal of the Rev. J. C. Holliday, against the action of the Synod of Ohio, in reversing the decision of the Presbytery of Zanesville and the Session of the First Church of Zanesville, in refusing to grant a letter of dismission to W. J. Massey, a member under suspension, respectfully report the following, viz.: The complaint and appeal are sustained, and the action of the Synod is reversed. The grounds of this decision are, first, that Synod reversed the action of the Presbytery and of the Session, without assigning any specific reasons therefor; and, second, that it ordered a letter of dismission to be given to a suspended member when there was no satisfactory evidence of his repentance.

JOHN F. PATTERSON, Chairman.
JOHN T. S. BLACKBURN, Clerk.

The Standing Committee on Church Polity reported, recommending that Judicial Case No. 11, being a complaint of the Rev. William H. Pumphrey, Ph.D., against the Synod of Pennsylvania, which had been referred to it by the Judicial Committee, be referred to the Judicial Committee sitting as a Commission, and that in the place of certain members of the Synod of Pennsylvania, who are on the Judicial Committee, the following be substituted: Ministers—William L. Moore, D.D., Nathan D. Hynson, William E. Archibald, and Ruling Elder—Rush Taggart.

A Resolution asking the Assembly to give its indorsement to the Brotherhood of Andrew and Philip was referred to the Standing Committee on Bills and Overtures.

The Committee of Canvass of the Answers to the Overtures sent down by the last General Assembly presented its Report, which was adopted, and is as follows:

The Committee of Canvass of the Overtures sent down by the last Assembly report that, having carefully canvassed the answers from the Presbyteries to the Overture on the Powers of Session, they find that affirmative answers to this Overture have been returned by one hundred and eighty Presbyteries, viz.: the Presbyteries of Aberdeen, Albany, Allegheny, Alton, Athens, Atlantic, Austin, Baltimore, Bellefontaine, Benicia, Binghamton, Bismarck, Black Hills, Blairsville, Bloomington, Boisé, Boston, Boulder, Brooklyn, Buffalo, Butler, Butte, Cairo, Cape Fear, Carlisle, Catawba, Central Dakota, Chester, Champlain, Chemung, Chicago, Chillicothe, Choctaw, Columbus, Cimarron, Cincinnati, Clarion, Columbia, Corning, Council Bluffs, Crawfordsville, Dakota, Dayton, Denver, Des Moines, Detroit, Duluth, East Florida, East Oregon, Ebenezer, Elizabeth, Emporia, Erie, Flint, Fort Dodge, Freeport, Genesee, Geneva, Grand Rapids, Great Falls, Hastings, Helena, Highland, Holston, Hudson, Huntingdon, Huron, Indianapolis, Iowa, Iowa City, Jersey City, Kalamazoo, Kansas City, Kendall, Kiamichi, Kingston, Knox, La Crosse, Lake Superior, Lansing, Larned, Lehigh, Lima, Logansport, Long Island, Los Angeles, Louisville, Lyons, McClelland, Madison, Mahoning, Mankato, Marion, Mattoon, Milwaukee, Minneapolis, Monmouth, Monroe, Muncie, Nassau, Nebraska City, Neosho, New Albany, Newark, New Brunswick, Newcastle, Newton, New York, Niagara, Niobrara, North River, North Texas, Northumberland, Oakland, Oklahoma, Olympia, Omaha, Osborne, Otsego, Ottawa, Ozark, Palmyra, Parkersburg, Pembina, Philadelphia, Philadelphia North, Peoria, Pittsburgh, Platte, Portland, Pueblo, Red River, Redstone, Rio Grande, Rochester, Sacramento, St. Clairsville, St. Lawrence, St. Louis, St. Paul, San Francisco, San José, Santa Barbara, Santa Fé, Schuyler, Sioux City, Solomon, Southern Dakota, Southern Oregon, Southern Virginia, South Florida, Spokane, Springfield, Steuben, Steubenville, Stockton, Topeka, Transylvania, Troy, Union, Utah, Utica, Vincennes, Walla Walla, Washington City, Waterloo, Wellsborough, Westchester, West Jersey, Westminster, White River, White Water, Winnebago, Winona, Wooster, Yadkin and Zanesville.

The following eleven Presbyteries made answer in the negative, viz.: the Presbyteries of Cayuga, Cedar Rapids, Cleveland, Dubuque, Gunnison, Lackawanna, Morris and Orange, Puget Sound, St. Cloud, Syracuse, Washington.

The vote of the Presbyteries of Saginaw and Willamette was divided.

The Presbytery of Maumee took no action, and the number of the Presbyteries which did not vote appears to be thirty-four.

We therefore recommend the following:

Resolved, That the General Assembly does hereby declare that, the majority of the Presbyteries having signified their assent, the Form of Government, Chapter 9, is now amended by the addition of the following new Section, to be known as Section 7 (the three succeeding sections to be renumbered as Sections 8, 9 and 10):

"Sec. 7. Subject to the provisions of the Directory for Worship, the Session shall have and exercise exclusive authority over the worship of the congregation, including the musical service; and shall determine the times and places of preaching the Word, and all other religious services. They shall also have exclusive authority over the uses to which the church buildings may be put, but may temporarily delegate the determination of such uses to the body having management of the temporal affairs of the church, subject to the superior authority and direction of the Session."

Your Committee further report that, having also examined the answers returned by the Presbyteries to the Overture known as the Overture on Deacons and Temporal Affairs, and which related to a proposed change of Chapter vi of the Form of Government, we find the vote to be as follows: In the affirmative, one hundred and two Presbyteries, viz.: the Presbyteries of Alton, Atlantic, Bellefontaine, Benicia, Black Hills, Boisé, Boston, Boulder, Brooklyn, Buffalo, Butler, Butte, Cairo, Cape Fear, Catawba, Central Dakota, Champlain, Chemung, Chillicothe, Choctaw, Cimarron, Cleveland, Council Bluffs, Crawfordsville, Des Moines, Duluth, Ebenezer, Emporia, Fort Dodge, Grand Rapids, Great Falls, Gunnison, Hastings, Helena, Highland, Holston, Indianapolis, Jersey City, Kansas City, Kendall, Kiamichi, Kingston, Knox, La Crosse, Lansing, Larned, Lehigh, Louisville, McClelland, Mankato, Mattoon, Monmouth, Muncie, Nebraska City, Neosho, New Albany, Newark, New Castle, Niobrara, North River, North Texas, Northumberland, Oakland, Omaha, Otsego, Ottawa, Ozark, Palmyra, Pembina, Peoria, Philadelphia North, Platte, Portland, Puget Sound, Red River, Redstone, Rio Grande, Sacramento, St. Louis, Santa Barbara, Santa Fé, Schuyler, Solomon, Southern Oregon, Southern Virginia, Spokane, Springfield, Steubenville, Stockton, Trinity, Union, Utah, Vincennes, Walla Walla, Westchester, White River, Willamette, Winona, Wooster, Yadkin and Zanesville.

In the negative, eighty-two Presbyteries, viz.: the Presbyteries of Albany, Allegheny, Athens, Baltimore, Binghamton, Bismarck, Blairsville, Bloomington, Carlisle, Cayuga, Cedar Rapids, Chester, Chicago, Cincinnati, Clarion, Columbia, Columbus, Corning, Dakota, Dayton, Denver, Detroit, Dubuque, East Florida, Elizabeth, Erie, Flint, Freeport, Genesee, Geneva, Hudson, Huntingdon, Huron, Iowa City, Kalamazoo, Kittanning, Lackawanna, Lake Superior, Lima, Logansport, Long Island, Los Angeles, Lyons, Milwaukee, Minneapolis, Monroe, Morris and Orange, Nassau, New Brunswick, Newton, New York, Niagara, Oklahoma, Osborne, Parkersburg, Philadelphia, Pittsburgh, Pueblo, Rochester, Saginaw, St. Clairsville, St. Cloud, St. Lawrence, St. Paul, San Francisco, San José, Sioux City, Southern Dakota, South Florida, Steuben, Syracuse, Topeka, Transylvania, Troy, Washington, Washington City, Waterloo, Wellsborough, West Jersey, Westminster, White Water and Winnebago.

No action was taken by the Presbyteries of Austin, Mahoning and Maumee—three.

The vote of the Presbyteries of Marion and Utica was divided, and the number of Presbyteries not voting appears to have been thirty-nine.

We therefore recommend the following:

Resolved, That the Overture regarding a proposed alteration in Chapter vi, of the Form of Government, having failed to receive a majority of affirmative answers from the Presbyteries, Chapter vi of the Form of Government remains unchanged.

For the Committee,

JOHN F. HILL, Chairman.

The Moderator announced that the addition to Form of Government, Chapter ix, viz., Section 7, had become a part of the Constitution of the Church.

The Standing Committee on Church Erection presented its Report, which was accepted, after addresses by the Rev. Barton W. Perry, Chairman, the Rev. Erskine N. White, D.D., Secretary, and the Rev. Francis H. Shedd, was adopted and is as follows:

Your Committee has had several meetings, and has carefully considered the work of the Board of Church Erection. The honored Secretary met with the Committee, and rendered valuable assistance and advice. As a Committee, we are impressed with the business character of the Board. While the members are second to no one in sentiment and philanthropy, the work of the Board of Church Erection is and must be according to sound business principles. An examination of the accounts of the Board shows careful, systematic and painstaking work. But more, the Board of Church Erection never contracts a debt. No, the debts of this Board remain where they rightly belong. That is to say, if the churches do not remember the Board when making up their missionary offerings, appropriations must remain unpaid, and the responsibility rests upon the Church at large. At the beginning of the ecclesiastical year under review, the Board inherited twenty-five such applications, carrying some $13,000, but we are happy to say that the Church has paid its debts, and presents to the Board for this new year an inheritance of good health and prosperity.

The number of formal applications reaching the Board during the year was 196, or twenty less than last year. Of these 138 were to the General Fund, 127 being for grants, nine for loans without interest, and two for both grants and loans, and the aggregate amount asked for was $69,938. To the Manse Fund there were thirty-nine applications, two of which were for grants, the total amount applied for being $16,380. To the Loan Fund there were nineteen applications, asking loans to the amount of $50,350. To these, however, must be added the applications to the General Fund that, although reaching the Board during the previous year, were postponed on account of lack of funds. These numbered twenty-five, and aggregated $13,475. Thus the total demand was actually for $151,788 and from 221 churches, as against $147,292 from 216 churches last year.

Such being the facts in regard to the demand, it is a matter for thanksgiving that the receipts of the Board have begun to show an advance, thus enabling the Board not only to cover the arrears of the previous year, but to meet the demands of the present.

In speaking in detail of sources of income, it should be remembered that the Loan Fund and the Manse Fund are practically entirely dependent upon the return of the installments due upon loans made by them respectively for church building or manses. Only as such returns come in regularly and promptly can they be maintained in their proper efficiency. Upon the other hand, to the General Fund, which represents what was originally the sole work of the Board, go all contributions not otherwise designated, and also all sums derived from the return of grants, the sale of disused church edifices, as well as so much of the interest of the Permanent Funds as is not needed to keep the latter intact.

Of these the most important source is that of the contributions of the churches, the very source that most quickly reflects the conditions financially of the country, and consequently of the churches. This fact, it is to be feared, will be emphasized if the conflict upon which the nation has entered be long continued.

The work of the Board is divided into three departments. From the General Fund all grants are made for the building of church edifices. From this fund there have been during the year 127 grants, aggregating $58,609, and twenty loans, without interest, aggregating $10,400. As in three instances both grant and loan were made, the number of churches represented is 144.

The grants exceed those of the previous year by thirty-three, and in amount by $14,339, but the loans are fewer by ten and less in amount by $5653. Taking grants and loans together, the number is 147, as against 126 the previous year, and in amount $69,009, as against $60,323, an advance of seventeen per cent. in number, and of nearly fifteen per cent. in amount. The average amount of the grants was $470.61, and of the loans, $500.

In addition, eighteen churches received through this fund special gifts to the amount of $1607.88, making a total in this department of 162 churches and $70,616.88.

It will be noticed that of the appropriations made during the year, twenty are referred to as loans without interest. This is in accordance with the wise suggestion of the Assembly of 1893, which recommended that, whenever possible, a church receiving an appropriation should agree in the terms of its mortgage to return an annual contribution of a specific sum to the treasury of the Board, which contribution should also be accounted as a payment upon the mortgage, the mortgage to be satisfied when the full amount was thus paid.

While your Committee is gratified to find that the number of churches contributing to this Board is continually increasing, it regrets to be obliged to add that even now but little more than half of the churches upon our rolls are in this respect mindful of their obligations, and among those failing to sustain the work are not a few who in their early days received aid from the Board, and pledged themselves in return therefor to make such annual contribution.

The Loan Fund has now been in operation seven years, and the number of applications made for loans, in accordance with its provisions, proves that it answers the purpose for which it was designed. As the fund is a trust, it can be loaned only in such cases as give satisfactory evidence that the money will be promptly returned, as promised.

The Manse Fund. No department of the Board has more abundantly vindicated its beneficent character than this fund. Inaugurated in 1886 by gifts from consecrated women who appreciated how indispensable to the highest usefulness of a pastor was an adequate home for his wife and children, during the twelve years of its existence it has provided such Christian homes, by securing the erection of 438 manses, and distributing to this end $164,322, a sum many times exceeding the amount which, during the most of these years, the fund represented.

The appropriations during the present year from this fund were thirty-five, amounting to $14,150. Omitting one grant of $100, the average amount loaned to each church was $413.23. The loans slightly exceeded those of last year, but the amount granted was $610 less. There was one "special" gift of $55.

The Board, by direction of the General Assembly, secures upon all property benefited by its grants or loans a mortgage to the amount of the appropriation, and also an insurance policy to the same amount. In the case of actual grants the mortgage is practically a permanent lien upon the property, and no interest or payments of any kind, save the promised annual collection, are expected; but this wise requirement often saves the local church from a ruinous debt, and safeguards the property. This interest of the Board, at the present time, in the churches of the Assembly is more than $2,000,000, and the insurance not less than $1,750,000. Hence it is plain that the Board would have a large amount of labor to perform even if no new work was attempted.

The Presbytery of East Florida presented an Overture, asking that the mortgage against the First Presbyterian Church of Jacksonville, Fla., be canceled of record. During the Civil War the church edifice was occupied as a hospital. The church became divided and those who remained were obliged to mortgage the property. Many methods of many General Assemblies have been adopted to pay this mortgage. For some years the Stated Clerk, William H. Roberts, D.D., was working on the problem, and at last succeeded in raising the debt for the church. But more than $2000 of that amount was given on condition that the mortgage should be placed in the keeping of the Board of Church Erection. The answer proposed by your Committee will be found in the recommendations.

In view of the fact that in our growing work of evangelization, it is at times expedient that a congregation be gathered and a Sunday-school organized in advance of the regular organization of a church, it would seem proper that in exceptional cases aid should be given in the erection of a chapel while there is as yet no organized church corporation; and your Committee think it would be well for the Assembly to approve of such grants provided the Presbytery has a proper control both of the work and the property.

In conclusion, your Committee recommends the following action:

Resolved, 1. That this Assembly heartily approves of the work, management and administration of the Board of Church Erection.

2. That in view of the pressing necessities of our mission work, the Assembly urges upon each church to make an annual offering for the important work of this Board.

3. That the Assembly would especially remind such churches as have in the past received aid from the Board, that they are pledged to make each year, according to their ability, such contributions; and the Assembly would further urge upon churches in the future receiving appropriations that, in accordance with the recommendation of the Assembly of 1893, they agree whenever practicable to return the sums in definite specified annual contributions, the same to be also accounted as payment upon the mortgage given to the Board.

4. That in the case of missions established under the care of the Presbyteries with view to the organization of a church, the Board, upon application from the Presbytery, or its proper Committee, may at its discretion make a grant for a suitable building, provided the Presbytery as a corporation holds title in fee-simple to the property, and in other respects the usual conditions are met.

5. That the Overture from the Presbytery of East Florida with reference to the readjustment of the mortgage held by the Board upon the First Presbyterian Church of Jacksonville be referred to the Board, with power to act.

6. That the Records of the Board be approved so far as written.

7. That the following members of the Board whose term of office now expires be nominated for reëlection, viz.: Ministers—Nathaniel W. Conkling, D.D., John Hall, D.D., William A. Holliday, D.D.; Ruling Elders—Frederick G. Burnham, Daniel J. Holden, E. Francis Hyde, John Sinclair, and that in the place of the Rev. Henry T. McEwen, D.D., of the class whose term ends in 1899, who has resigned on account of removal to a distance, the Rev. L. Mason Clarke, of the Presbytery of Brooklyn, be nominated for election.

All of which is respectfully submitted.

BARTON W. PERRY, Chairman.

The Report of the Standing Committee on Theological Seminaries was made the third Order for this afternoon.

The Standing Committee on Temperance presented its Report, after special prayer had been offered for the guidance of the Spirit of God, and, after addresses by the Rev. David Wills, Jr., Chairman, Rev. J. J. Beacom, D.D., and others, was accepted, amended and adopted.

Your Committee in submitting this Report rejoices, with praise to God, in the recent successes of Temperance. In spite of a world under bondage to the flesh, of the prevailing temptations of the saloon, of printing houses, courthouses, and State houses subsidized by the liquor interests, of the colossal, organized and unscrupulous traffic, much that curtails drunkenness and promotes total abstinence has been accomplished during the last year.

The Report of the Permanent Committee, which is commended to the careful study of the Assembly, rings with the cheers of the valiant and victorious soldiers of Jesus Christ, who are contending with the "sword of the Spirit" for sound bodies, clear minds and pure souls.

This Report assures us that the Church is neither moribund nor somnolent on the subject of Temperance; that, on the contrary, it is growing in responsiveness to this call of God.

As compared with the last year, there is an encouraging increase in the number of Sessional Committees and Temperance Societies in our churches and Sunday-schools. Meetings with addresses, distribution of literature and presentation of pledges, illustrated lectures, observance of "Temperance Day," funds contributed, petitions and local option campaign work, enforcement of laws, anti-saloon league efforts, votes at the primaries and polls. These and other means reported by large numbers of churches and Sunday-schools indicate that there has been much activity in the last twelve months. While reciting these various measures, and describing the mechanism devised for the furtherance of this department of the Lord's work, some mention, and doubtless all imply, the use of prayer to God, who alone can give the desired result. The wheels of an elaborate mechanism may be in place, but it is only when the "spirit of life" is in the wheels that they go.

Much has been done to safeguard the youth of the Church and the country. Large expectation springs from the announcement that in nearly every State there is a law requiring that every grade of pupils should be taught the conclusions of science regarding the poisonous character of alcohol and narcotics, and the injury which results to man's entire system from their use.

To this statement your Committee adds its conviction, that, without exception, those institutions of higher learning which are under the control or dominating influence of Presbyterianism are loyal to the Scriptural and therefore strong position assumed by our Church on the question of Temperance in relation to our young people.

Another feature of our social life favors this righteous cause. Economic progress more and more demands temperance, and that demand will always, sooner or later, be granted. That which does not pay will not permanently prevail in this world of seeking and treasuring spirits. Selfishness, the core of sin, necessarily denies the gratification of certain lusts. Hence there is afforded a broad and deep basis for encouragement in the testimony of the Trans-Continental Railroads, that "no employé can afford to take the risk of drinking, and the railway cannot assume such responsibility," and also in this declaration of a large life insurance company: "We are very confident that total abstainers stand a better chance to attain a good longevity than those who are known as moderate drinkers."

From all these it follows that your Permanent Committee is abundantly justified in closing its Report with these words:

"We are grateful to God that we can say to our brethren from the watch tower where you have placed us there are visible glad signs of promise." Let us hold fast to these words. Let us believe in this vision, for our energy is in proportion to our faith. Pessimism and paralysis are cognate terms in every sphere of life. Even the King's business languishes where confidence is wanting. We are saved by hope, and it is our privilege as sons of the living God to greet the rising sun with bright faces. Let us not grow weary in well doing. An old evil is not an everlasting evil. No course is irremediable. God only is omnipotent, and His power is pledged to the support and victory of all that is pure, lovely and of good report. Only let them be faithful, courageous and believing, let them remember and follow the leading of the Spirit, let them labor in the full strength of Christ, of Him who is a King by divine right, whose coronation is the fiat of heaven, and God's people shall witness the reign of better things.

> "It will come as the day comes
> When the night is done,
> And the crimson streak on the ocean's cheek
> Grows into the mighty sun."

Your Committee offers the following resolutions:

1. That this Assembly reiterates the deliverances of other Assemblies in declaring that the Word of God enjoins temperance, and that its principles of love and sacrifice commend total abstinence. "If meat make my brother to offend, I will eat no flesh while the world standeth."

2. That our ministers and elders be urged to bear frequent, pronounced and public testimony against intemperance as a menace to all social institutions, and a regnant influence arrayed against the achievement of every Christian ideal.

3. That this Assembly calls the attention of all Sessions and Presbyteries to the failure of so many of these judicatories to maintain proper correspondence with the Permanent Committee on Temperance.

4. That this Assembly urges the passage of the Ellis Bill now pending in Congress, and directs the Permanent Committee on Temperance to communicate this action to the proper Congressional Committee.

5. That we recommend the observance of Temperance Day on the third Sunday of November.

6. That the Minutes of the Permanent Committee be approved.

7. That the following members of the Assembly's Permanent Committee be reëlected, viz., Rev. R. D. Wilson, D.D., Mr. William C. Lilley and Mr. George Irwin, and that the election be confirmed of Rev. Charles S. McClelland, D.D., chosen by the Committee to fill the place of Rev. W. C. Wycoff, resigned.

8. This General Assembly calls upon all who are connected with our beloved Church to exercise increased diligence and watchfulness over themselves and those committed to their care, in respect to intemperance, whether as parents, or teachers in our schools and colleges; in order that our homes and schools may be purged of the evil of intemperance and the saloon traffic be driven from our land; and this without reflection upon the authorities of any collegiate institution.

All of which is respectfully submitted for the Committee,

DAVID WILLS, Jr., Chairman.

The Moderator appointed the following Committee to prepare the customary resolutions of thanks: Ministers—Charles S. Dewing, D.D., Robert S. Inglis, and Ruling Elder—Edgar McClelland.

The Assembly took recess, and was closed with prayer.

FRIDAY, May 27, 2.30 o'clock P.M.

The Assembly met, and was opened with prayer.

The Standing Committee on Correspondence presented its Report, which was accepted and adopted, and is as follows:

The Standing Committee on Correspondence respectfully reports that a communication from Rev. S. F. Breckinridge, fraternal delegate from the General Synod of the Evangelical Lutheran Church, has been received. The delegate expresses deep regret at his inability to be present at this meeting of our General Assembly. He assures us, however, of the "kindly and fraternal feeling entertained by the General Synod for the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church." In behalf of his Church he tenders to our denomination "sincere congratulations upon the arrival of the 250th anniversary of the appearance of the Standards of our faith." "They are great documents," he adds, "arising out of a great crisis. Their influence has always made for personal liberty, for national freedom, and for practical righteousness. We Lutherans hold them in high regard."

Your Committee recommend that Rev. H. E. Niles, D.D., be appointed a delegate to bear our fraternal greetings to the General Assembly of the Evangelical Lutheran Church at its meeting on the 24th of May, 1899, at York, Pa.

A communication has also been received from the President and Stated Clerk of the Reformed (German) Church in the United States, tendering cordial acknowledgments to our General Assembly for the hearty Christian greetings and congratulations accorded to the Reformed Church during the celebration of her sesqui-centennial festival.

Your Committee are officially informed that Bishop Samuel Fallows, D.D., of the Reformed Episcopal Church, was duly appointed by the General Council of that Church to bear its fraternal greetings to this General Assembly. We deeply regret the absence of Bishop Fallows, and take this opportunity to assure him of the cordial sympathy entertained by this Church for the body of believers he represents.

A letter from Rev. W. S. Marquis, the delegate of our Church to the last General Assembly of the United Presbyterian Church, has been transmitted to us. Dr. Marquis reports a most cordial reception accorded to him as your delegate. Your Committee recommend that Rev. J. M. Wilson, D.D., be appointed to represent this Church at the next General Assembly of the United Presbyterian Church, meeting at Omaha, Neb.

An exceedingly interesting communication from Rev. Saverio Fera, Secretary of the Evangelical Church of Italy, has also been placed in our hands. Your Committee recommend that the Stated Clerk, Rev. W. H. Roberts, D.D., be directed to make a suitable reply, assuring the Evangelical Church of Italy that this General Assembly cherishes the profoundest interest in all the work of the Church of Italy, and fervently prays for the success of a free Gospel in that fair land so long overshadowed by mediæval darkness. The Moderator and Stated Clerk are hereby authorized to appoint a minister of this Church temporarily residing in Italy, to bear our fraternal salutations to the Synod of which Signor Fera is Secretary.

The Rev. Dr. Phraner reports that he discharged his duties as representative of the General Assembly at the Synod of the Reformed (Dutch) Church, meeting at Asbury Park, N. Y., in June of last year. He was cordially received by the Synod and welcomed to their platform; nothing but the most cordial feeling was manifested on the part of the Synod toward our Church and its work. We recommend that Rev. George S. Swezey, of the Presbytery of Buffalo, be appointed to represent this body at the Synod of the Reformed Church in the United States of America in its coming meeting at Ocean Grove, N. J., with Rev. J. F. Patterson, D.D., as alternate.

An Overture from the Presbytery of Des Moines has been referred to this Committee. This Overture requests the General Assembly to issue a pastoral letter, calling earnestly upon all office-bearers and members in our communion to unite in fervent prayer to bring about as speedily as possible the unity of all believers in the Lord Jesus. We recommend the following action:

That while the excellent spirit and purpose of this Overture is hereby recognized, and while the General Assembly urges all members of the Church to fidelity in these duties of the Christian life, yet it does not regard further formal action in this matter advisable, in view of recent action in this direction.

Respectfully submitted,

JOHN F. HENDY, Chairman.

The Standing Committee on Finance reported nominations for Trustees of the General Assembly, as follows:

Your Standing Committee on Finance beg leave to make the following nominations, to fill vacancies in the Board of Trustees of the General Assembly: Rev. Henry C. McCook, D.D., of Philadelphia, in place of the Rev. Joseph Beggs, D.D., resigned; George E. Sterry, of New York, in place of John J. McCook, LL.D., resigned: and Hon. James A. Beaver, of Pennsylvania, in place of Andrew Blair, deceased.

The Assembly proceeded to the Order of the Day, the Report of the Standing Committee on Bills and Overtures on Overture No. 9, from the Presbytery of Pittsburgh, dealing with a book entitled, Christianity in the Apostolic Age, by Rev. A. C. McGiffert, D.D., a member of the Presbytery of New York. The Chairman reported an amended form of the Report. It was Resolved, That the order of the debate be as follows: That the Chairman be heard in behalf of the majority Report for half an hour: that the Rev. W. S. P. Bryan, D.D., and the Rev. Francis Brown, D.D., be heard for the same time on minority Reports Nos. 1 and 2 respectively: that speeches in the ensuing general debate be limited to five minutes: that the vote be taken at five o'clock; and that the last fifteen minutes preceding the taking of the vote be given to the Chairman. Subsequently the Rev. John Dixon, D.D., was substituted for the Chairman at his request, in making the closing address.

After addresses by members of the Committee in the order above mentioned, and also by members of the Assembly, the majority Report as amended was adopted, as follows:

The Committee on Bills and Overtures respectfully submits the following Report on:

Overture No. 9 referred to this Committee by the Assembly. This is an Overture from the Presbytery of Pittsburgh, calling to the attention of the Assembly a volume of the International Theological Library, entitled, A History of Christianity in the Apostolic Age, the author of which is the Rev. A. C. McGiffert, D.D., a member of the Presbytery of New York, and overturing the General Assembly to adopt such measures in regard thereto as shall be conducive to the Church's purity, peace and honor, and to the maintenance of the authority of the oracles of God.

To this Overture we recommend the following answer:

The Assembly recognizes the zeal for pure doctrine represented by the Overture from the Presbytery of Pittsburgh, and is itself now as always profoundly concerned for the maintenance of the faith. It enjoins upon all its ministers especial care in these times of doubt, and even denial, of things which the Church holds sacred, to distinguish, as clearly as possible, from all forms of error, the truth of God as revealed in His Word and interpreted in the Standards of our Church; and, in particular, constantly to endeavor, whether in preaching or in teaching, by the spoken or written word, to present the positive truth so distinctly and so attractively that men shall understand it and be drawn toward it; and that especially the Scriptures, which are the Word of God, may be everywhere accepted and believed as the only infallible rule of faith and practice.

The Assembly indeed desires the fullest and freest investigation and inquiry on the part of reverent Christian students into the foundations of the Christian faith, but it deprecates everything which, whether in its substance or in the form of its expression, needlessly disturbs the faith of Christian people.

The General Assembly deplores the renewal of controversy occasioned by the publication of this book at a time when our recent divisions were scarcely healed. It sympathizes with the widespread belief that the utterances of Dr. McGiffert are inconsistent with the teachings of Scripture as interpreted by the Presbyterian Church and by evangelical Christendom. And the Assembly stamps with its emphatic disapproval all utterances in the book called to its attention by the Presbytery of Pittsburgh, not in accord with the Standards of our Church.

But the Church needs peace: the union of all its forces; the coöperation of all its members; a spirit of brotherhood and mutual confidence, so that it may address itself with intense zeal and no waste of energy to its great, pressing and practical work of saving the souls of men.

The Assembly, therefore, in the spirit of kindness, no less than in devotion to the truth, counsels Dr. McGiffert to reconsider the questionable views set forth in his book, and if he cannot conform his views to the Standards of our Church, then peaceably to withdraw from the Presbyterian ministry.

Respectfully submitted,

SHELDON JACKSON, Chairman.

The respectful dissent of the Rev. Francis Brown, D.D., from this action of the Assembly was entered on the record.

The Report of the Committee on Theological Seminaries was made the first Order for to-morrow morning.

The Finance Committee reported in the case of the distress of certain Commissioners, and the Assembly resolved that the Stated Clerk be directed and empowered to fully adjust the matter.

The Stated Clerk was authorized, in the event of an adjournment to-morrow, to settle the bills for entertainment of such Commissioners as remain at Winona Lake over the Sabbath.

The Assembly took recess, and was closed with prayer.

FRIDAY, May 27, 7.15 o'clock P.M.

The Assembly met, and was opened with prayer

The Special Committee on The Assembly Herald presented its Report, which was approved and ordered to be printed in the Minutes. The Report is as follows :

The Committee in charge of The Assembly Herald takes pleasure in reporting another successful year of publication. The paper has been issued regularly during the ten months of publication. The outward form and appearance of the paper have been greatly improved ; all the details of office and business administration have been systematized with great thoroughness and completeness ; and we close the year once more with no debt for the year's work, and without having had to draw upon our reserve fund as reported last year.

The notable achievement of the past year is the great improvement made in the external form and mechanical execution of the paper and the introduction of illustrations. In response to a widespread and apparently increasing demand that The Assembly Herald should be made more attractive to the public, and so more interesting and effective as a medium of official missionary information, we decided at the beginning of the year to make the change so earnestly requested—a change which we had long desired to make, but hesitated about making because of the increased subscription price that would thus be necessitated.

The slight increase of five cents in the club subscription price would not, however, have warranted the increase in cost of production annually made. In other words, the paper has been improved relatively more than the subscription price has been increased. But in view of the special mission of The Assembly Herald as a paper for widest circulation among the people of our churches, and the consequent necessity of keeping the subscription price as low as possible, we determined to make only a slight increase on subscription price, and then to devote the entire income of the paper to the work of the year, making as good a paper as it was possible to make and bring expenses within receipts. The volume which closes with the issue for June, now in the press, is the result of this policy and this endeavor ; this result has been accomplished, notwithstanding the cost of production has very largely increased, and the receipts from advertising have been considerably diminished by the more stringent rules that we have followed the past year, in regard to the admission of advertisements.

Your Committee would recommend for adoption the following resolutions :

Whereas, The General Assembly has authorized the publication of a new magazine beginning with January 1, 1899, which, it is intended, shall succeed to the subscription and advertising business of The Assembly Herald, in such wise as to secure therefrom the largest advantage, and to make possible the most economical management of the new publication; therefore be it

Resolved, 1. That in respect of subscriptions to The Assembly Herald unexpired on January 1, 1899, the Committee on the new magazine have authority to supply such subscribers with the new publication, for the unexpired term of their subscriptions.

Resolved, 2. That in respect to the then existing advertising contracts with The Assembly Herald, said Committee have authority to assume these on behalf of the new magazine, and in this connection temporarily to adopt such page form as in their judgment may be necessary or best suited to carry out such contract,s and retain such business patronage.

Respectfully submitted in behalf of the Committee,

W. H. HUBBARD.

The cordial thanks of the Assembly were tendered to the Committee on The Assembly Herald for its faithful services, and the Committee was discharged, to take effect on and after January 1, 1899, with the provision that the Committee, however, report for its closing period of service to the next Assembly.

The Report of the Special Committee on The Church at Home and Abroad was approved, ordered to be printed in the Minutes, and is as follows:

The Committee on The Church at Home and Abroad respectfully presents its twelfth annual Report.

Since the retirement of the Rev. H. A. Nelson, D.D., from the editorship of the magazine, to whose services of eleven years appropriate and appreciative reference was made in our last Report, by arrangement of the Committee, the editorial department has been under the exclusive management of Rev. Albert B. Robinson, who, without any assistance save such as the Chairman of the Committee could render, has carried on with complete satisfaction to the several Boards and the General Committee, the whole work of editorship.

In January the editorial office was removed to the new and commodious quarters on the fourth floor of the Witherspoon Building, assigned to the magazine by the Board of Publication. It is only right in this connection to state that in the making of this transfer and in the arrangements for the efficient and comfortable conduct of the business of the magazine the Board of Publication has continued to manifest that large and unselfish interest in the magazine and its success which from the very beginning has been unstintedly and unweariedly shown. Special thanks are due to the Secretary, the Business Superintendent and the Building Committee of the Board. The General Assembly ought to be distinctly reminded that through the constant care and unpaid labor bestowed upon the magazine and its general work by the officers and the several agents of the Board of Publication, your Committee has been enabled to avoid what under other conditions would have been from year to year a large and serious outlay.

In the Report of this Committee to the Assembly of 1896 it was stated that since The Assembly Herald had undertaken to print the monthly account of Treasurers' receipts, it was thought wise to omit them from the pages of The Church at Home and Abroad, and the Assembly approved the discontinuance of the detailed account of contributions and directed the publication of a summary of monthly receipts. This arrangement, which made it possible to cut down the number of pages from ninety-six to eighty, was continued until September, 1897, when, at the request of the Boards, we resumed the publication of detailed receipts, adding for the purpose the sixteen pages that had been dropped.

Efforts have been made during the past year to popularize The Church at Home and Abroad and render it more attractive as well as more useful to its readers.

Among these efforts are the following:

(a) The magazine appeared in July, 1897, with a new cover which is recognized as appropriate and significant, presenting artistic designs of the seals of the General Assembly and the eight Boards of the Church. This new cover, with the brief description in the issue for August, 1897, of the heraldic significance of each seal, has led some of the Young People's Societies to devote an evening to a study of the Church seals. The designs are reproduced with pen and ink or in colors upon large charts, and several members in turn explain the meaning of each detail and give a clear and concise account of the General Assembly and the work of each Board.

(b) Since the beginning of the present year our pages have been beautified by a large increase of illustration. Volume 23, which is completed by the issue for June, contains more than two hundred portraits and other pictures, an average of thirty-four each month. In no previous volume has the average been more than seventeen each month. While it may not be possible with our present limited circulation to keep pace with the secular magazines in attractiveness, we must not fall too far behind them, since our constituency includes men and women of the most cultivated tastes.

Among the unsolicited commendations that come every day to the editorial office are the following: "I congratulate you on the attractiveness of the last issue, especially the excellent quality of the illustrations." "The illustrations add much to its value." "The magazine, always good, appears to grow better, especially in the pleasing feature of illustrations." "It is steadily improving in attractiveness and value."

(c) Special attention has been given to the Young People's department, to the end that the sympathy of our young people may be enlisted and that their enthusiasm and active coöperation may be utilized in the great work of the Church. And since the Church expects the young people to read what it says each month through its authorized agencies, constant reference is made in this department to the best things in other parts of the magazine. By means of the question page, which has been a feature for three and one-half years, attention is called to the great inspiring facts concerning the Presbyterian Church and her world-wide work, so attractively presented in our pages. An examination of the questions in any issue indicates a rich feast of good things. Other periodicals, such as Reformed Church Tidings and Woman's Work for Woman, have testified to the value of this method by adopting it.

Numerous evidences come to us that Presbyterian young people are reading The Church at Home and Abroad. It is kept on file in church libraries, the questions are used in Sunday-schools, and the number of Young People's Societies that subscribe for the magazine is increasing. The Missionary Committee of a Christian Endeavor Society in Baltimore, believing there was no better way to awaken a deeper interest in the cause of missions than by subscribing to our own periodicals, ordered two copies to be sent to the society during 1897. A year later the same Committee sent for four copies, saying that interest in missions had been increased through the reading of the magazine.

We have been encouraged by testimonies like that from the Presbytery of Fort Dodge, which at its fall stated meeting ('97) endorsed the magazine and commended the progress made toward making it of greater interest to the Church at large through the introduction of the Christian Endeavor department and the Christian Training Course.

The Christian Training Course, which was approved by the Assemblies of 1896 and 1897, has been continued during the nine months, October to June, inclusive. It has consisted of (1) a brief doctrinal study of questions in the Shorter Catechism; (2) a Biblical study following Our Sixty-six Sacred Books, by Dr. Edwin W. Rice; (3) a historical study, using Ogilvie's Presbyterian Churches; (4) a missionary study, based upon a series of sketches of modern missionary heroes, written especially for the course by Mrs. Albert B. Robinson, and published in The Church at Home and Abroad, fresh articles in the magazine on the home and foreign missionary concert of prayer topics.

Many of the Presbyteries have during the year called the attention of their Young People's Societies to the General Assembly's commendation of the Training Course, have added their own hearty approval, and have urged its adoption and use.

The Presbytery of Rock River said to its young people:

"Your Society needs something like this for its development and increased activity. There is nothing equal to it for Presbyterian Endeavorers. Investigate it."

The Chairman of the Committee on Young People's Societies in this Presbytery writes: "The course is so valuable and so well adapted to the needs of our young people that in my judgment its adoption ought to be vigorously pushed that it may find its place in every Christian Endeavor Society in the Church. The finest meetings our Society has held for two years have been by use of adaptations of your programmes and material."

In the Occident for April 21, we find this Report: "At the meeting of Oakland Presbytery, held in Pleasonton, April 12, the following resolution was presented by Elder Cornell, of East Oakland—Brooklyn Church: 'The Presbytery of Oakland desires to express its approval and appreciation of our missionary journal, The Church at Home and Abroad. It is ably edited, and deserves the confidence and support of the whole Church. Every department is full of practical information. The Young People's department is a marked feature, and our young people as well as the older ones could not do better than subscribe for this our Church magazine.' Elder Cornell supported this resolution with well-timed remarks, in which he referred to the Training Course which has been introduced into the work of the magazine. The course of reading is prescribed, and is something like the Chautauqua course. It is missionary in character, and very instructive. The resolution was passed with great unanimity on the part of all who were present."

The Westminster League in Santa Cruz, Cal., spends two evenings each month on the Biblical department; one on the Historical and one on the Missionary. The pastor writes: "It appears to be the very thing that our people were hungry for. The books were eagerly secured, a number who could not possibly attend the meetings buying them for home study." He adds: "The sooner all our young people settle down to such a course of study, the better it will be for the future of our beloved Church."

Elder John Willis Baer writes: "I am glad to see that more and more the young people are taking up the Christian Training Course. I wish all could see the great advantage in it, and that pastors would encourage their young people to adopt the course. The result would be a better-equipped body of young people."

The Committee have in contemplation certain improvements suggested by experience and resulting from widespread correspondence, but pending the Report of the Special Committee on the affairs of the magazine, these changes have not in the meantime been made, though very strongly commended by one of our most experienced members, and unanimously approved by us after long and careful consideration. Your Committee is prepared, if it be the will and direction of the Assembly, to carry out these and other improvements at the earliest possible moment, which we are persuaded would give increased popularity and in all probability greater efficiency.

ABSTRACT OF ACCOUNT.

Balance due Board of Publication, December 1, 1897		$6,187 64
Expenses for the year		16,883 61
Liabilities to subscribers		1,165 61
		$24,236 86
Receipts	$14,265 67
Assets	5,198 34
		19,464 01
Deficiency		$4,772 85
Average monthly circulation in 1897		13,459
Average circulation for the first four months of 1898		14,158

The deficiency may seem very large, but the Committee would recall the fact that in 1886 the net deficiency on the magazines then published amounted to $5311.12.

It should also be noted that through the retirement of Dr. Nelson the expenses for 1898 will be considerably decreased.

Through this reduction in salary and other changes, your Committee sees its way to make for 1898 and future years a saving of almost $3000 annually.

Three years ago, at a meeting of the Secretaries and officers of all the Boards of our Church, it was resolved that the agency for communicating intelligence and impulse should represent the historic work of the Church, should present the policy, the methods, the fields and all the interests of this great work in permanent form, and thus preserve the continuity of our past, present and future missionary history. That The Church at Home and Abroad has in some measure reached this ideal is attested by the fact that so many careful readers, finding the magazine a great repository or encyclopedia of missionary intelligence, call for missing numbers to complete files for binding, and request the preparation of an index to the twenty-three volumes.

Your Committee has previously closed its Report with recommendations for the future conduct of the magazine, but in view of the fact that the last General Assembly, in its wisdom, referred the whole question of missionary publications to a Special Committee, we leave the whole subject regarding the future of this publication to the wisdom of the General Assembly.

Respectfully submitted,

JOHN S. MACINTOSH, Chairman.

The cordial thanks of the Assembly were tendered to the Committee on The Church at Home and Abroad for its faithful services, and the Committee was relieved from service, to take effect on January 1, 1899, the Committee, however, to report for its closing period of service to the Assembly of 1899.

The Standing Committee on Benevolence presented its Report, which was accepted and, after addresses by the Rev. Solon

Cobb, D.D., Chairman, and the Rev. William H. Hubbard, was amended and adopted. The Report is as follows:

The most of the Reports presented before this body are based upon the service or action of some church organization, but the Report presented by this Committee rests upon a principle rather than an organization.

The principle of regular systematic giving to the Lord through the channels of service opened by the Church under divine direction, a principle which, if carried out perfectly, would fill our treasuries to overflowing with consecrated money, would give to all our Boards the needed cash for all their extended operations, and pay every debt that now troubles the Church. Up to this time this principle has never been carried out with any great measure of success. It has been prayed over, and talked about, and held as an ideal possibility, but never been reduced to practice, and the benefits of it have never been felt as a force throughout the length and breadth of the great Presbyterian Church of this country or the world.

The Standing Committee on Benevolence has given time and care to this subject, and presented theories that must meet with our approval, and their fidelity and patience are to be commended. This year the Report of the Committee which has been distributed through the house deals largely with the fact that while the membership of the churches is increasing, the gifts of the Church are diminishing, and the diminution is not in the gifts to any one Board, but it is found that all the Boards fall below their average with the exception of the College Board, which during the past two years has made its offerings $6000 above its average. This is the general thought that runs through the whole Report, and it is fully illustrated by tables of figures that make each point so plain that he who runs may read, and furnishes a stronger argument for systematic giving than can come from any other source.

Let us give our attention to some particulars of this Report. And first, the contributions per member show a steady diminution. In 1889 the average for each church member through church offerings was $1.15; in 1898, eighty-five cents. In 1889 each communicant gave thirty-five cents to Home Missions; in 1898, twenty-three cents; a part of this decrease being due to the fact that some Synods had taken up their own work. In 1889, forty cents were given by each communicant to the Church offerings to Foreign Missions; in 1898, thirty cents. How can we ever get money ahead at this rate to pay the debts of the Boards? How can we send more men and women out in the great field, which is the world, to cultivate it for Christ? And what an argument we are putting into the hands of infidelity as to the worthlessness of missionary operations. We do well to consider such a vital point as this, and carry the thought home to our people, that they may be stimulated to give of their substance, and give regularly for the advancement of the kingdom of Christ over the earth. This Report also shows that the legacies to the various Boards seem to be steadily diminishing. The aggregate amount of these legacies to the eight Boards during the past year was $236,229, while in 1893 it was $529,430, more than double the former amount. What an argument for those who have wealth at their disposal! What a reminder for the making up of the last will and testament in the interest of the great Church we love, or the execution of the will by our own hand before death renders action impossible.

The Standing Committee also calls attention to the contributing and non-contributing churches. It is very difficult to explain the reason why there is so large a number of Presbyterian churches which, at the present time, are not contributing to the Boards of the Church. Varying from two to five thousand churches are non-contributing organizations, though during the past year a larger number of churches contributed to the Boards than in the previous year. This fact is worthy of special notice. Each church can do something for each Board and the obligation is not to be slightly held or considered.

Of course we have to recognize the fact that very many of these churches which fail to contribute are small and in a struggling condition, but the approval of the Master does not rest upon the amount given, but upon the fact that one does the best he can with what he has, and no one should fail to receive the satisfaction that comes from duty done according to ability. The attention of the Assembly is also called to the fact that there is a tendency on the part of churches to mass their offerings during the month of March, the last month of the ecclesiastic year. Nearly one-third of the income received from church offerings is so received during the month of March. It seems best that some plan should be devised whereby treasurers shall promptly send their church accumulations to the Boards for which the money has been contributed by the church. If annual offerings are taken, then the money should be sent directly to the Board, instead of remaining in the hands of the treasurer for a year.

The Committee calls special attention to the table found at the top of page 13, where a careful analysis shows that 1392 churches make no offerings, 1098 make only one, and that only 1064 churches made the eight offerings, and that over one-half of the income from church offerings came from these 1064 churches, showing that the reputation of the Church for liberality to the Boards is sustained by the gifts of the few, and these figures are enforced by an illustration from the Rev. Wilton M. Smith, D.D., on page 14. This presents a strong appeal for more general and regular giving, and urges pastors and Sunday-school teachers and Christian parents to make offerings a part of worship, and to teach that every one should give something to the Lord for the extension of the kingdom of grace. It is a good habit in our churches for the family unity and feeling to be preserved in the manner of giving, but too often the children grow up to manhood and womanhood without a practical education in this line of church worship that is needed to make them generous givers and show them that the Lord wants their money as well as their prayers, and that they never can be thoroughly consecrated until their possessions are touched and held, and it would seem that even in cases where all blanks were filled, that if systematic and proportional giving had been introduced, and regular offerings taken, as a part of worship, that even these churches could greatly have increased their offerings to the Boards of the Church. We find that less than one-half the number of church offerings are reported that should be taken if the recommendations of the General Assembly were carried out, that only one-third of the total number of church offerings for the Boards are for sums of more than $10, that two-thirds of all church offerings for the eight Boards are of $10 or less, that only 1064 churches report church offerings to each of the eight Boards, that most of the churches that are reported as making a church offering to each of the Boards take general offerings for missions, and divide the aggregate among the Boards of the churches, and that out of the whole number of churches in our communion not more than seventy-five take distinct annual offerings for each of the eight Boards.

We call especial attention to the Committee's suggestion touching the lessening of the number of Boards of the Church, leaving it to the Assembly to consider the advisability of such action.

Your Committee has examined the accounts of the Treasurer of the Benevolence Committee, and finds them correct, and recommends their approval.

Your Committee presents for adoption the following recommendations:

1. That the Committee on Systematic Beneficence be reappointed for the new year, with the substitution of the name of the Rev. Dr. Pentecost for the Rev. Charles L. Thompson, D.D., who has become Secretary of the Board of Home Missions, and of the Rev. R. S. Holmes, D.D., to fill a vacancy. The Committee will then stand as follows: Rev. W. H. Hubbard, Auburn, N. Y.; Mr. Kiliaen Van Rensselaer, New York; Rev. John R. Davies, D.D., New York; Rev. George F. Pentecost, D.D., Yonkers, N. Y.; Rev. Charles Herr, D.D., Jersey City, N. J.; Hon. Horace B. Silliman, Cohoes, N. Y.; Rev. William L. McEwan, D.D., Pittsburgh, Pa.; Rev. David R. Breed, D.D., Pittsburgh, Pa.; Hon. James A. Beaver, Bellefonte, Pa.; Mr. Robert Pitcairn, Pittsburgh, Pa.; Rev. C. N. Wilder, D.D., Champaign, Ill.; Rev. Thomas Marshall, D.D., Chicago, Ill.; Rev. G. P. Williams, Chicago, Ill.; Rev. Howard A. Johnston, D.D., Chicago, Ill.; Rev. R. S. Holmes, D.D., Pittsburgh, Pa.

2. That it is proper and desirable that an opportunity be given for offerings by the congregation every Lord's Day, and that the giving of such offerings be performed as a solemn act of worship to the Triune God, according to Chapter vi of our Directory for Worship.

3. That each pastor be requested to preach frequently on systematic and proportional giving, so that his people may be well instructed in their duty and privilege, and that the Sessions be urged to give more careful supervision to the direction of all moneys raised through the various organizations of the Church, in order that the money be not diverted from our own Church.

4. That the Committee on Systematic Beneficence be instructed and authorized to furnish free of charge subscription blanks and envelopes for the taking of offerings on the Lord's Day, the expense being borne pro rata according to the amounts received through church offerings by the Boards of the Church.

5. That the General Assembly expects all the people to be instructed in all departments of Church work, and that they have an opportunity to contribute to the several Boards.

6. That the Committee on Systematic Beneficence draw from the General Assembly funds the sum of $1000 for the prosecution of its work the coming year.

7. That the several Boards confer together as to the possibility of agreeing upon the total amount of money needed for the work of the Church, and for the formulation of a plan for the systematic raising of funds, the Boards to report to the next Assembly.

8. That the Committee on Systematic Beneficence be authorized to collect from the Boards a quarterly detailed statement of the receipts from churches, in order that the Committee may, through the Presbyterial Committees on Systematic Beneficence, reach the churches not reported as contributing, and if possible secure offerings from them. Respectfully submitted,

SOLON COBB, Chairman.

The Assembly adjourned, and was closed with prayer.

FRIDAY, May 27, 8.15 o'clock P.M.

A popular meeting in the interests of Temperance was held. The Hon. H. B. Saylor presided, and addresses were made by Rev. Charles L. Work, D.D., Rev. David Brown, D.D., Rev. William W. Belden, D.D., and Elder Edwin S. Wells.

SATURDAY, May 28, 9 o'clock A.M.

The Assembly met, and was opened with devotional services.

The Minutes of yesterday's sessions were read and approved.

The Standing Committee on Bills and Overtures reported on certain Overtures which had been committed to it. The Report was adopted, and is as follows:

Your Committee on Bills and Overtures respectfully submits the following Report:

Paper No. 88, being a communication from the Presbytery of New York as to the withdrawal of Rev. Charles A. Briggs, D.D., from the communion of the Presbyterian Church, and announcing its erasure of his name, in consequence, from its roll. It is recommended that the action of the Presbytery of New York be approved, and be made a matter of record by the General Assembly.

Overture No. 100, from Trinity Presbytery, overturing the Assembly to shorten, simplify and clarify the blanks for the annual Reports of the churches to their Presbyteries. It is recommended that the Overture be referred to the Stated Clerk with power.

Paper No. 101, being certain patriotic resolutions referred to this Committee, we recommend the substitution of the following, viz.: The Presbyterian Church has always stood for loyalty to the nation, and its sons have ever manifested their loyalty by deeds not words, and therefore, in view of the action taken at the patriotic meetings held on Saturday last, in which the members of this Assembly generally participated, this Assembly does not deem it necessary to take action at this time, farther than to declare the loyalty of its members, and to voice its prayer, that our Chief Magistrate, his counselors, as well as our Senators and Representatives, may be divinely guided in the solemn issues of the present hour, and that the blessing of God may rest upon our sailors and our soldiers, and that the result of this war may be the deliverance of the oppressed and the extension of Christ's kingdom.

Paper No. 104, being a resolution referred to this Committee, directing it to inquire whether or not it is necessary that the Stated Clerk be authorized and empowered to employ additional clerical help between the sessions of the Assemblies. We report that we caused the matter to be examined by a sub-Committee, and find that there has been a very great increase in the duties and labors of the Stated Clerk's office during the past few years, which duties your Committee desires to say have been discharged with rare thoroughness and fidelity. Your Committee is persuaded that it is necessary that the Stated Clerk be authorized and empowered to employ such additional clerical help during the year as may be requisite, and accordingly recommends that he be so authorized and empowered by the Assembly.

Papers Nos. 3, 4, 5 and 6, from Sessions and Deacons of four churches in Kerrville, Glen Rose, Leonard and Austin, Tex., on organic union with the Presbyterian Church in the United States, and Paper No. 107, being a resolution relating to the same matter. The following answer is recommended: The Assembly deems no action necessary in response to the Overtures from certain churches in Texas, or to the resolution offered in the body, relating to organic union with the Presbyterian Church in the United States, further than to refer to the expression of its attitude in the premises, as found in the Minutes of the Assembly of 1894, p. 140.

Paper No. 105, being the resolution of Dr. Pentecost relating to the sympathy of Great Britain with us in our present crisis, we recommend that it be amended and adopted, as follows:

Resolved, That the Assembly recognizes with profound and devout gratitude the widespread and sympathetic expressions of fellowship on the part of the people of Great Britain with our country in the present crisis of our national history, discerning in their fellowship and sympathy a common confession with us of faith in the brotherhood of the Anglo-Saxon race, and those who have become affiliated with us by blood alliance and political kinship, and in our common love and devotion to the cause of universal human liberty.

Paper No. 106, being a resolution relating to the Brotherhood of Andrew and Philip, referred to this Committee, we recommend the following action:

The Assembly, while recognizing the high character and great usefulness of the Brotherhood of Andrew and Philip, deems no action necessary.

Papers Nos. 102 and 103, being resolutions on Temperance, it is recommended that they be referred to the Committee on Temperance.

Respectfully submitted,

SHELDON JACKSON, Chairman.

The Committee on the 250th Anniversary of the Adoption of the Westminster Standards presented its Report, which was accepted and adopted, and is as follows:

The Committee on the 250th Anniversary of the Adoption of the Westminster Standards respectfully presents an additional Report to the Assembly, recommending the passage of the following resolutions:

Resolved, 1. That the thanks of the Assembly are hereby cordially extended to the speakers at the celebration, and especially for their admirable presentation of the great subjects dealt with by them on the occasion.

Resolved, 2. That the thanks of the Assembly be extended to the Rev. Henry C. McCook, D.D., Sc.D., of Philadelphia, for his admirable collection of Westminsteriana placed at the disposal of the Assembly in the Westminster Exhibit.

Resolved, 3. That the thanks of the Assembly be extended to the Winona Assembly and Summer School for the use of the building in which the Westminster Exhibit was placed on public view.

Resolved, 4. That the thanks of the Assembly are hereby tendered to Dr. F. L. Marshall, musical director, to Miss Marshall, to the choir of the First Presbyterian Church of Ft. Wayne, Ind., and to Mr. E. F. Yarnell and daughter for their highly appreciated musical services in connection with the celebration.

Resolved, 5. That the Stated Clerk of the Assembly be authorized to pay all the expenses connected with the Westminster celebration, including a sum not exceeding $100 for the expenses of the Westminster exhibit, and that the Chairman of the Committee, with the Stated Clerk, be the Committee of Audit.

Resolved, 6. That the speeches delivered at the celebration, together with the historical sermon, be published in a volume with an appropriate Preface, under the editorship of the Secretary of the Committee, the Rev. William H. Roberts, D.D., the volume to be published by and at the expense of the Board of Publication and Sabbath-school Work.

Resolved, 7. That the portrait of Alexander Henderson, presented to the Assembly by Dr. W. C. Gray and others, be accepted with cordial thanks, and that it be deposited for the present with the Presbyterian Historical Society.

Respectfully submitted,

SHELDON JACKSON, Chairman.

It was Resolved, That the thanks of the General Assembly be extended to the Committee on the Westminster Celebration, for their efficient and admirable services.

The Committee on the Seventh General Council of the Presbyterian Alliance, presented its Report, which was accepted and adopted:

The Committee recommends that, in accordance with past usage, the Moderator for the time being, with the Stated and Permanent Clerks, be the Committee to fill vacancies in the delegation.

Respectfully submitted in behalf of the Committee,

SHELDON JACKSON, Chairman.

The following resolutions relating to a building for a Roman Catholic chapel on the military reservation at West Point were adopted:

Whereas, The permit by the Secretary of War, given March 3, 1897, to the Roman Catholic Church, to erect a chapel on the West Point military reservation was set aside by reason of an opinion rendered by the Attorney-General of the United States dated May 19, 1897, to the effect that the Secretary of War had no authority of law to grant such permit on a Government reservation; and,

Whereas, It is now sought to confer such authority upon the Secretary of War by means of an amendment to H. Rule No. 6149, which amendment has been favorably reported by the House Committee on Military Affairs, is now on the House Calendar, and which reads as follows, viz.:

"Strike out all after the enacting clause, and insert the following:

"That the Secretary of War, in his discretion, may authorize the erection of a building for religious worship by any denomination, sect, or religion on the West Point Military Reservation: Provided, That the erection of such building will not interfere with the uses of said reservation for military purposes. Said building shall be erected without any expense whatever to the Government of the United States, and shall be removed from the reservation or its location changed, by the denomination, sect, or religious body erecting the same, whenever, in the opinion of the Secretary of War, public or military necessity shall require it, and without compensation for such building or any other expense whatever to the Government."

Whereas, The first amendment to the Constitution declares that "Congress shall make no law respecting an establishment of religion;" and

Whereas, The Presbyterian Church, and, as we believe, all Protestant Churches in the United States of America, entertain the views expressed by Judge Story, that while Congress may recognize religion in its legislation, as in appointing chaplains, it is prohibited by the Constitution (as recited in part above) from any enactment recognizing churches or religious sects. Now, therefore, be it

Resolved, By the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America, that we enter our solemn protest against the proposed legislation as being opposed to the Constitution of the United States and the spirit of the institutions of this country.

Resolved, That a copy of these resolutions be presented to the President of the United States, to the Secretary of War, and to the Committee on Military Affairs in both branches of Congress, and that a Committee, of which the Moderator shall be Chairman, be appointed to present the same.

The Standing Committee on Theological Seminaries presented its Report, which was accepted and adopted:

Your committee begs leave to report that it has read and carefully considered all the papers submitted for examination, and found in them many encouraging features connected with the work done by our Theological Seminaries during the past year. Notwithstanding the continued hard times and the difficulty in raising funds for religious and educational purposes, a marked improvement even in that direction is noted by a number of the institutions. The teaching force has been strengthened where it was weak, and new studies have been added to the curriculum where it was believed to be defective. The number of students matriculated last year in the different classes was about the same as the preceding years, but their classical and scientific preparation is said to have been more general and thorough than that of the students of any former years. Your Committee was highly gratified to find that increased attention had been paid by the professors, and especially by the students themselves, to those exercises having a particular bearing on the cultivation of personal piety. Judging from the prizes won and the degrees received by the graduating classes, the intellectual training in all our Seminaries is both full and thorough.

The Assembly will find a confirmation of the above statements in the brief outlines given below of the Report of each Seminary, school, and department of theology.

Princeton Theological Seminary, has on its roll 236 students, ninety-six were matriculated during the year, and sixty received diplomas at its close in May. Legislation has been obtained from the State of New Jersey, empowering the Directors to confer on students who have passed the required examination the degree of Bachelor of Divinity, and the degree has been conferred this year on a few students.

The attention of the Assembly is particularly called to the passage of a law by the State of New Jersey in March, 1898, giving the General Assembly the right to appear in the courts of said Commonwealth in order to protect the civil rights of the Church in and over the Seminary, and its property, thereby removing the last point of difference between the Seminary and the Church.

Auburn Theological Seminary, reports 104 students in attendance, or sixteen fewer than last year. It is satisfactory to note that all but one of the students admitted to the Junior class were college graduates. Forty-two students received diplomas at the close of the Seminary year. The Conference for deepening spirituality, held in connection with the Day of Prayer for Colleges, is worthy of mention here.

On January 24, 1898, Hon. George C. Buell, a member of the Board of Trustees, died. He was a long and faithful friend of the Seminary.

The Western Theological Seminary, has on its roll ninety-nine students, of whom twenty-eight are Seniors, thirty-seven Middlers and twenty-nine Juniors, and four members of a graduate class. Thirty-one have matriculated since the last Report.

Of these twenty-nine were Juniors, one Middler from Princeton Seminary, one Senior from the German Evangelical Seminary of St. Louis, twenty-seven have been graduated, and one died before graduation. Special mention is made of the weekly Missionary Society, before which a number of missionaries and other able speakers have delivered addresses. Lectures have been delivered on the Elliott Foundation, on the "Progress of Dogma," by Prof. James Orr, of Edinburgh. The students have made larger use of the library than ever before, especially in the reference department.

Of the members of the Board, two have been removed by death, viz., Mr. Andrew W. Wilson, of Indiana, Pa., and Rev. W. W. Moorhead, D.D., of Greensburg, Pa. Their places have been filled by the appointment of Judge John A. McIlvaine, of Washington, Pa., and the Rev. C. C. Hays, of Johnstown, Pa., respectively. Rev. David R. Breed, D.D., resigned his seat in the Board on his election to the new Chair of Sacred Rhetoric and Elocution. The Rev. John C. Holliday, D.D., of Zanesville, O., was elected in his place as Director, and the Rev. D. S. Kennedy, D.D., as President of the Board. The Board has altered the scope and title of the new professorship, which now includes Sacred Rhetoric, Church Government, and Elocution, with an endowment of $50,000. The occupant of the Reunion professorship, the Rev. Thomas H. Robinson, D.D., has been appointed dean of the Faculty, and also instructor in the Sacraments and the Shorter Catechism. The policy of employing instructors to assist in the work of the several Chairs of the Seminary has been adopted. The desirability of changing the location of the Seminary, at no distant day, has received the hearty indorsement of the Board. The project of securing as soon as possible a Chair of Biblical Theology has also been approved.

Lane Theological Seminary, has the names of thirty-five students on its roll. Eleven were graduated this spring. Among the items of interest may be mentioned the inauguration of the Rev. David S. Schaff, D.D., to the Chair of Ecclesiastical History, and the appointment of the Rev. Kemper Fullerton, A.M., as Instructor in Hebrew and in the Greek Gospels.

Danville Theological Seminary, had in attendance during the last year thirty-four students, eleven Seniors, ten Middlers and thirteen Juniors. Of these six matriculated during the last session, eight of the eleven Seniors received the regular Seminary diploma, the remaining three did not take the full course entitling them to a diploma.

The McCormick Theological Seminary, reports having had 146 students in attendance, of whom sixty-six were admitted during the last year. Four students were admitted to postgraduate study, and three special students were admitted to the Seminary courses of study, but not as candidates for a diploma. Eight students were admitted to the Senior class and seven to the Middle class from other Seminaries. On May 4 and 5, 1898, Rev. J. Ross Stevenson, D.D., was inaugurated professor of Ecclesiastical History. Rev. George L. Robinson, Ph.D., of Knox College, Toronto, has been unanimously elected to fill the Chair of Old Testament Literature and Exegesis. Dr. Robinson has signified his acceptance, subject to the approval of the General Assembly.

Blackburn University, has not for some years sent to the General Assembly any report of work done in its Theological Department. Your Committee is of the opinion that this is not due to neglect on the part of the Faculty, but to the fact that no theological studies have been pursued.

The San Francisco Theological Seminary, reports an attendance of thirty-one students for the year ending May 1, 1898, classified as follows: Juniors thirteen; Middlers, nine, and Seniors, nine. This is the greatest number of students that has been connected with the Seminary at any time in its history. The nine members of the Senior class received diplomas. The Seminary has a corps of seven professors. Their work is supplemented by lectures from prominent ministers and laymen. That the Seminary has done good work is indicated by the commendation of the proficiency of the students, and of the work of the Faculty, by the Committee on Examination appointed by the Board of Directors. The financial condition of the Seminary deserves special attention. There are seven scholarships intended to aid needy students, but inasmuch as two-thirds of the thirty-one students needed aid, additional funds had to be raised by strenuous effort. The income from the General Endowment Fund was inadequate for the running expenses. The Alexander Montgomery Estate, which will no doubt in time be valuable, instead of yielding an income, has been an expense for care, insurance, etc., consequently the outlay has largely exceeded the income, so that the Seminary was compelled to draw from the General Endowment Fund, already too small to meet current expenses. It makes a strong appeal for $150,000, as an endowment to provide an income to meet all current expenses in the future.

The German Theological School of the Northwest, informs the General Assembly that it has twenty-four Directors or Trustees, divided into three classes, eight in each class, the term of service being three years. The school has Chairs for five professors, viz., Biblical and Church History, Theology, Language and History, Science and Mathematics, and a Chair of Sacred Language which was vacated by the death of its occupant during the last year. There are thirty-one students, divided among seven classes, ranging from 1 to 7 in number, thus carrying the course of study over seven years. The total resources of the school are $56,136.13. The expense account shows an obligation for the year of $4635.63. The disbursements show an outlay of $4535.03, leaving a balance on hand of $90.60. The institution received by the will of the late Judge Charles E. Vanderburg, of Minneapolis, $5000.

The German Theological School of Newark, N. J., reports as follows: The number of students in attendance throughout the year was: In Academic department, seventeen; in Theological department, eight; in Pastoral department, one; total, twenty-six. Graduating class, six; applicants for admission, seven; number admitted, five; number unable to continue their studies for lack of funds, three. The Seminary year has been reduced from nine to eight months. No additions to the endowment have been made during the year. The total deficit reported May 1, 1897, $9564.23, was reduced before May 1, 1898, to $9216.76. The Report closes with a request for an interest in the Church's prayers and contributions, and an expression of confidence in God's continued blessing.

Lincoln University, Theological Department, reports that it has three officers—President, Secretary and Treasurer; nineteen Trustees, divided into seven classes, the term of service being seven years. There are eight professors in the Theological department, one of whom, Rev. Gilbert T. Woodhull, died February 11, 1898. Total number of students, forty-three: sixteen Juniors, ten Middlers, and seventeen Seniors.

The value of property is given as follows:

Five cottages and residences,	$32,000 00
Six professorships,	118,000 00
Eight scholarships,	18,900 00
Subscription toward new scholarship,	800 00
Total,	$169,700 00

Income from funds for one year is given thus:

From professorships,	$4,551 59
From scholarships,	448 92
Fayerweather Fund,	4,307 11
Pierce Estate,	6,500 00
University professorship,	3,461 38
University scholarships,	2,632 20
Annual contribution,	9,000 00
Total,	$30,901 20

A strong appeal is made for buildings, endowments and scholarships. They have added to the value of their property during the past year $30,000.

Biddle University, reports the following, viz.: Out of a total enrollment of 216 students, the Theological department includes sixteen, distributed as follows: Seniors, five; Middlers, eight; Juniors, three. The closing exercises of the year will take place June 1, 1898. Many students in all the upper classes of the other two departments have the ministry in view. Four academies and high schools under the Freedmen's Board in South Carolina, one in North Carolina, and one in Arkansas have become affiliated with the University. The death of Rev. A. S. Billingsley, D.D., a member of the Board of Trustees, and of Rev. W. F. Brooks, D.D., the Principal of the Normal and Preparatory School, is noted. Efforts looking toward endowment are being made. It is a matter of regret that the Biddle University is neglected by those who are largely interested in making gifts to industrial schools. Attention is here called to the fact that Biddle University is attending to the utmost of its ability to the industrial needs of its students.

The Presbyterian Theological Seminary at Omaha, reports through its Board of Directors that thirty students were in attendance last year. One of them was received from the McCormick Theological Seminary, and ten matriculated in the Junior class. One graduate student attended the Seminary during the entire year. Eight members of the Senior class received the regular certificates of graduation at the close of the Seminary year. It is stated that no student who has not passed through a regular collegiate course is admitted as a member of the Seminary, unless he has been sent especially recommended by the Presbyteries.

In addition to the regular course of studies laid down in the catalogue, a number of valuable lectures on preaching were delivered by the Rev. E. Trumbull Lee, D.D., of Cincinnati. Valuable donations of books were received for the library, and a legacy of $5000 for the general use of the institution. The Seminary having been incorporated under the provision of the act of the Legislature reported to the last General Assembly, and in accordance with the directions of previous Assemblies, respecting Seminary control, is under the authority of the General Assembly.

Your Committee present for adoption the following recommendations, to wit:

1. That permission be and is hereby given to Princeton Theological Seminary to strike out that portion of Section 3, Article iv, in the Plan of the Seminary, beginning with the word "all" and ending with the word "proper," and also the word "present" in the paragraph following.

2. That the Plan of the Western Theological Seminary be amended by adding to Article ii, entitled "Of the Board of Direction," a new section to be numbered 12, and to read as follows, namely: "It shall be the duty of the Board of Directors to elect one of the professors President of the Faculty for such a term of years, and under such instructions as to his duties, as the Board may think best adapted to serve the interests of the institution." That Article iii, entitled "Of Professors," Section 7, be so changed that, instead of the words, "in every meeting the senior professor present shall preside," it shall read, "in every meeting the President, or, in his absence, the senior professor present, shall preside." Also, that the words, "the senior professor," shall be changed so as to read, "or, in case of his death, absence or disability to act, the senior professor shall," etc.

3. That the General Assembly unite with the Board of Direction of Danville Theological Seminary, in a waiver of the provisions of Section 4 of the first part of Chapter iv, in the Plan as amended by the General Assembly of 1873, in so far as the same may apply to the case of Prof. C. K. Crawford, and that his election be approved.

4. That the General Assembly approve the election of the Rev. George L. Robinson, Ph.D., Professor of Old Testament Literature and Exegesis in McCormick Theological Seminary.

5. That the following persons be reëlected Directors of the San Francisco Theological Seminary to form the Class of 1901, viz.: Rev. James Curry, W. W. Cookins, Charles H. Fish, William M. Ladd, Rev. George W. Lyons, Rev. William B. Noble, D.D., Rev. E. J. Thompson, D.D., Robert J. Trumbull and Rev. George F. Whitworth, D.D.

6. That the election of the following persons as Directors of the German Theological School of the Northwest be approved, viz.: Rev. Jacob Conzett, Rev. Henry Schmitt, Sr., Rev. J. K. Fowler, D.D., Rev. H. A. Van Greithuysen, Hon. R. H. McClellan, William Meir, Hon. Dexter A. Knowlton and J. A. Brocksmit. Also, that the election of Rev. August C. Kroesche to the Chair of Science and Mathematics be approved.

7. That the following answer be given to Overture No. 10, from the Presbytery of Carlisle, viz.: Whilst recognizing the fact that more or less space is given in all our Theological Seminaries to direct instruction in the doctrines and polity of the Presbyterian Church, the General Assembly would nevertheless suggest that all the students be required to pass an examination on the Confession of Faith and the Form of Government before receiving their diplomas.

8. That the General Assembly looks with great satisfaction on the practice in nearly, if not in all our Theological Seminaries, of inviting men specially versed in the work of Home and Foreign Missions to deliver lectures yearly on this theme, in addition to the instruction given in the regular course.

All of which is respectfully submitted,

WILLIAM C. ROBERTS, Chairman.

The Standing Committee on Church Polity presented its Report, which was accepted and, after addresses by the Rev. Nathan G. Parke, D.D., William E. Moore, D.D., and Rev.

William H. Roberts, D.D., Chairman, was adopted, and is as follows:

The Committee on Church Polity respectfully presents the following Report to the General Assembly, recommending action on Overtures referred to them as follows:

Overture No. 32, from the Presbytery of St. Louis, asking whether Constitutional Rule No. 1 exempts a local evangelist who has complied with the conditions from the necessity of formal licensure prior to ordination. It is recommended that the following answer be given:

That compliance with the provisions of Constitutional Rule No. 1 does not exempt a local evangelist from the necessity of formal licensure, prior to ordination, and that he should be examined before Presbytery, first for formal licensure, and then later again for ordination, in accordance with the provisions of the Form of Government, Chapter xiv.

Overture No. 37, from the Presbytery of Black Hills, asking when a church has but two elders, and one of these has removed his residence, but not his membership therefrom, can the pastor and the remaining elder constitute a quorum of Session and proceed to business?

It is recommended that the Overture be answered in the affirmative.

Overtures Nos. 13 and 14, from the Presbyteries of Wooster and Steubenville, with reference to vacant churches and unemployed ministers. The following answer is recommended:

Your Committee would report that after carefully examining Overtures Nos. 13 and 14, and comparing the changes contemplated with the provisions of the Form of Government, they find that any valuable ends sought to be attained by the amendments are now possible under the existing Constitution, while the amendments would introduce into the organic law of the Church the feature of supervision by "locating ministers," which in our opinion is at variance with the theory of Presbyterian Church government.

Overture No. 33, from the Synod of New York, asking whether ministers not in the pastoral office are entitled to sit in the ecclesiastical courts. It is recommended that the following answer be given:

That ministers not in the pastoral office are entitled to sit in the ecclesiastical courts. The General Assembly regards the Overture from the Synod of New York as dealing with a question of the interpretation of the Constitution, and would refer the Synod to the deliverances upon this subject of the General Assemblies of 1802, 1816, 1859, 1869 and 1875, as recorded in the Presbyterian Digest of 1898, p. 209, Section 7; p. 181, Section 10; p. 209, Section 9; p. 208, Section 6, and p. 145, Section 3.

Overtures Nos. 22, 23, 24, 25, 26, 85, 86 and 90, asking for either biennial or triennial sessions of the General Assembly, it is recommended that these Overtures be answered in the negative, and for the following reasons:

1. Our system of Church government is that Scriptural system which is ordinarily spoken of as "representative republicanism." One of its radical principles is, "that a larger part of the Church, or a representation of it, should govern a smaller; that, in like manner, a representation of the whole should govern and determine in regard to every part, and to all the parts united; that is, that a majority shall govern" (Note, Chap. xii, Form of Gov.). The regular and efficient expression of the will of the majority in connection with the affairs of the Church can be secured, under our system, only by an annual meeting of the General Assembly. Were this Church monarchical in its form of government and not republican, Episcopal and not Presbyterian, less frequent meetings of the Assembly might be appropriate.

2. Our system of administration in connection with the great causes of missions and benevolence has been organized upon the basis of the annual meetings of the Assembly. To change our system in this respect would require a radical change in the plans of management of the several Boards.

3. One of the chief functions of the Assembly is, that it "constitutes the bond of union, peace, correspondence and mutual confidence among all our churches" (Form of Gov., Chap. xii, Sec. 4). The influence of the Assembly in these directions has been of inestimable value to the Church. It has brought into close relations of sympathy and true fraternity by the annual meetings, the representative men of the Church from every portion of our country and from foreign mission fields, and it has been as a result a stimulus and an inspiration to efficient work in the extension in this land and throughout the earth of the kingdom of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ.

4. Our system of government is intended, among other things, to conserve the rights and privileges of every minister and member of the Church. A radical principle of our discipline is "that appeals may be carried from lower to higher judicatories, till they be finally decided by the collected wisdom and united voice of the whole Church" (Note, Chap. xii, Form of Gov.). In no other manner than by an annual meeting of the Assembly can this principle be so put into practice as to properly guard and secure the constitutional rights of the individual. To require a complainant or appellant to await a final decision in his case until the meeting of a triennial Assembly would be to work gross injustice. And the proposed change, further, would of necessity involve such a readjustment of our judicial system as would deny to an appellant the right to be heard by the whole Church. Such a denial of right, when conjoined with a proposed grievous delay in reaching a decision, would be contrary to both justice and equity.

5. The New School Church in 1840 decided to hold triennial meetings of the General Assembly. Such meetings were held in 1843 and 1846. By the latter year, however, the Church had become restive under the restrictions and limitations caused by infrequent meetings of the supreme judicatory, and in 1849, by a decided vote, the annual General Assembly was reëstablished. The experience and action of the New School Church in this matter of proposed triennial sessions is a practical and powerful negative to the Overtures to which this deliverance is an answer.

Overture No. 98, being a memorial from the Board of Aid for Colleges and Academies, requesting a modification of Standing Rule No. 15 of the General Assembly. It is recommended that said Standing Rule No. 15 shall hereafter read as follows: "No person shall serve as a member of a Board who is a salaried executive officer or employé of said Board, or a member of any other benevolent Board of the Church; and no more than one ruling elder from the same congregation shall serve on a Board at the same time."

Overtures Nos. 7 and 40, from the Presbyteries of Boston and Chester, requesting action with a view to a reduction of the size of the Assembly, and Overture No. 26, from the Presbytery of Lehigh, asking a change in the number of ministers requisite to constitute a Presbytery.

It is recommended that a special Committee of nine, five ministers and four elders, be appointed by the Moderator, to report upon the subject-matter of these Overtures to the next Assembly.

Overture No. 39, from the Presbytery of South Florida, asking this Assembly to formulate an amendment to the Form of Government, Chapter vi, entitled "Of Deacons and Temporal Affairs," involving the same matters as are contained in the Overtures sent down by the last General Assembly (Minutes, pp. 81 and 82), but expressed in such words as shall not be liable to be misunderstood or misconstrued.

It is recommended that the following answer be given: In view of the fact that this matter has already been before the Presbyteries, and the opinion of the Church thereupon has been fully expressed, that the Overture be answered in the negative.

Overture No. 8, from the Presbytery of Palmyra, asking that the Assembly take action, that no executive officer of any of the benevolent Boards of the Church shall assume the permanent duties of his office until his appointment has been directly approved by vote of the General Assembly.

It is recommended that the following answer be given, viz.: It shall be a Rule of the General Assembly, That hereafter upon the original appointment of any salaried executive officer of any of the benevolent and Missionary Boards of the Church, such appointment shall be subject to the approval of the General Assembly. It is also recommended that a Committee, consisting of the Moderator and Stated Clerk, be appointed to confer with the Boards, and to procure such changes, if any, which may be required in the Constitutions or Charters of any of the Boards, to secure the full legal right to this Assembly of approval or disapproval of salaried executive officers, as contemplated above, and to report to the next General Assembly.

Overture No. 34, from the Presbytery of Platte, asking as to the conditions of the reception of ministers from the Presbyterian Church in the United States.

It is recommended that the following answer be given: That ministers coming to us from any Presbytery of the Presbyterian Church in the United States may be received on the same basis as those coming to us from one of our own Presbyteries.

The following resolution was referred to the Committee by the Assembly: Resolved, That the question of the legal succession to the Synod of China be referred to the Committee on Church Polity. The Committee recommend the passage of the following act by the General Assembly:

It is Enacted by the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the U. S. A., in session at Winona Lake, Ind., on May 28, 1898, that the Synod of Central and Southern China be and hereby is declared to be the legal successor of the Synod of China, and that all the records, papers and other legal documents connected with the said Synod of China be and hereby are transferred to the care, custody and official control of the said Synod of Central and Southern China.

In behalf of the Committee,

WM. HENRY ROBERTS, Chairman.

The Judicial Commission presented its finding in Judicial Case No. 11, which was ordered to be entered on the Minutes.

WILLIAM H. PUMPHREY vs. THE SYNOD OF PENNSYLVANIA.

Judicial Case No. 11.—The Judicial Commission to whom this case has been submitted respectfully report as follows:

The Presbytery of Philadelphia North, on January 19, 1897, took the following action, viz.:

"Resolved, That it is the sense of the Presbytery, that in the case of a request, signed and presented, as permitted in Chapter x, Section 10, of the Form of Government, for a special meeting of Presbytery, the Moderator is to be the judge, as to whether the emergency is such as to require the holding of such meeting."

Against this action Rev. W. H. Pumphrey complained to the Synod of Pennsylvania.

The Synod decided that, though a question in Church polity, as well as a Constitutional question, was involved, no action was necessary. Against this action of Synod, Rev. W. H. Pumphrey complained to the General Assembly.

After a due hearing of the parties, and full compliance with the requirements of the Book of Discipline, the Commission find as follows:

That the complaint is sustained upon the ground that a Constitutional question is involved; that the requirements of Chapter x, Section 10, of the Form of Government are mandatory and not discretionary; and that the case be remanded to Synod, with the injunction that they reconsider this action, and record their decision agreeably to the requirements of our Constitution.

JOHN F. PATTERSON, Chairman.

The Standing Committee on Narrative presented its Report, which was approved, and ordered to be printed in the Appendix to the Minutes.

The Stated Clerk presented the Necrological Report for the year ending April 30, 1898, after which the Assembly was led in prayer by the Rev. T. K. Davis, D.D. The Report was ordered to be printed in the Appendix to the Minutes.

It was Resolved, That when the Assembly takes recess, it be until 2 o'clock this afternoon.

The Assembly took recess, and was closed with prayer.

SATURDAY, May 28, 2 o'clock P.M.

The Assembly met, and was opened with prayer.

The Committee on Finance presented its Report, which was accepted and adopted, and is as follows:

Three matters have chiefly engaged the attention of your Committee, viz.:

The accounts of the Trustees of the General Assembly, the accounts of Rev. William H. Roberts, D.D., Stated Clerk, and the Overtures from the Presbyteries of Columbia, Geneva and Otsego, all of the Synod of New York, numbered respectively, 48, 49 and 84, referred by the Assembly to the Committee on Finance.

The accounts of the Trustees of the General Assembly manifest clearly the condition of funds held by them, amounting to the sum of $714,294.50. This money is chiefly invested in bonds, secured by first mortgage on real property.

The Trustees also hold several pieces of property in the city of Philadelphia, for the benefit of the Board of Ministerial Relief; a mortgage for $5000 to secure the payment of a like sum to the same Board within three months after the death of a person named in the Report; also, premises 224 Vine street. Philadelphia, for the benefit of the Mariners' Church.

Legacies.—The Board has received, during the year, the following:

Under the will of Sidney Camp, late of Oswego, N. Y., $396.69; and under the will of Robert Beers (residuary estate), $7123.09, both for the Board of Relief.

Appended to this exhibit are statements showing the receipts and disbursements for the year, and in all respects, whether the small expenses occasioned by administration be considered, or the wisdom exercised in making investments, nothing but the highest commendation is warranted.

Death has removed during the year Andrew Blair, who died April 16, 1898. Another member of the Board should be elected by this Assembly to fill the vacancy occasioned by this bereavement. Two other vacancies have been made in the Board because of the resignation of John J. McCook, LL.D., of New York city, and Rev. Joseph Beggs, D.D., of Philadelphia. An election by this Assembly to fill these two vacancies is also asked for.

The accounts of Rev. William H. Roberts, D.D., Stated Clerk, show the balance in his hands larger by some thousands of dollars than last year. There has been received during the year for Mileage, Entertainment and Contingent apportionments, $53,575.49; from other sources, $3585.42, making a total of $57,160.91; while payments for all purposes amounted to $43,111.79, making the excess of receipts over expenditures, $14,059.12. This, added to the balance at the beginning of the year, $72,630.76, makes a balance now in hand of $86,689.88.

This sum has been gathered together by the gifts of churches for the special purposes for which it is held, and then added to by no less a sum than $12,000 by judicious investment, by Dr. Roberts, who has it available by check at sight.

While the first thought may be that these funds, which really form a working balance, are too large, it must not be forgotten that the apportionment per capita is grounded in a calculation, that only a sufficient sum will be collected to meet the actual requirements of the Church. It has come to the attention of your Committee, in this connection, that the allowance for entertainment, $1.25 per day to each Commissioner, is too small a sum. This appears to be an opportunity for the Assembly to increase the amount to $1.50 per day. A proposal has also come to us with a view to a reduction of the apportionment. Last year the apportionment was reduced from six to five cents, and it now seems prudent to your Committee, after consulting with your Stated Clerk, and in view of the condition of our treasury, to make another reduction of one cent, making the apportionment four cents per capita, until further action of the Assembly.

With reference to the general account, as well as the Treasurer's account with the Boards, they are both most carefully kept, all transactions being fully verified.

In answer to the Overtures from the Presbyteries of Geneva, Columbia and Otsego, your Committee recommends the following answer:

1. The funds in the hands of the Stated Clerk of the Assembly, having been collected from the churches for a specific purpose, cannot be disposed of for any purpose other than that originally contemplated.

2. The Assembly having at this meeting taken action upon the subject of the per capita apportionment for expenses, no further legislation seems to be required.

Your Committee further recommends:

1. That the apportionment for expenses be reduced to four (4) cents per capita, and that the provision for entertainment be one dollar and fifty cents ($1.50) per day.

2. That the thanks of the General Assembly be extended to the Trustees of the General Assembly and to the Rev. William H. Roberts, D.D., for their diligent attention to the duties devolved upon them, in the discharge of the trusts under their care.

The Committee has also considered the financial part of the Report of the Executive Commission of the Presbyterian Alliance, and recommends:

That the Stated Clerk be authorized to pay to the Treasurer of the Executive Commission, Western Section of the Alliance of the Reformed Churches, the sum of seven hundred and sixty-five dollars ($765), being the annual apportionment of this Church for the expenses of the Alliance.

Respectfully submitted,

GEORGE E. STERRY, Chairman.

The Committee on Mileage presented its Report, which was accepted and adopted, and is as follows:

The Standing Committee on Mileage respectfully submit, after consultation with the Stated Clerk, the following Report of receipts and disbursements of this General Assembly:

RECEIPTS.

From Apportionments, Mileage Fund,	$22,652 98
" " Entertainment Fund,	8,893 08
" " Contingent Fund,	13,899 22
Total,	$45,445 28

DISBURSEMENTS.

Mileage Bills,	$23,215 58
Entertainment Fund, in hands of Stated Clerk,	8,893 08
Contingent Fund, in hands of Stated Clerk,	13,899 22
	$46,007 88
Deficiency in the Mileage Fund,	562 60
Total,	$45,445 28

Number of Commissioners on Roll, 625: ministers, 327; elders, 297. Presbyteries represented, 222, not represented, 6. Presbyteries exempt from payment, comprising Foreign Mission, Indian and Freedmen, 30. Advisory members, representing missions, 2.

The following Presbyteries have not contributed to the Mileage Fund: Bellefontaine and Lima. The Presbytery of Lehigh has made a small contribution to the Mileage Fund.

The following Presbyteries have not contributed to the Entertainment Fund: Bellefontaine, Clarion and Lima. The Presbytery of Lehigh has made a small contribution to the Entertainment Fund.

The Presbytery of Kittanning has contributed in part to the Contingent Fund.

After consultation with the Finance Committee, your Committee would recommend as follows:

1. That the Assembly again urge upon all the Presbyteries to contribute in full to the Mileage, Entertainment and Contingent Funds.

2. That the apportionment be for next year four cents for each communicant, distributed as follows: To the Mileage Fund, one and one-half cents, to the Entertainment Fund, one cent, and to the Contingent Fund, one and one-half cents.

3. That the Stated Clerk, as Treasurer of the Assembly, be authorized, at his discretion, to pay Commissioners for any further sums that may be considered justly due them, by reason of their having underestimated railroad charges or other necessary expenses in returning home.

4. That the General Assembly extends its thanks to such railroads and other transportation companies as have carried Commissioners at reduced rates. Also to the Stated Clerk for most valuable services rendered in connection with the work of your Committee.

5. That the Presbyteries be urged to forward the amount of their apportionments to the Stated Clerk at least two weeks prior to the meeting of the General Assembly.

Respectfully submitted,

NATHANIEL TOOKER, Chairman.

The Committees on Synodical Records presented their Reports, and the Records of the following Synods were approved without exceptions: Atlantic, Catawba, Colorado, Illinois, Indiana, Indian Territory, Iowa, Kansas, Kentucky, Michigan, Minnesota, Missouri, Nebraska, New Jersey, New Mexico, New York, Oregon, Pennsylvania, South Dakota, Tennessee, Washington and Wisconsin.

The Committees on the Records of the newly organized Synods of Central and Southern China and of Northern China, reported that the Synods were now in session, and that their Records would be presented to the next Assembly.

The Committee on the Records of the Synod of Baltimore reported as follows: The members of the Committee appointed to review the Minutes of the Synod of Baltimore, respectfully report that so far as they have been able to learn from the Clerks, the Records of this Synod have not been brought up to the General Assembly this year. And, Whereas, Our Form of Government, Chap. xi, Sec. 6, makes it the duty of Synods to submit their Records annually to the General Assembly, therefore, Resolved, That the Synod of Baltimore be censured for its failure to conform to the requirements of our Form of Government in this matter.* Adopted.

The Committee on the Records of the Synod of California recommended their approval, with the suggestion that the Stated Clerk of said Synod be instructed to send to the Assembly hereafter either the original Records or a certified copy of the same.† Adopted.

The Committee on the Records of the Synod of India recommended their approval, with the exception that there is no record that the Synod at its opening session was constituted with prayer. Adopted.

The Committee on the Records of the Synod of Montana reported, recommending approval, with the exception that on pp. 166 and 251 there is no record of the opening and closing of the sessions with prayer. Adopted.

The Committee on the Records of the Synod of North Dakota reported as follows:

The Records of said Synod for 1896 and 1897 have been placed in the hands of your Committee. We recommend the approval of the Records for 1896, with the following exceptions:

1. The Records were not presented last year for examination (Digest of 1898, p. 255).

2. The Records are not properly kept, in that they are frequently deficient in fullness of record and in perspicuity, have leadpencil entries and unfilled blanks, the Reports of Committees are entered by the clumsy device of pasting the original manuscripts in the book, and often neither the name of the Committee nor of its Chairman is attached to a Report.

3. There is no record of the churches that are unrepresented, nor, in most cases, of the respective churches which the elders present represent (Digest, p. 682).

4. There is no embodiment of the narrative of the state of religion in the Records (Digest, pp. 224 and 682).

* A copy is said to have been mailed, but not received.

† A certified copy was sent, but mislaid at Winona.—R.

5. The result of the final roll call previous to adjournment is not recorded (Digest, p. 682).

6. The Presbytery of Bismarck is given an unconditional and unlimited authority to receive and to dismiss members (p. 59), presumably [as appears from other statements in the Records] in the absence of a quorum. The Assembly declares such a bestowment of power to have been unwise and inexpedient, if not unconstitutional (Digest, pp. 187 and 189, 4). Further, the proceedings of said Presbytery under date of October 6, 1896, when there was no quorum, are legalized by Synod (p. 44). The Assembly declares that for a Synod to legalize the entire proceedings of a Presbytery had without a quorum is in direct conflict with the Constitutional requirement of a quorum, and that the proper body to ratify and confirm any irregular and informal proceedings of a Presbytery when no quorum was present, is the Presbytery itself, at a subsequent meeting when there was a quorum (Digest, pp, 239, 240, 2 and 3). The Presbytery of Bismarck is therefore directed at its next regular meeting to review the proceedings of its meeting of October the 6th, 1896, and to adopt or reject the same in whole or in part, as they may see fit. And the Stated Clerk of the General Assembly is requested to notify the Clerk of said Presbytery accordingly, and the Synod to take note hereof.

Your Committee recommend the approval of the Records of the Synod of North Dakota for 1897, with the following exceptions:

1. That there is no record of the churches unrepresented, nor of the respective churches which the elders present represent (Digest, p. 682).

2. There is no record of a narrative of the state of religion (Digest, pp. 224 and 682).

3. The result of the final roll call previous to adjournment is not recorded (Digest, p. 682).

4. The Records show (p. 45) that authority was conferred upon the Stated Clerk of the Presbytery of Bismarck, in the absence of a quorum, to receive and to dismiss members, which the Assembly herewith directs the Synod to recall as an unconstitutional conferment of power. And in view of the fact that the Presbytery had by the last statistical Report only the minimum of ministers essential to its existence, and in view of the further facts disclosed by the Synod's Minutes, viz., that this Presbytery has chronic difficulty in securing a quorum, and has applied in vain to Synod for an enlargement of its bounds, therefore the Synod is hereby directed to so readjust the bounds of this Presbytery as that it shall be either enlarged in membership or merged into other Presbyteries.

5. It appearing (p. 28) that an appeal to Synod from the Presbytery of Pembina was found in order, but not issued because of an insufficiency of members present to spare for a Judicial Commission, it is the judgment of the Assembly that the Synod erred in not according the appellant the speedy trial to which he was entitled, by the Synod as a whole, and is reminded that the appellant has not thereby lost any of his rights (see Book of Discipline, Secs. 118, 119).

6. The Synod is urged to have its Records for 1896 and 1897 printed in accordance with its own conditional decision, and in conformity with the terms prescribed by the General Assembly for printed Minutes; and is directed in the future to have its records carefully, accurately and fully recorded in a paged book or printed in manner as prescribed by the General Assembly. Adopted.

The Committee on the Records of the Synod of Ohio recommended their approval, with the exception of the action taken by the Synod in the case of William J. Massey, on which the Committee expresses no opinion. Adopted.

The Committee on the Records of the Synod of Texas reported, recommending approval, with the following exceptions:

1. Names of absentees are not recorded.

2. Although Committees were appointed to examine Records of the Presbyteries, there is nothing to show that Reports were rendered by these Committees.

3. Upon the last day of the sessions of the Synod, a Commission was appointed "to read, correct and approve the Minutes." The Minutes of the preceding days had already been approved. After adjournment the Commission performed their duties, according to the attestation of the Temporary Clerk. The propriety of this mode of procedure is questioned.

4. On p. 463 is written a resolution without a record of the action taken thereon. The resolution proposed to abolish the Committee on Narrative. It is our opinion that the Synod should secure an annual narrative of the state of religion within its bounds. Adopted.

The Committee on the Records of the Synod of Utah reported, recommending approval, with the exception that they had not been presented to the General Assembly for two years. Adopted.

The Committee appointed to collect funds for Omaha Theological Seminary was continued.

The Stated Clerk presented the Report on the Statistics of Young People's Societies, which was accepted and adopted:

The Stated Clerk would respectfully report on the Statistics of Young People's Societies in accordance with the directions of the last General Assembly (see Minutes, p. 136).

Blanks were sent out to the Chairmen of the Young People's Societies, or to the Stated Clerks of the Presbyteries. Returns have been received from 164 Presbyteries in the United States. The number of home Presbyteries not reporting is forty-three. The returns show that there are in these Presbyteries Societies as follows:

Christian Endeavor (Senior), 3644; Christian Endeavor (Junior), 1725; Christian Endeavor (Intermediate), 27; Westminster Leagues, 19; Independent Young People's Societies, 201; Young People's Missionary Societies (Male), 158; Young People's Missionary Societies (Female), 630; Young People's Missionary Societies (Mixed), 198; King's Daughters, 15; Boys' Brigades, 11; Brotherhood of Andrew and Philip, 7; total number of societies, 6635.

The statistics therefore show that in 164 Presbyteries there are 5400 Christian Endeavor Societies connected with the churches, and 986 Young People's Missionary Societies not connected with Christian Endeavor. The following resolutions are respectfully recommended for adoption by the General Assembly:

Resolved, 1. That the Stated Clerk be authorized to print in the Appendix a summary of the statistics of Young People's Societies, so far as compiled by him.

Resolved, 2. That the Stated Clerk be authorized to make the effort to complete these statistics and to report the same to the next Assembly.

Resolved, 3. That this Assembly recognizes the great work accomplished by the young people of our Church, and hereby expresses its appreciation of their earnest spirit and faithful labors and bids them Godspeed in their work.

Respectfully submitted,

WM. HENRY ROBERTS, Stated Clerk.

The Stated Clerk made report to the Assembly concerning the binding and distribution of the Annual Reports of the Boards, which was accepted, adopted, and is as follows:

The Stated Clerk respectfully reports to the General Assembly on the binding and distributing of the Annual Reports of the Boards as follows:

1. The Reports for the year 1897 were distributed in accordance with the directions of the General Assembly, and a statement of the expenses involved is herewith submitted.

2. It is recommended that the Annual Reports of the Boards for the year 1898 be printed and distributed as heretofore, under the direction of the Stated Clerk, the expenses to be borne by the several Boards in proportion to the space occupied by each Report in the bound volume.

3. It is recommended that the Boards be requested and urged to transmit their Reports to the Stated Clerk on or before June 21, 1898. Unless this be done the Stated Clerk cannot distribute the Reports prior to August 1.

The Permanent Clerk of the Assembly was unanimously empowered to cast, and did cast, the vote of the Assembly for the following persons as members of the Board of the Church Erection Fund: Ministers—Nathaniel W. Conklin, D.D., John Hall, D.D., W. A. Holliday, D.D.; Ruling Elders—Frederick C. Burnham, E. Francis Hyde, Daniel J. Burnham, John Sinclair.

The Stated Clerk of the Assembly was unanimously authorized to cast, and did cast, the vote of the Assembly for the following persons as Trustees of the General Assembly: Rev. Henry C. McCook, D.D., Philadelphia; George E. Sterry, New York City; Hon. James A. Beaver, Bellefonte, Pa.

The Stated Clerk reported on a Manual for Presbyteries and Synods, and also on the Minutes. The Report was accepted and adopted, and is as follows:

The Stated Clerk respectfully reports that owing to the pressure of many duties, he has been unable during the past year to prepare the Manual for Presbytery and Synod, which he had been authorized to prepare by the last Assembly. He hopes to be able to prepare it during the present year, and requests that the Board of Publication and Sabbath-school Work be authorized to publish the Manual.

The Stated Clerk also reports to the General Assembly that he has in his possession a considerable number of duplicates of the Minutes; these are in part remainders from the terms of service of other Stated Clerks, in part accumulations during his own term of service, and in part the gift of ministers. It is believed that it will be greatly to the advantage of the Church and the public to place as full sets of the Minutes as possible in the libraries of the Theological Seminaries, of the principal colleges and universities, and in the public libraries of our great cities. It is therefore requested that the following resolution be adopted:

Resolved, That the Stated Clerk be authorized to furnish, so far as feasible, sets of Minutes of the Assembly and of the Reports of the Boards to the Theological Seminaries, the principal colleges and universities, and the principal public libraries in the United States.

The following resolutions were severally adopted:

Resolved, That the Stated Clerk be directed, as usual, to publish the Minutes of the General Assembly.

Resolved, That the Stated Clerk be authorized to furnish the Minutes to such Presbyteries only as have paid in full their quotas to the Contingent Fund.

Resolved, That the Stated Clerk forward a copy each of the Minutes and Reports to the ruling elders who are Commissioners to this Assembly; Provided, That the ruling elders forward to the Clerk their post-office addresses, and that the Presbyteries which they represent have paid their full quotas to the Mileage and Contingent Funds.

Resolved, That the Moderator be authorized to fill, by appointment, any vacancies which may occur, by resignation or otherwise, in any of the Special Committees.

Resolved, That the Stated Clerk be authorized to pay the usual bills and salaries and settle all accounts connected with the entertainment of the Assembly.

The Assembly took up the unfinished business, viz., the supplementary Report of the Standing Committee on Home Missions. The Report was accepted, adopted, and is as follows:

The Standing Committee on Home Missions respectfully reports on the following Overtures referred to it by the Assembly:

Overture No. 8, from the Presbytery of Palmyra, asking for a more efficient plan for the Board of Home Missions. It is recommended that no action be taken.

Overture No. 38, from the Presbytery of Olympia, with reference to the functions of a Synodical missionary. It is recommended that the following answer be returned:

1. That the Presbytery has full control over the several pulpits within its bounds and may make all necessary arrangements for filling such pulpits.

2. That a Synodical missionary may wisely be a medium of communication between ministers and vacant pulpits, or between ministers and Presbyterial Home Missionary Committees; but he is not, by virtue of his office, superior to the authority of the Presbytery, and may not act independently of the Presbytery.

Respectfully submitted,

JOHN DIXON, Chairman.

The Stated Clerk presented a communication from the delegate appointed by the Synod of the Reformed (Dutch) Church in America, which was ordered to be printed in the Appendix.

The Standing Committee on Publication and Sabbath-school Work presented a supplementary Report, which was accepted, adopted, and is as follows:

The Standing Committee on Publication and Sabbath-school Work respectfully reports with reference to the Resolution referred to the Committee, and asking that the Board of Publication and Sabbath-school Work be recommended to omit the printing of the text of the Bible in the Lesson Helps. Your Committee recommend that the matter be referred to the Board for its careful consideration.

Respectfully submitted,

JOHN R. DAVIES, Chairman.

The following fraternal telegram was sent, viz.:

To the General Assembly of the United Presbyterian Church, Omaha, Neb.:

The General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the U. S. A. sends cordial fraternal greetings. Read the one hundred thirty-third Psalm.

WALLACE RADCLIFFE, Moderator.
WM. H. ROBERTS, Stated Clerk.

The Standing Committee on Temperance, owing to the shortness of the time for consideration, reported that it was unable to recommend action on two resolutions which had been referred to it. The resolutions were taken up by the Assembly, and Resolution No. 1 was negatived. Resolution No. 2 was amended, adopted, and is as follows:

Be it Resolved, That this General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in United States of America does hereby memorialize and petition our National Government, to see to it that the sale of intoxicating liquors of every kind and character be prohibited in all governmental buildings, reservations, etc., and also in the army and navy.

The case of Rev. C. M. Whetzel against the Synod of Iowa, was referred to the next Assembly.

The Stated Clerk requested authority from the Assembly in the matter following, which was granted by the adoption of the following Resolution, viz.:

Resolved, That the Stated Clerk is hereby authorized and empowered to prepare and continue Lists or Registers both of ministers and of churches, to be kept in his office for reference and information; the List of Ministers to show, among other things, where and when ministerial or other services have been rendered by them, and the List of Churches to show the date of organization, by whom they have been served, etc.

The Moderator announced the Committee upon Reduced Representation and related matters as follows: Ministers—John Dixon, D.D., B. F. Bittinger, D.D., Robert F. Sample, D.D., Robert Hunter, D.D., W. N. Page, D.D.; Ruling Elders—S. M. Cutcheon, F. L. Hitchcock, L. H. Severance, Charles J. Merritt, with the Stated Clerk, under the rule, as Secretary.

The Moderator also announced the members of the Committee on a Roman Catholic Church at the West Point Military Reservation, viz.: The Moderator, Chairman (by order of the Assembly); the Rev. J. M. Barkley and the Rev. S. S. Gilson, D.D.

The following resolution was adopted:

Resolved, That, as customary, the matter of railroad arrangements for the next Assembly be placed entirely within the control of the Stated Clerk.

The Standing Committee on Leave of Absence reported that for satisfactory reasons leave of absence had been granted to the following Commissioners, viz.:

The following resolution of thanks was presented and unanimously adopted by a rising vote, the question being put by the Stated Clerk :

Resolved, That the thanks of the Assembly are due and are hereby tendered to the Rev. Wallace Radcliffe, D.D., Moderator, for the rare combination of tact, courtesy, promptness, grace and uniform fairness, manifested in the discharge of the functions of his high office.

Additional resolutions of thanks were presented and adopted, as follows :

Resolved, 1. That the thanks of the Assembly are presented to the Vice-Moderator, also to the Stated, Permanent and Temporary Clerks, for their efficient services, so indispensable to the prompt and orderly transaction of the business of the Assembly.

Resolved, 2. That the grateful acknowledgments of the Assembly are due and therefore tendered to Rev. S. C. Dickey, D.D., Chairman of the Committee of Arrangements; to the President and officers of the Winona Assembly and Summer School, and those associated with them; for their liberality in paying all expenses incurred by the Committee of Arrangements, and their thoughtful attention to all details essential to our comfort and well-being, thus making our sojourn in this beautiful grove on the shore of Winona Lake most enjoyable.

Resolved, 3. That the thanks of the Assembly are tendered to the corporations and persons following : The State Bank of Warsaw, for banking facilities, including New York drafts to all applicants, free of charge; the Pennsylvania and Big Four Railroad Companies, also the Central Traffic Association, for half-rates to all members of the Assembly desiring to make side trips; the Western Union Telegraph Company, Post-office officials and employés; the Presbyterian Board of Publication and Sabbath-school Work, for the use of Hymnals; the Committee on Decoration for their tasteful work in the embellishment of the Auditorium : Dr. F. L. Marshall, Mr. E. F. Yarnelle and daughter, Dr. Houston, the blind evangelist, the Hayden Quartette, Miss Blanche I. Marshall, pianist and organist, the cornetist, and all others who have materially assisted in the delightful services of praise; the faithful ushers; the Christian people of Warsaw for the cordial welcome to their home circles; the Warsaw Times for the full and accurate reports of all the proceedings of the Assembly; and the members of the press, both religious and secular, who have reported the proceedings of the Assembly.

Resolved, 4. That the thanks of the Assembly are tendered to Rev. R. V. Hunter, D.D., Chairman of the Exhibit Committee, and his colleagues, for the excellent and instructive collection of historic mementoes; and to the Synods and Presbyteries so heartily coöperating in the Exhibit.

Resolved, 5. That we hereby express gratitude to our heavenly Father for His gracious care over us, and the manifest presence and power of the Holy Spirit in the deliberations of this Assembly; the evident fruits of which have been wisdom, peace and harmony, and all in loving loyalty to the great Head of the Church, our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ.

The Chairman of the Committee of Arrangements, Rev. Solomon C. Dickey, D.D., and the Rev. William P. Kane, D.D., addressed the General Assembly in behalf of the Winona Assembly and Summer School.

The Moderator, Stated and Permanent Clerks, in response to urgent calls from the Assembly, also made addresses.

The Minutes of to-day's proceedings were read and approved.

After solemn praise and thanksgiving, the business of the Assembly having been completed, and the vote taken for the dissolution, the Moderator dissolved the Assembly, saying, "By virtue of the authority delegated to me by the Church, let this General Assembly be dissolved, and I do hereby dissolve it, and require another General Assembly, chosen in the same manner, to meet in the Westminster Church, Minneapolis, Minn., on the third Thursday of May, 1899.

The sessions were closed with prayer and the apostolic benediction.

WILLIAM EVES MOORE, Permanent Clerk.

WILLIAM HENRY ROBERTS, Stated Clerk.

OF THE STATE OF RELIGION WITHIN THE BOUNDS OF THE PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH IN THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA FOR THE YEAR ENDING APRIL 30, 1898.

The examination of reports from more than two hundred Presbyteries, the bound volume of Reports of the Missionary Boards and the Reports on Church Beneficence has profoundly impressed the minds of your Committee. With a Church comprising thirty-two Synods and two hundred and thirty-one Presbyteries, containing a membership of 970,685 communicants, carrying on an extensive missionary work in all parts of this great Commonwealth, establishing an extensive system of educational institutions, colleges, academies, seminaries and schools, erecting churches and manses in thousands of needy and yet important localities, sending an army of consecrated men and women into every continent of the globe to carry the Gospel to 160,000,000 of heathen, Moslem and Catholic people, we may well be filled with a sense of the vastness of our work and a thrill of joy that we are permitted to have a part in it. Whatever of imperfection there may yet be apparent, however far short we may have come, however miserably we may have failed to realize even our own ideals, we are yet sure that under divine guidance we are marching on to victory. We do not yet see the standard floating over the battlements, but we have the earnest of final triumph.

The growth of the Church has not been as marked as we could have desired, but in the net increase of 9774 names on our church rolls, of which a large per cent. have been added to churches in foreign lands, we recognize the faithfulness of Him who said, "My word shall not return unto me void." The Word has been regularly and faithfully preached, sinners converted and saints edified, notwithstanding the stringency of the times and the unusual calls made upon the churches to meet the deficits in the treasuries of our Boards. Hundreds of churches have been built or renewed, pastors have been paid their salaries in full, manses repaired or built anew, and Boards wholly or entirely freed from debt.

We note with special delight the good attendance of the children and young people at the ordinary services of the church. This is greatly promoted by the practice of many pastors of preaching special sermons for the young people and the children, or by addressing short sermons to them every Sunday morning. Much may be done in this way to supplement home instruction, and to supply what is lacking in very many of our homes.

The maintenance of the regular midweek prayer meeting still binds together multitudes at the throne of grace. Though the attendance be limited to twenty or fifty per cent. of the membership, it may be safely said that nothing serves better to maintain as well as to measure the spiritual life of the churches. Let every pastor and elder strive earnestly to advance the attendance upon this service.

It is very gratifying to note the continued and enthusiastic interest in the Sunday-schools everywhere. Here not only are the children of the Church instructed in the Word of God, but many children and young people, who would otherwise be left to grow up without religious instruction, are taught the way of life. We cannot overrate the importance of the Sunday-school, and we may therefore thank God for the large increase in the number of schools organized, many of them in destitute places, and all accomplishing a blessed work.

The importance of securing earnest, consecrated men and women as teachers in the Sunday-school cannot be too constantly insisted upon, nor can too much labor be spent in training these teachers for their work. May we not hope that the time will come when a course of Bible study will be required from all our Sunday-school and Bible-class teachers? If there be anything we would emphasize in this paper, it is that the Sunday-school superintendents and teachers should be reminded that their work has only been successful in the best sense when their pupils have been brought into saving touch with Him who said, "Suffer the little children to come unto me."

These schools are now, as they ever have been, nurseries of the church. The seal of God is upon them. We note with satisfaction that the vast majority of the schools are church schools, and that the Westminster Helps are used in most of them. Some of them, however, prefer the Blakesley Lessons or those published by David Cook & Company or the Sunday-school Union. It is to be regretted that throughout the West the teaching of the Shorter Catechism is very generally neglected. In some instances the offer of the Presbyterian Board of Publication and Sabbath-school Work is accepted, and prizes are given to those pupils who have memorized the Catechism. On the other hand, most of the churches in the East adhere to the good old Presbyterian custom of teaching the Shorter Catechism.

The value of a sound Christian literature for young people cannot be over-estimated. We are glad to note that a majority of the Sunday-schools are reported as having libraries. When we consider the immense influence for evil being exerted by the flashy stories published in the cheap novels and periodicals of the day, when we note the growing tendency of parents to relegate their children to the public library where they are sure to acquire an appetite for the intensely realistic and ofttimes corrupting literature of the day, we feel like raising our voice in protest against the neglect of those who discount the importance of the Sunday-school library.

The difficulties in the way of the Sunday-school work are not new: inefficient teachers, indifferent parents, holiday character of the Lord's day, with its bicycling, visiting and feasting. The encouragements are the regular attendance of tens of thousands of boys and girls, the devotion of an army of men and women who Sabbath after Sabbath faithfully labor for the conversion of their pupils, and the many additions to the membership from the Sunday-schools.

Second only to that of the Sunday-schools is the spiritual influence of the societies of the Church.

The societies for men are, the Men's League, the Brotherhood of Andrew and Philip, and societies for Bible study and mutual improvement. The Men's League was organized to aid in promoting the interests of the local churches, and especially to aid in arousing an interest in and sustaining the evening service. The importance of such societies for men can hardly be overrated. They contain within them the possibility of directing the unused and for the most part unorganized forces of much of our mature manhood, in channels where may yet flow streams to make glad the City of our God. What a mighty host of workers might be gathered from the lay membership of our churches represented by the men who have little or nothing special to do? The organization of men's societies would accomplish this end. We venture to suggest that they should undertake something more than the interests of the local church and should address themselves to the great causes of Home and Foreign Missions.

Let them organize as the women have done, and the question of adequate support of our great Boards will soon be solved.

Societies for women are found in all the churches: Women's Foreign and Home Missionary Societies, the Ladies' Aid Societies and the King's Daughters. What a mighty host they include! What manifold spiritual interests do they serve! There is nothing that gives more encouragement to pastors and to the secretaries of our Missionary Boards than these women's societies. The blessing of the great Head of the Church is upon them.

And then comes the societies for young people, organized in almost all our churches. For the most part they are the Y. P. S. C. E., whose members are enthusiastic in their meetings, rejoicing in testifying to God's goodness to them and glorifying in the marvellous success of this greatest of all movements in the nineteenth century. Some societies are organized as Westminster Leagues, but do not seem to differ in character or service from the Y. P. S. C. E. For the younger children, junior societies are formed in many churches. We are not informed as to the special work or progress of these organizations. They seem to be regarded as training schools for the larger societies. When wisely managed they undoubtedly do a great work. In all cases reported, these societies for young people seem to be under the direction of pastors and Sessions, but just how far this is true does not appear. Uniformity of rule in Presbyterian churches would avoid possible trouble in the future. The fact that many C. E. Societies receive into active membership young people who have not united with the church, opens the way to possible conflict between pastors, Sessions and the C. E. Societies.

In some churches Mission Bands still exist, but in most places these organizations seem to be connected with the Young People's Societies and the Sunday-schools. Mention is also made of the Boys' Brigade, but we are uninformed as to the value of this society in its relation to the spiritual or moral life of the boys.

Let us now turn to

THE SPIRITUAL CONDITION OF THE CHURCHES.

On this most fundamental point the reports of the Presbyteries are seemingly discouraging. The vast majority report "no unusual religious interest" in their congregations. In one Synod but one out of five Presbyteries reports any unusual interest in religion. Another large Synod reports no unusual religious interest in any of the churches. Still another Synod, one of the largest in our Church, reports but few churches where anything unusual has been manifest. Few of the churches have observed special days of fasting. The Week of Prayer is usually observed in a good many churches; special services have been held by pastors, sometimes aided by evangelists. Some churches report seasons of gracious revival. Many, while they have not claimed unusual interest among the people, nevertheless report "a steady growth" and many accessions. While therefore we cannot but hope and pray for the greater outpouring of God's Spirit in revival and converting power, we may yet thank God for the showers of blessing which have watered some of the churches, resulting in rich and gracious fruitage to the glory of God.

Among the many difficulties the pastors have been confronted with are the following: "Sabbath desecration;" the saloon; "Universalism and half-hearted Orthodox profession;" card playing, especially "the Saturday night progressive euchre party;" worldliness and indifference. These conditions may account, in part at least, for the remarkable fact reported by some of the larger Presbyteries that, "although using various agencies," they experienced no revival interest. These facts call for our gravest concern. When God thus hides His face there must be sin in Israel's camp. The impression left upon your Committee is that while we may rejoice in the manifestation of spiritual power in many of our churches, yet we should be deeply humbled before God and cry unto Him day and night for a new baptism of the Holy Spirit.

It is gratifying to note the increasing number of churches in which the people are given an opportunity to contribute to all the Boards of the Church. In one of the largest Synods fully ninety per cent. of the churches have been faithful in this matter. In the same Synod seventy-five per cent. of the Sabbath-schools contributed to some of the Boards. Facts like these are full of encouragement and hope for the future.

The methods of securing the gifts of God's people in the churches greatly vary. In many the "Envelope System" is used. In some there is a regular canvass of the congregation with a view to place in every home the literature of the Boards with an envelope for the contribution. Others use the card on which each member is asked to subscribe to the various causes of the Church, but in the majority of cases the old method of taking a basket collection is still in vogue. The Sabbath-schools contribute to the Boards of Publication and Sabbath-school Work, Home and Foreign Missions, and in some cases to Freedmen.

On this whole subject of Benevolence there is still need of persistent effort. Considering the times through which we have been passing, the changes which have been wrought by the destruction of great corporations and the distress which has come upon the laboring classes, the fact that some of our Boards were able to close the year without debt and all of them in better condition than last year is cause for devout thankfulness to the great Head of the Church. The increase of gifts made by men who have given as they never gave before gives us the hope for larger contributions for the Lord's work in the near future than ever before.

For the poor of the churches and of the Church communities our people seem to have made adequate provision.

Turning to the subject of family religion, we are confronted by a matter of vital importance to the Church. We are glad to report that in almost all the Presbyteries parents are said to be faithful in presenting their children for baptism. Faith in the Covenant promise seems to be general. In a few Synods, however, complaint is made that there is much carelessness and neglect on this subject. It is to be feared that there is in some regions a sad decline. An increasingly large number of Christian parents are neglecting the family altar as well as the proper training of their children. Too generally do they relegate the instruction of their offspring to the Sunday-school teacher. Surely here is a matter which should evoke the prayerful interest of pastors and Sessions. For the most part the reports fail to give information of a definite character as to how far pastors and Sessions are faithful in this point. Many tell us that instruction on this subject is given from the pulpit, but they are silent on the matter of pastoral visitation and personal effort of elders to inform "the children of the church when they come to years of discretion," that "it is their duty and their privilege to come to the Lord's Supper." Nevertheless, it is a matter of rejoicing that many godly parents still preserve the fires upon the family altar, and by example and precept lay strong the foundations of Christian character in their children.

Finally, we record with pleasure the interest of many churches in the special days of prayer for Colleges and Education, Sabbath Observance and Temperance, and of the almost universal observance of Children's Day. With the inspiration of the great anniversary season in honor of our Westminster Standards and the enthusiasm of the impressive and uplifting services of this General Assembly—with the banner of Peace floating over our battlements and with faith in the many promises of God sure and steadfast, we may now go forward to the conquest of the world for Christ, our King. By God's grace we have a Church grand in its proportions, rich in resources, and almost perfect in its organization. We only need the outpouring of the Spirit in Pentecostal power to secure a glorious triumph. May He descend upon us now and bestow a blessing so great that there shall not be room to receive it.

In behalf of the Committee,

E. M. WHERRY, Chairman.

CORRESPONDENCE.

REPORT OF THE EXECUTIVE COMMISSION OF THE ALLIANCE OF THE REFORMED CHURCHES THROUGHOUT THE WORLD HOLDING THE PRESBYTERIAN SYSTEM.

PHILADELPHIA, PA., May 13, 1898.

To the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America:

DEAR BRETHREN:—The Executive Commission, Western Section, of the "Alliance of the Reformed Churches Throughout the World Holding the Presbyterian System," presents to your venerable body its cordial fraternal greetings. We would remind you that one year ago official notice was sent to you of the meeting of the Seventh General Council of the Alliance, to be held in the New York Avenue Presbyterian Church, Washington, D. C., in the year 1899. The opening date of the Council has been fixed for September 27, 1899, and its sessions will continue until October 6.

The basis of representation in the Council is as follows: For each 100 congregations or less, two delegates up to 1000 congregations; above 1000 congregations, one delegate for each additional 100 up to 2000 congregations; above 2000 congregations, one delegate for each additional 250 congregations. It is respectfully requested that an early report be made both to the General Secretary, Rev. Dr. Mathews, and to the American Secretary of the Alliance, in the matter of the persons named as your delegates.

It is also respectfully requested that provision be made for the apportionment of expenses due from your venerable body for the present year. This amounts to the sum of $765. The Treasurer of the Alliance is George Junkin, LL.D., corner Sixth and Walnut streets, Philadelphia, Pa., to whom remittances should be made.

With best wishes for the prosperity of the cause of Christ in your midst as a Church, and invoking upon you grace, mercy and peace from God, the Father, and the Lord Jesus Christ, we are, in behalf of the Alliance,

Yours fraternally,

WILLIAM HENRY ROBERTS, Secretary.

LETTER FROM THE GENERAL SYNOD OF THE REFORMED DUTCH) CHURCH.

SAUGERTIES-ON-HUDSON, N.Y., May 25, 1898.

To the Stated Clerk of the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America:

REV. AND DEAR BROTHER:—The Reformed (Dutch) Church in America sends to your General Assembly her affectionate Christian greeting. Commissioned to convey her salutations, I exceedingly regret that circumstances prevent my personal attendance in the enjoyment of so distinguished a privilege and the performance of so fraternal an office.

In a most unusual sense are our two Churches one; not only in doctrine and polity, but in our primal issuance from a kindred persecution and even martyrology; in an arduous defense for hundreds of years of Reformation Christianity; in the firm upholding of those principles of enlightened civil and religious liberty that were the basis of our national security at the first, and are the framework now of a more illustrious future; and in those many interminglings and interchanges among our pastors and churches that help us to better mutual understandings and aids. We consider it a privilege and honor to stand in so peculiarly friendly relations with a Church so substantially equipped and organized as yours, so eminently strong and courageous in religious convictions, so resolute in defense of the faith once delivered to the saints, whilst also of so broad and broadening a charity; possessor of the old and tried, yet feeling the impulse of the spirit of our century, and with guarded but open vision reading what new truths God yet hath from age to age to break forth from his Holy Word. With yourselves we recognize the immense pressure put upon the Church of God at this particular time to save the masses of the poor, and the not infrequently unevangelized masses of the rich, and to convert to the principles of our holy religion the great pagan nations with whom we are coming into so close commercial and personal relations, whose vices shall prove our damnation unless our virtues, our Gospel, our Christ shall speedily prove their redemption. With you we rejoice in the increasing catholicity among the churches in all new and wise alliances in practical Christian work and in the subordination of all minor matters to that of putting the Kingdom of God into the hearts and lives of men and of nations. Have we not in this present humanitarian war an indication of the higher objects for which nations may hereafter contend, and in the energy and utter regardlessness of expense with which our nation urges it have we not a striking illustration of the sincerity and vigor and aboundingness of treasure with which we should wage the war for the rescue of the perishing, and the building up of God's Kingdom in the earth!

As to the condition of our own Church, I may only say that in some respects the hardness of the times has apparently nerved the people the more in their offerings to our foreign and domestic work. Our general tables will about repeat last year's report.

Let me assure the Assembly again of our most hearty admiration of the spirit, enterprise and work of the great Church for which they legislate. May it be ours to come into still closer alliances! Not a few repeat the inquiry, Why may not we and others who hold our general Confession come one of these speeding days into a complete organic unity? Peace be within thy walls!

With renewed expressions of the fraternal sympathies and earnest prayers of our Reformed communion, I am in their behalf and personally,

Yours with Christian salutations,

DENIS WORTMAN.

FRATERNAL LETTER TO THE GENERAL SYNOD OF THE REFORMED (GERMAN) CHURCH IN AMERICA.

PHILADELPHIA, PA., September 28, 1897.

Rev. John A. Peters, D.D., President of the General Synod of the Reformed Church in the United States:

HONORED BROTHER:—The General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America tenders through us to the General Synod of the Reformed Church in the United States cordial congratulations on the sesquicentennial of its organization. Located as both the Churches are in the same land, there is much naturally in common between them, and both are further enabled to appreciate, in some fitting degree, the significance of so notable an event. Behind this event lies a great and glorious history, which has had the sphere of its accomplishment in the Old World as well as in the New. Our Churches both originated in that greatest of modern religious movements, the Protestant Reformation, and while the ancestors of Presbyterians maintained resolutely the apostolic faith and the rights of conscience in Great Britain, your ancestors stood as resolutely for the same important interests in Germany and Switzerland, and often under far more trying circumstances. In this land the Reformed found early a refuge from persecution, and, equally with their European ancestors, maintained intact the great doctrines of grace, and the principles of popular right in the government of the Church. Side by side also the men and women, whose memories we delight to honor, laid during the eighteenth century deep and sure the foundations of the republic. The feeble beginnings of the history of your Church in America are too well known to need reference to them, but God has abundantly blessed through the generations both your ministers and people, until you are to-day one of the strongest of the Churches in these United States, maintaining the Calvinistic system of doctrine and the Presbyterian government. The work of organization begun by Michael Schlatter in 1747 has truly reached a glorious fruition. May the divine blessing descend upon you more copiously in the future than in the past, giving you to be increasingly a mighty power for the maintenance of sound doctrine, the spread of true morality and the full inbringing in this land and the world of His everlasting kingdom, who is the only Redeemer and the true King of men. Especially do we congratulate ourselves and you that in the future which lies before us both on this and on other continents, we shall be able to look to you as trusted colaborers with us. Always shall we bear you upon our hearts, lift up for you unceasing prayer to God, welcome to our fellowship both your members and ministers, and cordially cooperate with you in every good work as brethren beloved.

The Church of the Westminster Standards greets affectionately the Church of the Heidelberg Catechism, and invokes upon her the grace of Christ, the love of God, and the communion of the Holy Ghost.

In behalf of the General Assembly,

SHELDON JACKSON, Moderator.
WM. HENRY ROBERTS, Stated Clerk.

Reply to the Fraternal Letter.

Tiffin, O., October 4, 1897.

To Sheldon Jackson, D.D., Moderator, and William Henry Roberts, D.D., Stated Clerk of the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America:

Rev. and Dear Brethren in Christ:—It affords us great pleasure to acknowledge the receipt of your communication of September 25 ultimo, conveying the official announcement of the action of the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America, tendering to the General Synod of the Reformed Church in the United States its "cordial congratulations on the sesqui-centennial of the organization" of the Reformed Church in this country. We desire hereby to assure you that the action of the General Assembly on this subject shall be formally presented to our General Synod at its next session, which will be held in the city of Tiffin, O., beginning on "Tuesday after Whitsuntide, A. D. 1899." Meanwhile, in behalf of the General Synod of the Reformed Church in the United States, we would, through you, tender our acknowledgment of thankfulness to the General Assembly for the hearty Christian greetings and congratulations accorded to our Church during the celebration of her sesqui-centennial festival.

Praying for the abiding blessing of our Lord Jesus Christ upon the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America in the accomplishment of her great work for God and humanity, we subscribe ourselves in behalf of the Reformed Church in the United States,

Yours in Christian bonds,

JOHN A. PETERS, President,
JOHN PH. STEIN, Stated Clerk,
Of the General Synod of the Reformed Church in the United States.

LETTER FROM THE EVANGELICAL LUTHERAN CHURCH OF THE UNITED STATES.

SPRINGFIELD, O., May 19, 1898.

To the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in Session at Winona Lake, Warsaw, Ind.:

FATHERS AND BRETHREN:—The enclosed credentials show that at a meeting of the General Synod of the Evangelical Lutheran Church of the United States at Mansfield, O., May, 1897, the undersigned was appointed a delegate to extend the fraternal greetings of the General Synod to your honorable body. Circumstances not necessary to detail have prevented my appearance in person to perform this very agreeable duty.

We wish to assure you that the kindly and fraternal feeling which for so many years the General Synod has entertained for the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church—a feeling which we have reason to believe is thoroughly reciprocated—continues with unabated vigor.

You are one of the great historic Churches to which the term "sect" cannot be applied with any propriety. Under one name or another you have been a part of the one Universal Church of Christ. You—and may I say we with you?—share in the glories and inherit the blessings of the Reformation. You and we with you hold fast to the Word of God as the only infallible rule of faith and practice. You and we with you stand unflinchingly for the evangelical doctrines of that Word—such as the depravity of man, the deity of Christ, the necessity of the atonement, the need of the new birth, the gracious operations of the Holy Spirit, the sacraments as means of grace and other cardinal truths of evangelical religion. And thus it appears that there are many more points at which we touch each other than at which we are divided, and we rejoice at this our kinship in things pertaining to the kingdom of God. We rejoice with you at your achievements in this Land of the Free. Your very great increase in numbers since the days of Makemie, your splendid equipment of schools, colleges, universities and theological seminaries, your educated ministry, your efficient press, your extensive missionary operations and your great publication house—all these and other agencies set apart for the purpose of winning men to Christ, extending His kingdom, and glorifying God, make up an imposing and inspiring outlook—a testimonial not only of past zeal and devotion, but also a cheering prophecy of the future.

Our Church is greatly embarrassed by diversity of languages. Though substantially of the same faith, we are divided into several organizations. But differences are disappearing, misapprehensions are being corrected, and we are slowly coming to a better understanding with each other. We hope to get together.

Amid these difficulties we have been helped not a little by the sympathies of the Presbyterian Church. The editors of your Church papers do not caricature us, never willfully misrepresent us, often speak of us in appreciative terms, and your theologians aim to represent us fairly whenever they have occasion to discuss our doctrine or history.

We tender our congratulations upon the arrival of the two hundred and fiftieth anniversary of the appearance of the Standards of your faith. They are great documents arising out of a great crisis. They have played and I venture to say will continue to play a conspicuous part in the theology of the Protestant Church. Their influence has always made for personal liberty, for national freedom and for practical righteousness. We Lutherans hold them in high regard.

It would afford the General Synod much gratification to have you appoint a delegate to attend its next meeting, to be held at York, Pa., May 24, 1899,

In the name of the General Synod, I extend its fraternal greetings to you and bid you good cheer in the work entrusted to you, and to us and to others as well—the arduous though glorious work of winning America and the world for Christ.

Respectfully and fraternally yours,

SAMUEL F. BRECKENRIDGE.

LETTER FROM THE EVANGELICAL CHURCH OF ITALY.

FIRENZE, ITALY, September 8, 1897.

Rev. William H. Roberts, D.D., LL.D., Stated Clerk Presbyterian Church in the United States of America, Philadelphia, Pa.:

REV. AND DEAR SIR:—We beg, with great gladness, to inform you that the General Assembly of the Evangelical Church of Italy takes place this year in Florence, from the 12th to the 15th October next.

This Assembly is the twenty-third, and will, in praise and benediction to God, close the twenty-seventh year since the union of the Free Christian Church was first proclaimed in Italy, and to this day officially acknowledged by the name of "The Evangelical Church of Italy."

The work of this Church was raised, before the unity of Italy, by the free lecture and diffusion of the Bible, and by the powerful influence of the Spirit of God in the land of Arnaldo da Brescia, Savonarola, and other great masters of the faith, and connected with the great name of the late Father Alexander Gavazzi. It has grown more and more, spreading year by year, and extending with a vigorous and promising fervor from the Alps to Sicily. Especially in this year now about to end our Lord has so blessed the missionary and evangelistic work of this Church that the number of its congregations and converts has greatly augmented.

We, then, desire to celebrate this majestic triumph of the Gospel of Christ in the land which was for so many centuries a slave to Popes and tyrants.

We, therefore, do invite you, heartily and earnestly, to this feast of ours which freely merits to be œcumenical. We assure you that it will be to us all a real joy and a great encouragement if an official deputation representing your Church were present at our next General Assembly.

We trust that, in your goodness, you will kindly meet our desire and grant us this honor. But should this not be possible, we, at least, hope you will kindly favor us with acknowledgments conveying to us the expression of your sympathy, and the fraternal love and Christian encouragement of a Church united to us in faith and in the great work of the kingdom of God and His Christ.

May the grace of our Lord Jesus be multiplied to you and be with you forever and ever.

In the name of the Evangelical Committee,

SAVERIO FERA, Secretary.

PHILADELPHIA, PA., June 28, 1898.

Rev. Cav. Saverio Fera, Secretary of the General Assembly of the Evangelical Church of Italy:

REV. AND DEAR SIR:—Your letter of September 8, 1897, in the name of your General Assembly, was duly submitted to the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America, at its sessions during May, 1898. The Assembly expressed great pleasure at the receipt of the letter and appointed the undersigned to answer the same.

In the name of the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the U. S. A., I therefore cordially acknowledge the letter, and seek to express the high esteem cherished by the Assembly for the Evangelical Church of Italy. If possible, a delegate representing this Church will be sent to your next General Assembly. Meantime, we rejoice that you represent worthily in Italy the Churches which stand for the apostolic faith and the apostolic Church order. We appreciate highly your declarations of fraternal love for this Church, as united to you in doctrine and also in the great work of the kingdom of God and His Christ. Associated as we are with you, with the Waldensian and with other Churches in the "Alliance of the Reformed Churches throughout the World holding the Presbyterian System," it is a source of deep satisfaction to us that in a land where a corrupt Church, holding a distorted faith, has long ruled the masses, you uphold a pure

Gospel and acknowledge Christ as the only Head of His Church. May the Lord enable you not only to be true to the faith once delivered to the saints, but by the help of His Spirit so to live and labor as to give you large acceptance with the people of Italy, and hasten by your labors the coming of the day when your country shall be free from ecclesiastical tyranny, and shall enjoy to the full the blessings which flow from the pure Gospel of the Son of God. As you labor, remember that churches of our common faith and order exist on every continent. There are but two communions which are world-wide, the one Reformed, the other Roman Catholic. Side by side in every land the teacher and pastor is face to face with the priest; the open Bible confronts the confessional; liberty opposes tyranny, and the obedience of Christ makes progress against the obedience of Rome. Our Reformed Churches belt the world to-day with their testimony to the uncorrupted doctrines of the New Testament; to liberty of conscience; to salvation by grace; to the supremacy of the Word of God over faith and life, and to the supreme Headship of the Lord Jesus. Remembering thus your unity with us, we tender to you as the "beloved of God, called to be saints, grace and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ." May the God who strengthened the great apostle so that he could say, "I am ready to preach the Gospel to you that are at Rome also," so strengthen you that in view of past trials and of present hindrances, you can declare with him, "in all these things we are more than conquerors through Him that loved us."

In behalf of the General Assembly,

WM. HENRY ROBERTS, Stated Clerk.

MISCELLANEOUS.

A. Financial Statement of "The Church at Home and Abroad," 1887–1897.

Transcript from Books of Account of The Church at Home and Abroad for the eleven years of its publication, made by F. L. Braselman, bookkeeper, and certified to be correct.

Expenses of publication and delivering to subscribers:

For Engraving,	$663 77
" Literary contributions,	925 55
" Paper, composition, printing and folding,	167,657 88
" Editors' salaries,	48,633 33
" Wages of clerks,	17,723 03
" Traveling expenses,	1,080 21
" Advertising,	771 75
" Freight, drayage and wrapping paper,	4,022 88
" Stationery,	2,010 46
" Postage,	22,271 23
" Incidentals,	3,820 88
		$269,580 97

Receipts from all sources, not including amounts paid by the Boards for printing receipts:

From Subscriptions,	$208,450 36
" Advertising,	7,835 36
" Sale of stereotype plate,	379 30
" Sale of old paper,	43 84
		$216,708 86

Expenses,	$269,580 97
Receipts,	216,708 86
		$52,872 11
To this add bills receivable (worthless),		1,631 70
Due for printing receipts,		560 00
Total deficiency,		$55,063 81

For printing receipts during these eleven years there has been charged up to the Boards the sum of $15,908.61. Of this sum $15,348.61 has been paid by the Boards, and $560.00 remained unpaid at the time this Report was written.

In answer to a question by your Committee, Mr. John H. Scribner, Business Manager of The Church at Home and Abroad, said the amount charged for printing receipts was really a part of the deficiency of the magazine, and should be so regarded. Accordingly your Committee has not classed the amount so received as received in the payment of legitimate "accounts receivable," but as payment toward deficiency.

B. Financial Statement of "The Assembly Herald," May 18, 1897.

Statement of the financial standing of The Assembly Herald on May 18, 1897, furnished to the Committee by William H. Hubbard:

Cash on hand May, 1897,	$8,024 22
Received during the year from subscriptions,	3,255 31
Received from advertising,	5,931 44
		$17,190 97
Amount expended in publishing 1,100,000 Assembly Heralds, including cost of printing receipts of the Boards,		12,208 61
Leaving cash on hand May, 1897,		$4,985 36
Additional assets:
Mailing list and galleys (same as in 1896),		2,000 00
Office furniture and typewriters,		165 00
Business accounts,		2,320 00
		$9,468 45

Business accounts include charges for advertising, which as yet we have not collected; also orders for books. In some cases where we have not been able to get cash advertising we have agreed to take books in payment, allowing the account to stand subject to our order when able to sell. (Copy from Mr. Hubbard's letter.)

During the year 1896 we published the receipts of the Boards. This made it necessary to enlarge The Herald from sixteen to twenty-four pages. The additional expense was paid from our reserve fund as was reported to the General Assembly of 1897. With subscribers, until the present year, we followed the policy of other religious papers, namely, continuing to send The Herald after the expiration of the time paid for. But we found such policy in case of club subscribers could not be depended upon for payment, so we felt compelled to adopt a cash system, and discontinue the paper at the expiration of the time for which it had been paid. The result is that we have dropped from our list all names at the expiration of their subscription, and cannot tell at the present time to what extent the club subscriptions will be renewed.

W. H. HUBBARD.

Two others, William Humboldt Layson and Hamilton Bertel Williams, were matriculated, but left the Seminary before obtaining enrollment.

Of these matriculants there were admitted to the Senior class, after completion of two years of theological study elsewhere :

James W. Cobb, from Southwestern Presbyterian University.
A. N. Crow, " Lane Theological Seminary.
Roland Davison, " Presbyterian College, Halifax.
John W. McCombe, " Danville Theological Seminary.
Peter F. Sinclair, " Knox College. Toronto.
Robert B. Wallace, " the Reformed Presbyterian Seminary, Philadelphia.

There were admitted to the Middle class, having completed one year of theological study elsewhere:

Alfred Choate, from the Reformed Presbyterian Seminary, Philadelphia.
Alexander Dunn, from Manitoba College.
William M. White, " Auburn Theological Seminary.
George J. Janeway, from the Reformed Seminary at New Brunswick, N.J.
Charles A. Logan, " Logan Theological Seminary.
Wm. Kerr McKinney, from Magee College.
Walter B. Sterrett, " Western Theological Seminary.
John T. Scott, who had studied with private instructors and was admitted on presenting satisfactory credentials.

The following four entered as graduate students: Rev. Walter L. Caldwell, a graduate of Southwestern Presbyterian University; William L. McClenahan, a graduate of Allegheny Theological Seminary; Rev. W. M. H. Petersen, a graduate of Concordia Seminary, St. Louis; and William Toennes, a graduate of Ursinus Seminary.

The enrollment for the current year has been:

Graduate students,	14
Senior class,	63
Middle class,	77
Junior class,	74
Special students,	10
Total,	238

The health of the students has been normal, differing favorably from the condition of things last spring. Punctuality and diligence have been satisfactory. The example of the Senior class has been more than usually wholesome, and has elevated the entire student body.

The candidates for graduation at this commencement number sixty. Three of these are under appointment to the foreign field, and three others have offered themselves to the Board of Foreign Missions; twenty-nine have calls to churches in this country; nine have good prospects of speedy settlement, and two expect to study abroad next year.

At the beginning of the session, Prof. George Lansing Raymond, of the University, kindly delivered a course of lectures before the Seminary on "The Relation Between Religious Thought and Expression."

The endowed annual courses were delivered by the Rev. Dr. Melancthon Williams Jacobus, professor in Hartford Theological Seminary, and Mr. Robert Eliot Speer, Corresponding Secretary of the Board of Foreign Missions. Prof. Jacobus lectured on "Some Present-day Problems in New Testament Criticism," in the course of which he discussed method, traced the influence of current philosophy on criticism, treated of the relations of apostolic teaching to that of Jesus, and examined the question of the development of apostolic doctrine. Under the title of "The Present Missionary Situation in Asia," Mr. Speer, fresh from his recent tour of mission stations on the continent, reviewed the social, political and religious forces which are shaping history in the Orient.

The two hundred and fiftieth anniversary of the adoption of the Westminster Standards was observed by the Seminary. The ordinary exercises of the lecture-room were suspended during four afternoons; faculty, students and the interested public assembled in Miller Chapel; music was rendered by a choir of students, and addresses were delivered by Dr.

DeWitt on "The Westminster Assembly of Divines;" by Dr. Warfield on "The Significance of the Westminster Standards as a Creed;" by Dr. Patton on "The Creeds of Christendom;" and by Dr. Purves on "The Westminster Standards and the Preacher."

With great regret the Board of Directors announce the death during the past year of Rev. William C. Cattell, D.D., LL.D., the senior member and Vice-President of the Board.

The place of the Rev. Jere Witherspoon, D.D., was declared vacant by reason of his having left the jurisdiction of the General Assembly.

The Board also announces the resignation of Henry VanDyke, D.D.

These vacancies have been filled by the election of the following:

In the place of Rev. William C. Cattell, D.D., LL.D., Rev. John R. Davies, D.D., of New York City; in place of Rev. Jere Witherspoon, D.D., Rev. Marcus A. Brownson, D.D., of Philadelphia; and in place of Rev. Henry Van Dyke, D.D., the Rev. John Fox, D.D., of Brooklyn, N. Y.

The following Directors whose terms of office expired May, 1898, were unanimously reëlected:

E. R. Craven, D.D., LL.D, of Philadelphia, Pa.
John Hall, D.D., LL.D., of New York City.
S. T. Lowrie, D.D., of Philadelphia, Pa.
William E. Schenck, D.D., of Philadelphia, Pa.
William Irvin, D.D., of New York City.
George Junkin, LL.D., of Philadelphia, Pa.
Silas B. Brownell, LL.D., of New York City.
Hugh H. Hamill, Esq., of Trenton, N. J.

The Board of Directors beg to announce that they are now empowered by the State of New Jersey, by the resolution of their own Board, to confer the degree of Bachelor of Divinity upon all who shall pass the required examination for the same.

(For further information see Appendix II of this Report.)

The Board of Directors beg also to call the attention of the General Assembly to the bill which has been passed by the Legislature of the State of New Jersey relative to the rights and duties of the Church, etc., etc., and the supreme governing bodies thereof.

(See Appendix I.)

The following prizes have been awarded during the past year:

Supplemental Report of the Board of Directors.

Appendix I.

Extract from the minutes of the Board of Directors.

The Committee upon the Relations between the Princeton Theological Seminary and the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church respectfully reports:

That it has fully discharged the duties of its appointment. At its conference with a similar Committee of the Trustees of the Seminary, it was arranged that a sub-Committee of the Trustees should endeavor to procure the enactment of a law by the State of New Jersey such as was approved by the General Assembly of 1897.

(See Minutes of the General Assembly of 1896, p. 187).

It has been accomplished, and the same became a law of that State on March 15, 1898. A copy of this act is hereto annexed, together with a letter of a member of the sub-Committee upon the subject.

Your Committee suggests the adoption of these resolutions, viz.:

1. That the action of the State of New Jersey be communicated to the General Assembly, together with a copy of this act, and the accompanying letter of Elmer Ewing Green, Esq.

2. That this Committee be now discharged.

Letter of Elmer Ewing Green, Esq.

Trenton, N. J., April 30, 1898.

George Junkin, LL.D.,

Dear Sir:—In 1896, the Boards of Directors and Trustees of Princeton Seminary sent to the General Assembly, through the Committee of Conference, the draft of two legislative bills, neither of which appeared to meet the unqualified approval of the Committee. In 1897 a more definite expression of opinion favored the enactment of the shorter bill. Hence the Seminary Trustees, through their Special Committee on Legislation, presented the shorter bill to the Legislature of New Jersey at the session of 1898. It was enacted without amendment, and approved by the Acting Governor on March 15.

I enclose a correct copy herewith. As Chairman of the Trustees' Committee on Legislation, I take the unusual course of communicating with the Directors through you, because if I did not, the Directors would have no knowledge of what has been done until next fall.

I might add that the law will, in my individual opinion, give the General Assembly the right to appear in the courts of New Jersey, in order to protect the civil rights of the Church in and over the Seminary and its property (whatever those rights may be), and thus by their own declarations the last point of doubt or difference as between our Seminary and the Church is removed.

Very truly yours,

ELMER EWING GREEN.

Act of the New Jersey Legislature.

An act to recognize the existence and rights and duties of churches, religious societies and denominations of Christians, and the supreme governing bodies thereof, and to provide for the enforcement of their civil rights and claims by judicial proceedings, and to define certain words used in the act.

Be it enacted by the Senate and General Assembly of the State of New Jersey:

1. Any and every church, religious society or denomination of Christians now or hereafter to be established in the United States of America, and the supreme governing body thereof, whether sole or aggregate, shall be severally recognized in this State, as well in courts of justice as elsewhere, as an entity bearing the name by which it is commonly called and known, the want of any civil incorporation notwithstanding; and said supreme gov erning body, whether sole or aggregate, shall be, and hereby is authorized to bring or institute and maintain any action, suit or proceeding in any court of this State, to enforce the civil rights or claims of the whole Church, religious society, or denomination of Christians.

2. The words or phrases, "church," "religious society," "denomination of Christians" as in this act used and employed, are hereby defined to mean and include, and shall be construed in courts of justice and elsewhere, to mean and include the whole body of religious believers having a common faith and polity.

3. This act shall take effect immediately.

Appendix II.

The Board also calls the attention of the Assembly to the fact that the Seminary is now prepared to confer the degree of Bachelor of Divinity upon all who shall have been examined satisfactorily upon a course of special study prescribed to all candidates therefor. This is done pursuant to an action adopted by the Board of Directors, October 12, 1897.

Extract from the minutes of the Board of Directors.

The Committee on the Degree of Bachelor of Divinity, through its Chairman, President Warfield, made its report, which is as follows:

Office of Elmer E. Green, Esq.,
15 West State Street,
Trenton, N. J., June 3, 1897.

The Joint Committee, made up of Committees from the Directors, from the Trustees and from the Faculty of Princeton Theological Seminary, and appointed to put into shape all matters relating to the B.D. degree, were called to order at three P.M., by Elmer E. Green, Esq.

The following were present: Directors—Everhard Kempshall, D.D., Hon. Wm. M. Lanning; Trustees—Elmer E. Green, Esq., Gen. Wm. S. Stryker; Faculty—Prof. John DeWitt, D.D., LL.D., Prof. Wm. Brenton Greene, Jr., D.D., Prof. Geerhardus Vos, Ph.D., D.D.

Mr. Elmer E. Green was chosen Chairman and Prof. Greene Secretary.

The object of the meeting was stated, and credentials were presented by each of the three Committees composing the Joint Committee.

The following resolution was presented and adopted:

In view of the statement submitted by Mr. Elmer E. Green, Chairman of this conference, in regard to the necessity of so drafting the existing act authorizing the conferring of the degree of Bachelor of Divinity by Theological Seminaries in the State of New Jersey, as to make it general and not special, and in view of the great difficulty attendant upon making a change in said act, were it even desirable; and in view of the position and ample recognition of the prerequisite approval of the Board of Directors in conferring the proposed degree as found in the method of procedure recommended by the Board of Trustees, and adopted by their ordinance; and in view of the belief of this Committee of Conference that the object sought from the act as it now stands will be fully met without any alteration of the same; therefore, it is hereby Resolved, 1. That we jointly and severally report to the bodies appointing this Committee of Conference that in its judgment no further legislation is needed.

2. That we recommend as the opinion of this Committee, that it is expedient to confer the degree of Bachelor of Divinity under the provisions of the act designated in Chapter 27 of the laws of 1897 of the State of New Jersey.

The following resolution was presented and adopted:

Whereas, There has been presented to this Joint Committee a certified copy of an ordinance of the Board of Trustees, in relation to the conferring of the degree of Bachelor of Divinity, which is as follows:

An Ordinance respecting the Degree of Bachelor of Divinity or Theology.

1. Be it ordained by the Trustees of the Theological Seminary of the Presbyterian Church, and it is hereby ordained and established by the authority of the same, that, whenever any graduate of the Seminary, or other person who has done approved work in the Seminary, under the direction of the Faculty of Instruction, shall have been recommended by the Faculty for the degree of Bachelor of Divinity or Theology (the recommendation being made after a satisfactory examination upon a course of special study prescribed to all candidates, and being also ratified and approved by the Directors), such degree shall, by the Seminary, be granted to and conferred upon such graduate or other person so recommended, with all such rights, honors and privileges as are usually incident to such degree.

2. And be it further ordained by the authority of the same, that in testimony of the conferring of such degree a diploma shall issue to each Bachelor of Divinity or Theology to which (the same having been first subcribed by the President of the Faculty and by the President of the Directors) the President of the corporation shall subscribe his name, and the Secretary shall set the seal of the corporation without special direction or authority.

Lawrenceville, N. J., May 27, 1897.

Therefore,

Resolved, That we recommend to the Faculty and the Board of Directors the adoption of certificates of the following form in all cases in which such degree shall be conferred, viz.:

1. Certificate by the Faculty.

These presents are to certify that, after a satisfactory examination had upon a course of special study prescribed to all candidates, Mr. A. B. C., a graduate of the Seminary, who has done approved work under the Faculty of Instruction, is hereby recommended to the Directors and Trustees of the Seminary for the Degree of Bachelor of Divinity, and that the President of the Faculty is authorized, on the part and behalf of the Faculty, to subscribe his name to the diploma conferring the degree.

By order of the Faculty,

Attest: ——— ———, Clerk.

If there be more candidates than one, all the names may be inserted, and appropriate changes from the singular to the plural be made. These words if not true may be omitted.

2. Certificate by the Board of Directors.

These presents are to make known that Mr. A. B. C. (a graduate of the Seminary), who has done approved work in the Seminary under the direction of the Faculty of Instruction, has been recommended by the Faculty for the degree of Bachelor of Divinity, after a satisfactory examination had upon a course of special study prescribed to all candidates; that the recommendation is approved by the Board of Directors, and that the President of the Board is authorized to subscribe his name to the diploma conferring the degree.

By order of the Board of Directors.

Attest: ——— ———, Clerk.

If there be more candidates than one, all of the names may be inserted, and the appropriate changes from the singular to the plural number may be made. These words if not true may be omitted.

The following resolution was passed and adopted:

Resolved, That the diploma for the degree of Bachelor of Divinity from Princeton Theological Seminary, presented by the Committee from the Faculty, be recommended by the Joint Committee of Conference to the Directors, Trustees and Faculty.

The following is the diploma:

"Ecclesiae Presbyterianae Scholae Theologiae Princetoniensis Rectores Curatores Professores Omnibus has litteras lecturis Salutem in Domino Nostro Jesu Christo.

"Quum nobis ius tam sacras scientias docendi quam ad gradum Sacrae Theologiae Baccalaurei promovendi ex suprema potestate Reipublicae Neo-Caesariensis concessum sit quumque.....vir vita inculpabilis fide Christianus humanioribus litteris penitus instructus Scholae Theologiae curriculum usque ad metam persecutus studiis amplioribus justoque examine coram nobis habito se publico honore dignum esse demonstraverit; Idcirco notum sit quod supradictum.....Sacrae Theologiae Baccalareum creari voluimus.

"Cujus rei haec membrana sigillo nostrae Scholae rata et nominibus Praesidum nostrorum munita testimonio sit.

"Datum in Oratorio. Praeses Ordinis Rectorum.
Scholae Theologiae Praeses Ordinis Curatorum.
Princetoniensis Praeses Ordinis Professorum."
A.D. MDCCC.

The following resolution was presented and adopted:

Resolved, That a certified copy of these minutes, signed by the Chairman and Secretary, be handed to the Chairman of each of the separate Committees.

Resolved, That we do now adjourn subject to the call of the Chairman.

The Joint Committee adjourned.

APPENDIX III.

The Board calls the attention of the Assembly to the fact that there was a Committee appointed October 3, 1897, to take under consideration the amendment of Section 3, Article iv, of the Plan of the Seminary.

The following is a true copy of the report of that Committee made to the Board of Directors, May 10, 1898:

"In order to give the Board of Directors the option with reference to the mode of conducting examinations—making them oral or written, or both—they request of the General Assembly permission to strike out that portion of Section 3, Article iv, in the plan of the Seminary beginning with the word 'all' and ending with the word 'proper,' and also the word 'present' in the paragraph following."

On motion the Report was received and its recommendations adopted, and the Secretary instructed to communicate with the General Assembly relative to the change.

2. Annual Report of the Board of Trustees.

The Trustees of the Theological Seminary, Princeton, N. J., respectfully present to the General Assembly this their Seventy-third Annual Report:

A donation was received from Mrs. Henry Winthrop, of New York, through Prof. William M. Paxton, for the Faculty Fund, $5500.

They would further report that they have elected Elmer Ewing Green, Esq., Trenton, N. J., President in place of Charles E. Green, LL.D., of Trenton, N. J., deceased; and they have filled the vacancy occasioned by the death of the Hon. John Scott, of Philadelphia, by the election of Darwin R. James, Esq., of New York; and that occasioned by the resignation of Samuel M. Pennington, M.D., Newark, N. J., by the election of Thomas W. Synnott, Esq.; and that the filling of the vacancy occasioned by the death of Charles E. Green, LL.D., was deferred until the next meeting of the Board.

And they would further report, that the bill which was submitted by them to the General Assembly and approved by the General Assembly, commonly known as the shorter of the two bills affecting the relations of the Seminary and the General Assembly, was passed by both houses of the Legislature of New Jersey, without amendment and was approved by the Acting Governor, on March 15, last.

As to the finances of the institution, the Board present their Report, in accordance with the form and under the headings suggested by the General Assembly, as follows:

Real Estate,	$506,150 00
General Endowment,	492,500 00
Scholarship Fund,	244,815 00

III. WESTERN THEOLOGICAL SEMINARY.

1. Annual Report of the Directors.

The Board of Directors of the Western Theological Seminary, Allegheny, Pa., present to the General Assembly the following as their Seventy-first Annual Report. Since the last Annual Report the following students have been matriculated:

Robert Hill Allen,
Charles Sherrer Beatty, Jr.,
Earle Amos Brooks,
Henry Ward Coad,
James Hervey Depue,
Charles Edmond Garvin,
Harry Wheeler Kilgore,
Harry Wentworth McCombs,
John Raymond Mohr,
Willis Winfred Montgomery,
Stephen Stoyanoff Popoff,
William Albert Reed,
Franklin George Schlotter,
Curtis Edwin Shields,
Thomas Alden Stancliffe,
Henry Norman Wagner,
William Leroy Barrett,
James Byers Brice,
George Carmichael,
Oliver Cromlow Crawford,
Chauncey Atwood Foreman,
Ezra P. Giboney,
Albert Emile Leroy,
James Erskine Miller,
Donnell Rankin Montgomery,
George Ross Phillips,
Irwin Rice Prugh,
Oscar Schleifer,
Adolf Reeg Schultz,
Peter W. Snyder,
Charles Clarke Sterrett.

Of these twenty-nine have entered the Junior class; one, Mr. Ezra P.

Giboney, was received from Princeton Theological Seminary and one, Mr. Oscar Schleifer, from German Evangelical Theological Seminary, St. Louis, Mo., to the Middle and Senior classes, respectively.

The number of students enrolled has been ninety-nine. Twenty-eight are Seniors, thirty-seven Middlers, twenty-nine, Juniors and four belong to the Graduate class.

The Missionary Society met weekly during the term. The Society was addressed by Rev. W. O. Elterich, of China; Rev. J. J. Lucas, D.D., of Saharanpur, India; Mr. Robert P. Wilder, Rev. William B. Hamilton, of China; Prof. Robert Christie and Prof. James A. Kelso. The annual sermon to the Missionary Society was delivered by Rev. W. C. Bannerman, of the Gaboon Mission.

In conjunction with the students of Allegheny and Reformed Presbyterian Theological Seminaries, a convention was held in the chapel for two days in December, 1897. It was addressed by Rev. W. S. Harper, D.D., Rev. F. M. Foster, Rev. J. C. R. Ewing, D.D., Rev. J. W. Witherspoon, D.D., Rev. J. K. McClurkin, D.D., Rev. J. C. McPheeters, D.D.

The Thursday conferences have been conducted in the same manner as last year; the classes met separately and the students participated in the services.

Prof. George M. Sleeth continues to give satisfaction in the discharge of his duties as Instructor in Elocution.

The Librarian reports that the students have made a larger use of the library than ever before, especially in the reference department. The Faculty are of the opinion that this larger use is owing in great measure to the aid and efficiency of our Librarian, Mr. J. A. Kelso.

The lectures on the Elliott Lectureship Foundation for 1897 were delivered last September by Rev. James Orr, D.D., Professor of Church History in the United Presbyterian College, Edinburgh, Scotland. His subject was: "The Progress of Dogma."

The following students completed the course of study and received in the regular way from the Board of Directors the usual diploma, after having passed the required examinations:

George Perry Atwell,
Frank F. Brown,
Wilbur Marshall Campbell,
J. Frank Cheeseman,
Frank A. Cozad,
Hermann Ulysses Davis,
Walter Finney Eagleson,
Robert F. Fitch,
John Thomas Fulton,
Herbert Hezlep,
Hermann M. Hosack,
Arthur Eugene Hubbard,
William John Hutchison,
William H. Leslie,
David Miller Lysle,
Edwin Linton McIlvaine,
Alexander D. McKay,
Donald Campbell McLeod,
Samuel M. F. Nesbit,
James Mease Potter,
John Lyle Proudfit,
Harry Craig Prugh,
Walter G. Ramage,
John Addison Rogers,
George MacKinney Ryall,
Oscar Schleifer,
Frank Mitchell Silsley.

We regret to announce that one of the members of the last Senior class—Mr. J. F. Graham— was removed from among us by death December 31, 1897.

The closing exercises were held this year on May 5 in the East Liberty Presbyterian Church, Pittsburgh, Pa., and an address was delivered by Rev. Marcus A. Brownson, D.D., of Philadelphia, in connection with the delivering of the diplomas.

During the year two members of the Board have been called away by death—Mr. Andrew W. Wilson, of Indiana, Pa., and Rev. W. W. Moorhead, D.D., of Greensburgh, Pa.

Judge John A. McIlvaine, of Washington, Pa., was elected to fill the place made vacant by the death of Mr. Wilson and Rev. C. C. Hayes, of Johnstown, Pa., to take the place of Dr. Moorhead. Rev. David R. Breed, D.D., having been elected to the new chair of Sacred Rhetoric and Elocution, resigned as Director, in connection with his election as a professor in the Seminary, and Rev. John C. Holliday, D.D., of Zanesville, O., was elected to fill his place as a member of the Board, and Rev. D. S. Kennedy, D.D., of the Board, was chosen to fill his place as President of the Board.

The following members of the outgoing class of Directors of 1898 were reëlected and made the class of 1902, namely: Rev. James Allison, D.D., Rev. Isaac Ketler, D.D., Rev. Edward P. Cowan, D.D., Mr. James Laughlin, Jr., Rev. Joseph T. Gibson, D.D., H. K. Beatty, M.D., Rev. James B. Moorhead, D.D., Rev. Daniel J. Evans, D.D., Samuel P. Harbison, Rev. John M. Mealy, D.D.

In reference to the establishment of the new chair of "Sacred Rhetoric and Elocution," to which reference was made in the last Annual Report to the General Assembly, the Board has since altered its action somewhat, and after more careful consideration of the whole subject adopted, at its last annual meeting in May, resolutions modifying the new chair both as to its scope and endowment.

It was recommended that the subject of Church Government be removed from the so-called Reunion Professorship, in order to its inclusion in the new professorship, so that the title of the new chair shall be, "The Professorship of Sacred Rhetoric, Church Government and Elocution;" that the endowment of this chair be made $50,000, the same as that of the other existing chairs; that the $10,000 already existing as a specific endowment for training in Elocution be devoted to instruction in Elocution in connection with and under the supervision of the new chair; that the Board undertake to raise $10,000 in addition to the $20,000 which it has already pledged itself to raise, the most of which has already been raised, in order to complete the endowment of the new chair, and hereby instructs the Committee having in charge the raising of the money for the increase of endowments to proceed at once to secure the funds necessary for the full endowment of this Chair; that the "Reunion Professorship" be left as it is in its endowment and income, and that the Rev. Thomas H. Robinson, D.D., its occupant, be also appointed Dean of the Seminary, and that in addition to his work of teaching Pastoral Theology he be also assigned the duty of teaching the Sacraments and the Shorter Catechism.

The Board has also memorialized the General Assembly this year to so amend the plan of the Seminary that the Directors shall be authorized to elect one of the professors President of the Faculty.

The policy of employing instructors in connection with the work of the different chairs of the Seminary was adopted: these instructors to be young men and to work under the supervision of the regular professors of the respective departments; this policy to be put in operation whenever considered necessary and expedient. An Executive Committee of seven was recommended, to serve four years, for the more effective administration of the affairs of the Seminary. The desirability of changing the location of the Seminary at no distant day was indorsed by the Board. The project of securing also a chair of Biblical Theology as soon as possible met with the approval of the Board.

IV. ENDOWMENT AND SPECIAL FUNDS

Buildings and grounds, including Seminary and Library buildings and campus (non-productive),	$162,000 00
General endowment, including grounds leased, dwelling houses for rent, etc.,	206,334 00
Scholarship funds (all invested),	67,000 00
Library funds (all invested),	18,200 00

A considerable part of the general endowment is invested in dwelling houses for rent, the same having been built on grounds belonging to the Seminary. The taxes and street and sewer assessments on this property, including houses occupied by professors, is about forty per cent. of the rental income.

The Scholarship funds include $10,000 in United Brass Company bonds, received from the estate of the late Selah Chamberlain, of Cleveland. The interest on these bonds has not been paid for several years past, but it is hoped that the accrued interest may be paid in the near future.

The Permanent Scholarship Funds bear the names of their donors, as given below. A number of these scholarships fall short of the full amount required, $2000.

1. Sawyer Scholarship, founded by Nathaniel Sawyer.
2. Ward Scholarship, founded by Miss Jane Ward, Newark, N. J.
3. Condit Scholarship, founded by Miss Jane Ward, Newark, N. J.
4. Gandis Scholarship, founded by Daniel Gandis, Indianapolis, Ind.
5, 6. Woodbury Scholarships (2), founded by D. T. Woodbury, Columbus.
7–21. Preserved Smith Scholarships (14), founded by Preserved Smith, Dayton.
22. Columbus Scholarship, founded by Second Presbyterian Church, Columbus.
23. Robert Browne Scholarship, founded by Robert Browne, Cincinnati.
24. D. Howe Allen Scholarship, founded by Mrs. Prof. Allen, Cincinnati.
25. United Scholarship, made up of donations by the Lafayette, Ripley and Rockville churches; also other gifts (each less than $500).
26. Stage Scholarship ($1000), founded by B. F. Stage, Columbus.
27. Aletta Whitlock Scholarship, founded by Mrs. Aletta Whitlock, Lockland.
28. Fairchild Scholarship, founded by Rev. E. B. Fairchild, D.D.
29. Stephen Whitlock Scholarship, founded by Mrs. Aletta Whitlock Lockland.
30. Shedd Scholarship ($1000), founded by Rev. Henry Shedd, Mt. Gilead.

VII. WORK FOR THE YEAR.

It affords the Board of Trustees pleasure to report that the Seminary year just closed has been in a high degree successful. The instruction in all departments has been efficient, and the progress made by the students satisfactory, as is shown by the following report of the examiners appointed by the Synod of Ohio and seven Presbyteries in Ohio and Indiana, the same having been presented to the Board of Trustees, May 4, 1898:

REPORT OF THE EXAMINERS.

We, the Committee on Examinations, appointed by the Synod of Ohio, and by the several Presbyteries represented, respectfully submit the following report to the Board of Trustees of Lane Seminary:

We have faithfully attended the oral examinations of the classes for three days, and have looked over the written productions placed in our hands, and therefore feel fully justified in presenting the following resolutions:

1. That the Board of Examiners record their thanksgiving to God, in view of the new life and vigor which appears in every department of our beloved institution.

2. That while we greatly regret the absence of the dear brethren, so beloved by us and by the Presbyterian Church at large, who filled the chairs of Lane Seminary and spent their lives in her sacred interests, yet we take pleasure in congratulating the Trustees in their wise selection of successors, who are qualified in mind and heart, and so thoroughly adapted for the chairs they severally occupy, and whom we believe worthy of the confidence and earnest support of the Presbyterian Church.

3. That we record our belief that the young men, to a marked degree, have appreciated their privileges, applied their powers, and are becoming workmen that need not be ashamed.

4. Having in mind the position of our own Church in reference to "exceptional" cases, we are pleased to discern the desire and purpose to elevate the standard for admission to this institution, and we hope that an ever-increasing number of consecrated sons of the Church may be found within these sacred halls, and that more and more this may be a fountain from which shall go forth streams to "make glad the city of our God."

CHARLES E. TEDFORD, Chairman.

J. A. BARNES, Secretary.

Most of the students in attendance were dependent upon the Seminary for the means to pursue their studies, and the pecuniary aid thus given exceeded the regular income from the Scholarship fund. Less than half of the students last year received aid from the Board of Education. The scholarship income that can be used next year to aid the students will not exceed $3500. An increase in the number of students will necessitate an appeal to churches and individuals for money to aid the additional students.

The Rev. David S. Schaff, D.D., entered upon his duties as Professor of Church History at the opening of the Seminary year, and has shown himself a competent and successful instructor. He was formally inaugurated on May 5, in connection with the commencement exercises.

At the annual meeting of the Board, on May 4, Rev. Kemper Fullerton, A.M., was reappointed Instructor in Hebrew and the Greek Gospels. A small appropriation was made to secure such additional instructors and lecturers as may be needed to cover thoroughly the prescribed course of instruction. The students who enter Lane Seminary next year may expect efficient instruction in all departments.

Most respectfully submitted,

EMERSON E. WHITE,
President Board of Trustees.

Lane Seminary, May 14, 1898.

Mr. Thomas Carl Jackson, of West Middlesex, Pa., Westminster College, Pa., is recommended for certificates in the departments of New Testament Literature and Exegesis, and Sacred Rhetoric and Homiletics.

PROFESSOR AND PROFESSOR ELECT.

The Board at its recent meeting, held on May 4 and 5, 1898, inaugurated the Rev. J. Ross Stevenson, D.D., as Professor of Ecclesiastical History. It also unanimously elected to the chair of Old Testament Literature and Exegesis the Rev. George L. Robinson, Ph.D., of Knox College, Toronto. Dr. Robinson has signified his acceptance, subject to the approval of the General Assembly, and expects to enter upon his duties at the opening of the next session.

VIII. BLACKBURN UNIVERSITY.

The University has not for some time attempted to do any distinctively theological work. It has had a successful year in many respects. The students, eighty-two in number, are of high grade, and excellent work has been done. The Faculty has eight members, able and devoted, and a class of six has graduated. The Rev. James E. R. Rogers, D.D., is the Blackburn Professor of Theology, and Walter H. Bradley is Chairman of the Faculty.

[Note.—The above information was furnished after the rising of the Assembly, on request of the Stated Clerk.—W. H. R.]

SUMMARY.

Junior class, 13; Middle class, 9; Senior class, 9; Total, 31.

This makes a total of thirty-one students who have been in attendance during the year. The nine members of the Senior class were all awarded diplomas of graduation. The Report of the Committee of the Board of Directors on examinations speaks well of the proficiency of the students and the good work of the Faculty. The work of the Faculty has been supplemented by courses of lectures on subjects both interesting and profitable, by prominent ministers and laymen.

4. The Library.

There have been few additions to the library (which contains about 1900 volumes) during the current year. There is a serious need of funds to purchase recent publications needed to assist the professors and students in their work.

5. Scholarships.

The Seminary has seven endowed scholarships, as follows:

1. The John Williams Buckley Scholarship, founded by Mrs. E. A. Buckley, of Brooklyn, N. Y.
2. The Davenport Scholarship, founded by John D. Thompson, of San Francisco.
3. The John A. Mackenzie Scholarship, founded by Rev. Robert Mackenzie, D.D., of San Francisco.
4. The Williston Scholarship, founded by Mrs. Emily B. Hopkins, of San Francisco.
5. The David Jacks Scholarship, founded by David Jacks, of Monterey, Cal.
6. The David Jacks Scholarship, founded by David Jacks, of Monterey, Cal.
7. The Agnes Booth Hodge Nicholl Scholarship, founded by John Nicholl, of Oakland, Cal.

The Commencement exercises were held in Scott Hall, on the Seminary grounds, San Anselmo, on April 28, the address being delivered by Rev. J. R. Wilson, D.D., of Portland, Oreg.

The annual banquet of the Directors and Faculty was held on the evening preceding, when numerous questions pertaining to the welfare of the institution were discussed.

In all but one respect the Seminary is in a prosperous condition. The number of applicants for admission has steadily increased, and the number of students attending the term just ended was greater than at any previous time in the history of the institution. During the past year about two-thirds of our students needed aid. We have only the regular income from scholarships to apply to this purpose, and it has only been by strenuous effort and generous donations that we have been able to raise the amount absolutely necessary. From the income of moneys set apart for the General Fund we have been unable to meet the running expenses of the Seminary.

Believing that under the terms of the settlement with the estate of Alexander Montgomery, the Seminary would have an increased income, the Board of Directors made arrangements for the better equipment of the institution in directions much needed. But, while the Seminary received by the above settlement securities and property which no doubt in time will be valuable, we have been unable to realize on them in the past year or more of depression, and they have been a burden of expense for care, insurance, etc., instead of a source of income.

For this reason our expenses have largely exceeded our income, and we have been obliged to use part of our general endowment to meet our current bills, thus reducing our general endowment fund which was already too small to produce income sufficient for our wants. We greatly need $150,000 to grant us income for current expenses outside of the chair and scholarship endowments. Surely no better investment can be made by generous Christians than to aid this school of the prophets in this Western land.

GEORGE D. GRAY, President.

Robert J. Trumbull, Secretary.

7. General Statement.

This school records its gratitude to God for the tokens of His favor for another year. The attendance has been thirty-one (31) students.

The Rev. August C. Kroesche has been elected Professor of Science and Mathematics. His election is hereby presented to the General Assembly for approval. The Class of Directors marked 1901 is presented to the General Assembly for approval.

The course of study has been extended to eight (8) years, by the addition of one year.

By bequest of Judge Charles E. Vanderburg, an honored Director, this school will receive five thousand dollars. The Board of Directors desires to put on record its sorrow occasioned by his death, and to express its pleasure in his long and useful life.

Plans which were contemplated for an active canvass in behalf of the Endowment Fund of the school have been delayed in their execution. But it is hoped that this year may give the school an opportunity.

Respectfully submitted,

ADAM W. RINGLAND,
President.

2. The Faculty.

Rev. Charles E. Knox, D.D., President and Professor of Homiletics Church Government and Pastoral Theology.
Rev. George C. Seibert, Ph.D., D.D., Professor of Greek Exegesis and Systematic Theology.

Rev. HENRY JACOB WEBER, Ph.D., Professor of Hebrew Exegesis and Church History.
Rev. KARL GOTTFRIED THEODORE HOCK, Instructor in the Academic Department.
Mr. LOUIS NICKSE, Tutor in the Academic Department.

3. THE STUDENTS.

There have been in attendance throughout the year twenty-six students, of whom seventeen have been in the Academic department, eight in the Theological department and one in the Pastoral year.

The graduating class has six members.

The Tutor, who has been a student in the Pastoral year, has had under his care throughout the year the German Mission at Stapleton, Staten Island.

There have been seven applicants for admission, of whom one has been postponed till next year, five were received on trial, three were unable to continue for lack of self-support and two continue to the end of the year.

The new rule of the Directors that all applicants shall provide their own support for the whole of the first year has operated to exclude the three. It may be that this test of the ability and earnestness of the German people in respect to support will prove too stringent.

4. THE SEMINARY YEAR.

Our Seminary year has been in previous years a period of nine months, following the American college year. The Directors have now reduced it to eight months. The present year began on the 30th of September. The commencement of the Theological department is appointed for the 25th of May, and the Academic department will close its year with rhetorical exercises on the first day of June.

5. THE FINANCES.

The Endowment.—The total endowment, including the Seminary property, on May 1, 1897, was . . . $92,752 16

There has been no addition during the year.

" Library Endowment,	500 00
	$92,752 16

Current Expense and Current Income.

The total amount received has been	$11,329 46
The total expense for the year has been	10,981 99
Leaving a balance of	$347 47
The total deficit on May 1, 1897, was	$9,567 23
The balance applied to the reduction of the deficit is	347 47
The total deficit on May 1, 1898, was	$9,216 76

6. General Statements.

The general financial stringency has relaxed somewhat, our expenses have been paid and the deficit has a small reduction. But the accumulated deficit of preceding years has placed upon us a distressing burden throughout the twelve months.

The German people have continued to contribute well to the regular current funds, to the establishment of a refectory system and to special repairs.

The Alumni and their German churches are becoming more definitely enlisted in German home mission plans for their countrymen. They should be encouraged in this special service.

The great Teutonic centres of our land have a compact and powerful population, speaking and reading and thinking another language than our own. The peculiar difficulties of city evangelization among these strong people deserve a patient study till they are solved. The New Jersey suburb of "the second city in the world" within a thirty-mile radius has already a million of souls. The rapid advance in this great centre of world-life carries with it a proportional increase of foreign vitality. The multiplying demands of expanding American work absorb more and more the energies of the Church. The relation of this great foreign centre to the wide land should bring the wide Church throughout the land more fully to our aid.

Great educational impressions made by us upon the fatherland are inviting to us future immigration. The voluminous descriptions on the European continent of the Columbian Exposition in Chicago, the constant representations of the American and German press in the United States that the temporary business depression is to be followed soon by an era of prosperity, the advertisement to the world of the magnitude and enterprise of the enlarged metropolis, and possibly even the issue of the present war, will bring us another increase. Into this great entrepot and through this great entrepot will flow a new tide of foreign people to reinforce and enlarge all our powerful German cities of the land, to multiply the German farmer and German artisan in our broad States, and to affect still further the destinies of our nation.

Constancy to our trust, in the midst of the natural difficulties and depressions of our work, is the manifest meaning of Providence. A prudent comprehension of the conditions of the opening century prompts a wise preparation of young men, who shall be ready, with churches also provided to receive the future incomers. While caring for the large numbers who are already citizens, to rescue them from worldliness and from indifference to God and religion, we should form a powerful Christian body of loving and faithful people to whom the new-comers will naturally tend. In so doing, the grace of our Lord, the love of our Father and the communion of the Holy Spirit will flow through domestic and national affiliations to their great redemptive results in a multitude of souls.

We ask from the Church prayers for our spiritual life; we ask from those who have means a place in their contributions and bequests, and we look for His continued blessing who guides His advancing Church through the crisis of nations and of men.

4. Property and Endowment.

Under the recently defined relations of Lincoln University to the General Assembly, approved by the General Assembly of 1897, we present the following statement of property and endowment:

The residence of the President.
The William E Dodge cottage.
The Caspar R. Gregory Memorial cottage.
The residence of the Professor of Theology.
The residence of the Professor of Instruction in the English Bible.
The residence of the Professor of Hebrew.
Cost of Erection, $32,000.

PROFESSORSHIPS.

The Mary Warden Dickey Presidency,	$20,000
The William E. Dodge Professorship of Sacred Rhetoric,	20,000
The John C. Baldwin Professorship of Systematic Theology,	20,000
The Mrs. David Brown Professorship of Instruction in the English Bible,	10,000
The Henry A. Kerr Professorship of Hebrew and Church History,	20,000
The Chair of Pastoral Theology, Apologetics and Biblical Antiquities,	28,000

SCHOLARSHIPS.

The Dr. Barker Scholarship,	$2,800
The John Dunlap Scholarship,	2,800
The John Nelson Scholarship,	2,500
The Joel T. Simpson Scholarship,	2,500
The Robert L. Stuart Scholarship,	2,000
The Synod of Pennsylvania Scholarship,	800
The Ralph Vorhees Scholarship,	2,000
The William W. Watson Scholarship,	3,500
	$18,900

The total value of property thus subjected to the control of the General Assembly is:

Buildings,	$32,000
Professorships,	118,000
Scholarships,	18,900
	$168,900

At the last annual meeting of the Synod of Pennsylvania, held in Chambersburg, October, 1897, the Rev. Dr. R. L. Stewart, Professor of Pastoral Theology, proposed in his own behalf to found a perpetual scholarship in Lincoln University, and invited other friends of the Freedmen to unite in increasing the Scholarship Fund.

Mr. Ralph Vorhees quickly responded with the scholarship which bears his name. Several friends have subscribed and paid an aggregate of $800 toward a third scholarship, which will probably become a full scholarship at no distant day.

Income from these funds for one year.

Professorships,	$4,551 59
Scholarships,	448 92
Total income for one year,	$5,000 51

The general income of the University from which the deficiency of the Theological department has been supplied for the year has been as follows:

From the Fayerweather Fund,	$4,307 11
From the Pierce Estate,	6,500 00
University Professorships,	3,461 38
University Scholarships,	2,632 20
Annual Contributions,	9,000 00
University Income,	$25,900 69
Theological Income,	5,000 51
Total,	$30,501 20

Until the Theological department is distinctively endowed, it must be largely dependent upon the general income of the University, and to that extent the poverty of the Theological department will retard the growth of the Collegiate department.

The following general summary of the property of the University will interest the General Assembly:

PROPERTY NOT DISTINCTIVELY THEOLOGICAL.

Land, Buildings and Apparatus,	$202,000
Professorships,	90,000
Scholarships,	86,050
The Fayerweather Fund,	180,000
The Epaminondas Pierce Bequest (not yet transferred to the University),	150,000
Annual Contributions and Scholarships subject to annual variations from $8000 to $10,000.
Total,	$708,050

These items include the Charles E. Vail Scholarship, $2500, contributed during the current year, and the Vail Memorial Library, a beautiful and commodious building, erected and delivered for use through the generous liberality and the most considerate sympathy of one who believes that the higher education is the best education if it is thoroughly Christian.

This building is more particularly described in the Annual Catalogue which accompanies this Report.

ENDOWMENT.

The General Assembly having commended Lincoln University to the churches for the liberal support of its whole work and for the separate endowment of its Theological department, the Board of Trustees has approved a plan of endowment under the following heads:

1. The increased endowment of the existing chairs, so that the endowment shall yield at the present reduced rate of interest the salaries of the professors.
2. The founding of new chairs of instruction in the Theological department.
3. The erection of the buildings necessary for the accommodation of the department:
   A recitation hall.
   A dormitory.
   A residence for each professor.
4. Forty additional Scholarships of $2500 each.
5. A share in the General Endowment and Improvement Fund to provide electric light, laundry plant, water supply, drainage, heating system, increase of library, care of property.

This plan of endowment has been tentatively adopted by the Board of Trustees. We invite the attention of considerate friends to its general features and details.

The Endowment Committee consists of:

Rev. Robert F. Sample, D.D., New York City.
Rev. Nathan G. Parke, D.D., Pittston, Pa.
William H. Scott, Esq., Germantown, Pa.
Rev. I. N. Rendall, D.D., Lincoln University, Pa.

We invite the ministers and elders of the Presbyterian Church, and any of its members who feel an interest in the thorough education of Christian ministers for our colored population, to visit the University or correspond with us upon this subject. We are the agents of the Church to meet this pressing want of the country and of the times.

Lincoln University is a growing institution because it is successfully doing the work for which it was founded. During the past year about $30,000 have been added to the value of its property. But its needs, which are greater than its possessions, are the needs of the people for whose elevation and evangelization we are laboring. We enlarge our plans, because the horizon of our opportunity is enlarging.

The signs of the times make it clear that God has decreed that our fellow-citizens and fellow-Christians of the colored race should share with us in all the blessings of civil liberty and of the Christian religion. He freely gives to them these blessings at the cost of our Redeemer, and He conveys them by the instrumentality of the Holy Spirit and by all the means of His saving grace.

We appeal to the Presbyterian Church to fulfill the purpose and to imitate the Providence of God, by a corresponding good-will and by an opportune and adequate liberality.

In behalf of the Faculty of Theology,

ISAAC N. RENDALL, President.

Lincoln University, Pa., May 19, 1898.

Miles J. Jackson,	Mayesville, S. C.
Charles Alexander Hendricks,	Den Amstel, W. C. Demerara, S. A.

In some respects this has been a year of trial for the University. The Board of Trustees sustained the loss of one of its oldest and most faithful members and for a number of years its faithful President, Rev. A. S. Billingsley, D.D., and on December 15, the University was deprived of the faithful and efficient services of Rev. W. F. Brooks, D.D., the Principal of the Normal and Preparatory School.

Both of these noble men of God, noted for their unselfish devotion to the cause of Christian higher education, called to their reward on high, have left a rich legacy of faith to all who knew them only to love them.

The effects of the financial depression are still being felt, and the matter of student support, both by their own efforts and through the assistance of friends, has been a serious problem, and has interfered with the regularity of attendance on the classes. The total enrollment in the three schools for the year was 216. The closing exercises of the School of Theology will take place June 1, and the commencement in the School of Arts and Sciences will take place the same day.

*Deceased.

There are sixteen students in the School of Theology. The demand for an upright and well-trained ministry for the people is felt to be more and more urgent, "and so the thorough preparation of men for this service is continued a leading feature of the work of the institution." There are students in all the upper classes who have the ministry in view. Unfortunately there are many good people who seem to realize the need of an educated ministry for the people and yet they insist upon devoting their gifts to sustain only industrial education. The injurious effects of this course of dealing with the subject is being seen. As a matter of fact industrial education is not ignored by Biddle University, and the rule is that during the three-years' course in the Normal and Preparatory School each student is required to learn some one of the trades taught there. But the purpose for which the school was founded and for which it has been sustained by the Church has never been lost sight of, namely, the intelligent Christian training of a leadership for the Negro race.

The following academies and high schools, under the auspices of the Freedmen's Board, have become affiliated with Biddle University under mutually satisfactory conditions, namely, Richard Allen Institute, Pine Bluff, Ark.; Ferguson Academy, Abbeville, S. C.; Harbison Institute, Beaufort, S. C.; Immanuel Training and High School, Aiken, S. C.; Brainerd Institute, Chester, S. C., and Dayton Academy, Carthage, N. C.

From this arrangement obvious satisfactory results are expected. Efforts looking to the full endowment of the institution are still being made. Endowments will

1. Permit an enlargement of the facilities and usefulness of the School of Industries and other necessary improvements.

2. Enable Biddle to cope with the demand for scholarship aid, supplementary or as a whole, to indigent, worthy students.

3. Place Biddle University upon a secure foundation, where the Presbyterian Church stands pledged to place it, by what the Master has enabled her to do through this institution for the highest emancipation of the Negro in the South, and by the more promising future, under the divine blessing.

4. Endow Biddle, and $15.000 of the current income of the Freedmen's Board from the churches will become available for the general work. Thus to endow Biddle will be to furnish means for greatly enlarging our whole work in the South, and the reproach of non-aggressiveness in reaching out and occupying needy fields will be taken away.

Very respectfully,

D. J. SANDERS, President.

Rev. JOSEPH J. LAMPE, Ph.D., D.D., Professor of Old Testament Literature and Exegesis.
—— —— ——,* Professor of English Bible.

*Supplied by other Professors.

3. Students.

Thirty students have been in attendance. One of these, Mr. Stanton Olinger, was received into the Senior class on a letter of dismissal from McCormick Seminary, and the ten following were matriculated in the Junior class:

Frank Howard Anderson,	Park College.
Warren Cyrus Buell,	Del Norte College.
Otis Grant Dale,	Parsons College, 1894.
James K. Driver,	Springfield Training School.
Robert Thompson Graham,	Chicago University.
David Honsaker.	Ohio Normal University.
Arthur Downs Hubbard,	Park College, 1897.
William Eberhard Kunz,	Hastings College, 1897.
Leland Cummings McEwen,	Coe College, 1897.
Samuel Wiley,	Coe College, 1897.

One graduate student was in attendance, Mr. Knox Boude, Seward, Neb. The members of the Senior class passed the required examinations and received certificates of graduation. They are:

Bernard J. Brethouwer,	Hope College.
James Nathaniel Currens,	Quincy College.
Fred H. Grace,	S. W. Kansas College, 1895.
Ulysses Grant Lacey,	Highland University.
William Barnes Lower,	Bellevue Academy.
Stanton Olinger,	Kansas State University, 1895.
Stanton A. Parker,	Carroll College.
Nels Gilbertson Sunby,	Macalester College, 1895.

No student who has not completed a college course is admitted to the institution unless he is sent by his Presbytery with a certificate authorizing him to enter upon his theological studies.

4. Special Lectures.

Rev. E. Trumbull Lee, D.D., of Cincinnati, O., delivered a series of lectures on Preaching which were highly appreciated.

5. Equipment.

Through the generosity of friends, the Seminary has the use of the large building at Ninth and Harney streets, containing dormitory, refectory, library and recitation rooms. The library is constantly growing by donations of books, and at present contains 2000 bound volumes.

6. Relations to the General Assembly.

In July, 1897, the bill which had passed the Nebraska Legislature relating to the holding of property in trust for purposes of theological education and to the enforcement of said trust and its administration became operative. A copy of this bill was submitted to the last Assembly with our Annual Report and is spread upon the minutes of that Assembly. The Seminary having incorporated under the provisions of this act of the Legislature, and in accord with the directions of the Assembly respecting Seminary control, is under the authority of the General Assembly and in closest sympathy with its plans and purposes.

7. Finances.

Real estate, buildings, etc.,	$1,500 00
Scholarship Fund,	789 27
Lectureship Fund,	12 00
Total income,	7,634 93
Total expenditure,	7,634 93

Liabilities.

Note,	$1,560 00

Estimated Assets.

Subscription,	$1,000 00
Three lots in Omaha, Neb.,	500 00
House and lot in Topeka, Kans.,	1,000 00
Wilson Douglas Scholarship,	320 00
		$2,820 00

Efficient services have been rendered by Profs. Lowrie and Gordon in soliciting funds, and two gentlemen have increased our permanent resources by donations of property; and knowledge has come to the Board of a legacy of $5000 for the use of the Seminary, but no endowment has been secured, although this is regarded as the great need of the institution both for permanency and present efficiency. But we trust that God in His providence will raise up givers in this, as He has done in other directions, who will provide the necessary means.

ABSTRACT OF THE NINETY-SIXTH ANNUAL REPORT.

We record the goodness of God manifest to us in many ways during the year now closed. It appears in the devotion and self-sacrifice of our missionaries and teachers. In a time of great financial stress and the burdens inevitable thereto they have stood to their work with signal patience and fortitude.

* Of the Presbytery of New York. † Of the Presbytery of Brooklyn. ‡ Of the Presbytery of Newark. § Of the Presbytery of Westchester. ‖ Of the Presbytery of Morris and Orange.  Of the Presbytery of Elizabeth. †† Of the Presbytery of Philadelphia. ‡‡ Of the Presbytery of Allegheny. §§ Of the Presbytery of St. Louis. ‖‖ Of the Presbytery of Huntingdon.

We make grateful mention also of special tokens of divine goodness in the fruits of missionary labors. It has not been a year of general revival, but from many fields there come to us notes of rejoicing because of harvests gathered.

The Board also bears thankful testimony to the favor of God in the measure of support that has come to its work. Gratifying responses have been made to the appeals that have been necessary, and both sympathy for and coöperation with the Board have not failed in the Presbyteries and churches. So while the review of the year is in some respects a painful one because of a depleted treasury, the lack of opportunity to advance and the many anxieties inseparable from hard times, the Board does not lose sight of the truth that our covenant God has been with us—His light has not failed us in the darkness, nor the shadow of His gracious cloud in the heat of the day. So while we count our debt and our distresses, we do not forget that the mercies of the Lord are without number.

The past year has in many respects been memorable in the history of this Board. The last General Assembly directed it so to reorganize its methods of administration that the executive work should be placed in charge of one Secretary, with whatever assistance might be necessary, and that he be accountable to the Board for its faithful and efficient management.

After prolonged and earnest deliberation the Board made this reorganization, and the Rev. Charles L. Thompson, D.D., pastor of the Madison Avenue Presbyterian Church, of New York City, and for nearly nine years a member of the Board, was elected sole Secretary and entered upon his work the 1st of March. The retiring Secretaries have the grateful appreciation of the Board for the ability and devotion with which through years of great financial stress they conducted this work. They will not fail to receive the gratitude of the entire Church.

The past year has also witnessed several important changes in the personnel of the Board. Mr. John Crosby Brown, for several years a highly valued member, and serving on some of its most important Committees, was obliged on account of the pressure of other business to retire from our service. Mr. Robert C. Ogden has been elected to fill the vacancy. The Board was further bereft in December by the sudden death of the Hon. Charles E. Green, whose counsels were of the highest value to the Board and who at the time of his death was Chairman of the Committee on Reorganization. His place has been filled by the election of the Hon. James A. Beaver, of Bellefonte, Pa.

A few months ago the Rev. Thomas S. Hastings, D.D., LL.D., offered his resignation, which was accepted most reluctantly and with profound regret. Dr. Hastings' services covered a long period in the history of the Board and were always conspicuous. He was a member of the New School Committee of Home Missions from 1861, and since the Reunion a member of this Board. His place has been filled by the election of Rev. Samuel J. Niccolls, D.D., of St. Louis.

The Rev. Charles Wood, D.D., of Philadelphia, has been chosen to fill the vacancy created by the retirement of the present Secretary from membership in the Board.

During the past year the following missionaries of the Board have gone to their rest and their reward. Let their names be inscribed in the history of the Church to whose missionary service they gave their lives.

Rev. Frank F. Barrett, Prairie du Sac, Wis.
Rev. James N. Crocker, D.D., Saratoga Springs, N. Y.
Rev. Stephen R. Dennen, D.D., Long Beach, Cal.
Rev. George G. Matheson, Fergus Falls, Minn.
Rev. Lowry W. Sibbet, Lapwai, Idaho.

Synodical Sustentation.

It may be best to begin our résumé of the work in different parts of the country by alluding to characteristic features of that form of Home Mission work toward which there is marked tendency, and which is represented in several of our strongest Synods.

The following Synods are caring, in whole or in part, for the work in their own bounds—named in the order in which they have assumed this, respectively, viz., Kentucky, Pennsylvania, New Jersey, New York, Baltimore, Indiana, Illinois and Ohio.

The plans, however, vary according to the needs and conditions of localities. Kentucky does what it can toward its own support, taking special collections, and any deficiency in this Synodical Fund is supplemented by the Board. Pennsylvania has made steady progress in its Synodical Plan since 1883 until now it draws very little from the general treasury. New Jersey likewise carries on its own work entirely, increasing also in its contributions to the Board. New York's collections for Sustentation have not wholly supported it, due doubtless to the large amount of mission work done by churches in large cities through various plans of church extension. During the past year, however, the Empire State has determined to take entire charge of its work, purposing to continue its usual offerings to the Board. The Synod of Baltimore has substantially the same plan as Pennsylvania and is making good progress under efficient management. They are not quite self-supporting, but will soon become so. Indiana and Illinois assume entire responsibility for their own work, requiring all moneys to be paid into their own treasuries. Whatever can be spared from their own fields (and they propose this shall be some definite proportion) will come to the Board for the cause at large. The plan adopted in 1896 by Ohio differs but little from that in use in Indiana and Illinois. It encourages the local churches to give directly to the treasury of the Home Board. An amount equal to 25 per cent. of a thirty-five-cent apportionment upon the church membership of the entire Synod is guaranteed by the Synod to the Board of Home Missions, which sum shall include all offerings made directly to the Board by the churches of the Synod.

New England.

Of the forty-three Presbyterian churches in New England, twenty-three are self-supporting, and by their growth, their influence and their benevolence have made good their early promise and justified the appropriations of former years in their aid.

In addition to their contributions toward self-support, heroic efforts have been made to provide houses of worship. These people, be it remembered, are largely from the old countries and the provinces. They have been attracted by the hundreds of thousands into New England manufacturing cities and towns, and while their affiliations are decidedly Presbyterian, their means are limited to very moderate incomes. And yet all but four of our churches have houses of worship.

The South.

This section has a much smaller foreign element in its population than any other portion of our country. A comparative statement in this regard is startling. While 14 per cent. of the population of our country, taken as a whole, is foreign-born, the Southern States average but 2 per cent. New York has 26 per cent.; North Dakota nearly 45 per cent.; Texas, having the largest number of foreigners of the Southern States, has less than 7 per cent.; Florida comes next with less than 6 per cent.; Kentucky follows next with but 3 per cent.; while Tennessee and Arkansas have but 1 per cent. each; Alabama less than 1 per cent., and Mississippi and Georgia about one-half of 1 per cent. These facts would indicate a population of remarkable homogeneity. But racial differences enter into the account. The 7,000,000 citizens of African descent must look for aid to the Boards especially provided for them. The multitudes among the mountains, who have been passed by in the march of progress and the growth of churches and schools, are exposed to the perils of ignorance, immorality, intemperance, and the wily Mormon missionary appeals with too much success to their susceptible religious nature.

The inflow of population from the North into certain portions of the South overtaxes the resources of the churches in the South and makes it imperative that we should bear our portion of the burden. To such regions we confine our Home Missionary operations. No attempt has been made to enter the States where the Southern branch of our Church seems able to do the work.

But in many communities where the demands upon the treasury of our Southern brethren were far greater than they could possibly meet, we were invited and urged to enter. We have never been either hasty or overzealous to respond to this call, but with the same spirit with which we have tried to give the Gospel to every part of our common country, always observing strictly the principles of denominational comity.

KENTUCKY.—This Synod has maintained a steady growth through another trying year, but it has required well-directed energy and wise financiering to do it. Its gain in church membership was less than in the previous year. It added but one church to its roll and lost two ministers, but it received less aid from the Board, contributed more money to the Board, raised more for the support of its churches and missions, and advanced 15 per cent. in its contributions to the benevolent causes of the Church.

There are entire counties in this State where we have no church, and there are 300,000 mountaineers who have yet to be provided with the stated means of grace.

TENNESSEE.—This Synod includes all the churches in our connection in the three States of Alabama, North Carolina and Tennessee. Five new churches and four new schools have been organized. We now have thirty-three candidates for the Gospel ministry.

FLORIDA.—This State has not yet fully recovered from the destructive frosts which a few years ago brought disastrous and disheartening calamity, but a new period of prosperity has dawned.

The church life is beginning to feel a new impulse. At least four important mission groups give promise of early reaching self-support. New work opens to us as the inflow of population pushes southward.

An interesting and very hopeful feature of church life is the cordial coöperation of the Northern and Southern branches of the Presbyterian Church. By mutual understanding, they arrange their work in different sections, and where these sections approach they group across the line in a truly fraternal fashion. Thus the most careful economy of men and money is practiced.

TEXAS.—This continental State reaches from Arkansas to Mexico and from Colorado to the Gulf. Its history is remarkable even for an American State. It has existed under seven different national flags. Our missionaries are preaching in six different languages and peoples of nine other languages are waiting for the Gospel. At a recent mass meeting held in the city of Dallas in the interest of the American Bible Society the Bible was read in fifteen different languages. Galveston and Houston have long invited us to come over and help, but not until the year just closed have we responded.

The strength of our Church in the Southern States is exhibited by the statistics hereto appended. The few churches in Arkansas connected with our branch belong to the Synods of Missouri and Indian Territory and are so reported.

	Presbyteries.	Ministers.	Churches.	Added on Ex.	Added on Cer.	Total Mems.	S. S. Enrol.	Gifts to all Causes.	Average per Member.	Average per Member of Whole Church.
Kentucky	3	61	80	392	268	7882	7227	$125,804 77	$15 96
Tennessee	3	66	98	536	118	6183	6892	36,375 41	5 88
Texas	3	36	52	212	159	2845	2996	28,157 45	9 90
Florida	2	29	40	69	105	1558	1591	13,295 50	8 53
Total	11	192	270	1209	650	18,468	18,706	$203,633 13	$11 02	$13 83

The average contribution per member in Kentucky is far above the average for the other Synods in the South. The average in Tennessee is the lowest because such a large percentage of our churches in that Synod is in the mountain districts, where the ability to give does not exist. Florida is low in the scale of contributions because of the recent and almost total destruction of its chief industry—orange growing. Texas has all the disadvantages of the frontier, where wealth is not found in its churches.

Other Regions.

Michigan.—The Synod of Michigan has exemplified during the past year the possibilities of united and persistent effort in the face of difficulties. The wisely directed labors of the Synodical Committee and the Presbyterial Committees in connection with those of the Synodical Missionary have resulted in helping aid-receiving churches toward self-support, grouping churches to the utmost limit so as to reduce the number of ministers required and increasing the amount of their support from the field. The good results are in part seen in the diminished aid required and the increased receipts of the Board from that Synod. The new rules governing the appropriations of the Board adopted by the General Assembly of 1896 have in this Synod, as in all others, worked to the advantage of both the churches and the Board's treasury. Progress has been made all along the line, and the Synod is now quite fully supplied with ministers.

Wisconsin.—Partial recovery from financial depression has given the churches and missionaries of Wisconsin new courage. Being without a Synodical missionary the greater part of the year, the care of vacant churches devolved upon the Home Mission Committees, for whose expenses no provision could be made. They nevertheless gave much time and attention at their own individual cost, but were quite ready to welcome the help of the new Synodical missionary, the Rev. L. C. Smith.

By the progress of many churches toward self-support, by a vigorous canvass in all the fields for the purpose of developing their giving power, and by reducing the salaries to the lowest point, the increasing demand for missionaries in Wisconsin has been partially met; sixty-three missionaries have been in the field as against fifty-nine last year.

Minnesota.—The past year has been one of steady progress. The agencies employed have been efficient and the principles of administration followed by the Synod have proved wise. One Presbytery in its report bears strong testimony to the value of the Synodical missionary as an indispensable agency and most important factor in the results attained. Another adds important testimony to the value of the pastor-at-large. The money spent for his support accomplishes more than if spent on separate charges. There have been completed and dedicated free of debt within the Assembly's year twenty-five church buildings, and there are now in process of erection eight additional churches.

We have greatly increased the number of pastors and correspondingly decreased the number of stated supplies, and so we report within the year twenty-three installations.

Iowa.—With conscientious fidelity this Synod has striven to reach self-support. By rigid economy, cutting down applications for aid to the limit of possible endurance, by most resolute efforts at self-help, by grouping the aid-receiving churches to the verge of ruin and by resisting appeals from neglected communities for new work, the point of self-support was almost reached.

"We have organized ten churches in the past year, but not one of them lays an additional dollar of burden upon the treasury of the Board. Could have organized nearly as many more with profit if we could have supported men on them."

Our ninety-nine missionaries have preached the Gospel in four different languages to 146 different churches, besides sixty stations, where as yet churches have not been organized. There have been added to these missionary churches by profession of faith a full thousand and by certificate nearly five hundred, making a total of fifteen hundred. About half the missionaries are settled pastors and about half are stated supplies.

During the year eight churches, either singly or in groups, have come to self-support, saving the Board an aggregate of $525. There have been eight new church buildings erected at a total cost of $21,800—not all of these, of course, on missionary fields—and nine manses at a total cost of $10,800, increasing our church property by the sum of $32,600, which is not bad for this hard year. Nine new churches have been organized.

MISSOURI.—This State stands fifth in the Union as to population. The Presbyterian Church has been among its most important constructive forces from the first. Its missions and educational institutions were early established in many parts. But great, unoccupied regions now call for more men and more means than during any other year in the history of the Synod. "There are over forty counties in the State," says Dr. Niccolls, "in which our Church has no organization, and there are also the mining regions, with their large population, in which we have scarcely a missionary."

NORTH DAKOTA.—The progress of our work in this Synod during the past year has not differed in any marked degree from that of former years. There has been a gratifying gain in the contributions to the Board and diminution in the amount of aid required. Conditions are favorable for rapid advancement along all lines of church work.

This State has a larger proportion of foreigners in its population than any other in the Union. But the elements are largely of the kinds which are most readily Americanized and assimilated. Few changes have occurred among our missionaries. Those who have left have been compelled to do so because of inadequate support. The churches are generally small and weak and the distances between them so great as to make grouping impracticable.

The Synod saw fit to discontinue the office of Synodical Missionary last year and to commit the duties which usually devolve upon it to the Standing Committee of Home Missions. The experiment is of too short duration to determine its effect. Rev. E. J. Lindsey and his native helpers are meeting with marked success in their work among the Indians. About forty have recently expressed a desire to live as Christians.

SOUTH DAKOTA.—South Dakota reports this year a larger increase of church membership and larger contributions to the benevolent causes of the Church than in any previous year in the history of the Synod.

"Material conditions," says Dr. Carson, "are greatly improved and immigration has set in afresh with the prospect of larger demands for the extension of church and mission work. The Black Hills gold industry alone now yields over nine millions of dollars a year and is steadily increasing.

For lack of help from Home Mission funds in four houses of worship we have not been able to maintain any services for over two years, and have lost ground in half a dozen other fields formerly occupied. We have also been compelled to decline invitations and desirable opportunities in many other places—among them a town of over five thousand people, the second in importance in the State, and having no Presbyterian church. South Dakota felt keenly the cut in appropriations which the Board was compelled to make. The contributions to the Boards of the Church have fallen off in consequence of the increased burden of self-support. But there is a gain in the number of churches, the church membership, houses of worship, manses, the value of church property in the aggregate and in contributions toward congregational expenses.

NEBRASKA.—Retrenchment has not been an unmixed evil in this State. While our Church has been restrained from entering many inviting and promising fields, the employment of evangelists among churches that otherwise would have been neglected has resulted in strengthening them and adding large numbers to their membership. One church that seemed to be dying has been revived and now reports fifty-seven accessions on profession. Another church has just reported thirty members received.

But the evils of our straitened circumstances have been painfully manifest. "In one case," says Dr. Sexton, "an appropriation of fifty dollars would have kept a faithful minister on a field where three country churches were grouped together and served by him with great regularity and with acceptance to the people."

Only four churches within the bounds of as many Presbyteries have been organized during the year. But church buildings have been erected and debts of several churches paid. There are fifty-one vacant churches, only three of which are self-supporting. The forty-eight Home Mission churches can be advantageously grouped under twenty-three ministers. The ministers are available, but the money is lacking.

KANSAS.—The high character which Kansas has maintained ever since its settlement on a great moral issue is at once a help and a hindrance to the progress of the Church. It affords happy exemptions from certain great evils characteristic of many of our States, but it begets a complacency in these exemptions as supplying all needful help in morals and religion without the agency of the Gospel. The work in Kansas has always given fair returns for appropriations made in its behalf. This Synod reached the lowest mark of the decade in the number of conversions. It has felt keenly the loss of 100,000 estimable citizens, who have been attracted to Oklahoma since that Territory was thrown open to settlement. Many of its churches which might otherwise have reached self-support have suffered much from the consequent decimation in their membership. While this change of population has weakened the churches in Kansas, it has helped to organize as many new ones in Oklahoma, thus doubling the number of churches for the Board to help.

INDIAN TERRITORY AND OKLAHOMA.—This frontier Synod already has four churches that are self-supporting and others advancing with firm and steady steps in that direction. The year has been marked with decided progress. No aggressive work has been attempted, not from lack of opportunity, but from lack of financial aid. Only two churches have been organized; one of these is composed of twelve full-blood Seminoles.

The advance in benevolent contributions has been marked. The amount raised for all purposes was $22,226, an average of $6.50 per communicant, an advance in the aggregate of $9000 in three years. The careful, systematic work which brought this about is further manifested in the fact that only eleven churches in the Synod failed to contribute to all the Boards, two of which churches were among the full-blood Seminoles. Two years ago there were forty non contributing churches.

We have been able to hold the work we have organized, but some of our men are compelled to minister to four, five, or even six churches, and with such a scattered field services are necessarily more or less irregular, and results not what we might hope for. Our men have borne the burden of the work nobly without complaint.

MONTANA.—This Synod has suffered a great loss in the retirement of Rev. A. K. Baird, D.D., the Synodical Missionary, from the work, on account of ill-health. His place, however, has been ably filled by the Rev. F. H. Gwynne, D.D., pastor of the First Church of Great Falls. New communities are forming all over this region. There may be rough ungodly men who fear not God, nor regard man, but they welcome the missionary, hear him gladly and contribute toward his support. Ten places that would respond readily to us are now waiting for our entry. There has been a favorable growth in the membership of the churches, but no large ingathering except at Great Falls, where, following a series of union meetings, the First Church at one communion service received—nearly all on confession—100 members.

COLORADO.—Results in Colorado have always justified the effort and money expended within its bounds, and never more than during the year just closed. But the growth of our Church in this State has been held in check by the Board's limited power to help. We have ample work for fifteen more men than are now employed.

NEW MEXICO AND ARIZONA.—There has been a net gain in church membership of 150 during the past year. Twelve evangelists have been employed during the year in the Mexican work, for which the Board could not provide a sufficient number of ordained ministers.

UTAH.—The promises of right living and fair dealing made by the Mormon hierarchy as a condition of admittance into the Union have not been fulfilled. That peculiar government sits defiantly entrenched in the very heart of our nation. Present conditions emphasize the need of the Gospel as the only corrective—and yet no new work has been attempted in Utah since the beginning of the times of depression. This Synod is composed of the Presbyteries of Boisé and Kendall, covering all the State of Idaho (except the "Panhandle") and the Presbytery of Utah.

This Synod cries out almost in despair for fourteen new men. The Idaho part of it must have nine men for work which could well employ twice the number. Utah modestly appeals for five, but three more are needed to replace men who have retired.

California.—Recent years have marked a gradual strengthening of the relative power of the Church. This is manifest in the progress of the Synod toward self-support. Two years ago the contributions of the churches, Sabbath-schools and societies to Home Missions amounted to two-thirds as much as the Synod received from the Board. They amounted last year to four-fifths, an encouraging advance in face of the financial depression which California felt in common with all the States of the Union. As a further means of relieving the Board a Synodical Fund has been created which, though not yet large, is growing in favor among the churches.

Oregon.—No Synod has been more zealous for the spiritual interests of the State which it covers than this. The aggressive spirit has animated its Home Mission Committees. They have succeeded in employing fifty-one missionaries, an increase of five over the preceding year. The strong churches have helped the weak, besides contributing to the Board in increasing amounts. Its cities are growing, with outlying suburbs which require additional churches. Revivals have occurred in many parts of the State, and churches have reported large accessions.

Washington.—This State has attracted multitudes of the most intelligent and enterprising elements of our American population. Strenuous efforts to reduce the demands upon the Board's treasury to the lowest possible amount were made by the wise and conscientious men who constituted the Committee on Home Missions, aided by the experience and wisdom of the Synodical Missionary, in the rigid application of the rules of comity, the wise grouping of the churches and the closest cutting of salaries. During the year six new churches have been added to our rolls, and four new church buildings have been acquired.

Alaska.—The far-away Presbytery of Alaska, with but nine ministers on its roll, has furnished the General Assembly a Moderator, and the great Territory a Governor. The eight churches have an enrollment of nearly 1000 members. The smallest two are composed of white members, the one at Sitka and the other at Juneau. The six churches of natives are situated at Sitka, Juneau, Wrangel, Jackson, Chilcat and Hoonah, and are the direct outgrowth of the school work so ably and successfully carried on by our mission teachers.

Mr. L. M. Stevenson, who opened the mission among the Eskimos at Point Barrow in 1890, was relieved last summer by Dr. and Mrs. Marsh. Mr. Stevenson returned to his family at Versailles, O., having accomplished a great work.

The Klondyke.—The First Church of Auburn, New York, and the Third Church at Pittsburgh, Pa., by special gifts enabled the Board to send two missionaries to the Klondyke regions. It was desired that one of the missionaries should be a physician. The Rev. S. Hall Young, of Wooster, O., and the Rev. George A. McEwen, M.D., of Farmington, Mo., offered their services, and were promptly sent. They sailed from Tacoma, August 22, 1897, and reached Dawson City the 8th of October. They were cordially received by the miners.

The Indians.

We have had a good year in our work among the Indians. No new missions have been attempted, but all those already established have grown stronger. Our organized work may be briefly summarized.

We have churches among eighteen different tribes in ten States and three Territories.

Our churches among the Nez Perces, the Umatillas and the Spokanes rest on a basis of sixty years of faithful labor, the fruitfulness of which is attested by the eight churches with 656 members, and the eight Sabbath-schools with an enrollment of 537 scholars. A recent revival in the Lapwai church, under the Indian pastor, Rev. James Hines, resulted in seventy accessions. The foundations of this work were laid by the Rev. Samuel Parker, Dr. Marcus Whitman and Rev. H. H. Spaulding.

Woman's Board.

This year has witnessed the change of the title of the "Woman's Executive Committee" to the briefer and more definite name of "The Woman's Board."

It is a department of the general work of the Board. It has a separate treasury, the funds of which are gathered by the women and children of the Church and administered by the Assembly's Board. These funds are applied to the special work of evangelization which the Board could not otherwise prosecute.

Its fundamental work is that of education among what are called "the exceptional populations." It is carried on among Alaskans, Indians, Mexicans, Mormons, and the mountaineers of the South. The children and youth are the promising material on which to work among these people.

More than seventy churches have already been established as the direct result of the school work. It is therefore a misconception to think of this part of our Home Mission service as in any sense secular. The Bible is a daily text-book and Christian influence is inwrought with the entire work. The teachers are missionaries, preaching often in the most effective and economic way.

Furthermore, the Woman's Board accepts the responsibility to which the advance of its work leads by supporting pastors and evangelists when the school rises into a mission church. It raises money for the buildings for its own schools and teachers' homes, chapels and manses. Property to the amount of $750,000 has thus accrued to the Presbyterian Church and is held by the Board in trust for the Woman's Board, or has been turned over to the several Presbyteries covering the bounds of the field. The last General Assembly recommended the enlargement of the evangelistic work of the Woman's Board. In this connection it is gratifying to state that during the past year it has carried, in whole or in part, the support of missionaries and evangelists at a cost of $8580, and proposes in the coming year to care for all the Alaskan work at a cost of $11,000 additional.

Young People's Department.

After two years the consolidated department shows a larger number of societies contributing than ever before, and attributes this result to the faithfulness of the Synodical and Presbyterial secretaries of Young People's work, as in those districts where persistent, intelligent and methodical efforts have been made by these officers is the improvement the most marked.

Literature.

One of the essential features of the office is the literature room where our correspondence concerning printed matter is carried on, and from which there went last year to churches all over the land about 350,000 leaflets published by the Board.

The Home Board has a share in the pages of the Assembly Herald, and The Church at Home and Abroad.

The Woman's Board, in connection with the Woman's Foreign Missionary organization, publishes Over Sea and Land, an attractive illustrated monthly for junior workers; besides this it has entire control of The Home Mission Monthly, also illustrated.

Interdenominational Comity.

The Board records with satisfaction the efforts which have been made on the field by churches and Home Mission Committees to further the interests of Christian fraternity and economize the funds of Home Mission Boards and Societies, by regarding the principles and rules of interdenominational comity, and by grouping churches, in some cases, across denominational lines.

The Finances.

We began the year with a cash debt of $147,276.96. We close it with a cash debt of $167,839.03, an increase of $20,562.07. In considering this increase, it should be said that, in the change from quarterly to monthly payment of the salaries of our missionaries, we have been obliged during this fiscal year to take care of quarterages lapping over from last year into this, in addition to paying full twelve months' salaries. These overlapping quarterages have amounted in round figures to $35,000, so that, considering the business of the year alone, we have really come through with an excess of receipts over expenditures.

As compared with the last fiscal year, the gross receipts show a decrease of $93,464.39, the total last year standing at $792,404.76, this year at $698,940.37 (in both cases omitting New York Synodical Aid). Of this decrease the churches are charged with $69,360.84, the Woman's Board, $14,371.63, and individuals and miscellaneous receipts, $11,276.77. Legacies show an increase of $1544.85.

Monthly Payment of Salaries.—The change from quarterly to monthly payment of missionary salaries was inaugurated April 1, 1897.

It was feared that the change would necessitate additional clerical help in the Treasurer's office—the issuing of twelve or fourteen hundred salary checks each month instead of once each quarter, together with the additional bookkeeping required, being no small addition to the work. Careful systematizing of all the work in the office, however, has made it possible to do the work without increasing the cost.

The Debt.—The Board is determined to spare no efforts to secure the extinction of the debt. We hope to do this by steady and persistent endeavors to induce the churches to adopt some plan of systematic and proportionate giving. It is the one clear road to sufficient treasuries in all departments of mission work.

But for the removal of the present burden one special and united effort is necessary. We suggest that it be made by all churches, societies and individual givers during the month of November next, the time usually allotted to Home Mission contributions. One great effort at that time will set us free.

The Board of Foreign Missions, with devout gratitude to God for marked tokens of divine favor, presents to the General Assembly its Sixty-first Annual Report, together with the volume of its Minutes covering the fiscal year 1897–98.

THE OFFICE.

Charles W. Hand, Esq., who was elected Treasurer of the Board to succeed William Dulles, Jr., Esq., entered upon the duties of his office on May 17, 1897. Mr. Hand is a ruling elder in the Lafayette Avenue Presbyterian Church, of Brooklyn, and is well qualified by legal and business training for the responsible position to which he has been chosen and in which he is giving great satisfaction.

Secretary Speer, after an absence of fourteen months, during which, accompanied by Mrs. Speer in most instances, he visited the Missions in Persia, China, Japan and Korea, returned to the office October 30, 1897. Able and comprehensive reports of his visit, prepared with great care, and dealing with some of the large problems of Mission policy and methods, were subsequently submitted to the Board.

FINANCES.

With profound satisfaction the Board reports all obligations met to date, including the debt of $97,454.47 carried over from last year. In view of the financial situation in the country, and with an earnest desire to wipe out the debt as well as to meet the obligations of the fiscal year beginning May 1, 1897, the Board appropriated for that year about $100,000 less than for the year preceding. A special appeal for the debt was also issued and pressed upon the Church, the members of the Board, its officers and clerical force, and many of the missionaries joining in the effort. By the missionaries alone the handsome sum of $10,533.80 was given. In accordance with the recommendation of the General Assembly, many of the churches increased their regular gifts with a view to helping with the debt.

WOMEN'S BOARDS.

To this most satisfactory outcome the Women's Societies and Boards have as usual contributed most handsomely, the gifts through these channels being in advance of those of last year.

YOUNG PEOPLE'S SOCIETIES.

At the urgent request of several of the Women's Boards, and after full correspondence with all, it was deemed best by the Assembly's Board that, "as far as agreeable, all the Young People's Societies should send their gifts through the Women's Societies, and that the Assembly's Board should take direct charge of all foreign missionary work among the Sabbath-schools." In communicating this proposition to all concerned, the Board took pains to say: "The above proposition, of course, is advisory, and is made with the necessary reservation involved in the authority of the Synods and Presbyteries to take such action as they may deem wise, and also of the right of the Young People's Societies and Sabbath-schools to determine for themselves, subject to the advice and consent of their respective church sessions, the channels through which their foreign missionary offerings shall be sent to the Treasurer of the Assembly's Board.

MISSIONARY FORCE.

The missionary force was increased during the year by the addition of twenty-eight missionaries, of whom six were ordained ministers, three medical men, five medical women, seven other single women, one industrial missionary, and six wives of missionaries. About two-thirds of this number were sent to the field by funds specially provided for the purpose. On the other hand, the force was depleted by ten deaths and twenty resignations. The deaths were:

East Shantung Mission.—Mrs. Charles Lewis, May 31, 1897; Mrs. Calvin W. Mateer, February 18, 1898.

Lodiana Mission.—Mrs. Charles B. Newton, June 20, 1897; Mrs. W. J. P. Morrison, January 1, 1898.

Siam Mission.—Rev. F. J. Lyman, July 17, 1897; James B. Thompson, M.D., March 30, 1898.

Chinese in California.—Miss Margaret Culbertson, August 1, 1897.

Hainan Mission.—Rev. J. C. Melrose, September 16, 1897.

West Shantung Mission.—Anna M. Larson, M.D., December 25, 1897.

Western Persia.—Mrs. Benjamin Labaree, April 15, 1898.

More extended reference to these servants of God will be found in connection with their respective Missions. The resignations were from nine Missions, and were largely because of ill health. The names will be found in the text of the Report.

THE MISSIONS.

In some of our fields, the year has been marked by unusual upheaval and disturbance. Revolution in Guatemala; war, famine, plague and earthquake in India; excitement in China because of the aggressions of certain European powers, and alarm in Persia because of assertions of ecclesiastical power, and weakness and oppressions of the civil authority, necessarily reacted somewhat on our Mission work. The unprecedented cut also, made necessary by diminished receipts, told somewhat severely, although by throwing the native churches more on their own resources the retrenchment has not been without some compensations. Our twenty-four Missions, however, with their 110 stations, have had a year of substantial growth.

Making allowance for the incomplete returns from some Missions because of delayed mails and other possible causes, the additions on confession for the year in all our Missions have been most encouraging. To this result all branches of the work have contributed. The retrenchment, however, told heavily against the schools, a number having to be closed and others greatly reduced. The medical work has held its own in its divine mission of healing and evangelizing, 247,490 patients having been treated and brought more or less in touch with the Gospel.

CHINESE AND JAPANESE.

Important modifications of the work among the Chinese and Japanese in the United States have also been made, looking to the gradual withdrawal from it by the Board, save in San Francisco, the great centre of Chinese population in this country. A fuller statement of the matter will be found in the text of the Report.

FORWARD MOVEMENT.

The Board, under what seemed to be the clear leadings of Providence, has undertaken an experiment in the direction of a "Forward Movement." For some years past, a gentleman in the Middle West had been paying through the Board the salaries of two missionaries on the field, besides making an annual gift for the general work. This course had been such a blessing to himself, and he was so profoundly convinced that others might be found willing to do likewise, that he urged the Board to undertake a "Forward Movement" in this direction, promising to meet all the expense connected with it for one year, or two, if it succeeded, including the salary of the representative to be engaged, clerk hire and traveling expenses. Believing that the finger of God was in it, the Board accepted the proposition, and appointed as the special representative of the movement Mr. Luther D. Wishard, a Princeton graduate, and for many years connected with the College branch of the Y. M. C. A., in whose interests he had spent several years visiting foreign mission fields. It is hoped that through this agency not a few men and women of wealth may see it to be their duty and count it a joy to have their representatives on the foreign field, and that congregations also, following the example of a number already enrolled, may see their way clear to support a missionary over and above their present gifts to Foreign Missions. The primary aim of the "Forward Movement," however, is to enlist individuals.

NEW MISSIONARIES.

With a view to the more thorough equipment of new missionaries before their departure for the field, and of giving the Board and its officers a better opportunity of meeting them face to face than heretofore, it has been arranged to hold a ten days' conference with them in the Mission Rooms in June. Lectures on practical topics will be given by members and officers of the Board and by others, including medical men and workers in city missions. Opportunities will also be afforded of visiting some of the Mission work in New York City.

THE OUTLOOK.

The outlook on the foreign side of the work is full of hope. In most of our mission fields the door of access stands wide open. Missionaries are not only tolerated, but in many instances even welcomed by the people. The Holy Spirit is setting His seal on the work more generally than ever before in the history of our Missions. Everything points to wider occupancy as the immediate duty of the Church. The present reduced rate of expenditure in the Missions, made necessary by the utter inadequacy of the Board's receipts, can only be continued at the peril of much of the work already in hand, to say nothing of the urgent demand from most of our Missions for immediate reinforcements and a steady forward step. Crippled work on the field waits to be restored; missionaries who have been bearing almost intolerable burdens rather than see the work sacrificed ought to be relieved; and the well-equipped men and women who, at the Lord's call, have dedicated themselves to the foreign work should not be kept longer waiting for means with which to send them forth. Only the Church under God can meet the exigency.

Respectfully submitted in behalf of the Board,

JOHN D. WELLS, President.

ABSTRACT OF THE SEVENTY-NINTH ANNUAL REPORT.

The Seventy-ninth Annual Report of the Board of Education makes sorrowful allusion to the death of Dr. Poor, who for seventeen years labored faithfully as its Corresponding Secretary. Failing health obliged him to lay aside the burden of official duty in 1893. His death occurred in the city of Newark on the 11th day of October, 1897, in the eightieth year of his age. Mention is also made of the severe loss sustained in the death of Mr. Andrew Blair, which took place on the 16th of April. He had given from 1886 to the time of his death most zealous attention to the interests of the Board. George Peirce also, after eleven years' valuable service, has resigned.

CANDIDATES.

A very conservative policy has been followed during the year with respect to the encouragement and aiding of new candidates. This has been made necessary by the condition of the treasury of the Board of Education and also by the lack of funds from which the Missionary Boards have been likewise suffering; a state of things which has stood in the way of their commissioning men for service after they have been educated. The situation seems to be unnatural and unhealthy; for the greatness of the task committed to the Church never looked so impressive, nor the opportunities for vigorous prosecution of the work so abundant; and the youth of the Church probably never showed a greater readiness to go to the front with the message of the Gospel. The Board has plainly not been guilty of using its influence to unduly multiply candidates for the ministry. The danger may be in the opposite direction. The total number of new candidates accepted during the year was only 153, yet the annual average loss to the Church by death and dismission is 174. While the Church is hesitating about encouraging and educating her own sons she is accepting for the supply of her pulpits men trained, more or less thoroughly, outside of her communion at the rate of ninety-one per annum. Two years ago the Board enrolled 1037 men, last year 911 and in the year just ended only 814, of whom 661 were renewals and 153 new men.

A slight increase has been made in the amount of aid given to individual students, and an earnest desire is felt to make the rate for the coming season $80, as it was two years ago. An increase of revenue to the amount of about $8000 should be provided in order to make this possible, besides the sum of $7700 needed for the wiping out of the debt.

Special attention is called to the disposition manifested by some individuals, churches and Sabbath-schools to provide scholarships for individual candidates. A more generous provision is thus made, as a rule; contributions are largely increased and more intelligently given, while a personal interest is excited in the welfare of the student by means of frequent reports furnished by instructors and by the record of his later success in his work. During the past year eighteen scholarships of $100 each were thus given, besides one of $150. The Newberry scholarship, spoken of in former reports, yields about $500 a year and is awarded by means of a competitive examination to be enjoyed for a period of three years. The next Newberry scholar will be chosen from Princeton Seminary.

The Board takes pleasure in reporting that notwithstanding the straitened condition of the treasury, it was able to accept all new candidates whose recommendations were received seasonably and in order, and a limited number in addition whose cases, while exceptional, commended themselves to its judgment.

Great pains were taken, as usual, to maintain that high standard as to conduct, scholarship and promise of usefulness which the Board was established to promote. One death has occurred among our candidates; eight have been dropped from the roll upon information received of their having married and a number of others because of persistently unsatisfactory reports as to character, ability or scholarship.

REVISION OF THE RULES.

A new section has been added by order of the last General Assembly to Rule III, setting forth a missionary spirit as a prime qualification for the ministry, and suggesting to each candidate the propriety of his making an offer of his services at the conclusion of his course of study for work in mission fields.

Correspondence with those in charge of mission work shows a great need for a considerable increase of force, but a sad lack of funds. Nevertheless the graduates from the seminaries seem to be finding prompt employment and to be showing zeal for missionary labor.

The rules have been further revised so as to eliminate the "Special Rules for Colored Candidates," which were designed to make special provision for their benefit, but were sometimes interpreted as making invidious distinctions.

MEDICAL MISSIONARY WORK.

A conference has been held, in obedience to the direction of the last General Assembly, with the Corresponding Secretaries of the Board of Foreign Missions with regard to the degree of encouragement, pecuniary or otherwise, which should, under existing circumstances, be given to young men who may be disposed to volunteer their services as medical missionaries. It was ascertained that the demand seems to be limited at present to an average of two men, and that this number can be easily and satisfactorily secured from the comparatively large number of applicants without the necessity of making provision for aiding candidates during their course of study. Candidates, therefore, should be warned not to give up theology for medicine without the clearest indications of talent for and a call to the work of medical missions. At the same time, when these indications are present, no better material for this work is likely to be found, and pecuniary assistance given to such candidates, under careful regulations, would be money well spent.

FINANCIAL CONDITION.

The income from all sources during the year was $66,361.21, being $876.52 more than during the previous year. The income from churches, Sabbath-schools and Young People's Societies shows a decrease of $1312.73.

The number of contributing churches has increased to 3523 as compared with 3424 during the previous year. Fifteen hundred dollars have been paid on the debt, which is thus reduced to $7720.75.

The usual work of visiting students at various institutions and holding private interviews and making public addresses has been diligently prosecuted. Synods, Presbyteries and churches have also been visited in the interest of the work as opportunity offered.

By order of the Board,

EDWARD B. HODGE, Corresponding Secretary.

Abstract of the Sixtieth Annual Report.

With devout gratitude to God for the manifold blessings vouchsafed during the past year, the Presbyterian Board of Publication and Sabbath-school Work presents to the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America this its Sixtieth Annual Report, covering the year beginning April 1, 1897, and closing March 31, 1898.

I. SABBATH-SCHOOL AND MISSIONARY DEPARTMENT.

The Educational and Missionary branches of Sabbath-school Work, which since the reorganization of the Board in 1887 have been united in this department, constitute, together with the Sabbath-school publications of the Editorial and Business departments, a complete system which may with propriety be termed The Presbyterian Sabbath-school System.

It has been thought best in this Report to present, in the first place, a general conspectus of the system as a whole, and to follow this with particular statements concerning the work of this department.

Presbyterian Sabbath-school System.

EDUCATIONAL WORK.

[Only the more important items specified above are here presented.]

THE TWENTIETH-CENTURY MOVEMENT.

The object of this movement, which was started last year, is to signalize the entrance of the Presbyterian Church into the new century by bringing in at least half a million of scholars into her Sabbath-schools; in other words, by increasing the Sabbath-school membership from about a million —where it stood at the beginning of 1897—to a million and a half on or before April 1, 1901, the beginning of the first ecclesiastical year of our Church in the twentieth century.

ASSOCIATIONAL WORK IN SYNODS AND PRESBYTERIES.

This feature of Sabbath-school work deserves far more attention than it has heretofore received in our Church. The number of these Associations at present is small, but wherever they have been established they have proved to be of striking utility in promoting the interests and efficiency of Presbyterian Sabbath-schools. The example of the Synod of Ohio and of the Presbyteries (amongst others) of Allegheny, Baltimore, Cincinnati, Pittsburgh and Philadelphia—in all of which flourishing Sabbath-school and Superintendents' Associations exist—should be followed in this respect by every Synod and Presbytery in our Church.

The department encourages the formation of these Synodical and Presbyterial Associations by every means in its power.

CHILDREN'S DAY AND RALLYING DAY.

The observance of these special anniversaries is on the increase among our Sabbath-schools. The department prepares special programmes of exercises for each anniversary, and furnishes them, together with mite boxes and envelopes for collecting the offerings, to the Sabbath-schools of our Church, without charge.

The number of Sabbath-schools using these programmes last year on Children's Day was 4515, and on Rallying Day 1509. The amount contributed by Sabbath-schools during the year to the Missionary Fund of this Board was $51,976.70.

SABBATH-SCHOOL REPORTS.

The attention of pastors, Sessions and Sabbath-school superintendents is earnestly called to the importance of promptly and accurately filling in the statistical blanks furnished to them by the Stated Clerks of the Presbyteries, and forwarding them to the person designated thereon for compilation in the Annual Sabbath-school Reports. Chairmen of Presbyterial Sabbath-school Committees are also urged to promptness in forwarding their Reports in the month of April or May, so that they may be incorporated in the statistical tables prepared for the Annual Minutes of the current year.

THE HOME DEPARTMENT.

This feature of Sabbath-school work is fully explained in the leaflets and circulars issued by this department. The membership reported in 1897 was 18,858. The department promptly sends samples of Visitors' Books and of other appropriate supplies, with prices, upon application.

WESTMINSTER CATECHISM STUDY.

There has been an increase this year of nearly fifty per cent. over the previous year in the number of Bibles awarded to scholars in our Sabbath-schools for reciting the Catechism. The number of these awards during the past year was 2177. There was also an increase in 1897 over 1896 (the figures for 1898 are not yet prepared) of 337 Sabbath-schools, giving an affirmative answer to the question on the statistical blanks, "Is the Shorter Catechism taught?" There is still room for improvement, however, in this respect, since out of 7757 schools reporting in 1897, 2426 gave a negative answer and 1277 left the column blank.

MEMORIZING OF SCRIPTURE.

In order to encourage the practice among our youth of committing passages of Scripture to memory, the department has prepared a tractate entitled Plan of Memorizing the Scriptures for Sabbath-schools, and also a smaller manual entitled Scholars' Handbook for Memorizing Selected Passages of Scripture. Certificates have also been prepared as awards to those scholars who comply with the conditions specified in the Handbook and Plan. The course extends over four years, and certificates are given in three grades for each year's separate course, and also for the full course of four years.

Missionary Work.

This work has been prosecuted during the past year in twenty-nine States and Territories, comprising twenty-three Synods and sixty-three Presbyteries.

Of the Sabbath-school missionaries in commission on April 1, 1897, one has been removed by death, six have left the service, and nine have been added, making the number of missionaries in commission on April 1 of this year, seventy-six. Of these thirteen are Synodical and sixty-three Presbyterial missionaries. The former labor and have the oversight of the work within Synodical bounds; the latter labor only within the limits of Presbyteries. No missionary is commissioned without the request or express concurrence of the Synod or Presbytery within whose bounds he is appointed to labor.

ORGANIZATION OF SABBATH-SCHOOLS.

During the past year our missionaries organized 1028 Sabbath-schools, with a membership at starting of 4896 teachers and 46,518 scholars. This is an advance of ninety over the number of schools organized last year.

THE UPBUILDING OF MISSION SCHOOLS.

This subdivision of work is followed up by our missionaries with great assiduity. Whenever practicable, a mission school is placed under the care of the nearest Presbyterian church. When there is no church near enough to assume this responsibility, the missionary gives to the school as much of his personal attention as possible, corresponding with its superintendent and visiting it as often as his other duties will allow.

REORGANIZATION OF LAPSED SCHOOLS.

This is distinct from the work of simply resuscitating a school which has only been a short time suspended. Many schools are suspended during the winter and reopened in the spring. Reorganization, however, as understood in this department, means that a previous organization has been entirely broken up, without any immediate prospects of resuming. The number of schools reorganized during the past year was 312.

DISTRIBUTION OF LITERATURE.

Under this head are comprised (1) grants of Lesson Helps and Periodicals made to our mission schools on the requisition of our missionaries; (2) the gratuitous distribution of periodicals and tracts by our missionaries in their house-to-house visitations; (3) the gift or sale by our missionaries of Bibles, Testaments and volumes of Christian literature; (4) grants of Bibles, Testaments, volumes, tracts, periodicals and Lesson Helps made by the department to Sabbath-schools, churches and individuals outside of our missionary work.

During the past year our missionaries distributed 4174 Bibles and Testa ments, 10,946 volumes of literature, and 2,354,038 pages of tracts and periodicals. The Committee made grants outside of the missionary work of 5318 volumes and 3,991,094 pages of tracts and periodicals. The value of this literature, at wholesale prices, was $4958.22, including the deficiency on the German Lesson Leaf, which is a grant to German schools. The cost of Bibles awarded for reciting the Shorter Catechism was $1840.25. The cost of the programmes and supplies for Children's Day was $4582.98. The total cost of all the aforesaid grants was $11,381.45.

Every day in the year the Board gave away, other than Bibles, forty-five volumes and 17,387 pages of tracts and periodicals.

VISITATION OF FAMILIES AND INDIVIDUALS.

This subdivision of missionary work is often the first of the methods employed in planting Sabbath schools. A thorough house-to-house canvass of a community by one of our missionaries is the usual preliminary of a public meeting at which the question of organizing a Sabbath-school is discussed and decided. The number of house-to-house visitations made was 81,239.

In connection with these visits our missionaries are privileged at times to be the almoners of generous donors who forward to them boxes or barrels of clothing for distribution among the needy, and especially to needy children. In this way many children are enabled to attend Sabbath-school during the winter who would otherwise have to remain at home for want of necessary clothing. The value of the clothing thus distributed last year was about $2500.

OTHER FORMS OF WORK.

In this subdivision are included various forms of labor incidental to the organization of mission schools and not referred to under the foregoing heads. Such are the holding of evangelistic or revival services, and of Bible or Sabbath-school Institutes; organizing Home Departments, Young People's Societies, and churches; establishing prayer meetings and regular preaching services; and encouraging and aiding chapel and church building. While this work has not been tabulated during the past year, it has formed a large and important part of the general missionary work, and has been followed by results which prove its importance and value.

THE ANNUAL CENSUS.

At the close of every fiscal year the department takes a census of the schools organized during the year preceding. From the census taken in March, 1898, of the schools organized between April, 1896, and April, 1897, it appears that the number organized in that year was 938, and that at the time of the census 709 of these schools were reported as living—437 being permanent throughout the year and 272 were summer schools only; 211 had lapsed, and eighteen had not been heard from. From the schools of that year fifty-six churches had been organized.

REPRINTS OF FORMER PUBLICATIONS.

In addition to the foregoing, reprints of twenty-seven bound volumes, and of eighty-one tracts and books in paper covers have been issued.

PERIODICALS.

(1) LESSON HELPS.

The Westminster Teacher, is issued monthly. It is prepared specifically for the teachers and officers of Sabbath-schools, and is used also by many Bible-class scholars. It contains full expositions of the International Bible Lessons. It is published in octavo form, each number containing from 40 to 48 pages, with cover. Price, single copy by mail, per annum, 60 cents; school subscriptions to one address, 50 cents per copy.

The Westminster Question Book, though included in the list of "Bound Volumes," belongs also among Lesson Helps. After the present year it will be discontinued.

The Westminster Senior Quarterly, is adapted to older scholars, and is used also in advanced and Bible classes. It is issued quarterly, and each number contains full lesson work for the three months, with Order of Service, Map, Bible Dictionary, Hymns and Music, and other valuable matter. Each number contains forty-two pages. School subscriptions to one address, 12 cents a year; single copies, 20 cents.

The Westminster Intermediate Quarterly, is designed for scholars of intermediate grade. It contains full lesson text, with notes, questions, and practical teachings. In it are found also Map, Order of Service, Hymns with Music, and Bible Dictionary, the same as in the Senior. It is the same size as the Senior Quarterly, containing 42 pages, and is furnished at the same rate—school subscriptions to one address, 12 cents a year; single copies, 20 cents.

The Westminster Junior Quarterly, is prepared for the little people in primary classes. School subscriptions to one address, 12 cents a year; single copies, 20 cents.

The Westminster Lesson Leaf, is prepared with special reference to intermediate and younger scholars. It is issued monthly, but is so arranged that, if desired, the leaves can be separated and distributed to scholars weekly. Each leaf contains one lesson complete with Scripture, Golden Text, Catechism, Lesson Story, Questions and Practical Teachings. School subscriptions to one address, 5 cents a year.

The Westminster Junior Lessons, is a neat leaf adapted to the young people. Illustrated. It is issued weekly in the same form and at the same price as the Westminster Lesson Leaf.

The Westminster Lesson Card, has reached a great circulation. It contains a brightly colored lithographic picture, illustrating the lesson of the day, with Lesson Title, Golden Text, Lesson Hymn, Lesson Story and Questions. It is adapted in grade to the younger children and to primary classes. The price for school subscriptions to one address is 12 cents a year, or 3 cents a quarter. Single sets, 20 cents a year.

The German Lesson Leaf, was intended specifically for the Sabbath-schools of our German congregations. It is published monthly. The price is the same as the Westminster Lesson Leaf.

As arrangements have been made by the German Presbyterian Publishing Company, of Dubuque, Ia., for preparing and issuing a full series of Lesson Helps in German, it has been decided to transfer to this company the German Lesson Leaf from and after July 1, of this year. We believe that this arrangement will prove entirely satisfactory to our German Sabbath-schools.

(2) ILLUSTRATED PAPERS.

Forward, is designed especially for young people in intermediate and senior grades, and is adapted for reading in the home and by young people in general. It was announced in our Report of last year that, beginning with July 1, 1897, the paper would be doubled in size, without any addition to the subscription price. The paper in its enlarged form has been well received throughout the country, and the subscription list has greatly increased. The cheapness of Forward brings it within the reach of all. In clubs it costs less than one cent a number. School subscriptions, 50 cents a year; single subscriptions, 75 cents.

The Sabbath-school Visitor, is the oldest of the periodicals of the Board. It is adapted to a younger class of readers than Forward. It is an illustrated four-page paper, each number containing attractive and interesting matter adapted to children. It is published weekly. It may, however, be taken once or twice a month, if preferred. Single subscriptions, per year, 50 cents; fortnightly, 30 cents; monthly, 20 cents. School subscriptions to one address, per year, weekly, 30 cents; fortnightly, 16 cents; monthly, 8 cents.

The Morning Star, is issued to meet the demand in many schools for a paper at small cost. It is of the same quality, grade and style as The Visitor, but it is only half the size. It is issued every week, but it may be taken once or twice a month. Single subscriptions, per year, weekly, 25 cents; fortnightly, 15 cents; monthly, 10 cents. School subscriptions, to one address, per year, weekly, 15 cents; fortnightly, 8 cents; monthly, 4 cents.

Sunbeam, is a four-page, finely illustrated, weekly paper for very little people. No subscriptions are taken for less than a month. Single subscriptions, 30 cents. School subscriptions, to one address, 20 cents a year for each scholar.

III. BUSINESS DEPARTMENT.

This department conducts all the business operations of the Board. Of these the most important are, first, the manufacture of books, tracts and periodicals, and secondly, the placing of the publications on the market.

PUBLICATIONS.

There have been published during the year 1,900,875 copies of books and tracts, and 43,139,816 copies of periodicals, which, together with 9000 copies of the Annual Report for the year ending March, 1897, make an aggregate of 45,049,691 publications for the year.

PLACING ON THE MARKET.

This work continues to be performed, as was reported last year, by advertising in the leading papers of our own and affiliated denominations throughout the country, and through the agency of the main store in Philadelphia, the depositories in Chicago and St. Louis, and seventeen branch houses, twelve of which are in our own land, four in British America, and one in England. These agencies, at the present time, are as follows:

DEPOSITORIES AND BRANCH HOUSES.

Albany, N.Y., The Leonard Publishing Co., The De Graaf Building, corner South Pearl and Beaver Streets.

Baltimore, Md., S. W. Harman, 320 North Charles Street.
Boston, Mass., H. D. Noyes & Co., 13½ Bromfield Street.
Buffalo, N.Y., Otto Ulbrich, 386 Main Street.
Chicago, Ill., Chicago Depository, H. S. Elliott, Manager, N. W. corner Randolph Street and Wabash Avenue.
Cincinnati, O., Western Tract Society, 420 Elm Street.
Cleveland, O., The Burrows Bros. Co., 133–137 Euclid Avenue.
Los Angeles, Cal., C. C. Parker, 246 South Broadway.
Montreal, Quebec, The William Drysdale Company, 232 St. James Street.
New York, N.Y., Ward & Drummond, 164 Fifth Avenue.
Pittsburgh, Pa., Board of Colportage, 706 Penn Avenue.
Portland, Ore., J. R. Ewing, 267 Morrison Street.
San Francisco, Cal., American Tract Society, 637 Market Street.
St. Louis, Mo., St. Louis Depository, Rev. J. W. Allen, D.D., Manager, 1516 Locust Street.
Syracuse, N.Y., W. A. Duncan & Co., 112 East Fayette Street.
Truro, N. S., D. H. Smith & Co.
Winnipeg, Manitoba, Russell & Co., 504 Main Street.
London, England, 14 Paternoster Square.

These houses, with the exception of the one in London, furnish all our publications at the Board's catalogue prices.

Our periodicals are still further brought to the attention of churches and Sabbath-schools by circulars addressed to pastors and Sabbath-school superintendents. Our missionaries also bring all classes of our publications to the notice of those who dwell in missionary districts.

Sales.

The sales for the year in books and tracts were $121,755.92. This amount, as it includes credit sales, does not agree with the Treasurer's account, which account exhibits only cash received. The Treasurer's account includes cash received for the sales of the current year, and also cash received for the credit sales of preceding years.

The amount received during the year for the sale of periodicals was $207,258.04.

The Hymnal.

The Hymnal continues to meet with gratifying success. It has already been adopted by about 600 Presbyterian churches throughout the country. The sales have reached nearly 100,000 copies, and orders for the book are coming in with great frequency.

Free Libraries.

In accordance with a recommendation of the General Assembly, the Board, during the year ending March 31, 1898, distributed 135 Free Libraries to needy ministers, churches and Sabbath-schools, and also to other deserving objects, in thirty States and Territories. The number of volumes distributed was 9513; their value at former catalogue prices was $6689.42.

It is contemplated to continue these donations until the stock to which the recommendation of the General Assembly had relation shall be exhausted. Applications for such libraries should be made directly to the Secretary, the Rev. E. R. Craven, D.D.

Net Profits.

The net profits of the year were $31,047.04. Of this sum two-thirds, or $20,698.03, has been placed to the credit of the Sabbath-school and Missionary Fund, in accordance with the direction of the General Assembly. The remaining third, or $10,349.01, has been added to the capital.

Capital.

The capital at the beginning of the year, according to the balance sheet of the last Report, was $341.623.02. This amount included the real estate formerly occupied by the Board, Nos. 1334-1336 Chestnut street, which stood upon the books at the original cost price, $151,626.42, and also included the value of the perpetual policies of insurance thereon, amounting to $4720—a total of $156,346.42.

When this real estate was sold these amounts were charged off from the books of the Business department, thereby reducing the amount that previously had appeared as the capital of the Business department to the sum of $185,275.60. To this sum is now added one-third of the net profits of the year, thus making the active capital now employed in the business, as reported in the balance sheet, $195,624.61.

IV. THE CHURCH AT HOME AND ABROAD.

At the request of the Committee appointed by the General Assembly, the Board continues to be the publisher of The Church at Home and Abroad. The relations of the Board to this magazine are different, however, from those which it sustains to the other periodicals which it publishes.

The editor of the magazine is selected by the Assembly's Committee, and he works under its general direction, as does also the Board itself in this particular. The Board is an agent, rather than the principal, in its publication, and assumes no pecuniary responsibility in reference thereto.

No charge has been made by the Board for anything except actual expenditures directly on account of the magazine, and every effort has been adopted, through the machinery of the Board, to further the success of the enterprise.

The amount of receipts* on account of the magazine for the year was $14,463,54. The number of copies published was 180,000.

A balance of $3048.67 now stands against this magazine in the books of the Treasurer.

Abstract of Twenty-eighth Annual Report.

APPLICATIONS.

Although nearly as many inquiries and informal requests as in past years reached the Board, the number of formal applications was only 196, or 20 less than last year. Of these 138 were to the General Fund, 127 being for grants, 9 for loans without interest and 2 for both grants and loans, and the aggregate amount asked for was $69,983. To the Manse Fund there were 39 applications, two of which were for grants, the total amount applied for being $16,380. To the Loan Fund there were 19 applications, asking loans to the amount of $50,350. To these, however, must be added the applications to the General Fund that, although reaching the Board during the previous year, were postponed on account of lack of funds. These numbered 25 and aggregated $13,475.

Thus the total demand was actually for $151,788 and from 221 churches as against $147,292 from 216 churches last year.

APPROPRIATIONS.

1. General Fund.—From this fund there have been during the year 127 grants aggregating $58,609, and 20 loans, without interest, aggregating $10,400. As in three instances both grant and loan were made, the number of churches represented is 144.

The grants exceed those of the previous year by 33, and in amount by $14,339, but the loans are fewer by 10, and less in amount by $5653. Taking grants and loans together the number, is 147, as against 126 the previous year, and in amount $69,009, as against $60,323, an advance of 17 per cent. in number and of nearly 15 per cent. in amount. The average amount of the grants was $470.61 and of the loans $500.

In addition 18 churches received through this fund special gifts to the amount of $1607.88, making a total in this department of 162 churches and $70,616.88.

These appropriations and gifts have reached 30 Synods, 107 Presbyteries and 36 States or Territories. Minnesota has received the largest number, 12; California, 11; Pennsylvania, Kansas and Nebraska, 9 each; Michigan, 8; and North Carolina, Missouri and Colorado, 7 each.

The Board is gratified that it is able to add that the year closes in this department under much more favorable circumstances than a year ago. Then it was obliged to report that action upon 25 applications, aggregating $13,475, had been postponed from want of funds. This year, although commencing burdened with the arrears of the preceding, closes with a small balance in the treasury.

2. Loan Fund.—From this fund there have been made 16 loans, aggregating $41,600, an advance upon the previous year of 6 in number and of $7850 in amount.

They were widely distributed, viz.: in the East, Massachusetts, 2; Pennsylvania, 2; and Maryland, 1; in the Central States, Ohio, Wisconsin and Michigan, each 1; in the West, Missouri, Nebraska and Colorado, each 2; and Iowa and Montana, each 1.

3. Manse Fund.—The appropriations during the present year from this fund were 35, amounting to $14,150. Omitting one grant of $100, the average amount loaned to each church was $413.23. The loans slightly exceeded those of last year, but the amount granted was $610 less. There was one "special" gift of $55.

SUMMARY.

Looking at the work as a whole and uniting the results in the three departments specified, the number of churches reached in one form or another was 213, and the full amount appropriated $126,421.88.

The aggregate receipts in all departments were $137,349.73 and the disbursements, including grants, loans and expenses, were $129,040.13.

During the year there were also reported to the Board as completed through its aid 177 churches and manses, representing an aggregate value of $423,827.

RETROSPECT.

In compliance with the request of the General Assembly's Entertainment Committee that this Board should contribute to the "exhibit" to be made at the Assembly of the scope and progress of the Presbyterian Church, the Board has prepared a large chart which displays the progress of its work since its first inception in 1844.

An examination of this chart will show that at one time or another the work has been carried into every State and Territory of the Union; that there have been 7675 appropriations to 6305 churches; that the aggregate of the appropriations has been $3,814,139 and of the actual payments $3,492,320.69; that the value of the property thus secured is not less than $14,000,000, and that while there have been fluctuations in the advance, yet upon the whole there has been a steady progress onward. It is interesting to notice a reflection of the history of our country in the constant lengthening of the lines of the chart from left to right as the years advance and also in the gap in the years from 1861 to 1867 in the columns representing the Southern States of the Union from which we were then divided.

THE FUTURE.

Such having been the history of the work and such the manifest blessing of God upon its progress, can we doubt that it is the divine will that the Church shall still carry it forward as an accepted agency in the upbuilding of the kingdom of its Lord and Master.

If in response to such obligation each congregation would remember to do its part in replenishing the central treasury from which the needed supplies are again distributed, there would be enough to meet every legitimate demand.

It is the prayer of this Board that these anticipations may not be disappointed and that in the onward movement it may be enabled by the sympathy, the counsel and the generous gifts of the congregations to bear its full share to the honor and glory of the Divine Master.

OFFICE:

Witherspoon Building, Philadelphia, Pa.

Abstract of the Forty-third Annual Report.

NEW QUARTERS.

We are greatly delighted to report to the General Assembly, that in the month of December the Board moved into the new rooms provided for it on the fifth floor of the Witherspoon Building, 1319 Walnut street. Here we have ample accommodations, furnished to the Board free of rent by the Board of Publication and Sabbath-school Work. These rooms are bright and cheerful and supplied with all the facilities for carrying on the work of the Board, and for storing systematically its rapidly accumulating records, of present value in the conduct of our work, and of prospective historic value in the preparation of individual biographies.

These rooms have been neatly and comfortably furnished by friends of the Board without drawing upon its treasury for a single dollar.

ROLL.

We have upon our roll for the year ending March 31, 1898, 875 names; 342 ministers, 472 widows, 29 orphan families, 1 widow of a medical missionary, 7 female missionaries and 24 guests in the Ministers' House at Perth Amboy, N. J. Forty-five annuitants died during the year. We have 103 honorably retired ministers on the roll, whose average age is 78.2, and whose average service has been 45.9 years. The average amount paid all annuitants was $205.69.

THE SITUATION ONE YEAR AGO.

Two years ago the Board reported an indebtedness of $9673, and last year a debt of $20,911, and we feared from the way the roll was increasing and the collections from the churches were decreasing, that, if the same conditions prevailed for another year, we would be compelled to report a deficiency on the payments of the year just closed of $30,000, which, with the indebtedness of last year, would make a total deficit of over $50,000. This calculation rested upon the following facts and figures:

The average yearly increase in our payments for twenty-one years had been $5856, and the church collections for nine years had been decreasing! For several years the Board kept warning the churches of these conditions and declared that a serious cut in the grants to our annuitants would necessarily have to be made.

In 1875 the interest of the churches in this sacred cause seemed to slacken and every appropriation was reduced just one-half; 69 families applied for aid which could not be received upon the roll, and at that time there were but 384 families receiving aid.

In 1876 one-fourth of all appropriations was withheld.

In 1885 the Board again found it necessary to withhold one-fourth until in funds to pay appropriations in full.

The distress occasioned by these several reductions was so unspeakably severe that the Board hesitated long about making another such blood-letting cut; but the condition of things a year ago made it absolutely imperative to resort to this intensely severe action again, hoping that the churches might be aroused to a sense of their responsibility to this sacred cause and furnish means before the end of the year to pay all appropriations in full.

THE PRESENT CONDITION OF THE BOARD.

Prior to the last meeting of the General Assembly the Board of Relief by the direction of former Assemblies had placed all the legacies it received in the Permanent Fund, and used only the interest thereof in the payment of the current expenses; but as all the other Boards of the Church were permitted to use unrestricted legacies in payment of current expenses, the Board of Relief last year asked for the same privilege, and it was unanimously granted by the Assembly.

As the churches and individuals throughout the Church began to realize the intense suffering inflicted by withholding one-fourth of the appropriations made to our annuitants, they began to contribute more generously to this hallowed cause. Whilst 3198 churches gave no contribution to the Board last year, it is gratifying to know that 4126 churches remembered the suffering ones and sent in their contributions. This is 594 more churches than ever contributed to the Board in any previous year. As the fiscal year was drawing to a close the contributions came in more rapidly, and we also received a considerable number of unrestricted legacies; and when we closed our books for the fiscal year, ending March 31, 1898, the showing was as follows:

Contributions from Churches and Sabbath-schools,	$74,091 20	$83,164 62
Contributions from Individuals,	13,922 91	15,743 41
Interest from Permanent Fund,	70,985 62	69,134 04
Interest from Deposits in Bank,	831 56	869 20
Interest from Anniversary Reunion Fund, and Special Funds held by the Synod of Ohio and other Trustees,	1,024 79	331 52
Unrestricted Legacies,		27,893 74
	$160,856 08	$197,136 53

This showed a gain over the previous year in church collections of $9073.42 and also a gain in individual contributions of $1820.50; and the receipts for the Current Fund from all sources, as shown in the Treasurer's account, $197,136.53.

This amount of receipts enabled the Board with glad hearts to pass the following resolution repealing the painful Withholding Act:

"With sincere gratitude to the Giver of all good, the Board would record the fact that by His favor it finds itself at the close of the year (by the use of unrestricted legacies, as authorized by the General Assembly of 1897, and the funds for current use received from other sources), with sufficient funds not only to meet the claims of its beneficiaries, but also to pay to those of them whose allowances the Board was obliged to reduce, the amount of the reduction.

It is, "therefore, Resolved, That relying with great confidence upon the liberality of the Church in supplying the needs of the Board, and believing the Head of the Church has placed anew His seal upon its work, the Treasurer be directed at once to remit, as an act of justice, to the persons from whose annual allowance a reduction of 25 per cent. was made, the amount so deducted, and enter it in his accounts as of March 31, 1898."

We are exceedingly glad to report that the Board has paid all appropriations in full for the year ending March 31, 1898, and that it closed its books absolutely free of all debt, and had a small working balance of $6526 with which to start the new year. This amount is what is left of the unrestricted legacies received during the year.

THE OUTLOOK.

Whilst the Permanent Fund of the Board now amounts to $1,532,449.62, it can readily be perceived that the interest on that amount will not pay one-half of our annuities. The interest on this Fund last year amounted to $69,134, but the demands on the treasury amounted to $190,609.91, leaving $121,475.04 to be raised from other sources. Whilst the Assembly has given the Board the right to use unrestricted legacies to pay our annuitants, these legacies are a very uncertain quantity and we cannot make calculations on having any definite amount to use in any one year. Our individual contributions are also a very uncertain quantity. They have varied in the last thirteen years from $10,771 to $21,048 a year. We are, therefore, largely shut up to the collections in our churches as our main dependence.

As before stated, the average yearly increase in our payments for the last twenty-one years has been $5856. We must have, therefore, a constant increase in our church collections, or we must proportionately decrease the yearly appropriations to our annuitants, and that is an extremely undesirable and painful thing to do.

GOOD WORK THAT CAN BE DONE.

1. Let our Synods at their annual meetings take up this sacred cause with new interest.

Look at the contributions from the various Synods to the Board, as shown in our Annual Report, and see, in most instances, the large sums drawn out from the Board in proportion to the amounts contributed, and it is self-evident that the Synods in general should make much larger contributions to the Board than they have been in the habit of making.

Business closely crowds the hours of the various Synods we all know full well, but we know just as well that want and distress crowd the hours, the days, the months, the whole year through, of the honored men who have given all their energies to the upbuilding of our beloved Church, and their rights and necessities demand most serious consideration.

2. The Presbyteries can aid wonderfully in stirring up the churches to take collections for this hallowed cause by observing the directions of the last General Assembly, which require that every church Session appoint a Special Committee on the Board of Relief, consisting of representatives of every organization in each church: the Women's Societies, the Young People's Associations, the Sabbath-schools, etc. Let the Presbyteries take special charge of this matter and see to it that a collection is taken for this cause every year in every church.

The Presbytery can induce many more Sessions to have collections taken in their churches for this holy work by insisting that the directions of the last General Assembly be carried out, and by calling upon all the Sessions to report to Presbytery why they have not taken collections wherever there has been a failure to do so, and by giving them to understand that their reasons for neglect or failure to take a collection will not be sustained unless the reasons are special, providential and satisfactory.

3. Presbyterial Committees can do a work that is well worth doing by correspondence with the churches in each Presbytery, and using their influence to have every church in every Presbytery take a collection every year. It may be troublesome to the Committee, but the cause is Christ's. We are all working for Him, and what we do for Him will have its sweet reward.

4. Church Sessions are mainly responsible for the large number of churches that fail every year to remember this blessed beneficence.

The appointment of Committees last year in individual churches in many cases was attended with gratifying results. One Committeeman wrote to us that in addition to the regular church collection, by personal solicitation he collected for the Board $145 from individuals. Ladies' Societies sent boxes of clothing to needy families last year valued at $3649; Young People's Societies and Sabbath-schools have taken collections when the churches failed to do so.

The Board was organized October 21, 1876. Let Sessions ask their people to make the 21st of October in each year Self-denial Day, and give the savings of that day to this Board. This is not asking too much of our people when the 875 families on the roll of the Board, in many instances, are compelled to deny themselves 365 days in the year.

5. Let pastors cease to take it for granted that the people generally are well posted on the work this Board is trying to do, and fully inform the people each year of the imperative necessity of increasingly larger collections in order that our great Church may do what is honorable and magnanimous to our aged and honored ministers and their needy households

The old men who have expended all their working forces for the Church have earned a support from the Church as long as they live, and it ought not to be given to them sparingly and grudgingly.

6. Individuals all over the Church can be induced to contribute generously to this Board if the matter is fairly presented to them. The sacred cause appeals to every sense of compassion, and honor, and justice, and many of our wealthy people are glad to contribute freely to it whenever its wants are clearly and personally laid before their minds and hearts by our faithful pastors.

THE ADMINISTRATION OF THE BOARD.

The members of the Board can truthfully say that they administer the affairs of the Board faithfully, conscientiously and fairly, and out of sincere love for the delightful work.

As it is the custom of many business corporations, having trust funds to handle, to employ experts periodically to audit their books and accounts, the Board thought it was justified in pursuing a similar course, and it secured the services of Messrs. John Heins & Co., professional experts of high standing for this purpose, and it is very gratifying to the Board that the report of these experts is just what the members of the Board expected it would be, namely:

"We hereby certify that we have audited the cash account and bank account of your Treasurer, Rev. W. W. Heberton, for the two fiscal years ended March 31, 1898, inclusive, and found the same to have been carefully, correctly and very creditably kept. JOHN HEINS & Co."

We are sure the report of these experts will be most gratifying to our whole Church.

THE MINISTERS' HOUSE.

The Ministers' House at Perth Amboy, N. J., is beautifully located in the centre of eleven acres of wooded land, and has accommodations for twice as many guests as we have ever had there at any one time.

A minister and his wife may be admitted there in lieu of a money appropriation; the widow of a minister; a female missionary from the home or foreign field; a medical missionary, or any one entitled to receive aid from the Board who is without means of support, and who can be accommodated there with the facilities at our command.

It is not a hospital and we do not have the means to make it such, but it is a delightful home for aged people.

To gain admission to the House, it is necessary to apply to the Presbyterial Committee on the Board of Relief, and have that Committee recommend the applicant to Presbytery as a suitable person to be granted a residence in the House. This recommendation must be approved by Presbytery and forwarded to the Board. Then, if the Board approves the application, the person is granted a free residence there from year to year upon the annual renewal of the Presbytery and the approval of the Board.

DEATH OF DR. CATTELL.

The Presbyterian Board of Relief, at its monthly meeting, held February 17, 1898, unanimously adopted an appropriate minute with reference to the Rev. William C. Cattell, D.D., LL.D., who departed this life on the 11th day of the same month, at his home in Philadelphia.

ELECTIONS.

The term of service of the following Directors expires at this meeting of the Assembly: Rev. Henry E. Niles, D.D., Rev. Marcus A. Brownson, D.D.—who was elected to fill the unexpired term of Rev. William M. Paden, D.D., who resigned from the membership in the Board on account of his removal to Salt Lake City—George Junkin, Esq., LL.D., and A. Charles Barclay, Esq.

Robert C. Ogden, Esq., of the class whose term expires May, 1899, resigned from membership in the Board on account of his removal to New York City, and Joseph M. Collingwood, Esq., of the class whose term expires in May, 1900, resigned on account of the failure of his health. The Board elected the following gentlemen to fill, until this meeting of the General Assembly, the vacancies caused by the acceptance of these resignations: Francis Olcott Allen, Esq., of Philadelphia, to fill the place of Mr. Ogden, and Robert H. Smith, Esq., of Baltimore, Md., to fill the place of Mr. Collingwood. These vacancies are to be filled by this Assembly.

All of which is respectfully submitted,

By order of the Board,

B. L. AGNEW, Corresponding Secretary.

FORM OF BEQUEST.

The laws of the different States vary so much as to testamentary bequests that in making a will it is always desirable to secure the services of a competent lawyer. In all cases, however, where bequests are made to this Board, the corporate name should be used as follows:

"THE PRESBYTERIAN BOARD OF RELIEF FOR DISABLED MINISTERS, AND THE WIDOWS AND ORPHANS OF DECEASED MINISTERS."

VII. BOARD OF MISSIONS FOR FREEDMEN.

MEMBERS.

Term expires 1899:

Abstract of the Thirty-third Annual Report.

The Barber Memorial Seminary, which was reported to the Assembly last year as the gift of Mrs. Phineas M. Barber, was totally destroyed by fire before the adjournment of the last General Assembly. The building was amply insured and without additional cost to the Board, save the small item of reinsurance, was rebuilt under the superintendence of Rev. George A. Marr, a brother of Mrs. Barber, and placed at the service of the Board, January 1, 1898.

Work at Mary Holmes Seminary, West Point, Miss., and at Mary Allen Seminary at Crockett, Tex., was delayed in the early fall, because of the prevalence of yellow fever in that general section of the country.

Biddle University, at Charlotte, N. C., suffered a distinct loss in the unexpected death of Rev. William H. Brooks, D.D., the efficient and valuable principal of the preparatory department of the university, who died of pneumonia on December 15, 1897.

The $11,000 additional which the General Assembly urged the Church to contribute to the work was not received, but on the contrary our income from all sources declined $3228 as compared with the previous year. The estimates of the cost of the work for the year came reasonably near the figures we had fixed upon; but not only did the amount we had counted on as receiving fall below our anticipations, but a considerable part of our reduced receipts came in a form not immediately applicable to the work, such as was for permanent funds, or as designated for some expenditure not anticipated by the Board, but of such a character as hardly to admit of objection to by the Board. In this way our total indebtedness, instead of being diminished, was increased $1787. Our debt now consists in loans from bank and from individuals amounting to $55,062.50, and a mortgage upon one of our buildings for $3000, making a total of $58,062.50.

We cannot reproach ourselves for any reckless expenditure of funds placed at our command. We have reduced our work to a point where it would seem that a further reduction would in many places destroy it entirely. We have cut down salaries to where we can cut no more. We have pushed economy to the verge of parsimony. This year we have spent less in scholarships and general work; less in real estate; less in field salaries; less in office salaries; less in rent and stationery; less in printing. There has been no one year in the last nine years in which we have received less, and it is also true that there has been no one year in the last nine years in which we have spent less.

We have a large amount of property scattered through the South worth hundreds of thousands of dollars. This property needs constant care. The natural wear and tear calls yearly for an expenditure of repair money as a matter of sound economy and good management, but in many cases our property has been greatly injured from the lack of timely expenditure of a moderate sum of money—all in order that we might save a few dollars with which to pay the small monthly salaries of ministers and teachers on which they were depending for their living.

The ingatherings to the churches have been encouraging. The growth of the work—so far as we would let it grow—has been healthy.

The churches, the Women's Societies, the Young People's Societies and the Sabbath-schools all gave more this year than last. And all together have increased the sum total of their contributions $6138. The loss has come from a decrease in legacies—lower than has been for ten years—and a decline in miscellaneous and individual gifts. The Freedmen's Department of the Woman's Board of Home Missions exceeded their offerings of last year by over $3600, sending us $45,108 this year as compared with $41,491 last year.

Dr. Weaver has during the year rendered diligent services as special agent for Biddle University, and from very many sources we have received expressions of the highest appreciation of his work, but the results so far have not added materially to our receipts.

Abstract of the Fifteenth Annual Report.

The Unparalleled Calamity.

The Board supposed on Tuesday, July 6, 1897, that it held a large amount in cash and securities; the next day it learned that $45.12 constituted its entire assets, the Treasurer, Mr. Charles M. Charnley, having embezzled the remaining $61,239.06.

Mr. Charnley was appointed a member of the Board by the General Assembly of 1883, which organized it. He was chosen its first Treasurer, and served eight years without salary. After the wreck of his business, caused by his assuming the liabilities of an erring relative to shield him from criminal punishment, the Board paid him a small salary. He was the Board's nursing-mother, carrying it in his heart and arms, acquainting himself with every detail of its work, advancing money freely in its seasons of low receipts, and, though burdened with large business interests, giving it unstinted time and labor.

It was suddenly discovered in July that Mr. Charnley had lost his property by a series of calamities, had been speculating on the Board of Trade through brokers, and had embezzled the funds and securities of the Board, funds of his church, other trust funds, an estate of which he was executor, and other funds and securities of relatives, friends and business associates. His deceptions of the Auditing Committee of this Board were found to have been amazingly skillful, including the forging of a certified check for $24,000. The officers of the Board forced Mr. Charnley's confession and resignation, declined to consider proposals to accept money to let him go, assured his not escaping, and called a meeting of the Board. The Board placed the case in the hands of the surety company which was on Mr. Charnley's bond, and they took him in custody. While in their custody and while the case was in preparation for the Grand Jury he escaped. Every effort has been made to trace and arrest him, but not a clew has yet been discovered.

The Gracious Deliverance.

When the calamity became known there was widespread desire to help. An honored friend loaned $10,000 for immediate necessities. Members of the Board, of Chicago Presbytery, and of the Synods of Illinois, Minnesota, Wisconsin and New Jersey, made prompt and generous contributions or subscriptions. Churches and individuals everywhere sent expressions of sympathy and confidence and unsolicited aid. From home and foreign mission fields, from rich churches and from struggling ones, from many loyal and generous hearts came kind words and gifts. Chairmen of Synodical and Presbyterial Committees rendered effective service. It is impossible to express the gratitude due to all these servants of God, and to the Lord whose Spirit moved them. They show convincingly the power of the grace of God in His Church. The Lord reward them.

Finances.

The goodness of God through His people has enabled the Board to close the year without a deficit, and, without using any of the ordinary income of the Board for the purpose, to replace nearly all the embezzled funds.

Expenses.

Notwithstanding large and unexpected expenses caused by the defalcation, the Board reduced its expenses 20 per cent. below those of the preceding year.

Institutions.

The Board has aided twenty-eight institutions. This has been, on the whole, the most prosperous year in their history. The number of students was 2733, being (for the same institutions) a gain of 16. There are gains over the preceding year of 23 College and 33 Academic students, of 141 in Systematic Bible Study, and of 105 in church members. There were 69 less in Classical study, 15 fewer credibly converted, and one less meaning to be ministers.

Their Needs.

Growing children need larger clothes. The Church must provide for these struggling children of hers larger buildings and more teachers, apparatus and libraries. It is pathetic to see a few teachers whose splendid work has attracted students endeavoring to handle too many pupils in crowded rooms with insufficient apparatus. We should suppose that the Presbyterian Church, the friend of learning and of the Word of God, would be anxious to aid such institutions. Doubtless the Church would if it knew about them; but certainly not one-third of our ministers, probably not one-tenth, have told their people about this work. The General Fund income of the Board should be at least $150,000 to handle the institutions now on its list.

Education Day.

More churches every year heed the recommendations of previous Assemblies to use a Sunday near the Day of Prayer for Schools and Colleges as Education Day, instructing their people regarding the place of the divine Word in true education. The rapid and complete secularization of our State schools and universities throughout the West, banishing the Holy Bible and prayer from the precincts of learning, should arouse our people to the peril of Western youth if our Christian institutions are not strongly reinforced. Our religious papers are doing admirable work in this behalf, and the situation is not without much promise. The general observation of Education Day would assure the instruction of our people on this subject.

In behalf of the Board,

E. C. RAY, Secretary.

Abstract of the Nineteenth Annual Report.

Your Committee would call the attention of the General Assembly to the actual condition of our missionary and benevolent work as indicated by the gifts of our various Boards during the past ten years. This can best be done by a series of tables* of statistics such as here follows:

CONTRIBUTING AND NON-CONTRIBUTING CHURCHES.

That the present plans for raising money for the missionary and benevolent work of the Presbyterian Church do not commend themselves to all of our pastors and church Sessions is clearly evident from an examination of the statement of the number of contributing and non-contributing churches, as indicated by Tables VI and VII.

‡ Report for 1897.

Your Committee has made a detailed examination of the gifts through church offerings to the eight Boards of the Church for the year 1896-1897.

CHURCHES CONTRIBUTING AND NOT CONTRIBUTING THROUGH CHURCH OFFERINGS TO THE BOARDS OF THE CHURCH, 1896-97.

During the year under review 1392 churches sent no offerings to any of the Boards; 1098 made one offering during the year; 625 churches two offerings; 485 three; 475 four; 541 five; 663 six; 903 seven; 1064 eight.

The fact that 3272 offerings reported by the Boards as church offerings were for one dollar or less, and that nine tenths of all the offerings made by churches making only one offering were for ten dollars or less, indicate that in many cases the taking of the offering was characterized by lack of method and enthusiasm.

Over one-half of the income from church offerings came from the 1064 churches that contributed to the eight Boards of the Church.

A STUDY OF THE TABLES INDICATES:

1. That less than one-half the number of church offerings are reported that should be taken if the recommendations of General Assembly were carried out.

2. That only one-sixth of the total number of church offerings that should be taken for the Boards of the Church are for sums of more than ten dollars.

3. That two-thirds of all the church offerings which are reported for our eight Boards are for ten dollars or less.

4. That 1064 churches report church offerings to each of the eight Boards.

5. That over one-half of the offerings of these churches were for ten dollars or less, as appears by the following table :

6. That most of the churches that are reported as making a church offering to each of the Boards secured this result by taking general offerings for missions and dividing the aggregate among the Boards of the Church.

7. That not more than seventy-five churches take distinct annual offerings for each of the eight Boards.

8. That nearly a third of the gifts to the eight Boards through church offerings is received during the month of March.

Your Committee are convinced that the annual anonymous plate collections for obtaining money to carry on the missionary and benevolent work of the Presbyterian Church does not have a tendency to develop a liberal and missionary church. That it encourages the membership of the church to offer unto the Lord the halt, the lame and blind, to make the well-to-do content with the widow's mite offering.

SHALL THE NUMBER OF BOARDS BE LESSENED ?

Your Committee are convinced that if the number of Boards could be lessened it would be in the interest of more liberal giving on the part of the membership of our churches, and, in order to bring this matter before the attention of the General Assembly, voted :

"In view of the fact that the various agencies now in existence for the collection of funds and the carrying out of the work of the Church have not distinct and well-defined fields and duties, so that different agencies are doing the same work and entering into rivalry one with another, to the lessening of the efficiency of the Church and the increasing beyond a proper proportion the cost of administration, and proving by experience detrimental to the success of all systematic beneficence on the part of the whole Church, it is recommended that the Assembly consider the advisability at this time of reducing the number of Boards, and so combining and coördinating the Boards as to remove all causes of weakness and loss of efficiency. Such changes must conserve the integrity and nature of all trusts and legacies held by any Boards, and the work now done by these agencies must be done under the agencies with which they have been merged."

Your Committee also, after careful consideration of the whole question, would respectfully ask, "That the General Assembly recommend to the churches under its care that all their beneficent gifts, however gathered, should pass through the hands of the Treasurer of the Session or other Treasurer regularly appointed for such purpose.

* Forty-five churches of Indiana and Illinois which contributed to the other seven Board made no report to the Home Board.

We desire to suggest a plan by which it is believed your Committee can coöperate effectively toward securing the end so long held in view, of a contribution every year from every church for every Board.

We suggest that your Committee shall be authorized to collect, month by month, from the several Boards of the Church a detailed statement on blanks provided for the purpose by your Committee of the church offerings received during the preceding month by such Boards or benevolent agencies. These monthly statements from each Board to be collected by the 5th of each month and by your Committee to be then collated so as to show for the different Synods and Presbyteries all the church offerings for the different Boards made during the preceding month, to be furnished to the respective Synodical Committees on Systematic Beneficence on or before the 10th of each month, and by them in turn to be furnished to the corresponding Committees of the Presbyteries within their bounds.

SUBSCRIPTION BLANKS AND ENVELOPES.

Your Committee would respectfully ask of the General Assembly to authorize your Special Committee on Systematic Beneficence to continue to issue subscription blanks and envelopes for the taking of offerings in accordance with the spirit of the sixth article of the Directory of Worship. That these envelopes be furnished free to all churches and congregations that will use them, the expense being borne pro rata according to the amounts received through church offerings by the Boards of the Church.

OTHER WORK OF THE COMMITTEE.

Your Committee has faithfully performed all the work committed to it by last General Assembly.

1. In regard to the Redstone Presbytery Plan. In the report of the Standing Committee on Systematic Beneficence to last General Assembly is the following reference to what is known as the "Redstone Presbytery Plan:" "Which in substance is the securing of pledges beforehand from all the members of our churches and congregations as to the amounts which they are willing to contribute to each of the Boards during the ecclesiastical year. Two cards are to be distributed about the 1st of March each year, upon which a column for each Board is provided. These cards when filled by the donors shall be returned, the one to the pastor and the other to the Session of the church, and by the Session sent to the Presbytery, and by the Presbytery transmitted to the Committee on Systematic Beneficence, for tabulation and presentation to the General Assembly as the pledge of the Presbyteries and churches for our benevolent work."

Your Committee has as carefully as possible, under the circumstances, considered this plan and believes it to have some desirable and practical features, and has concluded to recommend to the General Assembly the submission of this plan to the Committee on Systematic Beneficence, to be put into operation by them as far as they regard it desirable and practical.

2. In reference to popular meetings in behalf of Systematic Beneficence, your Committee duly held correspondence with the Chairmen of Committees of all Synods and Presbyteries looking to the holding of such popular meetings last fall. Most gratifying responses were received of promises of hearty coöperation in carrying out the plan recommended, many Synods and Presbyteries holding such meetings, and in very many cases the theme of the Moderator's sermon at the opening of the fall meeting of the Presbytery was on the subject of Systematic Beneficence.

3. In reference to subscription blanks and envelopes your Committee have furnished them free of expense to all Presbyteries applying for them for the purpose of securing large gifts for the work of the Church. About 80,000 subscription blanks and 100,000 envelopes have been sent out on request during the year.

4. In regard to leaflets. We have furnished a large number of leaflets for general distribution, viz.: the address of Hon. Ralph E. Prime on "Christian Benevolence," delivered before the Pan-Presbyterian Council at Glasgow; the English tract entitled "The Gift Bag," emphasizing the importance of every Christian setting apart regularly a fund from which the demands of Christian benevolence may be met; the address, "Systematic Giving," by Rev. John R. Davies, D.D., and "Consecration of Wealth," by Rev. George F. Pentecost, D.D.

SYNODICAL MISSIONS AND SUSTENTATION.

We have received a communication from the Executive Committee of Synodical Missions in the Synod of Pennsylvania asking that Synodical Missions should have a definite and due recognition in our work. Three points are specified at which Synodical Missions and Sustentation might with propriety have recognition.

1. In the matter of ratios. Now one hundred per cent. of the benevolences of the Church are divided among the Assembly's Boards. This leads to confusion in our churches relative to sustentation offerings, and results either in their entire neglect of this important cause or giving it the meagre gleanings of a special collection. The Committee ask for definite recognition of and a due place assigned to the large and growing work of sustentation in ratios approved.

2. In the matter of the assignment of a month to be set apart for contributions to Synodical Missions. The Committee suggest the month of November as being a convenient and acceptable month to the Synod of Pennsylvania.

3. In the matter of tabulated reports. In the tabulated reports made by our Committee, that Synodical Missions and Sustentation should not be omitted.

Your Committee would respectfully ask General Assembly, in view of the growing importance of the work of Synodical Missions and Sustentation, to give direction to your Committee in reference to this whole subject.

Respectfully submitted,

W. H. HUBBARD, Chairman.

THE WORK OF THE YEAR.

When this Committee was first called into existence, the able and faithful men who constituted its membership devised a plan of organization of our Church for Temperance work, which received the cordial approval of the Assembly, and our efforts have been directed towards its completion.

But unhappily the full measure of success hoped for has not been realized because of a missing link in the chain. We want the Sessional Temperance Committee or some such provision for the prosecution of this important work in the local field, and subject to the local church court. Without this the conflict with intemperance which is conducted by the Assembly's, the Synod's and the Presbytery's Committee will be a battle at long range and comparatively ineffective.

We have invoked the influence of the Presbyteries regarding this matter, and a large number have recommended to the Sessions under their jurisdiction the appointment of such Committee. The number of churches that have thus fallen into line is slowly increasing. To these Committees are being sent supplies of our literature.

Of the Temperance literature printed and circulated during the year we herewith submit samples. The aggregate amount is estimated at 900,000 pages.

In accordance with the recommendation of the General Assembly, our printed matter is furnished without expense to all applicants who give assurance of its judicious distribution. Had the necessary funds been supplied, a vastly larger amount of literature could thus have been put in circulation.

The reiterated directions of the General Assembly regarding the dissemination of Temperance literature, has been interpreted by your Committee as implying a high estimate of the value of the press as an engine of war in this conflict with the powers of darkness. The Presbyterian Board and the American Tract Society have issued good temperance literature; the publications of the National Temperance Society and of the Women's Christian Temperance Union are varied and valuable, and it is our endeavor to promote their circulation by directing intending purchasers to this source of supply. But this Committee is in hearty accord with the apparent conviction of the Assembly that if purchasers do not come fast enough the printed truth must nevertheless be scattered abroad.

Rigid economy has been practiced by the Committee as to office expenses, and we may be permitted to say that the largest offerings made for the maintenance of this work do not appear on the books of our Treasurer, being the contributions of time and labor rendered by the officers and members of the Committee who are by no means men of leisure.

Correspondence, which constitutes a most important part of the work devolved on us, has been steadily growing more extensive, until now it has become at least sixfold greater than ten years ago.

In a communication addressed to the Chairmen of Presbyterial Temperance Committees we have asked the attention of the Presbyteries to a measure pending in Congress known as the Ellis Bill, which aims at the suppression of liquor selling upon all government reservations, in the capitol, in immigrant stations, soldiers' homes, life-saving stations and military posts. The enactment of such a law would prove of much value.

The temperance narrative which the General Assembly expects each Presbytery to send to its Permanent Committee, and which should aid in supplying data for our Report, frequently arrives late, and too often comes not at all. We have before us, however, the Temperance reports made to the Synods, and combining this material with that which comes from the churches through the Presbyterial Temperance Committees, we are in possession of some facts—albeit rather meagre in some instances—regarding the Temperance situation in every State where our Church has an existence.

But within the limits of this brief Report little can be attempted beyond securing a glimpse of the attitude maintained by our churches in the conflict with intemperance, the effort put forth and the successes or reverses experienced. And as to results achieved, statements cannot be very definite.

Early in February a brief list of questions was sent out, accompanied by a letter addressed to pastors and Sessions. Seven thousand copies were mailed. The Committee aims in this way to aid Presbyterial Temperance Committees in collecting data; also to remind the brethren everywhere of this Temperance agency of our Church, and to suggest and haply stimulate Temperance effort in the churches. The following are the questions sent forth:

I. Have you organized for Temperance work by appointment of Temperance Committee by the Session, or in the Young People's Society, or by the formation of a Temperance Society in the church or Sabbath-school, or among the women, or in any other way?

II. Please state what means have been used in your congregation to foster Temperance sentiment and combat the drink evil—as sermons and addresses, Sabbath-school lessons, the pledge, Temperance tracts or papers, Temperance books in library, contribution of funds, petitions driving out saloons or keeping them out by remonstrances in the courts or votes at the polls, etc., etc.

III. Do Temperance sentiment and the practice of total abstinence seem to be on the increase among your people and in your community?

IV. Is the law requiring scientific Temperance instruction in the public schools being faithfully observed?

V. Facts and suggestions on other points.

The reports which have been returned to us consist in the main of answers to these questions, but not exclusively so. The report for the Presbytery of Lansing gives prominence to the observance of Temperance Day, and earnestly pleads that the Assembly emphasize its importance—a suggestion which your Committee second with great heartiness. Ten of the Synods at their last meetings reiterated their recommendations on this subject.

In two or three Presbyterial reports the use of unfermented wine at the communion table is mentioned, and on this point also three of the Synods gave utterance. The Synod of Pennsylvania reaffirms the deliverance of the Assembly that the unfermented fruit of the vine fulfills every condition in the celebration of the sacrament, leaving the individual Sessions and churches freedom of action.

It is with gratification that we note that some reports emphasize the importance of Sabbath-school Temperance work. The admirable adaptation of the Sabbath-school for the work of inculcating the Temperance teachings of God's Word upon the young is manifest, but not less patent is the fact that it comes sadly short of the desired results.

Most earnestly do we appeal to the great army of Presbyterian Sunday-school teachers, 114,000 strong, that they do their utmost to save our youth from the awful peril of intemperance.

Regarding Organization for Temperance Work.—But two Presbyteries report that all or nearly all Sessions within their bounds have complied with the Assembly's recommendation by appointing Sessional Temperance Committees. In about one-fourth of the reporting Presbyteries no beginning has yet been made. As compared with last year, however, there is an encouraging increase in the number of Sessional Committees and Temperance societies in church or Sabbath-school.

Regarding Means Used.—In reply to our second inquiry, some report the use of all the means and measures mentioned in the question. Almost every church has had Temperance taught from the pulpit and in the Sabbath-school. In very many the Young People's societies have given prominence to the subject. Some have the weekly prayer meeting at regular intervals devoted to this object. One church in New York City maintains a rescue mission which is kept open every night in the year. Meetings of church or Sabbath-school Temperance societies with addresses, distribution of literature and presentation of pledge, illustrated lectures, observance of Temperance Day, funds contributed, petitions and remonstrances, local option campaign work, enforcement of laws, Anti-saloon League efforts, votes at the primaries and polls—these and other means reported by large numbers indicate that there has been much activity during the past year.

Various Synods and Presbyteries heartily commend the Anti-saloon League, which has rapidly extended its organization during the year. Though not as yet successful in any State-wide project, its local victories have been numerous, and good hope is entertained that by unifying hitherto divided Temperance elements valuable results in State and national legislation may ultimately be secured. We bid this omnipartisan and interdenominational organization a hearty Godspeed.

Regarding Increase of Temperance Sentiment and Practice.—While laboring diligently for legal prohibition of the traffic, it is imperatively necessary that we shall prepare a foundation of public sentiment, on which such legislation may rest. In fact law is but crystallized sentiment, and public sentiment even prior to such crystallization may effectually dominate the community.

The consensus of opinion as represented in these reports is very clearly to the effect that within the Church there is a rise in Temperance sentiment and practice. Regarding the community outside many seem to be in doubt. Some say, "In the country—Yes. In the towns—No." In districts where there is a large foreign element Temperance principles find little favor.

"This is a lamentation, and shall be for a lamentation," that any member of our beloved Church should have been an aider and abettor of the iniquitous traffic. In more than one Presbytery, as these reports tell us, such offenses have come. Our faces mantle with shame at the fact that several ruling elders and one minister of the gospel have been implicated; and, by one Presbyterial Temperance Chairman, the fact is deplored that the effort at administration of discipline was met and obstructed by the contention that the utterance of the General Assembly on this point, though as explicit as possible, has not the force of law. "When shall we have Presbyterian law on this subject?" is his anxious inquiry, which we respectfully refer to the General Assembly.

Most earnestly do we make our appeal to the thousands of worthy people who have heretofore implicitly accepted the license system, that they give the subject thorough investigation. Limited space precludes the presentation in detail here, of the proofs that license is wrong in principle and futile in practice, but the evidence is accessible to all.

Regarding Observance of Scientific Temperance Instruction Laws.—As compared with reports of preceding years, the answers on this point are encouraging. While some still continue to reply, "Don't know," there is a greatly increased number who have given this matter attention, and seem to realize that the imparting of this instruction may prove the means of fortifying these little ones against the allurements of the intoxicating cup and the pernicious cigarette.

In New Jersey, where this law is of recent enactment, the Presbyterial reports generally represent it as faithfully observed; also in New York, where a valuable mandatory provision was lately added. In ninety districts of that State failure to obey the law has lately been punished by forfeiture of State appropriation. Two California Presbyteries speak rather doubtfully, and one large Presbytery in Pennsylvania reports the teaching as perfunctory, but a Michigan report says, "Well enforced and wholesome. The influence of this instruction is already bearing most excellent fruit in the thought and habits of the rising generation." The new law in Illinois is working admirably.

With the deep solicitude expressed regarding our young men in college, it is needless to say that we are in most hearty sympathy, but it is our present contention and plea that all solicitude must not be expended on them, but that those in earlier life shall be permitted to share in it. Save the children!

The going out of a youth from the encircling influence of a Christian home cannot but be to parents and friends an occasion of deep and anxious interest, and there are special perils in college life, as there have ever been, which ought to engage attention and inspire prayerful solicitude. Regarding those special sources and occasions of evil influence complained of by so many of our Synods and Presbyteries, it is ground for gratulation that some offenses have been removed, and some unfavorable conditions in college life are being corrected, and it will now be the desire of all to strengthen the hands of that element in the management which aims at such a consummation.

The attention of the last Assembly was cited and expression solicited as to the pernicious custom of college wine-banquets. While it was not alleged that in any institution amenable to the Assembly's authority such custom prevailed, yet your Committee conceived it to be fit and important to the cause that our Church should by explicit utterance contribute her quota towards the establishment of a just and regnant public sentiment on this subject.

Parents should beware lest the moral and spiritual interests be subordinated to the intellectual. But even if any parent were inclined, in this investigation, only to ask which college will best promote his son's success in his professional or business career, he should reflect that whatever else a college does for its student, if it sends him out addicted, even moderately, to the use of intoxicants, that student has thus been heavily handicapped for the race he must run. In the fierce competition now prevalent in trade, in manufactures and in the professions, the sound health, clear intellect, cool brain and steady nerves of the total abstainer will steadily forge to the front.

TESTIMONY OF EXPERIENCE AND SCIENCE.

The railway companies and insurance companies will be acquitted of the charge of fanatical bias. And the medical profession speak on the use of intoxicants not from the standpoint of moral but of natural law.

Railway Companies and the Drink Habit.—After correspondence with the general managers or other officials of twenty-six railway companies, including the largest on the continent and employing hundreds of thousands of men, we are able to report that we have discovered no railroad company whose employés are not forbidden the use of intoxicating drinks while on duty. Almost uniformly they tell us that in employing men preference is given to total abstainers.

Life Insurance Companies and the Drink Habit.—The position of these companies relative to drinking is not the result of any consensus of opinion, but of the collection of facts actually occurring as shown in the figures of their mortuary lists. Dr. Henry Tuck, Medical Director of the New York Life Insurance Company, wrote: "We are very confident that total abstainers stand a better chance of attaining a good longevity than what are known as moderate drinkers."

James W. Alexander, Vice-President of the Equitable Life Assurance Society, declares: "Other things being equal, I think we should always give preference to total abstainers."

Substitutes for the Saloon.—In a former report your Committee bespoke the favorable consideration by the General Assembly and by the churches of proposed schemes for counteracting the influence of the saloon by the establishment of places of resort that should be pleasant but not perilous. The saloon skillfully caters to men's social impulses, offering itself as "the poor man's clubhouse." Many who have as yet contracted no appetite for its baneful beverages are strongly drawn by its social attractions.

Why should not the "children of light" be equally wise?

The experiment has been tried, with a good measure of success, of furnishing means by which the social impulses and longings could be gratified without the accompaniments of vice and impurity connected with the saloon.

May this truly Christ-like philanthropy commend itself to the favor of our people not only in the metropolis but in other cities, so that the scheme may be realized in the near future in many places.

WHAT OF THE NIGHT?

As we close this Report, we are grateful to God that we can say to our brethren that from the watch-tower where you have placed us there are visibly glad "signs of promise." And even were it not so, that were no cause for disquietude, but the Lord's people should claim for the cause of Temperance what the sainted Judson claimed for missions—"the prospect is as bright as the promise of God."

The term of the following members of the Permanent Committee expires at this time: Ministers, R. D. Wilson, D.D., and C. W. Wycoff; Ruling Elders, George Irwin and Wm. C. Lilley.

Some months since, Rev. C. W. Wycoff having desired to be relieved on account of difficulty of attending the meetings of the Committee, Rev. Charles S. McClelland, D.D., was requested to act in his place. We now suggest that the name of Rev. Dr. McClelland, by act of the General Assembly, be substituted for that of Rev. C. W. Wycoff.

Herewith is presented the annual statement of our Treasurer, all of which is respectfully submitted,

By order of the Permanent Committee,

J. F. HILL, Corresponding Secretary.

Mr. Jacob Wilson, Recording Secretary.
Frank K. Hipple, Esq., Treasurer.

The Trustees of the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America respectfully report to the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America, in accordance with the requirement of the ninth section of its charter, the exact state of the accounts of the corporation for the year ending March 31, 1898.

These accounts are herewith presented and made part of this Report; and they consist of the Treasurer's annual account of the principal and income, showing the receipts and disbursements of both funds, together with the balances of each on hand at the end of the fiscal year, and a statement of the investments of the principal.

These accounts are accompanied by the reports of the Committees of the Board on Finance and on Accounts, with the usual certificates of these Committees as to the condition of the finances and investments of the funds as shown by the accounts and of the audit of the Treasurer's accounts.

The only legacies received have been these, viz.:

Under the will of George Sydney Camp, late of Oswego, N. Y., ... $396 69

Under the will of Robert Beers, residuary estate, . . 7123 09

Both of these were for the Presbyterian Board of Relief.

The disposition of these and of the various incomes received appear in accompanying accounts.

John J. McCook has sent to the Board his resignation as a Trustee. The Rev. John Beggs, D.D., also sent to the Board his resignation as a Trustee.

Andrew Blair, another Trustee, died on April 16, 1898. These vacancies ought to be filled at the ensuing meeting of the Assembly.

All of which is respectfully reported.

GEORGE JUNKIN, President.

JACOB WILSON, Secretary.

FRANK K. HIPPLE, Treasurer.

Philadelphia, April 20, 1898.

The undersigned, having examined the Cash Account of Frank K. Hipple, Treasurer of the Trustees of the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America, from April 1, 1897, to March 31, 1898, inclusive, and compared the vouchers with the payments charged, find the same correct; leaving a balance in the Treasury of two thousand four hundred and twenty-eight dollars and nine cents ($2428.09), of which two thousand two hundred and forty-nine dollars and seventy-six cents ($2249.76) is principal and one hundred and seventy-eight dollars and thirty-three cents ($178.33) is income, verified by deposit in bank.

SAMUEL C. PERKINS,
B. L. AGNEW,
JOHN H. CONVERSE,
} Committee on Accounts.

The undersigned have examined the Bonds and Mortgages and other evidences of property belonging to the Trustees of the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America, as set forth in the Treasurer's statement herewith, and find the same in proper order, and amounting at their face value, in the aggregate, at the close of the fiscal year, March 31, 1898, to seven hundred and twelve thousand and forty-four dollars and seventy-four cents ($712.044.74), adding to which two thousand two hundred and forty-nine dollars and seventy-six cents ($2249.76) cash balance of principal for investment, makes total Permanent Fund on hand at close of fiscal year, as shown on the books, seven hundred and fourteen thousand two hundred and ninety-four dollars and fifty cents ($714,294.50).

The investments are registered in the name of the Corporation, excepting seven thousand dollars ($7000) in Corporation Bonds, which are coupons, being securities specifically bequeathed to the Corporation, and which are kept in the vaults of The Real Estate Trust Company of Philadelphia.

CHARLES M. LUKENS, } Committee
R. DALE BENSON, } on Finance.

The Committee on Finance, in compliance with the first item of Article iv of the By-Laws, respectfully report to the Trustees of the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America, the investments, as set forth in the foregoing table.

V. Miscellaneous.

I. THE MILEAGE AND CONTINGENT FUNDS.

SPECIAL attention is called to the Mileage and Contingent System adopted by the General Assembly of 1870, and amended by the General Assemblies of 1875, 1877, 1884 and 1896. As amended it is as follows:

"The Committee to whom it was referred to consider and report a uniform system of Mileage, whereby full provision may be made for the traveling expenses of the Commissioners to our General Assemblies, and to meet the contingent expenses of each Assembly, respectfully report:

"It is affirmed, Form of Government, Chap. xxii, Section 3, that, 'in order, as far as possible, to procure a respectable and full delegation to all our judicatories, it is proper that the expenses of ministers and elders, in their attendance on these judicatories, be defrayed by the bodies which they respectively represent.'

"The principle is thus established, that provision should be made for the payment of the traveling expenses of Commissioners to the General Assembly. This provision should be made by the Presbyteries. As far as possible, the feebler Presbyteries should be aided in this matter by the stronger. It appears just and reasonable, and so has been found by experience, that the estimated contingent expenses of each Assembly, and the traveling expenses of the Commissioners in coming to and returning from the Assembly, should be fully met by the apportionment of the whole amount among the several Presbyteries, according to the number of their communicants respectively.

"It is therefore recommended—

"1. That the Standing Committee on Mileage, annually appointed, be instructed to present an estimate of the probable amount that will be needed by the next General Assembly, in order to meet their contingent expenses and the traveling expenses of their Commissioners, with a statement of the per capita rate, based on the number of communicants, that will be needed to secure the amount.

"2. That the Presbyteries, at their Stated Meeting next following the adjournment of the General Assembly, apportion the amount required of their churches as they deem best.

"3. That the churches be instructed to pay over their respective apportionments at the Stated Meeting of their Presbyteries next preceding the meeting of the General Assembly—the whole amount due from the Presbytery to be forwarded to the Assembly by their Commissioners.

"4. That, as early as the fourth day of the sessions of the Assembly, the apportionment of each Presbytery be paid in full, and a bill of the necessary traveling expenses of its Commissioners be presented to the Standing Committee on Mileage.—N.B. It is understood that Commissioners, both in coming to and returning from the Assembly, will avail themselves of any commutation of fares that may be offered in season; and that in other cases they are to take, when practicable, the most economical route; no allowance to be made for extra accommodations on the way. Also, that no one will charge for return expenses unless he intends to go back to his field of labor; and that no one on a business tour, or excursion of pleasure, will make a convenience of the meeting of the Assembly and expect payment of his traveling expenses from the Mileage Fund. Also, that Commissioners, as soon after their arrival as practicable, are to report themselves to the Committee of Arrangements, and have their respective places of abode assigned them.

"5. That the Mileage Committee, after appropriating from the whole sum an amount sufficient to meet the estimated contingent expenses of the Assembly, be instructed to audit these bills and that the Stated Clerk pay them pro rata (if found in accordance with the preceding regulations), as far as the funds will permit.

"6. That, in order to avail themselves of the proceeds of this fund, the Presbyteries must contribute their full proportion to it according to the per capita rate.

"7. That every minister, and every vacant church contributing to this fund, connected with the Presbyteries thus complying with the provisions of this plan, be entitled to a copy of the Annual Minutes of the General Assembly.

"8. That the Commissioners from Presbyteries in foreign lands receive their necessary traveling expenses, pro rata, from their place of residence in this country."

In accordance with this system, every Presbytery is requested to pay in full, next year, to the Stated Clerk of the General Assembly, a sum equal to one and one-half cents for Mileage, and one and one-half cents for Contingent Expenses, or in all three cents for every communicant under the care of their churches, as determined by their Statistical Report, herewith printed. This will entitle their Commissioners to a full share in the apportionments for necessary traveling expenses. It is expected that these expenses will be fully met, if the Presbyteries comply with the recommendations of the Assembly.

They are expected, also, to provide for an

ENTERTAINMENT FUND.

In addition to the Mileage Fund, the Assembly of 1877 made provision for a "Supplemental Contingent Expense Fund," to "be used for the purpose of meeting the expense of entertaining such Commissioners as are not otherwise provided for." Each Presbytery is requested to contribute to this fund a sum equal at least to one cent per church member, and to forward it, with the Mileage Fund, to the Stated Clerk of the Assembly. It is to be disbursed by the Committee of Arrangements, whose bills for entertainment the Stated Clerk, as Treasurer, is authorized to pay, after they have been approved by an Auditing Committee composed of the clerks of the Assembly.

☞See, also, Minutes of 1898, p. 137.

II. THE ANNUAL MINUTES.

The Minutes for 1898 will be supplied at One Dollar per copy, postage included. A copy will be sent, without charge, to the Stated Clerk of every Presbytery and of every Synod; also (in the case of every Presbytery that has paid its full apportionment to the Mileage and Contingent Funds of the Assembly), to every ordained minister, and to the Session of each contributing vacant church, whose address is known; also to every ordained missionary of the foreign Presbyteries.

III. SYNODICAL REPORTS.

A Statistical Report is to be forwarded to the Assembly by the Stated Clerk of every Synod; in which are to be stated the number and names of the Presbyteries within their bounds; the changes which may have been made in the number or arrangements of their Presbyteries; the names of the Stated Clerks of the Presbyteries; the place and hour of the next annual meeting; and the names of the Moderator and Stated Clerk of the Synod. A blank will be sent to the Stated Clerk of every Synod, near the close of the calendar year, which should be filled up, and forwarded, without delay, to the Stated Clerk of the Assembly.

IV. PRESBYTERIAL REPORTS.

It is required of every Presbytery to prepare and forward to the General Assembly:

1. A Statistical Report, according to the form exhibited on page 311 of the present Appendix; a printed blank for which will be furnished in due season, by order of the Assembly, to the Stated Clerk of every Presbytery. This Report should, if possible, embrace all the changes in the Presbytery previous to the first day of April.

2. A Narrative of the State of Religion within the bounds of the Presbytery, for the year ending April 1st. A blank for the Narrative was adopted by the General Assembly of 1891, and a copy will be forwarded to every Stated Clerk. By order of the Assembly of 1880, a blank for a Tabulated Statement of facts will annually be forwarded to the Stated Clerk of each Presbytery, to be filled properly, and duly reported to the Assembly. This Tabulated Statement should be sent to the Stated Clerk of the Assembly at least ten days before the meeting of that body. As the Narratives are not to be publicly read, less care may be given to their style, and more to the details of particulars, such as will aid the Committee of the Assembly in preparing their Annual General Narrative of the State of the Church. The blank for the Congregational Narratives, ordered by the Assembly of 1895, can be had from the Board of Publication. See Minutes, 1897, p. 123.

V. STATED CLERKS OF PRESBYTERIES.*

In preparing the Statistical Report, let the following RULES be strictly observed:

(1) Carefully copy the blank form and order of columns, etc., on page ☞311, Minutes, 1898, if a blank has not been received.

(2) Record ministers in the order of their MINISTERIAL AGE, with their CHRISTIAN names in full, without abbreviations, and their address on the same line, in the adjoining column.

(3) ☞Place the name of every Church and Mission Chapel opposite the name of its Pastor, or Stated Supply; never opposite the name of any other minister; if the Church is Vacant, place it at the foot of the roll. If the Church uses in worship a language other than English, indicate the fact by words such as German, Welsh, etc.☜

(4) Place, after the name of every minister, an abbreviation, denoting his occupation; e. g., P., for a Pastor; P. E., for a Pastor Elect; C. P., for a Colleague Pastor; A. P., for an Associate Pastor; S. S., for a Stated Supply; H. M., for a Home Missionary; D. M., for a District Missionary; C. M., for a City Missionary; T. M. for a Tract Missionary; S. M., for a Synodical Missionary; S. S. M., for a Sunday-school Missionary; P. M., for a Presbyterial Missionary; F. M., for a Foreign Missionary; Pres., for the President of a College; Chan., for a Chancellor; Prof., for a Professor of a Theological Seminary or College; Prin. for the Principal of an Academy, etc.; Sec., for a Secretary or Stated Clerk; D. Sec., for a District Secretary of a Benevolent Institution; Ag., for an Agent of do.; Ch., for a Chaplain; Tea., for a Teacher; Ed., for an Editor; Ev., for an Evangelist; H. R., for a Minister honorably retired; Col., for a Colporteur; Com. for a Commissioner; Supt., for a Superintendent; Libr., for a Librarian; and W. C., for other ministers without charge.

(5) Place after the name of every Church the abbreviation P., for one that has a Pastor; P. E., for one that has a Pastor Elect; S. S., for one that has a Stated Supply, and V., for one that is vacant.

* These rules were adopted as a whole by the General Assembly of 1891. See "Minutes," p. 181.

(6) If a Church fail to report, let the "whole number" of communicants be given as reported to the Synod, or to the last Assembly, with an asterisk (*) in the column of communicants, denoting the fact.

(7) In the Additions to the Church, distinguish between those on examination and those on certificate; in the Baptisms, between the adults and the infants; and be careful to observe the order of the columns in which these particulars are recorded.

(8) In the Losses to the Church, distinguish between (1) those dismissed and erased, and (2) those deceased. Under dismissed and erased, place the total number of communicants dismissed, suspended, erased or dropped by purging the Roll.

(9) In the report of "Funds" contributed, observe the order of the columns, and the directions of the Assembly of 1871 (Minutes, 1871, p. 589) as modified by the Assemblies of 1873, 1874, 1883 and 1887, as follows:

1. Home Missions. To include all moneys collected, whether for the Board, or for any Home Missionary operations, including Presbyterial Mission Schools, value of boxes, Ladies' Societies, etc.

2. Foreign Missions. To include all contributions for the spread of the Gospel in foreign lands.

3. Education. To include all that is given for the education of Candidates for the Ministry, whether to the Board or otherwise; and for Theological Seminaries.

4. Sabbath-school Work. To include all moneys contributed to the Board of Publication and Sabbath-school Work for their Missionary work, Sabbath-schools included, and for Synodical and Presbyterial Depositories.

5. Church Erection. To include all contributions for Church Erection, outside of the congregation, whether through the Board or otherwise.

6. Relief Fund. To include all moneys contributed for the support of disabled ministers, and Missionaries, and in aid of their families.

7. Freedmen. To include all moneys contributed to the evangelization and education of Freedmen, whether through the Board or otherwise.

8. Synodical Aid. To include all contributions to the Synods for Synodical Sustentation.

9. Aid for Colleges. All given for Presbyterian Colleges, Academies and Schools, whether established for the education of males or females.

10. General Assembly. To include all given for ecclesiastical expenses, whether in Presbytery, Synod, or General Assembly.

11. Congregational. To include all moneys contributed for the congregation, the salary of the minister, the support of the Church Sabbath-schools, the relief of the poor of the congregation, building and repairing churches, liquidation of debts and current expenses.

12. Miscellaneous. To include all other collections, for Bible and Tract Societies, etc., and for general benevolence.

Be sure to omit the fractions of the dollar, except in the General Assembly column.

(10) The names of the Licentiates are to be recorded immediately after the list of Ministers, in the same column, with their Address in the next column; but of the candidates—including all who are studying for the ministry under the care of the Churches of the Presbytery—the number only is to be given.

(11) ☞ADD UP☜ and verify every column of figures, and Authenticate the Report with your signature.

(12) Annex a statement of the number of licensures, ordinations, installations, dissolutions of pastoral relations, organizations, receptions and dissolutions of churches; also, any changes in the names of Churches; and the decease (with age, date and place) of Ministers since the last Annual Report.

(13) Avoid erasures and interlineations, make names and numbers distinctly legible, and punctuate properly.

(14) Affix no extraneous matter, such as memoranda, explanations, or orders for the delivery of the printed Minutes of the Assembly; let these be given on a separate sheet; also, every Overture to the Assembly.

Revise your Report, and find out its defects. Put in the commas and periods that are wanting; fill out the abbreviations; supply the Christian name of every minister (an initial letter is not a name), and see that every name and figure is perfectly legible.

☞Forward the Statistical Report by April 25,* but if anything should prevent the forwarding of the Statistical Report in time for the meeting of the General Assembly, let it be sent at the earliest date possible to the STATED CLERK OF THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY, the Rev. W. H. Roberts, D.D.

* See "Minutes," 1890, p. 37.

IX. STANDING ORDERS AND RULES.

1. The General Assembly meets invariably on the third Thursday of May, annually, at 11 o'clock A.M.

2. The credentials of Commissioners and Delegates are to be presented at a previous hour of the same day, or of the preceding day, according to public notice, to the Stated and Permanent Clerks, acting as a Permanent Committee on Commissions.

3. The Lord's Supper is to be celebrated by the Assembly on the evening of Thursday, the first day of its sessions.

4. The dates assigned to popular meetings are as follows:

The evening of Friday, the second day, to the Board of Publication and Sabbath-school Work and the Sabbath-school interests of the Church.

The evening of the first Saturday to the Board of Aid for Colleges and Academies.

The afternoon of the first Sunday, to the Woman's Executive Committee of Home Missions; the evening, to Young People's work for Home and Foreign Missions.

The evening of Monday, the fourth day, to Missions among the Freedmen.

The evening of Tuesday, the fifth day, to the Home Mission Work.

The evening of Wednesday, the sixth day, to the Foreign Mission Work.

The evening of Friday, the eighth day, to the cause of Temperance.

5. The reports of the Standing Committees shall be considered at the times herein designated, viz.:

Ministerial Relief, Saturday, at 10 o'clock A.M.

Freedmen, Monday, at 10 o'clock A.M.

Education, Monday, at 3 o'clock P.M.

Home Missions, Tuesday, at 10 o'clock A.M.

Aid for Colleges and Academies, Tuesday, at 3 o'clock P.M.

Foreign Missions, Wednesday, at 10 o'clock A.M.

Publication and Sabbath-school Work, Wednesday, at 3 o'clock P.M.

Church Erection, second Thursday, at 3 o'clock P.M.

Benevolence, second Thursday, at 7.30 o'clock P.M.

Temperance, second Friday, at 3 o'clock P.M.

6. That the Standing Committees on Home Missions and Foreign Missions have each two and a half hours; and those on Education, Publication, Church Erection, Ministerial Relief, Freedmen, Temperance and Aid for Colleges, have each one and a half hours. That the Secretaries and the Chairmen of the Standing and Special Committees be requested to make their statements within the limits of half an hour.

7. The Stated Clerk shall receive all Memorials, Overtures, and other miscellaneous papers addressed to the General Assembly, shall make record of the same, and then deliver them for distribution or reference to the Committee on Bills and Overtures. All complaints and appeals, however, shall be transmitted by the Stated Clerk directly to the Judicial Committee.

8. All Special Committees appointed by one General Assembly to report to the next Assembly, shall be ready to present their reports on the second day of the session.

9. The Stated Clerk shall have printed and ready for distribution, so far as practicable, on the morning of the day fixed for their consideration, the resolutions appended to the reports of Special Committees appointed at previous Assemblies to report at that meeting.

10. The Stated Clerk and Permanent Clerk shall be a Committee to revise the phraseology of all papers sent down to the Presbyteries to be voted upon, provided that in no case shall this Committee so change the phraseology as to alter the meaning [1886, p. 113].

11. The Stated and Permanent Clerks shall be a Committee to supervise the publication of any and all editions of the Constitution, hereafter issued by the Board of Publication, and also of the Rules for Judicatories [1886, p. 113].

12. Each Board and Permanent Committee is instructed to send up its minutes with its report, that these minutes may be reviewed by the Assembly on the report of the appropriate Standing Committee [1885, p. 690].

13. A sufficient number of the Reports of the Boards and Committees shall be forwarded by them to the place of meeting of each Assembly, prior to the day of meeting; and a complete file of the same, stitched together, shall be delivered to each Commissioner [1886, p. 77].

14. In all regions where, through the organization of Union Presbyteries, there are no Presbyteries in connection with this Assembly, each mission organized as such under our Board of Foreign Missions may send to the General Assembly an ordained missionary, or ruling elder, as a delegate; and the Standing Rules of the Assembly are hereby so amended that such delegate is entitled to sit as an advisory member in the Assembly, and to speak, under the rules, on all questions, and that his expenses from his domicile in this country to and during the Assembly and return, shall be met as those of Commissioners, out of the funds of the Assembly [1887, p. 247].

15. No person shall serve as a member of a Board who is an executive officer or employé of said Board, or a member of any other benevolent Board of the Church; and no more than one ruling elder from the same congregation shall serve on a Board at the same time [1887, pp. 51, 108].

16. Any vacancy occurring in the membership of any of the Boards of the Church during the interval between the Assemblies, may be filled until the next succeeding meeting of the Assembly, by the Board in which such vacancy may occur [1887, p. 128].

17. The Moderator is authorized to fill by appointment any vacancies which may occur, by resignation or otherwise, in any of the Special Committees [1892, p. 209].

18. All resolutions for the appropriation of money, outside the Boards, should be brought before the Finance Committee, before action by the Assembly [1892, p. 199].

19. The recommendation of any particular congregation to the benevolence of the denomination, by the General Assembly, is not to be understood as creating either a legal or a moral obligation upon the Assembly for the payment of the amount recommended to be contributed by the churches [1892, p. 36; 1893, p. 41].

20. All Overtures must be presented to the Assembly not later than the fifth day of its sessions.

21. The Stated and Permanent Clerks shall be a Committee to have the oversight of arrangements for the entertainment of the General Assembly [Minutes, 1896, p. 130].

22. All Reports of Special Committees shall be delivered to the Stated Clerk, thirty days prior to the meeting of the General Assembly, and shall be printed by him and delivered to Commissioners in bound form on the second day of the sessions [Minutes, 1897, p. 144].

23. Upon the original appointment of any salaried executive officer, of any of the Benevolent and Missionary Boards of the Church, such appointment shall be subject to the approval of the General Assembly.

GENERAL RULES FOR JUDICATORIES.

The following "General Rules for Judicatories," not having been submitted to the Presbyteries, make no part of the Constitution of the Presbyterian Church. Yet the General Assembly of 1871, considering uniformity in proceedings in all the subordinate judicatories as greatly conducive to order and despatch in business, having revised and approved these rules, recommended them to all the lower judicatories of the Church for adoption. The rules were amended by the General Assemblies of 1885 and 1887.]

I. The Moderator shall take the chair precisely at the hour to which the judicatory stands adjourned; and shall immediately call the members to order; and, on the appearance of a quorum, shall open the session with prayer.

II. If a quorum be assembled at the time appointed, and the Moderator be absent, the last Moderator present, being a commissioner, or if there be none, the senior member present, shall be requested to take his place without delay, until a new election.

III. If a quorum be not assembled at the hour appointed, any two members shall be competent to adjourn from time to time, that an opportunity may be given for a quorum to assemble.

IV. It shall be the duty of the Moderator, at all times, to preserve order, and to endeavor to conduct all business before the judicatory to a speedy and proper result.

V. It shall be the duty of the Moderator, carefully to keep notes of the several articles of business which may be assigned for particular days, and to call them up at the time appointed.

VI. The Moderator may speak to points of order, in preference to other members, rising from his seat for that purpose; and shall decide questions of order, subject to an appeal to the judicatory by any two members.

VII. The Moderator shall appoint all committees, except in those cases in which the judicatory shall decide otherwise. In appointing the standing committees, the Moderator may appoint a Vice-Moderator, who may occupy the chair at his request, and otherwise assist him in the discharge of his duties.

VIII. When a vote is taken by ballot in any judicatory, the Moderator shall vote with the other members; but he shall not vote in any other case, unless the judicatory be equally divided; when, if he does not choose to vote, the question shall be lost.

IX. The person first named on any committee shall be considered as the chairman thereof, whose duty it shall be to convene the committee; and, in case of his absence or inability to act, the second named member shall take his place and perform his duties.

X. It shall be the duty of the clerk, as soon as possible after the commencement of the sessions of every judicatory, to form a complete roll of the members present, and put the same into the hands of the Moderator. And it shall also be the duty of the clerk, whenever any additional members take their seats, to add their names, in their proper places, to the said roll.

XI. It shall be the duty of the clerk immediately to file all papers, in the order in which they have been read, with proper indorsements, and to keep them in perfect order. The Stated Clerk shall receive all overtures, memorials and miscellaneous papers addressed to the judicatory; shall make record of the same and deliver them to the Committee on Bills and Overtures for appropriate disposition or reference. This committee shall have the floor on the reassembling of the judicatory after each adjournment, to report its recommendations as to reference of papers, and this right of the committee shall take precedence of the Orders of the Day. This committee shall report the papers retained by it as well as those recommended for reference to other committees, and no committee shall report on matters which have not been referred to it by the judicatory.

XII. The minutes of the last meeting of the judicatory shall be presented at the commencement of its session, and, if requisite, read and corrected.

XIII. Business left unfinished at the last sitting is ordinarily to be taken up first.

XIV. A motion made must be seconded, and afterwards repeated by the Moderator, or read aloud, before it is debated; and every motion shall be reduced to writing, if the Moderator or any member require it.

XV. Any member who shall have made a motion, shall have liberty to withdraw it, with the consent of his second, before any debate has taken place thereon; but not afterwards, without the leave of the judicatory.

XVI. If a motion under debate contain several parts, any two members may have it divided, and a question taken on each part.

XVII. When various motions are made with respect to the filling of blanks, with particular numbers or times, the question shall always be first taken on the highest number and the longest time.

XVIII. Motions to lay on the table, to take up business, to adjourn, and the call for the previous question, shall be put without debate. On questions of order, postponement, or commitment, no member shall speak more than once. On all other questions, each member may speak twice, but not oftener, without express leave of the judicatory.

XIX. When a question is under debate, no motion shall be received, unless to adjourn, to lay on the table, to postpone indefinitely, to postpone to a day certain, to commit, or to amend; which several motions shall have precedence in the order in which they are herein arranged; and the motion for adjournment shall always be in order.

XX. An amendment, and also an amendment to an amendment, may be moved on any motion: but a motion to amend an amendment to an amendment shall not be in order. Action on amendments shall precede action on the original motion. A substitute shall be treated as an amendment.

XXI. A distinction shall be observed between a motion to lay on the table for the present, and a motion to lay on the table unconditionally, namely: A motion to lay on the table, for the present, shall be taken without debate; and, if carried in the affirmative, the effect shall be to place the subject on the docket, and it may be taken up and considered at any subsequent time. But a motion to lay on the table, unconditionally, shall be taken without debate; and, if carried in the affirmative, it shall not be in order to take up the subject during the same meeting of the judicatory, without a vote of reconsideration.

XXII. The previous question shall be put in this form, namely, Shall the main question be now put? It shall only be admitted when demanded by a majority of the members present; and the effect shall be to put an end to all debate and bring the body to a direct vote: First, on a motion to commit the subject under consideration (if such motion shall have been made); secondly, if the motion for commitment does not prevail, on pending amendments; and lastly, on the main question.

XXIII. A question shall not be again called up or reconsidered at the same sessions of the judicatory at which it has been decided, unless by the consent of two-thirds of the members who were present at the decision; and unless the motion to reconsider be made and seconded by persons who voted with the majority.

XXIV. A subject which has been indefinitely postponed, either by the operation of the previous question, or by a motion for indefinite postponement, shall not be again called up during the same sessions of the judicatory, unless by the consent of three-fourths of the members who were present at the decision.

XXV. Members ought not, without weighty reasons, to decline voting, as this practice might leave the decision of very interesting questions to a small proportion of the judicatory. Silent members, unless excused from voting, must be considered as acquiescing with the majority.

XXVI. When the Moderator has commenced taking the vote, no further debate or remark shall be admitted, unless there has evidently been a mistake, in which case the mistake shall be rectified, and the Moderator shall recommence taking the vote. If the House shall pass the motion to "vote on a given subject at a time named," speeches shall thereafter be limited to ten minutes. Should the hour for adjournment or recess arrive during the voting, it shall be postponed to finish the vote, unless the majority shall vote to adjourn; in which case the voting shall, on the reassembling of the House, take precedence of all other business till it is finished. Under this rule the "yeas and nays" shall not be called, except on the final motion to adopt as a whole. This motion to fix a time for voting shall be put without debate.

XXVII. The yeas and nays on any question shall not be recorded, unless required by one-third of the members present. If division is called for on any vote, it shall be by a rising vote, without a count. If on such a rising vote the Moderator is unable to decide, or a quorum rise to second a call for "tellers," then the vote shall be taken by rising, and the count made by tellers, who shall pass through the aisles and report to the Moderator the number voting on each side.

XXVIII. No member, in the course of debate, shall be allowed to indulge in personal reflections.

XXIX. If more than one member rise to speak at the same time, the member who is most distant from the Moderator's chair shall speak first. In the discussion of all matters where the sentiment of the House is divided, it is proper that the floor should be occupied alternately by those representing the different sides of the question.

XXX. When more than three members of the judicatory shall be standing at the same time, the Moderator shall require all to take their seats, the person only excepted who may be speaking.

XXXI. Every member, when speaking, shall address himself to the Moderator, and shall treat his fellow-members, and especially the Moderator, with decorum and respect.

XXXII. No speaker shall be interrupted, unless he be out of order; or for the purpose of correcting mistakes, or misrepresentations.

XXXIII. Without express permission, no member of a judicatory, while business is going on, shall engage in private conversation; nor shall members address one another, nor any person present, but through the Moderator.

XXXIV. It is indispensable, that members of ecclesiastical judicatories maintain great gravity and dignity while judicially convened; that they attend closely in their speeches to the subject under consideration, and avoid prolix and desultory harangues; and, when they deviate from the subject, it is the privilege of any member, and the duty of the Moderator, to call them to order.

XXXV. If any member act, in any respect, in a disorderly manner, it shall be the privilege of any member, and the duty of the Moderator, to call him to order.

XXXVI. If any member consider himself aggrieved by a decision of the Moderator, it shall be his privilege to appeal to the judicatory, and the question on the appeal shall be taken without debate.

XXXVII. No member shall retire from any judicatory without the leave of the Moderator, nor withdraw from it to return home without the consent of the judicatory.

XXXVIII. All judicatories have a right to sit in private, on business, which in their judgment ought not to be matter of public speculation.

XXXIX. Besides the right to sit judicially in private, whenever they think proper to do so, all judicatories have a right to hold what are commonly called "interlocutory meetings," in which members may freely converse together, without the formalities which are usually necessary in judicial proceedings.

XL. Whenever a judicatory is about to sit in a judicial capacity, it shall be the duty of the Moderator solemnly to announce, from the chair, that the body is about to pass to the consideration of the business assigned for trial, and to enjoin on the members to recollect and regard their high character as judges of a court of Jesus Christ, and the solemn duty in which they are about to act.

XLI. In all cases before a judicatory, where there is an accuser or prosecutor, it is expedient that there be a committee of the judicatory appointed (provided the number of members be sufficient to admit it without inconvenience), who shall be called the "Judicial Committee," and whose duty it shall be to digest and arrange all the papers, and to prescribe, under the direction of the judicatory, the whole order of proceedings. The members of this committee shall be entitled, notwithstanding their performance of this duty, to sit and vote in the cause, as members of the judicatory.

XLII. The permanent officers of a judicatory shall have the rights of corresponding members in matters touching their several offices.

XLIII. The Moderator of every judicatory above the Church Session, in finally closing its sessions, in addition to prayer, may cause to be sung, an appropriate psalm or hymn, and shall pronounce the apostolical benediction.
